

STORIES FROM HEAVEN

VOLUME 1
BOOK TWO OF FOUR

MAY 26, 1970 - MAR 16, 1971

STORIES FROM HEAVEN®

Copyright © 1996 FRANCES MARIE KLUG

All rights reserved.

This volume may not be reproduced in whole or in part in any form without written permission from the publishers.

This was done to protect the exact content of all the Teachings and Revelations due to the importance of Them.

First printing 1989
Second printing 1992
Third printing 2008

Volume I, Book Two of Four ISBN 1-892957-01-9

Printed in the United States of America

Published By:
The City Of God
Saint Joseph's Hill Of Hope
Post Office Box 1055
Brea, California 92822

www.TheMiracleOfStJoseph.Org

PREFACE

These “Stories From Heaven” could not have been given to the world at a more appropriate time than now. The world is in a terrible state of corruption and confusion politically, religiously and socially. Honesty, modesty, genteelness and morality seem to have been eliminated from our way of life, at least in effect if not consciously. However, God has given the world a Miracle it needs.

On July 28, 1967, The Miracle Of Saint Joseph was formally announced to a True Mystic. God had chosen a woman to give us the sound direction, hope and example we need. It was not the first time God had chosen a woman to accomplish His Purpose, always for a specific task in a particular time. This True Mystic for our day is Frances Marie Klug. She resided in Southern California as a wife, a mother, and a grandmother until her death on November 15, 2009.

In This Miracle Of Saint Joseph, Many Saints have come forth to speak through Frances Klug. These “Stories From Heaven” are just a few of the thousands of Revelations received through her. Very often these Revelations were preceded by extensive Teachings which time and space did not allow us to put in print. However, some of these Teachings will be found in several of the many Volumes of "Stories From Heaven".

In these Revelations The Saints refer to Frances as "the child", "the funnel", "the spoon", "the instrument" and "the little one". God made her our Spiritual Mother. For many years now, because of this fact, she has been called "Mother Frances", or simply "Mother". Heaven also refers to people of all ages as "children" and emphasizes time and again, This Miracle is for people of all races, all colors and all creeds.

For someone turning the pages of these "Stories From Heaven" for the first time, they will easily recognize the sound logic and sound direction the Messages contain. Mother Frances heard the Words with the Ears of her Soul, and would repeat Them aloud when she was told to do so.

This Teaching Miracle is a direct parallel to the time Our Lord walked the earth. He did not loudly proclaim to everyone, "I am The Son of God." He taught in a quiet manner, simple, extensive, but always detailed in repetitiveness, instilling in those listening what He wanted them to remember. He taught in parables, short, simple stories containing moral lessons. He knew men could more easily understand and remember the point He was trying to make this way. His “Teaching Stories” pertained to everyday living, practical matters, and how to become a Saint. He gave hope through these stories. He gave example.

Now in our time, God is once again giving us “Teaching Stories” through Saint Joseph and His instrument, Mother Frances. Through her, in a quiet, unassuming and genteel way which appears so “natural”, mankind is again being taught the Purpose of life, and what God expects man to be like in his daily living. People feel hope in these Teachings, Example always given.

Two major Revelations of significance have been given for us in our day. Our Heavenly Mother is Part of The Divine, and Saint Joseph is truly The Holy Ghost. These should not bring an immediate rejection, but should pique our curiosity and interest.

Our Faith in God is based upon many mysteries. Whether it be The Holy Trinity, the Incarnation of God, or The Holy Eucharist, men strive to understand These, trying to grasp a small glimpse of the Beauty of the Truth They Are. These mysteries also pique our imagination and interest. However, even though we know God revealed these mysteries to mankind and we accept them in Faith, they still remain just that, mysteries.

One has only to look at these “Stories From Heaven” to see the value They are, and to feel the hope They instill. No man can logically deny purity of thought when it is so obvious. No man can deny purity in direction, when it is based on sound morals, sound values, sound standards. Do not be blind to truth. Skepticism is for people who are unable to see the truth of a matter or situation, and many times skepticism drowns out purity because it is full of ego and pride in one’s self. Skeptics find it an easy out to disclaim truth.

There is no doubt that it takes time for such Phenomena as This Miracle to penetrate even those minds who feel they are capable of discerning such Phenomena. We must not be governed by purely another man’s determination, but we must understand that logic, sound reasoning and purpose must be the criteria of our Faith in God.

PLEASE READ

In some early volumes of “Stories From Heaven”, many Revelations describe edifices to be built on Saint Joseph’s Hill Of Hope. As just one facet of The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, God invited men of all races, colors and creeds to participate in building a “City Of God”. Every building, chapel, bridge, shrine, garden, amphitheater, and even a hospital and a research center, to be included in this Magnificent Project, would be designed down to the most minute detail by Heaven.

This City Of God would be a place of great beauty for men throughout the world to visit, to gain true spiritual strength and to learn firsthand that which Heaven wants all men to know.

Much to the great loss of every man, woman and child in the world, this City has not been built. Innumerable obstacles were placed in the way of Its completion by those who would have benefited the most. Not enough men volunteered to return the gifts of their time and talents to God. Not enough people came forward with the money needed to participate in God’s Plan in a monetary way. Donations became less and less, because the men in the Church said, “Don’t give.” They discouraged people from participating.

For many years, Mother Frances and a handful of volunteers made every effort to overcome all opposition to men’s lack of wisdom, to build this City for God. However, we are not at a total loss. The Sound Teaching and Sound Direction given by Heaven in the many volumes of “Stories From Heaven” continued through the years, and will benefit people everywhere for many generations to come.

In the future, if the hearts and minds of men change, the world will one day see the Beautiful City Of God.

All Revelations are delivered spontaneously and continuously as witnessed by all those present at the time.

MAY 26, 1970 AT 10:20 A.M.

“My daughters, I am a Saint, not always known by man, but as I stand in the Realm of the Heavens, I work on command to help the children who stand in the realm of the world as man.

My tasks and duties when I was on earth were various ones, for I termed myself ‘a clerk’. I did menial jobs in a monastery, and when I would kneel, I would thank God for the small things He entrusted me with, for I realized then that every small act I performed in His Way was a step to The Father to live in the Divine Way. At first I wondered if what I was doing had merit at all; it seemed so small, but one day I felt the urge to do more of the little things that sometimes were such a bore.

As I knelt in the chapel one day on my knees, I heard a Voice say: ‘More little acts, please. So many children are careful to act when there’s only big things to be performed for Me, but the smallest act done by you is sometimes more Grace-giving than a big one you do. The smaller the act, sometimes, the bigger the sacrifice, by a child such as you.'

So I say to you, children: 'Don't escape doing the small acts in life. Offer them up in sacrifice to The Father Who says, "Come to Me with the small ones and My Graces will outweigh them, for the small ones, My children, are the ones that I chose for you to perform, for I knew that many others would lack the humility to do them."'

I found that humility was a strength, not a weakness. I found when I felt pride I was the weakest. So I say to you now, 'Be humble in prayer, be humble in love and God is right there.' When man walks in pride he's too busy, it seems, to recognize Love from The Supreme Being. So I say with much love, 'The easiest way to Heaven Above: be humble in all things, perform little acts, but remember to do them in love.' So Many Saints have come This Way because of an accumulation of little acts, small words They did say, to help another Soul come This Way. So be it."

MAY 26, 1970 AT 10:30 A.M.

SAINT ANNE

“I am Saint Anne, the Mother of Mary. As I stand in the Heavens I am alerted to many mothers who walk a precarious way, for they do not realize that selfishness can tear them away from the truth of the way that they must walk, in the beauty of motherhood God gave to each one. It is sad to see so many women turn from the duties that are expected to be.

In the time I lived, we had problems too, but there was much consciousness of what we must do. The daily act of living with the chores and the problems were as difficult then as the ones of the day, but too few children now turn to pray, for they feel they can solve things in a different way. Not so. It was not then, it is not now. No man is this self-sufficient. Only The Father knows all things and is prepared to act in a moment's decision.

If you children here would encourage others to seek help in prayer, there would be fewer problems. For decisions to be made, prayers should be said. For judgments to be made, prayers are needed ahead. The Justness of God is far beyond yours, and so many children are judged harsher than they should be in the realm of the world, who feels adequate as He.

The children you know, of younger years, need kindness, direction, and yes, many prayers. We hear many mothers say, 'But they don't listen.' We say, 'Nor do you, for you have not knelt to pray in a long time.' It's the only way, the Rosary of Love, the prayers devoted to Her; call on The Father, to The Trinity and Her. So many Souls could be helped by these prayers but so many children are too busy to hear.

Give Rosaries as presents. Give them quite often. Give them the directions so they'll have no excuses to not say the prayers. Encourage the men to think of Her often, to go to Her as a Mother, for that's what She is. My Daughter, Mary, The Mother of Jesus, is now The Mother of all men.

I say this with Love, I say it with Knowledge, I say to you from Heaven Above, 'So many Blessings when you walk in truth.' You feel so much love when you call for direction. Love God so much that He's in all your thoughts for He is The Father, and all you know, He's taught. Walk often to Him in His House of Love. Talk to Him there, for your visits He loves. Every child that you meet will feel Him in you. You'll give them strength for He'll radiate from you. I bless you right now with the Cross of His Love, the Cross that did say, 'My Blood is shed for My Love.'"

MAY 27, 1970 AT 11:50 A.M.

“My children, if every child in the world got one glimpse of Heaven and then returned to the world they live in, nothing would please them again, for their minds would only think of Heaven. Other reasons there are, too, why children are not let seen the Beauty that awaits them in the Realm of The King.

When man hears royalty is somewhere around, his curiosity is aroused and he inwardly would like to see the royalty that man carries with him; for he knows that such a way of life has dignity, purpose, security in many ways, and materially is fine. Man’s thoughts immediately go to looking, so he can see. He feels they’re favored in many ways.

In the way of man this could be said true, but now I say to you, ‘A Far Greater Gift is every man’s and he can be personally involved; that is, loving God, serving Him and going to Him regularly. No royal position, as man, can be as great as this, for the Blessings gained to walk like this are far beyond those that surround the royalty of man.'

So many men are inwardly aware what loving God can be, but their will directs them otherwise, in a way they feel is free for, remember, the royalty of man does not say he's free; there's much responsibility to walk as he, and when man truly walks in the love for God, there's certain things he's bound to: to be good, to ignore sin, to teach others what it's all about, to be example of the way, to be constantly concerned about the Soul that God wants returned.

A need for prayer is evident, for so many men are spending every day in torment. So little true happiness reigns, for most men live for only self-gain, to be important, to be right. How foolish these things are in God's Sight. So I do say to you here: 'Live each moment, looking to the light that shines from Heaven right here. Follow the beam and one day you will be Here.'

God's Love will help you in your strife. All you need but do is ask. What father does not help a child when the child does ask? So it is with The Heavenly Father. His Love is So Great that He is constantly watching over every step you take. Not so with fathers who are men, for many times the children they do love are not within their sight, and if every parent realized that when the child is out of sight, that they call on The Father to remind Him to keep the child in sight, He smiles and says, 'I am, for no child do I neglect, but I love to hear you call on Me this way.'

Each day you live as man, call constantly to Him. You could talk all day and He would hear each man. His Power is beyond your knowledge, so don't worry about this. Keep talking and keep praying. He loves to hear you say, 'Please, God, help me with this.'

I leave you now and I do say, 'The Love that came to you today is God's Power through a Saint; through a child of His.' So be it."

MAY 27, 1970 AT 3:25 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“So many children call My Name because of what they’ve heard. I say to you: ‘I am your Mother, and when you call My Name I answer you with Love in a special way. I often whisper extra Words to you when you do pray the Rosary of My Way.’

All the Saints are coming forward to perpetuate God’s Way, to aid The Miracle of Joseph that is on the Winds. The Winds of Power, driven by God throughout the world you live in, are bringing His Name, His Way, and telling His Power.

Oh, little children, I do love you. These Words I say with Love. Get other children to kneel and say the prayers that I do love. More power is in these prayers than I can tell you of, for as you say them repeatedly I gather Souls for God. Remember too, the Rosary can be called the Beads of Peace, the Beads of Love, the Beads of Strength, the Beads of Courage, the Beads of Truth. The Cross is to remind you of My Son. The special prayer on the Cross is beautiful to hear. The one that follows, to The Father, is beauty to Our Ears. The Beads that call to Me, I listen to and hold most dear, for when I hear the words I know another Soul is near. Don't set the Rosary aside, please, My little ones.

Sometimes the children act in pride so no one else will see or hear this beautiful devotion to Me, for many men are fighting it and putting it to the rear, and saying, 'Don't bother saying it, it's no longer to be here.' Nowhere did The Father give this command, nor did He ask Me to stop this in His Plan. So I do say to My little ones that I do hold dear, 'Perpetuate the Rosary, bring many Souls to Here.'"

MAY 28, 1970 AT 11:35 A.M.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“My children, every day is important to God; also important to man, but man sometimes says, ‘I’m unoccupied today,’ and he wanders off, sometimes in sin. He knows that a lack of activity, a lack of prayer, a lack of direction can bring him nowhere, so man is foolish, for this lack will only cause him despair. If man were to realize that sin comes easy, he’d look to prayer each hour that he becomes uneasy.

I am Saint John Vianney, and I do say to you, ‘I walked the earth as man and I was fully aware of the waste that man allows, and of how sin can cause despair.’ The tiredness I often felt, after a busy day at hand, was usually hated by the enemy of God, for then he’d work real hard and tell me what I did was only a facade, a coverup for personal gain, a coverup for personal satisfaction in His Way.

The delicate mechanism of man can be strengthened by the prayer he says, as man, to The Father Who does love him all He can. When man says 'I love you' to another man, there's happiness between them for there's security at hand, but the feeling that they feel, the knowledge of security is small compared to the time they say to God, 'I love You.' A love affair in the way of man is happiness to him. It's stimulating, has enjoyment, and gives purpose to his plan; but truly being in love with The Father of all men is Love no words can describe, and the feeling is one in which there's always room for more growth, more excitement, more peace, more tranquillity, more love. If every man who says, 'I love You, God, so much,' if he would learn to love Him more, no evil could he touch, for the beauty of the love that man would feel each moment, would give him strength to fight against the stench of evil.

All through time so few men have been example in the way of loving God above all things. You've read stories saying, here or there, man did sacrifice and prayer, and loved God above all things. Some you have not heard of and some you never will, but the outstanding ones were men like you. Remember this each day, and desire very much to fall in love with God so much that nothing else matters, so when you face Him one day, the Beauty of His Love will show you all the things that are in Heaven Up Above. Don't say, 'This is not for me, I'm not good enough.' False thinking here, for now's the time to fall in love. So be it."

MAY 28, 1970 AT 11:50 A.M.

SAINT MICHAEL

“I am Saint Michael. The Father has asked Me to deliver These Words, to talk of the Cross. The Cross is your sign of love. The Cross was His Sign of Love. The Cross is your way to love. The Cross was His Way to Love.

Each time that man does venerate the Cross, he says to God The Father:

‘I believe in the things that You have said, that You have done, and that You Will to be. Through the Cross I wear today, please let it be my way to Eternity. Help me bear the one You gave me with strength, courage and much love; but most of all, dear God, help me grow so in love that I will, one day, ask You to make the cross I bear heavier than You first gave, so I can save children for You here.’

A beautiful way to live for God. Show the Cross you love to every child who sees you, to remind them of Up Above, and then remember to say often the words that He does love: 'I love You, God. Help me to bear the cross well.' So be it."

JUNE 2, 1970 AT 3:15 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“I am Saint Francis of Assisi, and I say to you: ‘Join the order of the children that are dedicated to The Father in the way of life you stand. Don’t think that to follow God’s Words, to be solely in love with Him, wholly drawn to do only what He Wills, that only the religious state you must be in. This is not true, for if it were, so few Saints would be Here in Heaven, for don’t forget, My children, the majority of men walk as you, the state in which you live; but, as you walk, remember this: to dedicate your life to the Purpose God did mean for it; and do not be fearful of all strife but counteract it with prayer.’

Be more patient with others. Be kind where there is fear. Be gentle where there is roughness. Be courteous with those who are ignorant. Be zealous with those who are lazy. Be awake for so many sleep. Be alert to the evil that surrounds you. Be demonstrative in love for Him. When you love man, you somehow show it.

When you love God, you find all means to hide it.

Think of your life as it is. Make the changes that must be made and grow in love with Him. Don't think it's for another one, These Words I say to you. They're for each child in this room, and many others too. Tonight, before you lay your head, cross yourself and say:

'I love You, God. Help me know the pattern I must use in prayer and acts of love suited to my way. I know that I must learn real slow, so every step I take will be so strong within my heart that I will be ready to take a bigger step on the way to You. I love You, God, thank You.' So be it."

JUNE 3, 1970 AT 11:10 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“All through the world children need more knowledge of what must be. Children must be shown the love for the Rosary. Some children have never seen the Beads of Love to Her, so I do ask each child here to spread this love She so deserves. As each bead is said, She smiles and says, ‘Another child is taking the time to say the Beads to help other Souls to reach Here.’ It is not a useless prayer and not one of the past. It’s as modern and up-to-date as anything can be. Teach the children what it truly means.

When I hear daughters speak, I listen to each word. I heard you mention gossip, and I say quite firm: ‘The way you speak must be for God, the way you love must be His Way; the way you walk each day must be the way to Him, the way for Him, the way in Him, that you feel. The words you say to everyone you meet can radiate His Love if you will but allow the Grace to show from thee.’

Sometimes, when disturbance is allowed, it magnifies itself. Sometimes the less that is said diminishes what you feel, for satan says: ‘Enjoy yourself. Be kind to yourself. Love yourself before all else, before all things. Be quick to notice what is wrong. Be observant and say the things that come readily to your mind, for when you do, others will think more of you.’

When Our Lord walked the earth, many, many times people would say many things against The Divine. Sometimes, too, they would belittle the walking of His Way. He knew the power of silence and would never say the things He knew would satisfy Himself alone. What better example could man have than this one alone?

When children of a little age are hurt or feel neglected, they oftentimes cause disturbances with what they say or do, for they are hurt and need attention. So it is when children of other ages, too, feel hurt or neglected, they feel the need to do. So many things must be taken care of in this way. Charity of love for them is not for another day.

It is true, there are hurts, there is loneliness, there is fear, but remember, God is always Here. Trust Him; do not deny your trust to Him. Love Him; do not cheat yourself of the Beauty of this Love. Do not let just the formal prayers be your words to Him, but talk to Him childlike and He will always have a grin; for when He holds you in His Arms, if you were to really feel Him you'd probably be frightened, for at the lightest touch of Him, the Beauty and the Love that would radiate from Him would make you know how weak you are, and all that you would want would be to be with Him.

The daily strife, the daily worries, the daily cares must be handled at the moment, but you will find if you will trust more in the Divine Plan, the things that cause you turmoil will be less painful to you then. You deal with wills and not just man. You deal with likes and dislikes governed by the will. You deal with hates and loves, also governed by the will. You deal with weakness, distrust, motivated by the will.

That is why it's so important to learn so much to trust Him with all you are, with all you have as such. You cannot learn to love Him to a great amount without, first, the desire, the trust, obedience to His Will; and then the time will come and He will allow you to know the Beauty of His Love, the Greatness of His Love, the Magnitude of His Love, the Perfection of His Love. So be it.”

JUNE 3, 1970 AT 2:35 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man is quick to determine things to his satisfaction, to his way of thinking, to what pleases him most. Instilled in him is to care for himself. Through certain means he often dedicates much time to a personal viewing of his way of life: what it should be, what it can be, what he would like it to be; but he fails to see it as it is, for to acknowledge this would be, he knows, time for certain changes. If the changes would mean greater popularity, greater material gain, more abundance of attention, he would look into things well, or perhaps welcome the chance of this happening.

Let Us now look at each one here, not in a mirror that shows only the surface, but in truth of being. Line up these questions and answer them for yourself alone.

First: In my hours today, were they all for me? Did I waste many or did I serve God to a degree?

Two: When I awoke, did I think of Him? Did I wonder or decide how I would please Him?

Three: Did I yet thank Him for today, for what I am, what I have, what I am to be?

Four: Did I make changes for the better? Did I make decisions to follow Him more steadfastly, more purely, more unselfishly, more directly?

Five: Do I desire to love only Him? Do I want to grow so in love with Him that nothing else will matter? Do I intend to submit wholly to Him? Am I on the road to complete trust in Him? Am I willing to be obedient to only Him?

Think much, My children, of these things, and work on each one soon, and then do pray much for help in changing your ways soon.

This Revelation is a Blessing, not in disguise, but in Truth, for when you look into It well, you'll realize what growth there is yet for you. Some children scandalize the truth by laughing at its beauty, by belittling the magnitude of it, and by ignoring it as it is, truly a duty. Man expects man to reach for perfection, but nowhere does he tell him, 'I know exactly where you can find this'; for no man really knows except to look into himself and be truthful with the answers he comes up with.

So now I say to you, 'A Gift of Love has just been given to you.' Return It with love. No better way to say, 'Thank You.' So be it."

JUNE 5, 1970 AT 12:25 P.M.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART

THE SACRED HEART

“If at this moment, in the sky, a Bleeding Heart would appear, many children would run for their lives in fear. So few would recognize the Beauty to behold, for to them the phenomenon would cause them only fear, for nowhere in their lives have such things occurred; but, always in the sky there is a Heart that bleeds, and all men do pass by, ignoring What is there.

This day is set aside by man to signify God’s Love. Every day is a day that man should realize His Love. It is good, though, to see many men concerned with this special day that reminds them of The Heart that was given in a very special way.

Men connect much importance with the heart they have. It is their life and a point that they hold dear within. I say to you, My children, The Heart that shows Itself to you is The Heart of Love for all men that God created from a Love beyond man’s knowledge, and is always there. Every drop of Blood that It does shed is out of love for man. Each sin that man falls into causes harm to this Heart, causes wounds. All the wounds that affect this Heart are never seen by man, for if it was seen, The Heart would be in shreds, but God holds It together so when men do see It, they only see a Beauty and the Love that's in It.

If every man would give up sin, The Heart would no longer bleed, for It would have a Glow that all men could see, and when they saw It, they could not feel fear, for It would be a Beauty that they would hold most dear. I know of What I speak for the Heart is Mine, and I ask each child that's here to try to make It shine. When you permit a falsehood or a sin, stop and think of what you've done, and make a promise then that you'll have no part of the shredding of My Heart, and you will only cause the Light to begin.

The Miracle of Joseph is on the Winds of Power. From the time He was first chosen much Love came from Him, and nowhere in His life did He cause any shredding. So I say to all men to imitate This Man. Never did He doubt what He was asked to do, when He was once assured of its truth. All through His life He was careful as He lived as man, for He knew the Beauty of God's Plan.

I join My Heart with yours, and as They touch, I say to you, 'Let the love of yours radiate a love so bright that when others see the Light, they will come to Me for advice on how to make their heart like yours.' I love you, not just this day, but every day you live, and I do say with Love, 'I gave My Heart so you could live.' So be it."

JUNE 11, 1970 AT 10:45 A.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I smile at the child who delivers My Words to you. The Words are correct, They are All Truth. I will vouch with My Love for Them, for Joseph was My Spouse among men. The time is now for this Beloved Saint of God to be recognized the way The Father deigns it to be. The Father says, ‘The children have not learned enough about Thee.’ Joseph smiles and says: ‘Your Will, My God, must be carried through for Me. I know many children will be surprised to hear so much Oratory from Me, but they will become accustomed to the Words and the Decrees.’

My children, the Rosary I love must flourish in all parishes soon. Make a point of gathering others to these prayers that carry a power and a love, a comfort and a peace each time they are said. Gather My sons to say them too, for when the depth of their voices ring true, it brings Me pleasure and I have less concern for their future; for, I know if they will bend their knee in this love to Me, they’ll gather strength and think before they sin. Have it in evidence to them, for when they see it some might even grin, for it brings back memories or thoughts of things in their life that had been.

The many children who have never had the privilege to learn this prayer, introduce it to them and they will find a strength in the learning of this prayer. In many Visions I have asked the children to say these prayers aloud, to be reverent when they do, and sometimes I have been known to join with them. I will join with you each time. Remember this.

Any time you feel a personal problem, distrust or apprehension, do not accept the company of man alone, but come to Me, for what mother does not understand and want to console? Ask Me to lift the heaviness, to help you better understand what must be for you among men. Also, go to Joseph, for He protects where no one can. Learn to call on Him above all men.

I leave you now, but with My Love. I cross you with My Hand. The Cross is to give you strength to stand among all men. So be it.”

JUNE 12, 1970 AT 11:40 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, I hear you speak of prayer. I hear you limit prayer. I say to you with love, ‘I am Saint Joseph and I’ve come to instruct you on the fullness and the meaning of prayer.’

So many children lack the discipline to pray. What they do not realize is that prayers are the way to seek God’s Help, to talk in a special way. If children were without special prayers to say, they’d lack the words, and communication would not be as full with The Father Who is there. There are certain prayers, in a special way, are full of meaning, full of love, full of purpose; and when heard Above, the petition that goes with them alerts God to the child’s love. He always smiles at His children when they pray, for what father doesn’t enjoy recognition from the children he loves? Get a pattern, children, one in which you’ll follow every day, with love and understanding. Make it this way:

First: Begin the day with the Cross, and tell Him then you love Him and do offer Him the day. Then walk to the railing of His Love and receive The Holy Eucharist and look to Him all day.

Second: Set a time for the prayers Our Lady loves to hear, the Rosary of Love to Here. Grow in love with this prayer and it will bring you peace, but it will also give you strength to conquer many things.

Next: Through the day, acts of love in a prayerful way. Beseech The Father to govern everything you say so no unkindness will come from you in another's way. Every step you take, thank Him for the way, but be sure you ask Him to put you on the path He wants you to be on without delay.

At the end of day, think much of what you did and say. The closing prayer should be in thanks, with a promise that you will try much harder the next day. Don't look at other men for strength, for remember, they, too, are weak and need strength. So follow through, My little ones, and turn to Me each day for protection in the way of life that you must walk each day.

I leave you with My Blessing, which is The Father's Power. I raise My Hand to your head to remind you of His Power. I take it to your breast where the Heart of My Son does rest, and now I cross your shoulders and ask The Holy Ghost to bless your life with love for God and with the will to do your most. So be it."

JUNE 15, 1970 AT 1:35 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“I sit in the center of the floor on a throne-like chair. I encircle you around Me to tell you how I care. Two at My Knees, one on each side, pick the place you wish to be, and now I say, ‘Cherish, My daughters, the Love I have for thee.’ The love is as a mother’s, special in a way, but remember that it’s one that is understanding in most ways. When you feel the need to determine right from wrong, never question coming to Me. Discuss the matter, right or wrong, and the decision will be easier for thee.

My Son did give His Life in an ultimate way for thee, and when I stood and watched the terrible things they did to Him, I asked The Father to forgive and to help them in their sin. Upon His death, I walked away, knowing that His Will to love The Father perfectly had been fulfilled. From childhood on He knew that one day it would come about, that He would give His Life for man, to show man what life was all about.

Decisions will have to be made by each of you. Remember, daughters, look to the light of truth. Make your decision as He would have made it and never worry over the consequences from man, for many men are driven by the enemy. So, if you follow truth, nowhere will you fail. Remember, daughters, love Him, show your love and nowhere will you fail.

I ask each child to remember My Prayer, to remember the love that can be shared. Never be without My Beads I love, for they will be strength, give you courage and love. If I were to say, 'Tomorrow a decision must be made,' what would you do first, become anxious or pray? Would you depend wholly on you, or would you trust solely on Us? Remember, each day, walk in His Way, glow in His Light and pray in His Way. Depend wholly on Him; seek Us, not with dismay, but with delight. Let Us be friends each day. Remember, My daughters, to come only This Way.

I leave you now but I shall return. I will ask you questions. Think first, ask help, call on Us. I love you, I bless you. So be it.

- 1. Do I fight temptation or do I react to its pleasure?
- 2. Do I make my own decisions or do I trust in answers to my prayers?
- 3. Do I pray daily or do I neglect depending on prayer to aid me?
- 4. Do I realize that The Holy Eucharist is food for my physical as well as my Soul?
- 5. Do I examine my day or do I pass it off, when night comes, with a frivolous attitude or with indifferent thinking? Or, do I wonder how to improve the lack I felt, the neglect I showed my living?
- 6. Did I dismiss the Rosary from my thinking or did I just neglect it to do something else? Or, did I remember how important it was to Our Lady, and did I say it to please Her as She has so often requested Her children to do?

7. Do I offer my way, do I offer my acts, do I offer my words, for the sins of man?
8. Do I desire Sainthood or do I just take each day as a matter of fact and not think of it in a special way?
9. Do I pass off the things that are necessary to perform, as I would if I lived next door to The Holy Family, knowing that Jesus was so good? Think of this one, My children. Picture yourself as a neighbor. Would you act the same way then as you do now to a neighbor?
10. Do I take for granted what I am, what I have? Or, do I see a purpose for my way of living?

Go over these questions, answer them well. Think into them deep, and discuss them with Me when We are alone some night before you sleep. So be it.”

JUNE 22, 1970 AT 2:25 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, sacrifice is good, sacrifice is necessary to grow, sacrifice is food, for it keeps a child steady on his feet, humble in his way, thoughtful in his purpose and obedient in a way. Sacrifice means giving, or giving up what is good, what is meaningful, what is special, in a way.

Penance is another thing to perform each day. It's a means of saving Souls, and also, with the penance that you know, it strengthens you against the evil things, for when man lets penance become a habit, and he dedicates this way, it helps him in a special way and makes him grow in the Divine Plan.

The child* spoke to you of The Eucharist; Holy Eucharist, My children. Remember that, each day you can, to receive It. It's strength-giving and it's showing the love you have for Him.

My little ones, I know that you are familiar with the beauty of the Rosary and the strength that comes from it. Do say it every day, and remember this: the total number of Mysteries is fifteen. Work up to it, My children. It is part of the scheme to help you honor Her and to love Her more perfectly. So many children do neglect to even say the five. They say it's tiring, monotonous, and they cast it aside. It's necessary, has a purpose, and must be said by all. Our Lady asked that it be done, and The Father stands behind Her through it all.

So please, My little ones, open your heart to all the things you know are right, and too, pray much to The Sacred Heart. His Love is shown to you and He does join with you, asking you to love Him as openly as He does you.

Come to Me for protection, for guidance and much care. Ask My Protection when you fear, and I will be there. I love you for your thinking, for your way, and what you will; but, children, be obedient to God's Will. So be it."

JUNE 22, 1970 AT 3:25 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My sons, I rest My Right Hand on your shoulder, on your right shoulder, to be exact; and I stand to the left of you, which shows you I encircle you with My Arm. This is Protection, My sons, it is Love. Remember this position when decision must be made. Don’t make it yourself; look to Me, ask My Advice, and I will be there. When you entertain the wrong decision, don’t make it. It could be detrimental, hazardous in many ways.

On this day, on the morrow, on the next and thereafter, begin the day as if a new chapter were about to take place. Begin it well, begin it right. Be open with your thought, but above all things, have Me in mind. Make The Sign of The Cross and make it well. Call on Me. I am your Father, One of Three.

My sons, do not waste the moments of the day in idleness, in laxness and only in play, but fill the time, use the energy I gave, to give you the Direction and the Purpose of

My Way. The sadness I behold when so many sons do stray is, they did not ask My Help on decisions that day. Each day you live is Mine. Each word you say, think first, and know that I am present, and think, 'Would I say this in front of Him or would I want Him not to hear the words I so frivolously display?'

When you walk into a door or you walk on certain streets, remember, I am with you. Are you proud of where you are or do you feel a pang of guilt? Think well, My sons, and guide yourselves by My Presence every day. You'll walk much stronger, happier, and feel more worthwhile every day. Do not ignore Me for I'm there and never will I leave.

So many men feel that if they do not call on Me they are free to do as they please, so they decide it's easier to be without Me. If I allowed you one glimpse of Hell, the shock would make you ill. If I allowed you the stench of Hell, you could not stand the smell. I gave you senses and I did say, 'Enjoy them,' but I also said, 'Be good, trust Me and return to Me.'

My sons, I could speak much. Let your youth, My present first, be spent in growing in My Way. It will save you from much hurt. If you were to see a baby step from the curb into the way of a car, you'd jump to her, for you would not want her to be hurt. Is this not so? How many times I've pushed your shoulder from just such a hurt. So, if I've done it all along and am fully ready to continue on, would it not be wise then, My sons, to be one with what you know is truth, what you know is good, what you know is Love from Me to you? So be it."

JULY 1, 1970 AT 2:10 P.M.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“My children, I come through the child to dramatize a Miracle, to teach you the worth of a Miracle to man. I am Saint John Vianney and I come through the suggestion of The Father to greet you today, for the perpetuation that the Name of The Beloved Saint, Saint Joseph, be scattered throughout the lands, be evident to every man, for man to have confidence in Him and the Divine Plan. A Miracle such as This is to give Strength, to give Hope, to give Purpose, to give concentration on What is His. As It touches each life It leaves an indelible mark. Remember this.

The many prayers you’ve offered gained many Graces for you, and in many ways, gave you a strength you could not describe. The difference between this strength and what you receive leaning upon man for physical needs is so tremendous in size, so different in all ways, so do not try to understand but accept with love and praise.

A little child must go to the Communion Rail of Love to receive What is there from the Man of God, who is an instrument for Him Who Is. The children who deprive themselves neglect to receive the power of strength that is in this act of love to Him.

Many times I witnessed children struggling against sin, struggling with the hope to win, but forgetting the most important part, trust in Him. Many men walk in fear, concerned with just that moment. The Beauty of a Miracle is happiness within. It is not just for one moment, but lasts, and can be regained if the child feels a slipping from the way; just ask for Love from Him.

Across the lands man says, 'I know that there's a God but I have not seen Him, nor have I seen Him nod.' The Father smiles and says, 'The very life you have is My nodding with My Love to you each day you live.'

Man looks for Miracles to solve all problems of the day. What man sometimes does not understand, that the Miracle is to let his will do the Will of The Father every day. I smile when I do say this for every man alive has the power to dedicate his life to The Father Who stands High. So, now that you have heard what Miracle can come about, I cannot help but wonder which child will shout, 'My will is Yours, my God, use it as You want'; and remember, do not withdraw it when you feel the want.

I bless you with My Blessing, the Power of The Father, to ask you one final favor: to thank Him for what It's all about. Teach others much about Saint Joseph. Give them prayers to say, and kindly say to them, 'He is the Saint of today.' So be it."

JULY 6, 1970 AT 1:45 P.M.

“My little ones, these signs are familiar to you. One is the Crucifix, one denotes suffering, the other says royalty. All men have an awareness of these things.

Man very often jokingly or seriously says, ‘My cross.’ He uses this term for unpleasant things pertaining to his life. Some men refer to it because of physical disturbance; some, because of emotional problems; some, because they are unhappy with earthly gains. He looks to suffering with distaste, fear, whereas it could be consolation, growth in the Way of God and in the way of life as man. He never seems to understand the purpose of suffering.

I ask you, My children, on this day, to look at it differently. It has a purpose, it has a meaning, it has an aim. Those whom you meet, who suffer greatly, can be consoled by you with your new understanding of it. They will gain strength from you through the truth of what you know, through the strength of what you know. What better way to walk than to serve God through man. No man's cross is heavier than it should be, but man determines its weight logically and sometimes with self-pity.

The crown of royalty, as man knows it, can be yours, each child here; not through bloodstream, but through acceptance of the Way of God. My little ones, walk only to the truth of each thing you meet. Use a sieve so that only the truth will remain and the untruths will seep out; a wise way to walk, a happy way to love, a full way of living.

If I were to stand visually to each in this room and say to you thusly, 'Are you capable of loving?' you would readily say, 'Yes.' I would then say to you, 'How much of the love is for thyself, how much for The Father?' If you were to use the sieve on this truth, you would find that the greater amount would be for yourself. I know this, My children, for I know all truths. I say this because I truly love you.

You are children of God, created by Him for a Purpose of His. With no public announcement to each other, establish between yourself and God, a promise to love Him more and love yourself less. In this act of love, in this dedication of being, in this acknowledgement of truth, you will find a peace, a joy, a tranquillity and a contentment, far beyond your knowledge.

As you stand as man, there is a weakness of each. Please, My children, do not just accept the weakness, but correct it. Institutions, as man knows them, are full of little humans that are so in love with themselves they refused to look for strength. They felt it was too much work. Not so. It is, in reality, less work; but man, in his desire to complicate the Beauty of The Father, uses every means to rationalize and to cater to his weaknesses.

I am a Saint and I speak from knowing. As you stand before God you are individual, for you were born such. The little Souls, of whom you are in charge, will have to stand before God alone. God will know what direction, what support, what benefits, what truths you instilled in them, for as He gave them the physical, the will and the Soul, He left you responsible to direct each thing. As is, how would you judge yourself and the innocent? Would you say, 'I deserve the crown of thorns to make more reparation for my failings,' or would you say, 'God, I deserve the crown of royalty for the beautiful way I served'? Today, My loved ones, could be the most important day of your lives. In many ways, it is.

Take the scale of love. On one side put self, on the other side The Father. Balance it truthfully, be honest with what you find. Do not reward yourself quickly but look to The Father and depend solely on His Justness and His Mercy. I do not say, 'Walk the earth in gloom.' Walk it in happiness, in truthfulness and in love. So be it."

JULY 9, 1970 AT 2:00 P.M.

“Man depends on power plants for certain things. He depends on men with the knowledge of power to instruct him, to direct him, to guide him. I add to These Words, God is All Power. Look to Him for the True Power of life. As you stand, as you kneel, as you walk, as you lay, the Power of God generates around you, truth, the reality of life, the Purpose of being, and Love from Him. To turn on the light, man knows that power must be generated to fulfill the act. To turn to God for Direction, Truth, there is no effort on man’s part needed, except to speak to The Father.

How easy it is for man to live in all truth, but man complicates all things by his lack of obedience, his lack of self-discipline, his lack of trust in God’s Way. Do not allow yourselves to be antagonistic, cause perplexities to others, be skeptical of truth or critical to hurt. Look to the other side and say:

*‘Let only kindness be my way.
Let love generate from me to show what must be. Let my acts of every moment be for
The Father first, then me.’*

Do not let the physical necessities become so strong within you that you neglect what must be. Remember, too, that as you walk in the way of man, you are never alone in God’s Plan. As there are Three in One in Him, there are three in one in you. You walk every moment of life thusly: your Soul, your body and your Guardian Angel — a constant unit, a purposeful unit, a necessary unit, designed by God, to bring you to Heaven.

You are only aware of the physical. Become more aware of the Spiritual surrounding you every moment of your life. Today, for instance, recognize the purpose of the body. Realize the Beauty and the Purpose of the Soul, and accept the necessity of your Guardian Angel, Who, so often, quickly removes you from danger, from harm, from serious occurrences, from falling into sin when someone has disarmed you in the physical way.

Ask yourself, too: ‘If the three of us now stood before The Father, what would He see? Would the Angel be happy? Would the body project love for Him? Would the Soul be glistening to please Him?' Much thought should be given to what He would see and then, My children, improve on what must be.

You say that man is foolish if he does not feed his body. A man can be well-fed and yet be starving the Soul that must be fed. If two men were having repast and one suddenly said, 'No more food is yours from now on,' the other man would soon be dead; and so it is with each man's Soul. Sometimes the starving takes top role, and man would die of shame if he could see the flickering light that the Soul had while It remained. Those children who feel selfishness important, I say to you from Heaven: 'Reject this thought. Selfishness is a tool of satan and he uses every means he can to draw you from The Father, for he envies every man.'

Much has been said to you today. Think more on what the Words do mean for each child here. Look at yourselves as three, not one, and feed the Soul well. My tasks on earth were as man. Responsibilities I had. I, too, walked as three in one. I know the way it must be done, so carry on, My little ones. Learn more about The Father. Radiate His Love to man through His Power. So be it.”

JULY 17, 1970 AT 2:00 P.M.

Note: This Revelation was given to young children.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I come today to reveal My Way. I come to teach in a special way. What you have learned must be known by all children through the world.

The lack of self-discipline causes sin. The lack of obedience pleases satan, for he says, ‘They’ll never reach The Father acting this way, as man.’

Be humble, children, in every way. That’s why it is necessary to kneel and pray, for as you kneel it says to God, ‘I love You, God, in a special way.’

Remember too, to walk each day in happiness, in kindness, in love, in everything you do, and when you play, let every game that you’re in be fun and give you strength; and it is no sin to want to win, but do not make winning so important that it will cause you to sin.

The eyes The Father gave you are to see all beauty with. They are to lead you every day to Him, but do not ignore the dangers that might lurk where evil is. So, when you see it, do not stay, but walk away from it.

The nose that He did give you is a special part of you, so treat it well, use it right, and make it work for Him.

And now I take you to your mouth, a main source of sin. Learn not to lie, for when you do, evil is within. Before you speak, think first, and say then to yourself, 'Will my words be a help or will they cause hurt to someone else?'

And now I take you to your hands. Use them only for much good. Be careful where you put them and dedicate them for God's good.

And now I take you to your body. Much is here for you. Let it be all for God from you.

And now I take you to your feet. Where will they lead you to? To Heaven or to Hell? Which would you choose? A foolish child would not choose Heaven. So remember, little ones, to learn to walk, to learn to climb to Heaven, one step at a time.

I am Saint Joseph, the Father of Jesus, as man. I bless you on this day from Where I am. These moments will remain forever without end. I leave a mark upon your heart, a special one from Him. Be good, be kind, be self-disciplined. Remember, too, obedience in everything you do. Be humble in all things and show your love for Him. So be it.”

JULY 21, 1970 AT 4:00 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My son, My daughter, choose tranquillity as your way of life. Choose peace as a means to live. Choose kindness to be performed in abundance. Choose generosity to be a guideline for He Who Is. As you walk in the way of man, see the Beauty that is His. As you walk each day, be concerned with all things that must be His. The Crowns in Heaven are many. The Purpose of your life as man, one.

Be sure, My children, you look for the Divine Plan in your daily way of living. Trust wholly in Him. Be subservient to Him, be dedicated to Him. Total commitment is a beautiful way to live. Love Him first, above all things. Look to Him first, before all things. Seek Him first among all things. Ask Him first, before all things. Live this way, love this way, cherish this way, be this way. Oftentimes He has seen you alarmed and He says, ‘Be tranquil, be in peace, it will pass.’

This Miracle of Love is for all men, from Above. It’s teaching all children to seek Me, to love Me, to recognize the Power I behold. I am Saint Joseph, My children. I do not stand alone. Our Blessed Mother stands Here too, working diligently for Souls such as you. The Holy Trinity as One, wants to gather each child, each Soul, each Guardian Angel totally.

The special prayers that you sometimes think about, must be said, must be accomplished by you, for Him Who's Here. Be awake at what is right, be alert to the truth, be conscious of Him. So many things must be done by you in more service to Him. You say sometimes, 'The time is not there.' I smile and I say, 'I understand,' but I add, 'In the carpentry of My day, time was scheduled to say the acts of love, the prayers needed to develop this way.'

Oh, My little children, if you could but realize the Power, the Love, the Beauty in the Gift He has each day, standing at the Altar, for each man to come His Way. Do not be blind to such a Gift. Do not close out His Love. Do not determine all things your way, but sacrifice for Him Above. Again I whisper in your ear, 'Do not omit the prayer She loves to hear, the Rosary of Love to Here.’ Keep Me by your side, seek My Way, be obedient to His Will, as I was then and am today. He is All Love, remember this, and work real hard to come This Way.

I bless you with My Love from the Heavens Up Above. The Father says, ‘Remind them, Joseph, that I am Here to stay.’ So be it.”

AUGUST 6, 1970 AT 1:20 P.M.

OUR LORD

“My beloved children, you are gathered in My Name. You are aware of the Cross I carried for you and there are times you have felt the weight of a cross, not a visible one like Mine. So many children wonder if the path they are taking or have taken is agreeable to Me, or the one in which their Souls will be saved in Eternity. I say to you now, ‘Do not look back but look at now.’ Say to yourself, ‘Today I begin an organized, deliberate path for Him.’ Let charity reign, and let perseverance in The Father’s Way drive you on in work or play to do the Will you know is His to say.

Much prayer is needed in the physical living way, for how else can you communicate with The Father? It is true, acts of love can be done by you. It is true, you can be good and walk in truth, but let Me say, too, ‘Prayer is a definite way to talk to The Father, to Me, in a special way, for many Graces are given you when you use humility this way.’ An act of humility can be shown by kneeling and saying to God alone, 'I love You and I kneel to show my Reverence, to show the Honor I feel.'

Do not let one day pass without receiving The Holy Eucharist, Who I Am. Remember, when you say, 'Amen,' you close the prayer began by the Man of God who is there, and when you close your lips and We are One, think only of the Beauty in this Act of Love. When you rise to walk away, you carry Me inside, so be sure to pray. Do not let distractions turn you away; remain One in unity this way. I could talk and you would listen, but it would not mean more to you than the quiet union with Us Two. Know that as you walk to receive Me from the Man of God, there is an anticipation that you cannot describe.

When you leave the House where I am, be in joy, be in peace, be in calmness within. I love you, for why else would I allow so much? Remember, prayer is an important way to keep in touch. I offer you My Hand to lead you Here to Me. Be sure you hold it tight, constantly.

I bless you with the Cross that I once hung upon. The Cross itself was not a beautiful one, but the purpose for which it was made and done was the Beauty that you know. The Crucifixion; to man it is a frightening thing, and yes, it had to be done, to prove Love and to save each child to return to God. So keep it in mind as you go your way, and when you stumble be sure to pray. I love you, in a special way. So be it for now.”

AUGUST 27, 1970 AT 2:55 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My son, My daughter, I see you with the Eyes of a Saint from the Power of God. I speak to you through His Power, through His Light. You walk on a road with worldly pleasures, worldly aims, interested in many games, but the truth of life is not a game. It’s one of Purpose, one of security, one that must be Heavenly in aim.

Each day you meander in your own way, remember to call upon The Father in many ways. Never be without Him and never depend solely in man’s way, for if you do, weakness will be for you; and now I add a special thought: Seek much The Mother’s Love. Ask Her to help you in all things, and remember, too, to pray to Her for all things. The beloved Saints stand ready to hear your prayer, to hear your call, and when you mention Their Name, They immediately respond and say: ‘I hear you, child, do not fret, do not worry. I will help you in the way that is best.’ So, never are you alone, never can you say that you do not feel the Presence of The Father today.

Be wise and be sincere, but be happy in the simple things of life that you hold dear. Do not let mistakes be so great that you forget to smile when you are awake. Each morning offer Him the day and ask His Love to be your way. He smiles upon each child that does this thoughtful little act of love. I add to you My Love too, and say, 'I am Saint Joseph and I have come to give you These Words today.'

I bless you with a Love. Do not let stubbornness guide your way, for if you do, it will rob you of much joy, much love, and much in God's Way. So be it."

AUGUST 28, 1970 AT 11:20 A.M.

OUR LORD

“My children, My love, I set before you life, in a small form, but with Magnificent Purpose. From the moment of conception I am there, guarding and guiding the physical growth to the height of perfection. I include all things necessary to sustain the physical. I give the child a Soul, a Guardian Angel, a will, and I whisper many things to each child. I whisper My Love. You call it Faith. I whisper Direction that the child must take.

Through the hours of living, in growing, other men use their wills to train, to teach, to direct, to guide, to guard, to instill thinking that they have come upon, through others such as you. When man speaks of life, he oftentimes omits the Purpose of the physical way and he dwells on the physical needs, desires, likes, dislikes, weaknesses. He becomes so confused, so involved with the way his will feels that he eliminates the Will of God, the Power of God, the Purpose that God has for the creation of man.

More men must begin to stand up My Way. More men must become so totally in trust of What I want, What I say, that they will face all issues My Way.

Many Teachings are being given through this child, My Way. I direct Them All. I give Many Myself, each day. One sentence I now say must be passed on to others, to convey My Way: ‘Stop catering to your weaknesses, to your pride, to your self-love, and grow in obedience, humility, and love for God above all things.’

I close My Words with a Blessing. I bless you in the Name of My Father, Who is also your Father. I bless you in My Name. I bless you in the Name of The Gift of Light, The Holy Ghost. So be it.”

AUGUST 31, 1970 AT 11:40 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“In the early days man knew of a Superior Knowledge, Superior Being, to the need of It, and to be one with It. All through time men have been alerted to the dignity of truth. At one time men were crucified because they believed in a Divine Power, a Power not seen with the physical eye. Now, too, man is being called on to stand up for truth. Martyrdom is not of the past but of now. Man connects this word with dying, when, in truth, man can be a living martyr for truth; but to be a martyr, in a true sense of the word, means to be shed of all doubt that The Divine Three is Where all men must be eventually, for all time.

Right now, Holy Mother Church is in need of many, many, many prayers to be said for clergy, for religious orders of nuns, for vocations, and for laymen to return to prayer. This will solve all problems. In this way, God will be seen, He will be heard, He will be obeyed; and egotistical men, prideful beings, will be pushed to the background instead of the foreground.

God does not say man should not stand before other men in greatness, but He does say, 'Those who are outstanding among men must stand in dignity, in integrity, in obedience to the Laws of God, recognizing a Divine Power.'

Man is searching for answers, screaming for truths, but he is looking to man for the answers. Man does not have the answers. The world has been experiencing materialism, self-love, pride, egotism, sinful gains. Again Sodom and Gomorrah is evident, but man, in his worldly knowledge, is making excuses that are weak, for the conditions of their time is now.

It is time that man awaken to The Holy Eucharist's Power. It is time for the clergy to encourage daily Mass, daily reception of The Holy Eucharist. It is time that man begin to know the power, the strength, the courage, that is given at this receiving.

It is time that man set aside a given hour once a week to gather many men in the outward action of the Rosary, closing this magnificent devotion to The Queen of Heaven with the Benediction of Prayer. Fight for this until you get it.

Also, man is to be encouraged to make daily visits to The Blessed Sacrament. There is no reason why it cannot be done. The Father is tired of excuses.

I end this Revelation with one word: 'Pray'. So be it."

AUGUST 31, 1970 AT 2:00 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“The Father has chosen this time to permit the Miracle that is Mine to be on earth for all mankind. The purpose of This Miracle is to bring to mind the necessity to walk for The Divine.

My years as man were as yours. Each day I did the tasks that meant the livelihood for the Ones I held dear. I greeted each day in the form of prayer, knowing there would be downgrades in certain affairs, but as I reached home at the end of day, I was always welcomed with love and repast to aid the physical way. It was good to be able to look forward to the Face of My Wife, the Love of My Child, and the solitude of My home.

When illness would strike, We took care until all was right. We welcomed love and kind thoughts from friends and neighbors whom My Son taught. I often said, ‘How little they know of Whom they are serving through this act of love,’ but as The Father Willed it so, We lived in a natural state, where Our Lives were like other men’s. You, too, have walked in this state. You, too, are aware of a true fate. You also know that to return to The Father you must grow in Faith of What He Wills, What He has said.

My little ones, at any age of time you can join the truth that is Divine. Forget what was, if it tears you down, and begin anew and forget to frown. Be in joy, be in peace. Have zeal for a new beginning. Be conscious of it now. Say more prayers, pray more for others, and do not limit yourselves to just certain hours, but as you think of it, at any time, say some prayer to The Divine. Men have written many words, praising much The Father, asking for forgiveness, and promising that they would change and turn their thoughts to doing all of good. Words are fine, but remember that when you pray to God The Father, be as a child. The Heavenly Court hears every prayer, knows every action that is there, so do not try to fool anyone, for no act is a secret, no thought never seen, no prayer not heard.

Blaspheemies are sometimes easy for man, for they let off steam; sadness for any man to submit to this. It would be better if he would turn to prayer instead of it. Daily Mass, the daily receiving of Him Who is there, the daily Rosary, the daily prayer — strengths no man can give.

Many, Many Saints are Here, ready to tell each child the Beauty that is Here. The Miracle of Mine is proof of this. The beloved Saints have intervened and told so many children things to help them understand, to help them accept, to help them turn their thinking where it suits God best. The road of life is long for some, short for some, but many men can grow to love The Father much in a given time.

My little ones, do not feel that time is short. This is not for you to feel, but treat each moment with love and give it to The Father with total commitment to His Will. The way He will allow you to grow in His Way will be tremendous, and one day when you face Him, He will show you how, in a short time, in using every moment, you absorbed so many Graces that your cup was filled.

I bless you with My Love, which is a Heavenly Love, One in which much Love is given, to strengthen, to encourage, to give courage, to create peace, tranquillity, direction. The Cross I make is one that the Man of God does make when he absolves you from your mistakes. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 3, 1970 AT 12:55 P.M.

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

“Many times you have heard My Name. Many times you have called My Name. Many times you have heard it spoken. Mine was the ‘Little Way’.

Many times man prays for Me to teach My Way. Many areas of God’s land I appear in, in God’s Way. It is true, He allows His little Saint to work for Him in obvious ways to comfort man. As I stand in the Heavens Here with Him, I notice how He lets so many children in who have followed the little path of love to Him.

One day I noticed Him speaking to a child through whom I had taught others, for awhile. I smiled on the sight and was anxious to hear The Father’s Thoughts on what the child had done to come Here. Eventually I was called, and on My appearance there the child spoke up and said, ‘Oh, there You are.’ I held out My Love and said to the child: ‘So much work was sent your way. You returned the love in beautiful ways.’ The child who stood there smiled and said, ‘Oh, Saint

Therese, never stop teaching children how to walk the “Little Way” to Here.’

The roses that I send are Ones of Grace to you from Here. There are so many religious who need your prayers. Many, many visits to The Blessed Sacrament will show your love, your interest in Heaven Up Above. The Holy Eucharist must come first to give you strength, to give you courage. Our Lady’s Rosary must be with you constantly, the framework for the beauty to come. Make the frame a beautiful one. Carve it slowly so when you do, each little cut will mean much for you.

It is never too late to come This Way. It is never too late to begin to pray. It is never too late to start anew. It is never too late to grow in love with Him Who Is.

I bless you, children, with His Love. He allows this privilege to Me. Walk in the ‘Little Way’ and take Him each step to be sure you do not become lost along the way. I smile when I add this last note: The flowers along the way, you are welcome to pick them if you must, but remember to return them to Him one day.”

SEPTEMBER 8, 1970 AT 4:45 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“I smile at the gathering in Honor of My Spouse. His Name must be heralded throughout the world. He must be Honored, He must be Revered. He must be known for What He is Here: Beloved by The Father, close to The Son and in close contact with The Holy Ghost. Men of all colors, men of all religions, men of all countries must turn to Him. The time has come and the earth must ring out with love for Him. Man has looked to Him, prayed to Him, honored Him, trusted Him, but man has never truly known Him.

I, your Blessed Mother, say These Words to you in favor of Him. He is in much Power and is ready to help all children who will turn to Him. The problems of the day could be solved by Him. The heresies of the day could be changed by Him. The perplexities of the time in which you live could be abolished by Him.

More men are looking to Him. More men are beginning to wonder Who He is. More men are beginning to suggest prayers be delivered to Him. More men are wondering what occurred in His Life, how He met challenges and strife, how He conquered His weaknesses. Ah yes, My Spouse as Man walked truly for the Divine Way. As Man, He had to pray much, which He did without question. The time now, man questions everything, even The Father.

The time now, man is weak and builds on his weakness, constantly satisfying only himself in all things. I say to you now: 'Turn to Saint Joseph and He will teach you the way to God. He will lead you by the hand, to The Father. He will heal many Souls because of His Love for The Father.'

All through time man has shouted, 'A Miracle, please,' and when a Miracle occurs, man stands back and rationalizes what must be. The Truth in a Miracle is evident by the Beauty, by the Good, by the Love that occurs. Man's evaluation sometimes slows down other children from accepting or partaking, indulging in God's Love. Many times man wants to perform for God. He feels the need, the desire, but he does not want to begin slowly or in natural ways. When man does not grow from the small to greater things, many mistakes, many errors could take place, unless he is chosen in a specific spot, to perform in a specific manner, by The Father.

All children are in some way chosen by The Father. The first choosing was to be born to the world. The breath was His Love to share Heaven Above. Of course there are special choosings, but this is only for The Father to decide, never man. The paths to Heaven are many, enough for all children to gather Here one day, but on each path there are rules. A child can make the path easy or more complex. It is wiser to choose the easier way. Begin today, total dedication, and then begin the path and pray.

I bless you, My loved ones, today, in the Name of The Father Who has given you the privilege of life, the privilege to pray and the Gift of The Holy Eucharist, to be One each day; and in the Name of The Son — His, and Mine in the way of man — read what His Heart says in the Sacrifice He displayed, in the Resurrection of His Way; and to The Holy Ghost Who will, when you ask it, teach you all the things to help you on the path to Here one day.

Men make solemn promises to each other every day, and with each one there is a little doubt of its fullness and in the length of time it will be kept; but when The Father makes a promise, no man is afraid it will not be kept. The promise is to love Him, to serve Him in the way of man, and He will give you Heaven when the physical day ends. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 9, 1970 AT 10:55 A.M.

OUR LORD

“My children, I hear you speak and I say, ‘Stand on the mountain as I once did and teach as I taught.’ Whether you have the title to teach, or the yearning to teach, or the need to teach, or the purpose to teach, it is all one in My Way. Children are not learning Me, of Me and My Way. The Biggest Lesson to be taught is not in books. It is the Most Important Lesson of all: Everyone Must Kneel And Pray. All the knowledge in the world, all the tactics on how to teach, all the perfections that men feel need be, are wastes of time. The important thing is not taught to mankind. I shout from the Heavens: ‘Kneel And Pray. I listen to every word you say.’

The question was asked at an earlier time: What of the tragedy in the Church of Mine? The enemy seeps in because of pride, for What I have he tries hard to call his own. His evil ways are turmoil, chaos, confusion, and no peace dwells where he is evident. Hell is a horrible place and even he hates that place. He has no love for any man, only jealousy, pride, envy, of the Beauty that belongs to Heaven. Many times Michael is sent forth to protect the Holy Church. He also stands ready to fight all battles against the enemy of man.

I speak to you today with firmness and with a deliberateness of Love. Do not let any challenge be so big that it backs you down. Man is weak. I am Strength. I will give it to you as you ask, so you can perform tasks My Way. The sadness of man is the lack of humility, the lack of trust in My Plan. Children now are being led to destruction by many men who dread to stand up against falsehoods, evilness, despair, distrust, communism, atheism. The children look to truth and for it. They accept it faster than they do untruth, for somewhere inside them they know the difference. The Guardian Angel, the Soul alerts them, but in their weakness they succumb to the easy or the demanded way for them. If I were to allow you the look I have at the world now, you would vomit your insides out.

Through this child I have asked many times for the Holy Rosary to be said, for the children of the Holy Church to walk to the Railing and receive the Bread, the Wine: My Body, My Blood. I have informed thousands, through her, of the Magnitude of this receiving, and yet men are saying, 'I am too tired; I am too busy.' I shout, 'Is there no man ready to stand for Me?' Some will answer, 'I will,' and it will give Me happiness; but then, I see the child wander off in another direction after the thrill of accepting the task is dulled by the action. I hear many children say, 'Give me a cross to bear for You.' I give the cross but I hold on to it and do not place the full weight until I know how much the child has grown.

Men are dying of the physical life all over the world. I anxiously await for their Souls. Some are bright, Some are dim; Some, perhaps, look thin, but oh, My children, these Souls are Mine and I only loan the Soul to man. I know your hearts, I know your way, and I know the growth of love that you can have one day. I say to you now, 'Do not just think about it but do it well.' I am The Son of The Father and I come through this child today to ask you once again: 'Kneel And Pray.'"

SEPTEMBER 16, 1970 AT 11:45 A.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My son, I am Saint Francis of Assisi, known for My love of God. I did not love poverty, I used it. I did not love sacrifice, I performed it. I did not love penance, but I knew the rewards for it.

As you go, there will be many obstacles. As you know, many will be conquered My way: determination, constant prayer, perseverance in a firm way. Man is weak and it takes strength to conquer him.

There are many men disturbed by what they feel is the new way. Let Me tell you this: Nowhere did God say: ‘Stop practicing truth. Stop looking to the fruit. Stop acknowledging the Ten Commandments.’ Nowhere did He say, ‘Rationalize My Way.’ Even the Apostles would not have dared to do, in their day, what man does in your day.

Children are neglected. They are not being taught truth but heresy. They are being led to the slaughter. No one is saying: ‘Believe in God. Praise

God. Kneel to God. Love God. Learn of God.’ It is not a confused state they are in. They are in a state of oblivion. I do not speak only of the young. The ones of many years are ignorant, and some have loose tongues.

God is getting restless for He sees disaster everywhere. He is anxious for certain men to stand up and cause truth to be seen by all men. Children are unaware that We exist. They say tradition is no longer necessary. If it was not necessary, then God would have eliminated it. He has given man many areas to find Him in. Man is not only stubborn but ridiculous.

I was man. There were many times I felt, ‘Dear God, what I am doing to show my love, is it right, is it Your Will it be done?’ I did not always get writing in the sky but I knew I would be answered as time went by.

Impatience comes from a lack of self-discipline, a lack of obedience, a lack of humility, and a lack of anyone but self. Teach all men to look to this: Practice self-discipline, obedience, humility, prayer, sacrifice, penance, and they will be sure of coming Here.

There is a Hell. Believe Me, son, it is ugly, and everyone should fear it. There is a Heaven Where I am and every child should be aware of It. It has a Beauty not known to man. It has Love beyond man's. It has so many things that man cannot understand. It is reward for the physical way man went.

In the garb of My day and of My vocation, I bless you with My Love. It is The Father's Power that allowed this Locution. It is My Obedience to Him that permitted These Words to you. So, My son, follow through. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 23, 1970 AT 2:10 P.M.

“To enter a home, man very often uses a key to unlock the door so entrance will be free. The term, ‘The Key to Heaven’, is often said by men who feel the necessity for the door to be locked. They can’t just accept the Gate to be closed. The Gates of Heaven are never locked, never closed. The Father loves too much. The key to life must be; it is love for The Father above all things. It is the key of life for Eternity.

Man speaks loosely of love; he terms it in his way. He says, ‘Love must be felt.’ I smile and I say, ‘Perhaps in the feeling you crave, you need, you feel must be there, you are replacing the truth of love with the senses of man.’ Loving God is above man’s dreams. The key of life, loving Him, but remember, My children, prayer is essential; it is your communication with Him.

Think what it would be like to love, the human way, with constant silence between you and others who come your way. There would be a lonesomeness; you know this. There would be no give and take. So why would it not be important to pray to The One Who created you and all things? The reasoning would be wrong, for you would take for granted love, and the way to Him.

There are many areas for children to walk in. There are many ways to show love. There are many things to be said, to tell Him of your love. From this day forward, think more strongly on Heaven, the Gates, but think more of Who He Is, What He Is, and the Magnificence of His Way.

I bless you, children, with a firmness, with a love, with a purpose. So be it.”

OCTOBER 1, 1970 AT 3:30 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My daughters, many, many, many, many, many sins are being committed against The Father. Man is completely oblivious to the Beauty of His Love, in His Love, for His Love, with His Love, and it is devastating. Promiscuity is running rampant. Hate flourishes; envy, much in practice; jealousy all around. Satan works through a weak link. Man follows the easy way, the selfish way, the self-love way.

Many alerts have been given to man: Visions, Locutions; and man does not listen. There are many times that prayers at a given moment are more necessary than talk. The power of prayer is magnificent. The power of love can be transferred easily.

So many children run around making decisions favorable to their thinking, neglecting to ask The Father what His Will might be, what He desires to be done. Emotion runs high, drawing contradiction in evidence before truth, before knowledge, before facts. Generous souls, trying to deliver God's Way, God's Words, God's Being, are sometimes sidetracked by emotions, lack of prayer. There are many men alert to satan but not conscious of him and his ways.

The Holy Eucharist must be announced and pronounced for Its Magnitude. Man must learn the Value of this Food. The Holy Rosary must spread, not just where man desires it, but everywhere. Too few sanitariums, hospitals, convalescent manors, are aware that the time spent in dismal despair could be spent saving Souls everywhere.

Courageous Souls need to form, but with prudence, for it will disarm the enemy who is sometimes fighting for control. Outbursts only draw anger, hurt pride, and eliminate value. Sometimes they even hide truth. Definite purpose, definite action must be evident to the eye. That is why, sometimes, to see example of The Father is greater than any words can say.

The child, through whom I speak, is a total instrument of Mine. The Words you hear are Mine. I could talk endlessly on the needs of mankind. If

I went on and on, it would be too much for your minds, so I take one step now and I ask you to take one step at a time.

Be assured God will win. Be assured He is All High. Be assured He loves all men and does not intend to lose in the battle in which satan strives to win mankind. It is true some might be lost, but The Father will win out for His Power is far beyond any man's intelligence.

So, do not fear, but pray. Be example, be devout, be devoted to His Way, and bend your will with What He wants. I, Saint Joseph, know your hearts, and I smile upon you and say, 'Do much, work hard and bend your will His Way.' I bless you with His Power, with His Love, to carry on His Way. So be it."

OCTOBER 2, 1970 AT 1:05 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I hear you speak of sight. Many men dwell on the subject for they feel the only sight necessary is the sight of the eye. Many children walk with clear sight and yet walk in blindness. Many children, walking in blindness, are going different directions. Some, the blindness is in God’s Way, complete trust. For some, the blindness is closing out the Purpose of life, the reality of being. For some, blindness is an act, for they say, ‘What I do not recognize I am not responsible to or for.’

I ask the child to relay to you a Vision that takes place now. It is in her sight as I bring It into focus. You are blind to this Vision and yet you will see It through her eyes, through God’s Power, with My Love.

I stand in an oval type frame. The frame is encircled with the Beads I do love. The Cross is placed beneath My Feet. The Rosary is lighted for you to see. The Beads glow to show all children the way to Heaven. The more Rosaries that are said, the greater the Light, the brighter the Vision. The closer you come to Where I am, the Light will blind you, for the sensitive eye, the delicate mechanism, cannot withstand the richness of the Light.

Many men, in their frivolous thinking, say the Rosary is not necessary. Oh, My children, there is a need for these Beads of Love. Many Souls become truant when it is not a daily act. All men should be aware of the magnitude of its power. When you are sad, go to it. When there is dilemma, go to it. When there are decisions to be made, go to it. When there is happiness, go to it. When there is joy, go to it. It is an all-time prayer, an all-time love, so remember, go to it. Be alert to its purpose, to its meaning, to its value, to its love. Cling to it, and when you say it, meditate on the beauty of it.

I know your way, I love your way, and I do say, 'Grow in the Purity of My Way.' There are many things to be done. Relax where the physical way must be won. Be happy in the life you have, and be example in truth, in purpose, in love.

The Vision closes but the Lights never go out for They are always there, ready to show all children the way to Here.

I give My Blessing to you now and cross My Love with the Sign that shows you the depth of My Son's Love. Think much of how He suffered and the Ultimate Goal that was His. Imitate, perpetuate and grow in love with Him. Go to Saint Joseph much; never ignore His Way. The Magnitude of His Way could bring all children Here to stay. His Love abounds and All The Saints acknowledge Where He is, What He is, and the Greatness of His Way. So be it."

OCTOBER 7, 1970 AT 1:50 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man looks at a picture and determines a physical value. ‘Does it please my eye? Does it please my senses? Will I enjoy it around? What will it remind me of? How much will it cost me?’ Now I paint you a picture of Heaven, one of tremendous size, one of All Beauty, one you could never tire of, and one in which All Happiness, All Joy, All Love will be forever with you. The price: love.

Remember, My children, to love man takes certain areas of your being to comply with the demands. Love is giving, it is helping, it is serving. Loving God is self-discipline, obedience and humility, in all balance; much easier than in loving man, for it says, ‘I can do this on my own, with Him alone.’

My daughters, read often into the meaning and the purpose of These written Words. Thousands were said to you today, not written, but a Beautiful Message They did convey.

Many men feel Miracles are not of this day, when the Miracle of life continues in every way. Man blinds himself to accepting truth, for to accept truth means to say, 'I am bound in a special way.' There are millions of men floundering about, succumbing to weakness that is all about. They feel it is easier to live this way. Not so. To survive, to live, to be whole, is to give, first to The Father in all things, then to a loved one, a spouse; then to the children and family and friends, then to mankind; and now I add, thyself at the end. You see, My daughters, life is truly without end. You have just begun, the fruits will come.

If the water is deep, you alert those who seem to play in the danger that lurks. If the fire is near, you shout caution quite clear. Sometimes satan is the one you should be more aware of. It is not clear, for he lurks and waits to leap when the moment seems bleak, and you have a tendency to be weak. Be alert to times as this. Be firm in all things such as this.

My children, the doubts, the cares, the worries that the physical life does bear are the crosses of strength, the crosses of love, the measures by which you can show you care. Please look well into the trinity of love, and do not permit man to eliminate the Instruments that were once men, The Saints. The Father uses Them well to keep many Souls from Hell. Their Purpose has Dignity and Grace.

I bless you with My Love. I am Saint Joseph, and This Miracle of Mine is on the Winds of God's Power, truly Divine. It is True and you must understand, It is for you. So be it."

OCTOBER 8, 1970 AT 10:22 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My son, My daughter, My loved one, many men shout the words, ‘When you feel strongly, stand up and be counted.’ Not new words to man but words used a long time ago, evident each day from the beginning. When you believe in God’s Truths, stand up and be counted. When you believe that heresy is truly around, stand up and be counted. At the daily Sacrifice of the Mass, a truth beyond man’s knowledge, be sure you attend and are counted.

Visions proclaiming the necessity, the purpose, the proof that the Holy Rosary must be said by all men, must be acknowledged by you. Here again I say, ‘Stand up for truth and be counted in the magnificent group.’

So few men acknowledge the dignity in the visits to The Blessed Sacrament. The door is opened for you to walk in at your leisure, speak openly to your Creator and gain wisdom, peace, tranquillity and assurance. If every man could see the happiness in the Heavens as the doors open, at different times around the world, in anticipation of children, all ages, walking inside, acknowledging The Father and partaking in the privilege that therein abides, I say again, 'Be counted.' When night falls and the doors close and the key turns the lock, there is sadness, for then God knows His children must wait until the morrow.

You see, My children, you are so unaware of the Magnitude that is Here and of the privilege offered to you to give you strength, to give you courage, to help you with your purpose. So many make excuses and some even shout out doubts, and those who do are foolish, for the Crucifix tells what things are all about.

I, Saint Joseph, know your hearts, know your wills, know your desires, know your love, but I say to you, 'Put God first and all things will be done in truth.' Never eliminate Him from your way but learn to grow in His Way. Let your spark of Faith turn into flame, and then let it catch onto everything, everyone you meet. Let it become so much a part of you that you act it out in everything you do. Do not be so self-confident that you feel capable on your own, but depend and trust in Him and all things will be true.

I ask you two, to be sure to dedicate yourselves to the Spirit of The Holy Family, to the obedience that We felt, to the conscious living of the Divine Power and to the purpose of your lives, not for yourselves, but for God's Love and Design. Happiness will reign when this is done.

I bless you with My Love, with the Power of The Father, and I will stand beside you when the vows for life have begun. I will stand six inches behind you, so be aware that as the words are said, the Power of My Being will penetrate where it is best. So be it."

OCTOBER 20, 1970 AT 12:15 P.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My daughters, I am Saint Anne. I announce Myself first, so you will know Who speaks of what must be. Saints are to help all children reach The Father. Instruct others to pray to The Saints for help, for Direction. It is a good practice to make a habit of.

Where I am, Here in the Heavens, I see constant Miracles occurring to aid all children still in the world. Many Miracles go unnoticed, and when some are recognized a hush gathers around them, for man says, ‘It is not natural.’

My Daughter, Who is radiant as The Queen of Heaven, stands beseeching every child to turn to the Rosary, not just once in awhile but constantly. It purifies all things, and I add, ‘God’s enemy fears it above all things.’

The speaking that took place among you was in the human way, and now I speak to you from the Supernatural Means. Gather many more and teach them the value of prayer, the importance of prayer, the need for prayer, the purpose of prayer and what it does in the way of the physical life. It gives strength, courage, force, knowledge, love.

The sin, the hate that exists now, must be wiped out soon for it is destroying Souls and will only cause doom. There is so much pettiness, wrong thinking, wrongdoing, wrong involvement, and so much procrastination where The Father is concerned.

The baptismal fonts should be crowded, not empty. The Blessed Sacrament should be so obvious to all men daily. The Power, the Greatness, the Beauty, the Magnificence of The Holy Eucharist should be made known to all men. There should be speeches on It, Confirmations of It and Perpetuation of Its Purpose.

Too few men are taking time to pray, to be outstanding in this way. They do not neglect their bodies with food for they say they feel weak when they do. The greatest weakness of all comes from lack of communication with The Father, with The Son and with The Holy Ghost, Three as One. Bend your wills with The Father's Will. Dedicate your time to His Way. Do not care what man will say for all men are not enlightened this way.

The Beautiful, the Powerful, the Great, the Obedient, the Humble, the Pure, must now become known as He Is, close to The Trinity in Heaven Where I am. Saint Joseph must be on the lips and in the hearts of all. All races, all creeds, all colors must come to Him Here. The Father has announced it so, has decreed it to be, and stands ready to let all things The Saint requests, be.

I bless you with The Father's Love and with His Son's Heart and with the Light of The Holy Ghost, All One. So be it."

NOVEMBER 3, 1970 AT 2:10 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, there are many spaces in your lives that can be called vacant. If you were to return to them you would experience a void both physical and Spiritual. Is this not so? Be wise, My children, and from this point on, do not allow more as these to come about. Such waste, when times can be so full and help you grow as you walk the earth in the physical. The time of walking you are in must be a time of growing from within, gaining Spiritual Grace, Spiritual Knowledge, Spiritual Strength, Spiritual Wisdom, at a great length.

You search for Miracles. You live as one. You search for ideas to intrigue, to stimulate, but you search in places there are none, for true magnificence is in the House of God where The Blessed Sacrament does stay night and day. Man kneels before It and he says, ‘I feel nothing in His Way.’ ‘Oh my,’ We shout to man, ‘kneel and pray, not for excitement in your day, but for peace, tranquillity and light This Way.’

Many men scurry about, fulfilling duties for what they feel life is all about. They neglect to stop and take the time to receive a Gift from The Divine. The Gift is Love, the Body and Blood. The Gift is Truth, and all He asks in return is trust, obedience and love; not much to ask, for such a Gift from Above, and nowhere is it written, 'It is too late to accept, to acknowledge the Gift that awaits'; but today can be the beginning for many things for you, if you will have enough love to accept the Gifts of Truth.

Banish all the things from you that cause you doubts, fears, laziness, in the acts of accepting truth. Forfeit a little time, a little sleep for The Divine. No better use of time than when you spend it with The Divine. Do not expect signs in the sky and do not look for evidences to hover always nearby, but again I say, 'Trust and walk to Him each day.'

I bless you with My Love for It is a Cherished One, for My Love is governed by The Trinity, and the Power that I use to project This Love to you is from Them, All Three as One. I am Saint Joseph and I speak from the Realm of Heaven. I speak to children seeking love, seeking truth, and I ask you to be humble in your love for Him. Be grateful to His Love for you. Be grateful, too, that He is patient, so when you falter He understands and waits for you to turn to Him and say you love Him and are sorry for slipping away.

Man seeks love but he accepts it in a weak way. God's Love is all Strength, all Purpose, and is given every day. The God you love does not pout when things go astray but the Power in His Love hangs on to you to give you strength. I want you, children, to go your way in quiet and in peace, and reread often All the Words that I have said today."

NOVEMBER 3, 1970 AT 10:15 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“I heard you mentioning words, their meaning, the control they are. This is all true. Many men go through life, asking for help to improve their vocabulary so they will be better able to show worth, knowledge, when they speak to other men. This I understand, for man is constantly looking for betterment to accomplish things that other men will see, feel above them. There is nothing wrong in such desires, but let Me say, ‘The most important growth of all is not in man’s eyes, but growing more in love with The Father.’

Man tries to not limit himself in worldly ways. He keeps groping, striving, seeking, and he says, ‘There is no limit to what surrounds me, to what I can learn, to what I can do.’ The very same men limit themselves in a Spiritual way. They accept for themselves the smallest amount of knowledge, Faith, growth in God’s Way. How foolish man is to pay so little attention to His Creator, Who Is Above All Things and Who Has Truly Created All Things, Who Is All Wisdom and All Love.

Man constantly worries over balance, physical, mental, material, but nowhere does he feel that a little amount is not too little when it is God's Direction. Man takes The Father for granted. It must stop! There are Levels in Heaven. Some men say, 'If I just get in the door, I'll be happy.' Another foolish thought, not to strive for a Higher Place.

Please, My children, on this night begin to change your ways. Plan on growing much more in love with The Father, in His Way. Do not procrastinate and be satisfied with the little bit you feel in His Way. There are many souls in Hell now who have felt just this way. They cared so little that when temptation came it was easy to succumb, for they had not worked on strength, to be so strong that they could conquer evil way. There is no excuse for this for any of you now, so begin to grow and be determined to reach for a Higher Place in Heaven. Think much on this, and if you feel satisfied, pray that you will not become so settled in accepting what you do, but ask for help to grow and be example too.

I bless you in a Heavenly Way, and it is The Father's Will that you think much on What was said and dedicate your life in growing in His Way. Repeat to yourself each day: 'I must grow more God's Way. I will sacrifice more things. I will do acts of love and I will accept penance so I will reach a Higher Level Up Above.' The very thought will gain you Grace, and nowhere would He let you down, for you are His children who He loves to have around. So be as such and ask Him in a loving way. Remember, little ones, the secret is to pray. So be it."

NOVEMBER 17, 1970 AT 10:40 A.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My daughters, if you were hanging from a ship at sea and your life depended on the strength in your hands, ask yourself, how long could you hang? For some, it would be a short period of time. Remember how My Son hung on a tree. He was unable to let go, unable to die until The Father decreed the time, until enough suffering had gone by.

As you walk in your daily way of life, be sure you have My Rosary in sight. It will give you strength where nothing else will. It is also a weapon against evil. Grow in strength by holding it constantly. The power of it will guide you, guard you, protect you, and enable you to save your life. Nothing else has this power, and I have said it again and again.

So many children are ignoring the place it plays in God’s Plan. Yes, it is true, when My daughters kneel in unison to Honor Me this way, I smile upon them, for what mother does not love to hear her daughters pray. When

My sons kneel, I become emotional, for too few of them accept the Miracle of the power of the Rosary. Their voices, heavy in tone, are beautiful to hear. The Father smiles when this occurs and says, ‘Our Lady, Your sons are following My Son’s Way to Here, by recognizing You as The Mother of All.’ Ah yes, My children, it is such beauty when We see it Here.

As the child explained, The Miracle of My Spouse is on God’s Power and the Winds of The Holy Ghost. Recognize more, the Beauty, the Greatness of Him. Saint Joseph, obedient now to The Father, has accepted the Honor of standing evident to all men. Remember Him, My daughters, and teach others His Name.

And now the Greatest Gift of all, I remind you to take each day. Be aware of Its Beauty, of the Grandness of It, of the Magnificence It is, and never deny yourself the taking of It, The Holy Eucharist, the Ultimate to you, the benefits too numerous to begin to explain to you.

So as this day is one for you to remember in My Way, remember Saint Joseph and pray.

Surrounding Me Where I am are Angels every day. The Heavenly Choir sings aloud when Souls do come This Way. So every act that you perform, dedicate to Here, and give it purpose, give it love, and have Faith that it is Here. Walk as example, be in truth. Be firm in your Faith, and by your kindness, showing love God's Way. At the end of the physical life all things will add up, and the Graces you will have gained will be a great amount, for remember, as you walk everything you do is seen, is felt, by The Heavenly King. So let your lives bear much fruit.

The evil one works diligently. He is selfish, he is mean, he is prideful, and he is good at schemes. So be aware of how he covers up evil sometimes with beautiful things.

I love you in a way unknown to mankind. Gain strength, My little ones, in this Rosary of Mine. Know, too, that its direction comes from The Divine. What more is there to know about this Rosary of Mine?"

NOVEMBER 24, 1970 AT 2:35 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My children, on a high level, picture Crowns studded with jewels, shining with power, God’s Power. On a Level beneath It, picture Halos glowing with a light, God’s Light. Now picture yourself. Which will you wear, the Halo or the Crown, when you come Here?

As you were born, it was My Love. As you live, it is My Love, and as you leave the earth, it will be with My Love. I ask you personally to take each day and live it My Way. If I were among you now, in the physical form as you, but you knowing Who I was, how would you be? Would you be good? Would you be bad? Would you be conscious of the Purpose of your life, and how would you react to temptation?

Oh, My children, I am as present to you each day as I would be in a physical way. So never feel you are alone, for you are not. You are flesh. I made it so, and in the making I did not allow you to be alone. I gave you a Soul along with the body, and then

I gave you a Guardian to help and to guide you. I made you to My Image and to My Likeness.

You have come upon Whom I Am, far beyond your knowledge, but it is true. I am The Father of you. On the morrow, reach for the Halo or Crown, but, do not try to reach It alone for I will be around to help you in every way, if you will but ask Me.

I gave the world My Son to be as you, to walk and run and to lead other men to Where I am, in the Kingdom, in the Realm unknown to men, but all men are aware of My Existence in some form or other, for they know there is an Ultimate Being that began time and began all things.

You are Mine and I want each of you to return to Me because you want to. Make each day a step forward but make it a step of truth in My Way, for you must acknowledge Who I Am and Everything I say. My Son and The Holy Ghost will help you along the way. Our Blessed Lady, Whom I love, loves you in Her Motherly Way. My Son, Joseph, Who fathered My Son in the human way, also loves you My Way. Take your Heavenly Family and understand the truth They stand in Where I am.

I bless you with My Love for It is One Alone, and I beckon every one to choose the Crown or the Halo.”

DECEMBER 1, 1970 AT 10:35 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“One of the greatest loves of man is to sit with those he loves at a table and have repast to nourish the physical. At this time, man talks of little things and he trades ideas back and forth with others, regarding ideas that mean much, mean little, mean change, mean a daily way of life. Man says, ‘I will feed others so they will feel better and will carry on with a happier glow.’

In My time tables were set. We talked of many things. Conveniences We didn’t have, but satisfaction that this act of eating brings was Ours to enjoy among other things.

Every day that a Table is being set in the House of God for all men to partake, the passing back and forth of words is not as your table, but the feeling of peace, tranquillity, causes you to be able to withstand the blows, the hardships, the turmoils, the afflictions of man. The Food here is Supernatural, with Great Things within It: the Power of God, strength from Him, and the nourishment It gives is thorough. Speak much on this to others and What Its Value is, and tell them What I have said regarding The Holy Eucharist that is the Truth of Life, the Food of Love, the Gift from God Who is Above.

The heartaches that you feel regarding those you love, must be prayed upon and handled in God's Way, God's Time, by Him. Ask Him to hold the hands of those you worry for. Ask Him to guide their thoughts, their way, and teach them the Beauty, the Purpose of life, as One.

I bless you for your Faith in accepting what is God's Way. Beware of satan seeping in, causing you to stray. Let illness that you feel be given for good. Offer it to The Father for Souls Who can no longer offer anything for you, until one day they reach Here and have the right to ask The Father to help you. I bless you, children, with My Love and with much Grace from Heaven. I know This Miracle of Mine is strange to you, but the awareness you have of the Beauty of It and of the way The Father would Will My Name to become known, be grateful for It and thank Him for It. So be it."

DECEMBER 16, 1970 AT 11:40 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“As I speak Words of Wisdom through the child, I wish to alert your minds to the realm of yours in comparison to the Realm that is Here. Take one star, and now look at what surrounds it. In size it is magnificent, the surroundings, that is. So, you are as a star in God’s Way. Your Soul is the star, remember this.

Many men determine for themselves what is best. Many men determine wrong. They make their decision on what they see, what they feel and what they know to be. It is man’s way. Now take every decision, every thought, every word you say, and look into the many things that can be derived from them. There are too many for you to note, but in your way of life it is less complicated, for you expect black and white.

When fear comes, turn to God. When anger comes, close it out, turn to God. When anxiety comes, do not dwell on it. It saps your strength and leaves weakness. When your will says, 'It must be this way,' turn to God and ask His Opinion, His Direction, and to show you the way. Do not live each day helplessly, hopelessly, with nothing in your aim. Take the time to grow in God's Way. Use every minute possible to help the Soul you have glow brighter, grow deeper in love with God. Man wastes time that could be spent fruitfully, beautifully, advantageously, perfectly.

Reach for Sainthood, but do it in God's Way; in dignity, integrity, generosity, Faith, trust, confidence, love. Hold before you at all times The Trinity, what It stands for in Its Way, in Its Entirety, in Its Beauty; how Each Part of It is God, and the Purpose Each Part has. Notice your own reaction when you gaze upon the Rosary. Be aware that it immediately says, 'Our Lady'. Join with others in obedience to Her, saying the Rosary of Love to Her.

I bless you, My children, from Heaven. Be aware of the Blessing and of the Words I declare."

DECEMBER 17, 1970 AT 1:55 P.M.

“What is real? Is it something you can touch, what you can feel, what you can know? I am real. You cannot touch Me physically, but you can mentally. You cannot feel Me but you can accept Me. You cannot hear Me, but yet I speak to you through a child as you.

Now let Me describe, to some degree, Heaven, Here Where I am, close to The Trinity. God has control of all things for He Is All Things. He, too, is Real, but yet, to share What He Is, What He has with you, He does it, not as you do with another friend, but He does it through these three things: Faith, confidence, trust. Remember these three words when you pray. Be conscious of them every day, for in them you will find answers, consolation, counseling and love.

All Heaven is aware of the Beauty that is Here. All Heaven wants you to come Here. Ask yourselves to what degree you want to spend Eternity: small amount, medium amount or high degree? Strive, My children, for the fullest amount. It can be gained by you.

Here in Heaven, Many Saints, Many Souls are busy following through on things The Father Wills They do. He gathers constantly His little Souls to help you. He allows His Saints the Power to guide and guard you. Too, Each One Here in My Realm has a definite task for you. Be sure to place your hope and trust, and pray to Each One. Know that The Father will give the word as to what will be done.

When the time comes for you to arrive Here, you will understand and want all you know, all you love, to come Here Above. It is Above. The word is right and used correctly, for Heaven is Above.

Remember, My little ones, that as you walk each day, that Heaven is real and for every child one day. Strive hard for the highest place you can get with the Grace you earn from performing God's Way. Obedience is Grace-giving. Tolerance, Grace-giving. Kindness, Grace-giving. Acts of love, Grace-giving. Being aware of What God wants, Grace-giving. Obeying the Commandments, Grace-giving. Saying the Holy Rosary, Grace-giving. Visits to The Blessed Sacrament, Grace-giving.

Many things could be listed here. Do these to get a firm foundation. You will automatically grow from here. Never feel it is too late to grow in God's Way. Never stand on the outside of Grace but do something to let it pour on you. It is so easy, not difficult at all. Remember to give time, and in giving the time, Grace will be showered on you.

Someone Else will return. Please look well into My Words. They are True, They are Firm, and in Them there is much for you to learn. So be it for now."

DECEMBER 17, 1970 AT 2:10 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, I, Saint Joseph, come to you on this day. I speak through the child to give you My Love and to tell you that in all ways you must praise God and grow in love with Him. The time in which you live is sadness to Him for the earthly glow has many dim spots, showing that satan is all about. Oh, My loved ones, be aware how he can use you in your weakness. When you feel so fair, look to what you say, and analyze the reason, the purpose, and why you are saying it. Is it for self-acclaim? Is it for someone to notice you or do you have God in mind, drawing attention to Him?

Be aware of the glow of the world. Try, through prayer, through giving love and through growing in love with The Father, to have no dim spots showing. As man looks at the world, it is land, water, people. As God looks at the world, He sees His children, with Souls to return to Him. He sees all things down to the core of the world, for do not forget, He is The Creator and knows all the ingredients, the weakness, the beauties, the troubles, and is fully aware of what is needed.

The main thing, My children, is prayer. Prayer is the most neglected thing man has access to. Prayer can be said in the quiet of a thought, in the noise of a room. It can be said constantly, for no man has the ability to control your prayer, only you. Rather than limit the amount you can give, I ask you to grow in it. It is worth more than any item you can see, you can feel, you can touch. The Power in prayer is one of magnificence, grandeur, beauty, magnitude. There is no limit, remember this.

Now let Me tell you how I want you to pray.

First: Be fully aware of the Host of Love given to you each day. It is a Treasure. God does not eliminate you, you eliminate yourself. When the Man of God bends forward to say, 'Body of Christ,' it is God's Love to you. Do not deny yourselves the privilege, the love, to close the prayer each time you can.

Second: Ask yourself how many times Our Lady has requested you and all children to say Her Holy Rosary. You must admit, countless times. She has encouraged it and begged for it. She has pleaded, for She knows the great Power that it is. Do not deny yourselves this love. Be obedient to The Mother Who is Above.

Three: How many times have you not wanted to ignore a friend? Why then do you ignore your Creator? A quiet visit to where He is, words of prayer telling Him you love Him, recognizing the reality of Him being present; an act of Faith, an act of love, an act of sharing, an act of confidence, an act of trust, when you visit The Blessed Sacrament.

Remember all These Words and be aware of Them as Truth. Be conscious of Their Magnitude and ask God, Who is All Goodness, to give you Light to grow in His Way with your will.

I, it is true, am Saint Joseph, and I speak to you from Heaven Where I am. I say to you today: 'Do pray and follow in every way the Teaching that was given to you this day. If you are troubled, pray. If you are happy, pray. If you are concerned, pray. If you are lonely, pray. If you are in doubt, pray. If you feel sufficient on your own, pray. If you feel lost, pray. If you are ill in the physical, pray. If spiritually you feel low, pray. What more can I say?’

I bless you in the Name of The Father, in the Name of His Son, and in the Name of The Holy Ghost, truly One.”

DECEMBER 28, 1970 AT 2:40 P.M.

THE SACRED HEART

“My son, My daughter, all through your physical life I have revealed Myself to you. You did not always recognize Who I was, What I stood for, or the fullness of My Way. I, to many men, have been seen as a physical heart, a physical being. This is how I wish you to look at Me, with My Heart open to thee. Each day that you arise, look first to Me, with no compromise. Be aware of Where I am in the Realm of Heaven. Many times you have been alerted to The Trinity. I am One of These, The Second One.

As Man, My Life was not an easy way, for I followed The Father’s Will each day. I knew that to be obedient was to be in truth, and to follow through with each thing that He did say. At this time the Father, Who was also My Son, led Me in the physical way. He took care of Me, He guided Me, He taught Me, not questioning what was to be, but accepting each day as it had to be. His Way was not easy and He did not know that the service He was giving to God was One Alone.

Take your life as it is, cherish it, relax in it, and accept it fully for the beauty, as it was once Mine, the physical. I know that This Miracle of My Father, Who was My Son, is different to man than man has ever known before, but Saint Joseph must be seen and must be heard and must be imitated, for His Way was as yours, the marriage way, the fatherly way, and He was governed by a Higher Authority than man. He was obedient to God The Father, as you must be.

Accept the Fruit of the Lamb, accept the shepherd as he is, accept the Man of God, for what he delivers is My Way, My Truth, My Love, My Fruit. When discouragement reveals itself to you, think of Me. When encouragement blossoms forth, let it be for Me, My Way. Let the heartache that you know not be tragedy, but let it glow. Serve well in the way The Father would Will it to be done. Grow in the Way of My Heart, follow the drops of Blood, and as you do, you will enter My Heart, for the dripping is My Love for you.

Never before have you heard Me speak and never did you realize it would be possible for thee, but it is true, it is I Who have come to you today to give you Love, Assurance and the Way. Do not mistake the Words I say or take Them in a frivolous way. Take Them for the Beauty They are, the Truth They are, the Love They are, and accept Them My Way.

I bless you with the Cross I bore and with the Love of The Trinity you must adore. So be it.”

JANUARY 4, 1971 AT 4:40 P.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My children, I am a Saint Who mothered a Daughter Who stands before the world, radiant, glowing, with The Father, with The Son. My Name is Saint Anne and I speak to you from Heaven Where I am.

Be aware at all times of God’s Love to man, through man, for man, with man, and because He made man. Be as My Daughter was: generous, kind, understanding, and trusting in The Father’s Will. Do not let sorrow weaken you, do not let sad hours make you bitter. Look to the day, offering it to The Father, and bless it in your little way by accepting the Gifts He has given for you in many ways. The Holy Eucharist, receive It much. The Holy Rosary, say it often. The Divine Praises, let them be a quick prayer from you. Accept the Blessings you now have and look forward to the growth in giving love. Imitate The Father’s Way. Give love, have trust, be in love and love trust.

My Blessing to you is a mother's wish to accept God's Love and His Way for you. Be childlike in His Way, teaching others, serving others, helping others to know Him, through you, by example each day. I leave you now and ask you to remember to pray each day."

JANUARY 5, 1971 AT 3:05 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“Write these words, My children: love, obedience, trust. How do you feel about these three main subjects of life? I, your Father, speak. All through time I have spoken of love, I have asked for obedience and I have said, ‘Trust in Me.’ Your love, as so small it is, is sufficient to Me. Your obedience in My Will, in My Way, is My Desire for thee. Your trust in what I do, how I react, what I give, what I do not give, shows Me many things. In your daily way remember these three things. As you perform in this way, hold My Hand and be One with Me.

I am The Supreme Being you are aware of. I am Divine. You have been alerted to this Form of My Being. As you are aware, be conscious at all times that My Will, My Way must be done by you. My Will for you is to keep in mind and to follow through in loving Me: obedience to the Ten Commandments, obedience in accepting My Gifts that I give out of Love for thee, The Holy Eucharist, Graces, and many things. Trust as you receive, accept freely the Faith I have given thee. Do not let it dwindle, but grow. Do not let it remain the same, help it to grow.

I bless you with My Love. It is Divine. I bless you with the Crucifix, My Son's Love for Me. I bless you with His Love for It is also Divine, and I bless you with the Light of The Holy Ghost. We are Three, We are One, We are Divine."

JANUARY 7, 1971 AT 10:45 A.M.

OUR LORD

“Let Us take a walk, you and I, and talk. I will begin a subject with you. I want you to listen and then review the parts of What I talk about, regarding your Soul in you.

You are happy when you see the light of day. Man’s light, in the electric way, brings a brightness to show you the way, but My Light in My Words gives you more than just a visual light to carry you through each day. My Light is Love, My Words are Wisdom. Instead of being concerned over what others tend to believe, tend to say, tend to deliberate on, look to Me and find out how I want you and I to be One.

Oftentimes I stand waiting on the Altar. You do not arrive and I wonder what caused you to falter. As I speak to Our Lady, I check over the children who have honored Her with the Rosary. Are you among them? Have you taught others the same thing by your example? When you feel tired, upset, have you thought of praying to bring peace to your way?

Many men say, 'I do not feel like prayer.' So I say: 'Praise The Father and you will feel no despair. Cling to The Holy Eucharist, cling to the Holy Rosary, cling to prayer. Have on the tip of your tongue the Divine Praises and say every one. As you walk, these can be done. You will grow strong as soon as you have begun.'

I bless you with My Love, and now I will stop speaking. Each time you read These Words, listen, and keep seeking My Love, My Way, My Will for you each day."

JANUARY 7, 1971 AT 3:20 P.M.

OUR LORD

“Take a box and place your doubts in it. Now, take another box and place your truths in it. Now, take another box and place your fears in it. Now, another box, and place your talents in it. Now, take another box and place your aim in it. Life is not this way. There is no separation so complete as categorizing these things. As you are man they are mingled within you, so you must be wise enough to develop them, to conquer them individually, but with all your facilities; for, to conquer some takes the others, to develop some takes combined strength.

Your physical life cannot be separated from your Spiritual life. These two are intermingled. Remember this at all times. One is the means to the other and the other is the strength to the means.

Please, My daughters, look at yourselves in truth and accept the beauty of you, but be aware that nothing is separate in you; but, be more aware of the needs of the Spiritual way, the Spiritual you. Use your will to grow in God's Way. Use your will to serve, in all ways, His Will. As you learn from other men, remember to sift the truth from the untruth that you hear. Remember to sift the good from the bad and use all things equal to steer you in God's Plan.

The physical life, as you know it to be, is complicated, for many things enter to make up these three: the mental, the physical, the Spiritual. As you walk among men, be constantly aware that what you project is example for Here. What others see radiate from thee should be only Me.

I love you, My children, and as I bless you with the Crucifix, I ask you to keep in mind The Trinity: in The Name of The Father, in The Name of The Son, in The Name of The Holy Ghost, as One."

JANUARY 7, 1971 AT 5:10 P.M.

OUR LORD

“Man looks to the Crucifixion as an incident, as an occurrence, as a happening in God’s Way and Will. Man has learned the purpose, the reason this had to be. Man does not see all the reasons, for God holds some back from thee.

I hung on the Cross. I was the Victim, as Man. I come to you today from the Realm Where I am. I bind you with My Love in the circle of My Arms, and I pray you will not leave to stray another way. As you cling to My Arm, do not feel boredom but feel Love, feel Grace, feel Design, feel Purpose, feel Strength, feel Courage, feel Understanding, feel the Warmth of My Love for you.

All men are to be taught how much God truly Loves, and in what way, what path, each man can use to come Above. Do not walk in fear, in turmoil, in doubt, in sadness, but be aware of the Light that is all about.

Man becomes excited, stimulated over new communications he discovers.

The greatest communication was discovered a long time ago. This form is prayer. Many men say prayer, perform prayer, act out prayer, not with dignity, but they feel out of necessity. This is sadness Here, for as you desire Warmth and Love, The Father, too, likes to receive it from you.

Do not rush your prayers. Do not hasten to finish them. There is such little time for all men in this way. Take your time, be devout, pray with fervor, and forget what else is all about. Be example of this way, and have evident in your homes a Crucifix that held My Bones. Let it show for all men to see so they will know you truly believe in Me.

A glimpse of Heaven is not yet for thee but It is Reward far beyond what anything that man can see. So rather than fear, be happy to know that for a life well-spent, God will bestow happiness, delight, joy, and a beautiful glow, for you to enjoy after serving below.

Through this child I speak. Through her being I reach you. Her weakness is Mine; I show My Strength to you. Look to the Crucifix, to the meaning it is, to the Power behind it and to the Love that it gives. Hang on to My Arm and do not stray. Remember, My children, I love you each day.”

JANUARY 8, 1971 AT 10:20 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man reviews Saints. He oftentimes wonders about a Particular One. We smile Here in the Heavens and We offer advice: go to God, go to Our Lady, go to Saint Joseph, and All of Us. Our duties for you are to give you aid to come Here. Our advice is to walk in truth and obey what God Wills.

Make every single act you do be one of truth. Do it in a way that, if you had to face it again, you would not be ashamed to repeat each word, to repeat each step again. This is the way to live, this is the aim to keep, this is the goal to reach.

As you stroll through life, do it with peace, be in delight. Do not let weakness rob you of strength and do not let yourself get in the habit of calling your mistakes ‘little weaknesses’. Reach for perfection but reach it with integrity and dignity, truth and love.

From this moment on, look at yourself as We do from Above. Take your faults, begin to correct them. Take your virtues and improve on them. Take your life in the physical form and give it a beauty of one alone. Be sure that The Father is evident in you. Be sure that your way is His Will for you.

Be sure that the Commandments are evident in your home, to remind each of you Where you must go. Each home should have them on a wall, in print, so each one can see how they could fall; easy to do, make it a project for you. I smile when I say this, for as you do, you will renew your Faith in a way beautiful for you.

Man has forgotten God's Laws in this way, the Rules of Life that were set down one day. It covers all phases of earthly ways. Remember, My children, the Commandments are God's Love. Man says, 'Show me how to become a Saint.' Hand him the Commandments, for his sake. They should be evident in all places and to all kinds of men, to remind them to not sin.

I bless you, My children, from Heaven Where I am, for I am Saint Joseph, a Friend of all men. I beseech you to be alerted to a Divine Plan. Be wise and accept the way of the pen."

JANUARY 8, 1971 AT 12:20 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man says: ‘I want to reach God, I want to communicate in a closer union with Him. How do I do this?’ Let all men know this Revelation. Let all men have It in their vision.

First, an examination of conscience each day. Man says, ‘What is conscience?’ I, Saint Joseph, say, ‘Conscience is your right and wrong; your knowledge of it, how you handle it and what you do about it, how you control it, how you change it, how you develop all right in it.’

After a thorough examination of conscience, using the Ten Commandments as the guideline, develop a prayer motion. Have definite, individual progressive prayers, some written by other men, some by you. Fit the prayers you want to say to what your life is, how you are, what your aim contains.

Accept, in an individual, personal love, The Holy Eucharist from Above. Make it an event, not just a habit. It is necessity, for when you receive each day The Body and Blood of Christ, It feeds the Spiritual needs, the Spiritual way, the Spiritual growth that must be yours each day. It makes the physical strong and helps you know right from wrong.

The Holy Rosary has a power on its own. It resembles a definite prayer, a chain of love from you to Here. It carries a power, it carries Grace, it carries obedience to Our Lady Who stands Here, anxious to hear each word you say.

You would not omit visiting those you love. You would not let a day pass by, if you cared for someone, that you did not wonder or think of in a loving way, many times extending a hand, a word, a step their way. So, why not approach the House of God and visit Him in silence and in love? Ah yes, a form of prayer this is for you from Heaven Up Above.

Children seek definite prayers. I suggest the Divine Praises for they cover many things. They make you think, they cause you to praise, they cause you to be alerted to The Divine in many ways.

Here I place before you a pattern for you each day. Follow through and do each thing I did say.”

JANUARY 13, 1971 AT 11:55 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man prepares to entertain. He makes arrangements so that all things will be pleasant, festive, and encourage sociability and what he terms ‘a happy time’. Let Me describe to you the way your life should be for you. Nowhere does God say, ‘Do not enjoy man’s way,’ but He does say, ‘Be conscious of the Spiritual way, of the fruits of it, of the beauty of it, and where it will take you one day.’

All men should gather at the Greatest Celebration in the world each day. Are you there, or do you make excuses to the Host for your lack of presence? Think much on What I have said and change your thinking as far as excuses, for you know, My children, excuses will not pave the way to Heaven, but acts of love will. Growing in Faith, trusting in God, will not only pave the way but will give you courage and strength to stay on the path This Way.

I read your hearts, I read your Souls. If I were to display Each One to you, I wonder what you would say. Would you accept It as It is or would you be ashamed? Would you realize the need for so much to be done in helping your Soul grow as one with The Father in His Way? Sometimes you feel that your intelligence is what is real, that your ability to discern God's Way is enough for you in every way. Only a foolish child would feel this superior, this knowledgeable in God's Way.

This is what I want each of you to do today: Examine the conscience, examine it well. Examine the truth, examine it in the way that you feel God Wills it to be. Remember, your will is weak and God's is Strength. Take each moment and cherish it, but in doing this, be sure you are directing all these to God. In examining your conscience, be sure that all truth is accepted by you and you do not make excuses for what is true.

And, on the morrow, when the Man of God celebrates, will you be there or will you make an excuse? During the day, will you forget the Rosary, the Beads of Love, Her Way? You know, My children, it is easy to say, 'I will do it another day.'

Grow strong in God's Way. If you but knew the truth, that there is no challenge in loving Him, that each act of love you give is so small and yet truly loved by Him. Do not be so smug that you cannot see His Love. Do not judge others; wait for Him.

Many Words have been given by The Father, by The Son, and by All of Heaven, to help children, as you, reach Here. Look to yourself first and picture your Soul, and then form a pattern to make It glow, but be sure, when you do, you ask The Father's Advice and listen, for He never refuses to answer when a child beseeches Him for advice.

I bless you from the Heavens in a way unknown to you, and the Manner of My Speaking is unusual to you, but you are Blessed in many ways for this act of love to God, in sharing the Words from Above."

JANUARY 18, 1971 AT 4:35 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Many men work among other men without once mentioning The Father’s Name. Many men feel shy about saying to other men, ‘Have you said a prayer today? Have you talked to God in any way?’ Or, ‘By the way, here’s a prayer you might like to say.’ With these words it would be nice if you were example. By this I mean allowing others to see how dedicated you are to The Trinity. Let a Crucifix show, let the Rosary be evident. Let the Holy Mass be your daily way, your daily habit, your daily need fulfilled. Do it out of love, to grow in love with your Creator.

It is true, all men have One Creator. It is true, all men have the privilege of receiving The Holy Eucharist. It is true, all men can say the Holy Rosary. It is true, all men can grow in Faith, in love and in understanding. It is true, God blesses you for the smallest act of love done by you. It is true that the Rules were set down by The Father. The Ten Commandments are for all men. It is true that you can one day grow in Sanctity. It is true, Sainthood is for you.

Many, many thousands of children are asking for someone to tell them truth, to give them hope, and to be firm where the Spiritual is concerned. Your lives touch only a few in comparison to the great amount waiting to hear. Do not waste one moment, one chance to deliver God's Love to other men.

I bless you with The Father's Love, with Hope, and yes, with a greater amount of Faith. See, My children, that you pass each test given to you to grow in God's Way."

JANUARY 19, 1971 AT 11:17 A.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“I have asked the child to gather all My children in strength together.

The gift of love is personal to each man. The amount it is developed is from man. Reward for physical things is expected, accepted and enjoyed.

Now let Us discuss reward for growing in love with God and for nourishing the Soul that is His. Man calls it ‘Grace’; so does God. I have received this Name: Our Lady of Grace. You do not often call Me this; you prefer Our Blessed Mother. This Name makes Me love you more for I am your Mother.

What is Grace to you? What does it mean for you? Why do you wish for it? Let Me tell you. Grace is a Gift, is Reward, is Love, for precious acts of love you do. Grace is as rain, cleansing you, helping you, drawing you closer to God. It has a purifying way. There are many advantages to Grace.

I could go on and on. My children, never be without desire for Grace, never without My Holy Rosary on you. Be conscious of the power it is, the worth it is. Never leave your homes without checking to be sure you have it.

My Words to you today are Truth, are Love, are Assurance. When The Father created man, He thought of all things in His Plan. So remember, your Purpose in life is to return to The Creator of Life.

When My Son suffered and died for you, He left a Great Gift for each of you so you could always partake in the Trinity of Love, for strength. I see you ignore opening the door and entering to receive the Gift of Love at the Table of His Word. The Holy Eucharist is for you, and when you say ‘Amen,’ it will be heard again and again. As children you must learn to sacrifice, to earn Grace that will be given to you for your small acts of love.

I speak slowly to be sure My children hear every Word, so that each of you will be able to reread the Words I gave you.

Ask yourselves this question: ‘Do I accept each day for what it gives me, for what comes from it, or do I accept it with God's Love, and desire to grow more in love, more in dedication, more in thanksgiving?' It is a good question, My children. Shed pride from your being. Shed self-love from your way. Be aware of humility, obedience, truth, trust and love, in God's Way.

I speak from the Heavens Where I am, to tell you I care for every man. God's enemy is loosed upon the world, so it will take much effort on your part to conquer and not yield to the degradation, to the sorrow that he dispels. Watch out for the net of curiosity for things that look good. Satan uses intrigue to gather children in the net, in the web, to entangle them. Ah yes, he is real, but so is his hate, so is his anger, so is his distrust, so is his envy, so is his turmoil. There is no peace when you give in to him. There is no love when you yield to him.

I expect each child here to reject sin, to conquer all the little things that cause you to sin. Remember, My little ones, sometimes two-thirds of the effort in performing the sin is because you do not allow your mental to reject the sin. Lock it out, remove it, and let only God's Love come in.

You look for peace, happiness. It is where you are, to a degree, but to enjoy it you must have it within you. Then you must nourish it to keep it alive, to help it grow. Oh, My children, see the evil with your eyes. Do not be blinded to it. It won't go away. It will wait for another day unless you reject it from your way.

The Father has asked Me to speak These Words to you. I willingly do it. I anxiously want you to react to These Words, to comply with These Words, to accept Them as Truth.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is far spread, widely known, and yes, teaching mankind the way to grow. You are blessed today in a special way. My Love comes to you with Grace to help you along the way. So be it for now, My little Souls. Remember, the power of Grace will help your Soul glow.”

JANUARY 21, 1971 AT 10:45 A.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My daughters, I am Saint Francis of Assisi, and in many ways, you must bend your will to extend The Father’s Will to all mankind. You are aware of the beauty of life, the wholesomeness that is available when all things are right. I do not say, ‘Wear a hair shirt,’ but I do say, ‘Wear an open heart.’ I do not say, ‘Kneel twenty-four hours in your day,’ but I do say, ‘Kneel and pray.’ I do not say, ‘Hate the world,’ but I do say, ‘Accept it in the way God Wills it to be accepted.’ Look at all things from God’s point of view. When you feel emotional, contrary, ask yourself, ‘Have I prayed today; have I asked for help, God’s Way?’

As I walked, many men wondered why I accepted things in such a small way. I did not accept God’s Love in a small way. My return of love was small in comparison to the magnitude of the privilege of serving Almighty God with sacrifice, penance and love.

Let you and I walk a street, where other men we meet. Some will be friendly, some reserved, some outgoing, and some, ah yes, a lot of nerve. We cannot judge any of these, for you see, we cannot see the heart that beats for God alone. We must treat all men equal because of this hidden zone.

In Heaven Many are Here that perhaps you know. They are in service to God in a way of one alone. Now, prepare yourselves for this event that you, too, are meant to partake in.

Do not struggle through each day but greet it with purpose and love will come your way.

Do not become disturbed when others do not feel like you feel, for remember, each man reacts to things differently. Two men can pray side by side, one devoutly, the other one distracted at times. God judges both men justly, and He understands their capabilities at the time. Do not become scrupulous, but when you feel failure, gather strength from The Divine and start again this beautiful climb.

You know, My daughters, God loves mankind, so despair is not God's Way. It is man's weakness that comes into play. Live a gentle life, a giving one, a purposeful one, a loving one, and as you do, bend your will to The Father's, for one day you will know how much He truly loves you.

I close with a prayer I want you to say each day:

'God, bless my way. Give me the strength today to see others Your Way. Help me to know what I must do to grow in love with You.'

So be it for now."

JANUARY 21, 1971 AT 11:55 A.M.

OUR LORD

“My daughters, when you leave My Presence today, what will you say, what will you do, what will you express to others from you? Will you express love, care, new purpose, or will you remain as you are, just accepting life? Let Me say this from My Heart, ‘Be fully aware of the purpose of love, the transferring of love, the giving of love, the necessity of love, the way of love, the reason for love.’

As I died for mankind, I lived. So you, too, must do this. You must die to the world that you love so much and live in the Realm Where All Sacred touch. Sainthood is Here for each child I hold dear.

Be aware of My Heart and begin each day acknowledging Its Love, Its Purpose and Truth. Oh, My children, speak to My Heart. It will never give you reproof. As I signal all children with the visible sign, I say as I do, ‘Be aware of The Divine.’ As you are aware, let your hearts combine with Mine.

Seldom does man see the truth, seldom does man say, 'Look to The Heart that He gave fully one day.' The heart, as you know it to be, is a physical thing, a shape all its own, a function so full, and yet, My children, it should say more to you. It says, 'I give you the motor of life to motivate you to love what is right.' It says, 'I extend the beauty of what is true to assure you of My Love for you.' The next time you feel prayer should come from you, look to My Heart and speak words of love. I will understand each one from you.

I bless you, My daughters, with The Father's Name and in His Love, from Where you came. I bless you with My Heart, a solid bond between Us. I bless you with the Light of The Holy Ghost Who stands, always showing you the way to the Gate of Heaven."

JANUARY 22, 1971 AT 10:20 A.M.

SAINT BERNARD

“I am Saint Bernard and I come for a special reason on this day. There are many Souls to be saved, many children to be aware of these Souls. What you know, share. What you hear, tell others, and teach the Beauty of The Holy Eucharist to all men. Do not let the conversation be nonchalant in attitude but let it be firm in view, and you must express the truth from you.

As I was on the earth, I spoke to many men. Not all felt as I did about the Soul, the Purpose of life, the way to God, but I tried to encourage their growth of Faith, their service to God, in many ways. You, My daughter, have the chance to help others who pass your way. The little ones will listen. The older ones might say, ‘I cannot adjust my life that way.’ So, it is important that you follow through by example in your way.

There are little ones who are confused for there is no one they know to stand up for truth. You must help teach God’s View in this way. On your own you can accomplish so very little, but with the help of God you can accomplish so much. Take the acts of love that you know about and place them in a basket of gold to lay at The Father's Feet, with each act ready to unfold a Soul that you know, a Soul that has gained closer union because you tried either to console or to direct, or you were example in God's Way, God's Love.

Little ones need to know certain prayers. It gives them a home base to work from. Too few men are ready to teach such prayers. In prayer there is life, in prayer there is Faith, in prayer there is counseling, in prayer there is love: basic things for man to lean upon, basic needs to help mankind through dismal times, through dark hours, through times of doubt. Man should enjoy the Spiritual and accentuate it each day he lives. You, My daughter, can be an instrument for this.

I bless you, My children, with God's Love, and with the desire to spread the act of prayer, the desire for it, the beauty in it, the purpose of it. So be it for now."

JANUARY 22, 1971 AT 2:25 P.M.

Note: This Revelation was given to two little children.

SAINT MICHAEL

“My children, I am an Angel of great renown. My Name says ‘Love for God, it’s all around.’ Many children have inherited My Name. I stand for strength, for courage, and all men are told to turn to Me when evil lurks. The love I have for God is far beyond man’s knowledge, but it is strong and firm, as yours should be, My love.

Let Me hold your hands and take you on a trip with Me; one on the right, one on the left, and We will walk steadily. I will point out to you the many things that mankind does not know about Heaven. Individual Saints will beckon to you if you will but let Them. Remember, My children, to open your eyes wide to see the whole spectrum.

As We walk, there are Many Saints gathering to discuss the desires of all children. There are Saints discussing the problems that some children have. There are Some Saints performing many Miracles; God's Power, God's Love, through the Saint, for children such as you.

There are Thousands of Angels happily doing God's Will. There is music, there is love, there is power in all things. The Beauty is of a range man cannot see. God is so earnest about all children seeing Him, loving Him, returning to Him.

Please, My children, walk with Me and never leave My Side. I will protect you from evil things and I will be your guide. I am Saint Michael and you must keep My Name on your lips so it can be said instantly.

I bless you with God's Love. Remember My Name, remember Our walk, remember Our talk. So be it for now."

JANUARY 22, 1971 AT 3:35 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My son, My daughter, when was the last time, as you made The Sign of The Cross, you thought of the Truth behind It, the Beauty in It, the Love of It, the Sacrifice It stood for, the Purpose, and Its Full Meaning? Or, did you just do it without thought? I could tell you of the many times you accepted It in a habit way and did not accentuate each step.

You are God’s Love, so you are Mine. You are God’s Truth. Each day you accept things casually and ask proof. Now I ask you the same. Do you love God in the true vein? If All The Saints, Who have well-known Names, were to gather Their thoughts and teach you all the things that helped Them get to be Saints, would it help you? Yes, but I can simplify for you the way to Here, the rules to follow, and the road best for you.

First: The Sign of The Cross, sometimes in public: would you say this is too much?

Second: The Act of Love, God's Love to you, The Holy Eucharist: do you make a point of accepting This each day?

Third: Do you say the Rosary out of obedience to Our Lady, or do you make excuses regarding time?

Fourth: Do you combine your heart with The Son's Heart? Do you accept His Love openly?

Five: Do you renew your thoughts on the Ten Commandments? Do you examine your conscience honestly? Be sure, My children, time is spent on this.

Six: Do you teach others, by example, the beauty of loving God, or do you let them think you are weak in this way?

Stand strong, stand firm, so if your Faith is challenged no fear will come your way. Do you act humbly or do you let pride reduce the beauty of many meetings that could express God's Love from you? Remember, My children, pride is weakness, humility is strength.

There are many things I could say. There are many acts of love I could show you how to do, but I want you to pray and ask God to show you the way.

Remember, God's enemy plays tricks on you. Be alert at all times of what he can do. As a safeguard for you, say The Divine Praises at times when you are about to embark on earthly matters. When you are about to face problems for others, say to yourself quietly These Praises, and many times you will find situations change, people dwindle in size, and arrogance fall by the wayside. Be earnest, be honest, be truthful, be just, be courageous, but be strong.

I bless you with Heavenly Love, with God's Power. Do not dismiss My Words for They will give you strength. Do not cause antagonism with certain children, but understand their way. I am Saint Joseph and the means by which I speak to you has been used many times by God. In some ways it is the strongest force in the world to reach mankind. So be it."

JANUARY 26, 1971 AT 10:25 A.M.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA

“Heaven is Here for you. What are you going to do, refuse It, deny It, make excuses not to try It, or are you going to work for It? You know it is your will that will decide it. I walk as a Saint and I walked as man one day, so I speak with knowledge that you have the chance, the privilege, the opportunity to come Here one day.

Oh, My daughters, do not deny yourselves the Beauty that is Here. I know how you think, I know how you feel, I know how you sometimes limit yourselves in growing in God’s Way. I know, for I, too, once walked your way. In the marriage state, I was. In the motherly state, I was. In the religious state, I also was. I am referred to as Saint Rita.

Please, My daughters, let the past be past; the present, available to you now, used in a precise way, a loving way, a humble way, a growing way for God. Accept for yourselves, acts of sacrifice, penance. Keep the habits you have directed to God. Eliminate the habits that only express self-love. I do not say, 'Don't be you,' but I say, 'Grow in love and improve you.'

Dedicate more time to The Holy One, serving Him, talking to Him through prayer of your own. Look to The Holy Eucharist in the Beauty It is, in the solid form of The Father that It is, and accept It with love. It is Food for all men.

Speak to Our Lady after you have been obedient to Her Will, to Her Way, by saying the Holy Rosary each day. The more you say, the more help you give to others who now cannot pray. You recognize obedience as a beautiful thing. Remember, My daughters, you too, must be example of this. Our Lady has asked in each Vision of Hers that children say special prayers to Her; the Rosary, Her Choice among all the others, so do not ignore this.

My little ones, be aware of the Realm beyond yours and understand that it is a Special Realm you must take part in fully one day. As I speak I say Each Word with the Power of God. It is His Wish, Each Word, so remember to pay much attention to the Direction for you.

I bless you with His Love, with His Beauty, and I say to you, ‘Have Faith, My little ones, and it is your duty to reach for Heaven and work for It through acts of love, through prayers.’ So be it for now.”

JANUARY 29, 1971 AT 1:00 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“I pound the table, I shout orders, and I say, ‘Be patient, be loving, be purposeful, be in sacrifice, be in penance, be in devotion, be in strict service to God.’ What other men say and do that is outside God’s Plan, let it bypass you; and you must concentrate and accentuate what is meant for just you.

As you make an offer to The Father, be sure you are sincere. Be alert to What is Here. Heaven is not just a Great Place, but a Heavenly One. Many times We approach The Father, asking Him to help a child in disgrace, in need, in fear, in doubt, and The Father does not shout, but quietly says, ‘Help the child in ways he can understand so he will not become lost to What I Am.’

I, as you probably know, walked the road, eager to please God, to satisfy any need God might have, to show what truth really is. The garb I wore was torn but I knew men were more anxious to see what radiated from me. You, too, in any way of life, in any time, must express The Divine.

I walked in a time not familiar to you. Only through books do you know what people had to do, but in many ways, My time was no different than yours. We were men and we had to spend our daily hours taking care of the physical, to a point; exercising the mental, to a point; stimulating love for God to a great degree; accepting the physical way as the stepping stone to Here.

When man uses a rock to stand on, he must be sure that the rock is firmly on the ground. So this can be compared to the physical life you are about. Stand firm, stand in truth, stand in a glow that will bear much fruit. Be wise but humble, be alert but sincere, be giving but learn how to take, be in service to Him Who Is. No matter how you feel, lonely, in despair, know that you walk in God's Eyes and in His air. You breathe what He gives, you are what He made you. Recognize all this and be satisfied with even less.

My sons, I, Saint Francis, lead you. I do not pull you, push you, but I stand as example for you. Let your lives be God's, let your way be His, let your knowledge be truth, let your giving be in His Name. I bless you from God's Realm, Where I am, to stay."

JANUARY 29, 1971 AT 8:45 P.M.

SAINT MICHAEL

“I lead an army and you are a part of it. I will lead you into battle and I will ask you to follow Me quickly. We are about to meet the enemy. He is well-prepared. I turn to you and say, ‘Are you ready to fight for God?’ So I check the weapons well.

Ask yourselves this question: What weapon do you carry? Is it a sword? I have one, but Mine is the Sword of Love. It is the best weapon against satan. Remember, it has the sharpest blade and the quickest motion. It strikes fast and it spreads quickly. It does not make a clean cut for it does not cut in one place. It cuts in many at one time: at ego, at self-pride, at self-love, at arrogance, oh yes, and sometimes even at a strong point, but when it is evil only.

Now let Me say this: Are you still behind Me or have you gone amiss? Have you decided to leave the fight or fight right by My Side for a cause of Greatness? I am leading and I am ready to show you the winning side.

Oh, My children, stand straight, stand tall, and be aware of the enemy and make him fall.

We have come to the first line of battle. Our first strike is good. They are backing down but there are some who are strong. I suggest We use another weapon so nothing will go wrong. I shout at you, ‘The Rosary will help, and win the battle strong.’ Are you yet behind Me, straight and tall? Don’t lose sight, We have won. So don’t forget, don’t take a chance and be without the weapons: love for God, the Rosary and all.”

FEBRUARY 1, 1971 AT 2:05 P.M.

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

“There is a great field of flowers. There are only two paths in the field. If you walk any place other than the path, you will crush the beauty that it is there. One path is marked ‘Love of God’. The other path also has a sign, ‘Self-love’. You are standing in the middle of the field with the choice. Your will, will make the choice. It will not take intelligence to make such a choice. It will take truth, justness, loyalty, love. Seeing as to how both roads have the word ‘love’, then the determining factor will be which is greatest in these, love for God or self-love?”

Hell is full of those who loved themselves so much, or those who were eagerly influenced by destruction. Those souls would walk on the flowers just to enjoy the softness under their feet. I do not feel any child in this room would choose this way but would have the desire to stay on the path. If you choose self-love, I must ask you to be prepared for unhappiness, despair, turmoil, and all things that will guide you the opposite direction of Heaven. Please, My children, step on the path to Here and be aware of the Beauty that can be yours.

Now that you are on the path, take these things into account. Walk one step, pick a flower. The first one you pick We will call ‘acts of love’. Walk a little further down the path. Now let Us name this flower, ‘small sacrifices’. A few more steps, and now another flower, ‘penance’. A few more steps and another flower, ‘serving God’. Keep going, don’t stop until you have gathered a bouquet that fills your arms with the Odor of Sanctity. The time will come and you will say, ‘What shall I do with this bouquet?’ My first thought is this: to place it at the Feet of God. He will not see only flowers, but will see your love.

On this day These Words are not meant to be just a story, but a way to live, a way to serve, a way to love. As I walked in the physical world, I was as you, of flesh, and interested in many things. I am now known as the ‘Little Flower’, for I spent my life picking certain flowers, asking for certain ones and craving to see them. I always felt the ultimate gift of love, act of love, was the rose, but the little ones meant just as much to me. I remembered them as I walked along the road. There was a little purple flower all alone. I knew if I picked it, it would soon die. So I knelt down beside it and wanted to cry. My heart ached to have it in my hand so I could enjoy it as I walked the land. I asked God what He wanted me to do. I knew instantly. He would want me to preserve the life and enjoy just the view.

As I walked farther down the road, I saw children playing in the field. They were happy, they were laughing, and all of a sudden I heard one squeal. He had fallen over a rock and his knee began to bleed. The other children ran about, running to the need. They stepped on flowers, just to help, and suddenly a little girl ran up to me with a plea to run and help the little boy's knee. I ran through the field with no thought of where I was going except that another child was crying for help. As I looked at the knee I asked God to wipe it clean, and suddenly the knee stopped bleeding and joy was seen.

As I looked back to the road, I realized that some children scream for help and no one hears. So, from now on, don't wait for tears but lend a hand to someone in need. When you do this, name the flower as a deed. Do not let nervousness or pride rob you of the beauty that can be inside. Don't look for just the beauty that's around, but see the need.

There are many Lessons in What I say, and I ask each child here to begin today to walk the path to Here. Do not be stubborn, do not be quick. Be gentle and be kind and let the flowers that you pick be only for The Divine: an act of love, an act of charity, an act of hope, and when you feel self-love creep in, remember the path you're on is love for God and not the other.

I could speak on and on but there is no need for this. The Lessons I have taught, if followed, will give your life a touch of bliss. I send you roses with much love, any color that you want. They will not die for They are from Heaven Up Above. These Roses are Graces to help you carry on, on the path leading to God, in the field of flowers that you love.”

FEBRUARY 1, 1971 AT 2:35 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“In the middle of the room I place a box. It is tied securely, tight. Would you be curious? Would you feel delight? How can you be sure what the box holds? It could be good, such as gold, or it could be evil, such as demons. It is an object you are not sure of. What will you do? If it is not good, will you withdraw or will you stand around and ignore what’s inside? and now I close the door. Leaving the room would be more difficult.

Remember, My children, be alert to what could be evil. Do not accept just covering as protection. Be aware, be wise. I did not tell you whether it was wrapped colorfully or just in a bland shade of tan. Either way it could cover something wrong.

I give this Message to you today, as an example of things that surround you every day. Sometimes they are packaged, and you, going forward in your little way, blindly accepting what may be there, not suspecting that it could be harmful. Now, this package could be man, with a covering to hide what is inside. It could be speech of someone you know. Please, My children, be aware of what could go wrong, what covering could disguise, even in front of your eyes. Is this not so? When you listen to someone speak, look beneath what they say, not maliciously, of course, but be aware that satan uses 'coverups' in many things.

I will open the box for you Myself, and now I look inside. Ah yes, it is good for it says this: Receive The Holy Eucharist to give you strength. Say the Holy Rosary each day. Make visits to where God is, in the Tabernacle close by. Perform acts of love God's Way, and do not let a day go by without being aware that you performed small sacrifice for a loved one, for a friend; and yes, can you say a little penance went from you today?

No need to worry about not being able to escape, for the box was full of Love from Me, for I am a Saint. I am Saint Joseph, and I come today to prepare you in an easy way. The box could have carried sin, hate, turmoil, but this kind of thing would not have come from Me. I love you and I bless you with The Trinity.”

FEBRUARY 1, 1971 AT 7:45 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Soul, Body, Guardian Angel
Obedience, Trust, Love
Heaven, Birth, Hell
Trinity, Our Blessed Mother,
Sainthood

There is a Crown that waits for you, the Crown of Sainthood. I ask each child here to reach for the Crown, step by step, as you live on earthly ground. On the morrow when you wake, the first step you must take is to make The Sign of The Cross and begin the day recognizing The Trinity that gave you life each day. The second step for you, My children, is to accept the day as a stepping stone to Sainthood, Where I am speaking from today.

All the Words spoken thus far, since you entered the room, were from Me, for I, Saint Joseph, know each heart. When you feel disturbed, tired or overly absorbed in the world, make The Sign of The Cross and ask The Father to help you think of ways to straighten your thinking that particular day.

As the Men of God, your earthly priests, stand on the Altars with the Power of Change, you must be aware and you must share the Magnificence that takes place. Oh, My children, be awake to what happens every day for your sake. The Heavenly Gift is One Alone. Do not ignore The Holy Eucharist that waits for you to walk up to the Altar and accept the union with the One Who created you. The Food It is, the Strength It is, the Love It is, the Beauty It is, is One Alone.

If I were to hand you a rare jewel, uncut, you would accept it and be happy for it. Each day on the Altar, a Precious Jewel is handed to you, cut to size, given with Love. Do not omit the walk, do not reject the Gift of Love for you alone. During the day, you will feel strong if you will but accept the Gift. You will feel Love that no one can give.

And now I add, be watchful during the day, that satan does not interfere and try to cause you to stray. The greatest weapon in the world is Our Lady's Gift to the world; the Holy Rosary must be a part of you. Our Blessed Mother asks Her sons to carry the Beads in a pocket, so She will know that instantly you will be able to gain strength from the slightest touch to the Rosary.

Do not walk through life ignoring these Gifts given to you. Also, another gift just for you, access to a visit to Someone dear to you, a visit to The Blessed Sacrament to tell your troubles to. No better place to go than to kneel before The Father Who created you. Speak out your mind, tell your needs, cry if you must, and give your plea. You will be heard by The Trinity.

My little ones, My daughters and sons, place yourselves under My Mantle and I will protect each one. The questions asked when you first arrived were Mine. I smiled when you said the things you said regarding the Presence of The Holy One. If you could but see the Love that He Is, you would melt with delight. Oh, My children, let tonight be your step to Sainthood, and do not let pride rob you of strength. Be aware of this phrase, be aware of the truth: Pride is weakness and humility is strength.

When you are ill, the physical body must go through a healing process. Is this not so? Do not allow your Souls to be so darkened that They cannot glow. Be aware at all times, from this night on, that if you were given the challenge to allow your Soul to show, would you be happy, would you be sad, would you be ashamed or would you be glad? The brighter your Soul, the more humble you are. Remember, My children, God is not far away from your being, from your life. Make small sacrifice, do small penance, and thank Him for the physical life.

When you were born, you were born with a will. The will is what you will use to determine the way you will go: Sainthood, or to the enemy below. I could not bear to see one lost for I know what it costs The Father, The Son and The Holy Ghost. As My Son is your Father, I am your Father. Turn to Me, and no small request will be much bother. I know you are tired after your long day but tonight is a beginning to reach for Sainthood. Remember, I will look forward to Our seeing Each Other Face to face one day. So now, when I say, 'I have entered the room,' I speak in truth. I have truly come to you. So be it."

FEBRUARY 2, 1971 AT 11:25 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“What is friendship? What is love? Do you enjoy both, and do you direct each of these to Heaven Up Above? What is life? Is it just a physical form or is it a Heavenly reward? What is turmoil? What is peace? Do you encounter both in your daily way? What is The Holy Eucharist? Does It mean much to you? Do you hold It close to you? What is the Holy Rosary? What part does it play in your way? Do you say it every day? What is a gift? Is it happiness? Is it joy? Or do you dislike receiving gifts?

My children, all these questions are part of your living as man. You engage in participation of definite things depicted by the Words I gave.

Now I ask, ‘What is beauty? Is it just a visual thing or do you understand it’s a feeling that begins small and grows within?’ Many men reflect beauty and their physical form is not encouraging to look upon. Man places much emphasis on beauty, but the greatest beauty in the world is the glow of a Soul that shines through the physical man in the world.

When you enter the Kingdom of Heaven, there will be Souls all around. Some will glow to great degrees and Others will just be around. Be aware of this time, that it must come to pass. So I ask each child here to work on the growth of your Soul and let It become so bright that the Light will show you the way to Heaven Where I am.

I bless you with The Father's Love. Be aware that It is Truth. I bless you with the courage to help your Soul grow in you."

FEBRUARY 3, 1971 AT 10:15 A.M.

SAINT PETER

“The Lessons I have just taught were to secure your knowledge and love for God.

As we walked the earth with The Son of The Heavenly Father and the earthly Father, we recognized the physical life as the means to a future, full life. We saw in Him Example, Truth, Trust, Love, but all these things were for a Divine Being, a Being on a Higher Level than we knew. Many things He said were simple, almost trivial, but Profound in Their depth of meaning.

As we walked, you walk, listening to the Teaching, the Guiding, the Counseling. Our Advice to all men is to open your hearts, open your minds, and allow your will to express The Divine, to live in hope, to live in love, to live in trust.

The material way you have, we had. You have invention but we had comparable other things, to allow us diversion of time, to allow us time-consuming environment. As we walked with The Holy One we played games, tricks, and had fun. We were men and we knew that the time would be, He would stop us and we would listen to the Words He would decree. We waited anxiously, for His Teaching was one alone. Sometimes we would wander off as we walked the road, but always to return, ready to listen to the Divine Plan.

Our love grew, our need grew, our trust grew, our Faith grew, our way grew, and we, in our human way, wanted to please God in a Divine Way. Nowhere did He make us understand. We used our wills to understand. Nowhere did He force His Plan, but His Example as man gave us the desire, the interest, to follow What He said, to see The Father at the Head, to exercise our will to do the Will of The Father.

We often wondered why He was sad. We did not know that our weaknesses and those of other men, would cause Him horrible pain in the Divine Plan. We accepted eagerly and without question, the Beauty He taught. When He was solemn, we noticed it, we reacted to it, but I cannot say we shared it. Our weakness was to persevere in our own way. He knew our love and its depth. He knew our capacity and its amount. He knew our abilities and where He would, one day, use them among men.

All through time these actions have been repeated again and again. All through time men have disappointed Him for lack of trust, lack of strength, lack of courage, lack of love, in His Way. I say these things to help you understand that you must walk as man, but be aware of God's Plan; and use your will to be example to other men.

I am Saint Peter, and I speak in firmness today for I want all men to see My Words that must help them to follow this way. I add another Word, 'Pray.' I bless you from Where I am, and as I raise My hand, the Blessing I give is to every man. Listen to God's Plan. So be it."

FEBRUARY 3, 1971 AT 11:00 A.M.

SAINT ANNE

“I enjoyed your talk. I was the mother of the Daughter Who is now known as The Queen of Heaven. I, Saint Anne, come to daughters as She, interested in love, encouragement and service. You see, My children, no thought of yours is gone unseen, unheard by Heaven.

Live your lives openly, as example, to help others arrive Here. As you walk in the worldly way, there are many issues to be settled in the human way. Sometimes you forget to teach the children of the Divine Truth, Divine Guidance, Divine Help, Divine Love. You take for granted they know, they accept the Beauty, they have Faith, they are encouraged to follow God and His Plan.

As you go your way, drop notes of interest regarding the Heavenly Way. Speak openly of favors you have heard others gain through prayer, sacrifice, penance. It would be wise, daughters, to discuss Other Saints and Their way. Ask them to join in with their knowledge. First look up facts on a Particular Saint. Drop little hints regarding the Saint so that the children will be alerted to the Saint's existence, and perhaps something you say will be what they feel that day.

Children are not being taught the road of hope, the road of life, the road of truth, the road of trust. Too much is taken for granted. Too much fear is planted, for so many children do not want to interfere in others' thoughts, others' wills, others' way. This is wrong thinking and misinterpretation of expressing truth. Please, My daughters, gently, firmly place knowledge in the little one's way. It will leave a mark where they will think of what you did say. It is a way of helping them grow in the Heavenly Way. It is a matter of need for every child every day.

From little on, children should know, children should be told that Divine Plan awaits them, Divine Will must be seen, must be obeyed, for at the Head of the Divine Will is The Holy King. Children are told of royalty earthly. Some feel it would be a privilege to partake in a session with this royalty. Alert them that they can partake in action with the Greatest Royalty in the world every day. The purpose of their lives should be shown to them. It will eliminate fear in many ways and it will give them much strength.

I bless you this day in the way of a Saint, and I ask each child here to accept the teaching that must be done to allow the children to learn of the Heavenly Way. So be it for now.”

FEBRUARY 6, 1971 AT 11:15 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man has learned to extend a greeting, a hand, a word, to let other men know that the human form accepts the other human form. Man does not always treat God this way. He sometimes ignores His Existence, His Personal Touch, His Beauty. This cannot be your way. You must learn that each day He has to be a great part of you.

I know, My children, you are aware of the Beauty that Heaven must be and of the Magnificence God is. Do not allow your weak nature to not see God’s Purpose for thee. Let the seed that is within you blossom out to touch every cell of you. Let the roots of this seed be fed by love from thee. Let the strands that seep through your body grow fast, so that every corner of you will radiate true love for God at last.

When you feel unsure in the eyes of man, be humble and think of God’s Plan. When you feel anger rise, be conscious of the Beauty in God’s Eyes. When you feel torment, hurt, illness, fear, look at the Crucifixion and hold It dear. When you feel a child of yours is wandering out of sight, gently take him back and encourage only God's Light to shine from him; but remember, to do this, you must be full example. A child imitates what he sees, what he feels, what he hears, what he knows, and accepts what is truth. Is this not so?

There is a scroll on the wall, evident to you. It says: 'Be guided by the Words I placed here for you.'

First: Never let a day go by that you do not try to grow in God's Eyes.

Second: Never omit from your daily way the practice of prayer in a special way.

Three: Radiate God's Love, for do not forget, you were created by He.

Fourth: Be example to all men that you are aware the Divine Power must be revered, must be accepted, must be adored. Remember the Crucifixion of Our Lord.

- Five: Let other men see your love for The Heavenly Mother. On your person keep Her Rosary. Let others see it in some way, some form. They will think it accidental but She will know you are leaving a hint to help others grow.
- Six: Turn to Me for guidance, for love, for protection, for security. I will give it spontaneously.
- Seven: Sacrifice on little things will bring you Grace to conquer big things.
- Eight: Teach the Ten Commandments to those you love. Learn them first yourselves. They are strength giving and give purpose to life as man.
- Nine: When temptation of any kind is in your way, say the Divine Praises and it will go away.
- Ten: When you genuflect before the Tabernacle, do it in humility, reverence and love, and as you go down, tell The Father you recognize His Love and to help you to your feet so you can serve Him in all ways.

This is an act of prayer He loves to hear from those who take the time to go before the Tabernacle where His Heart is all the time.

I bless you with God's Love, with Truth, with Faith. I know your hearts and I say, 'Be strong, My loved ones, every day.' I am Saint Joseph and I come today to teach you, to guide you The Father's Way."

FEBRUARY 8, 1971 AT 4:10 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“We are on a walk, you and I. The ground is firm but the terrain is changing almost instantly. Now We are among rocks. Each rock has a color all its own. The ground is rising almost to a degree of angle, difficult to walk. You find yourselves sliding back, too breathless to talk. You are more conscious of My Presence and My continuing to walk. I keep going, I keep talking, and you struggle along, determined to follow because of My Way, My Will, My Love. I do not take your hand until you ask for help.

We are at a spot now and I see you need a rest, so I stop and chat awhile. None of you request to travel on but I know it is important that you reach the top, for there you will find your Shangri-la: Heaven, Love, Truth. I hint to you to ask for My Help. I stand up to begin again; you stand ready to go forward. I take one step and then another. As you begin to move you slide back. You suddenly realize you can't go on. You quietly say, 'Please, God, take my hand.' I smile and say,

‘It has been ready for you to use all the way. You have it. Now let Us climb together so We will find the Beauty at the top that I have placed there for you a long time ago.’

As We walk, Hand in hand, oh, you will slip now and then, but never to fall behind, for remember, My Hand is Divine. We’re almost at the top. Do not become overconfident or you will drop, but hang on tight, walk along, and soon, all together, you will see the Light, a Light unknown to man, as long as you hold My Hand.”

FEBRUARY 10, 1971 AT 10:30 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“I hand you the greatest medication for mankind: prayer, love for God, hope in Him, and complete trust in His Will. I hand it to you firmly and say, ‘Partake in it fully.’ Do not forget to keep it as a constant medication. It is not in a bottle. It is not in a building. It is not in the form of a capsule or a codeine. It is in the form of a heart, in the form of a will, in the form of doing.

The Beloved Father shows His Love in countless ways. Children ignore what He sends, what He gives, what He shows. They feel they are more apt to find an easier way. Not so, My children. His Love for mankind is delivered each day in an Ultimate Form: The Holy Eucharist awaits you and all. It should be announced to everyone that the daily receiving of the Three in One is a knowledge all men should know; the Body and Blood of The Divine.

The Holy Rosary, the solid gift of love for all mankind to honor and to partake of, it is a tangible thing. It is as tangible as a diamond ring. It can be touched, it can be seen, it can be felt in any degree. The Beads are for man to touch, to remind them of the Beauty of The Queen. The power that is sent when these Beads are said is from God, The King.

I bless you with the Love of Heaven, with the cure for all things. I bless you with the Faith of Truth, to help you carry on as a human being. Benefits galore come from accepting the Gifts from Heaven, the Grace given. So be it for now. Carry on, go forth for The Trinity.”

FEBRUARY 12, 1971 AT 10:40 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man does not fully understand the Realm Where I am. Man has heard of Heaven but he does not place the Great Importance on It that he should. He pictures It differently than It is and he recognizes that It must be, but he worries as to how he will gain entrance.

My children, the door of Heaven is open to thee. It has never been closed since The Son gave His Life for thee. The Will of The Father was accomplished that time, and since then, mankind has been offered not a key, but the way to Eternity, for if it was just a key, it would not be sufficient; but the way is complete, and in all things, accepting the way is truth, love, dignity, integrity, purpose, and giving your will in all things that lead you to Here Where The Trinity is.

Look at the sky, look at the sun, look at the moon, look at the stars, look at what you call planets, and see the dignity of each one. They are separate in their way, a true sign of God's Creation, for He separated all things for a particular purpose and destination. The world you are on was given to you to use as a means of preparation for a Greater One. The world you are on is held by the Power of God, know this; the moon that you see, the sun that you feel, are three. So, as He gave these three for your comfort, and for Divine Purpose as well as physical purpose, you are so little compared to these, and yet you have the power, you have the Grace, you have the Faith to surpass these three, because one day you can live in Eternity with The Trinity. So be it, My children, till then."

FEBRUARY 18, 1971 AT 11:40 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My daughters, the act of life that you partake in each day has many sorrows, many joys. Sometimes they balance out at the end of day. If you are wise you will learn to have the joys outbalance the sorrows, for many of the sorrows have been made by you because you have treated a situation, undignified, with little kindness, and not realizing, sometimes, that it could have been turned to proving love for God instead of yourself. The sorrows that come with sickness, with human death, with human loss of a loved nature, are enough, so do not add sorrow with your little human touch. The joys are many if you will but seek them out, draw them out, and dwell on them; for when you do this, other men are attracted to your way, to your will, to your being, for all men want joy to be part of their way.

At this moment, if I were to show you, in the sky, three halos standing by themselves, you would imagine all kinds of things. If the light of the halos became brighter, then dimmer, then brighter, you would be held in awe and a feeling of delight would be yours. It would be joy. Compare a joy such as this with living a giving, hopeful, trustful, purposeful life. You can be as the halo to other men: glowing, joy. Many children kid about being good. They make remarks about wearing a halo. Please, think of the halo as love, as a desire to give joy. Some men do not know how to give joy or even accept it. Learn it, do it. You will find a happier you and more direction for you.

I bless you with the Halo of Light so often seen when a Vision is given of One in the Heavenly Court, of a Saint. As I bless you with This, it is to help you imitate all that is good, all that is right, all that is true, all that is bright. I love you with the Heavenly Light.”

FEBRUARY 20, 1971 AT 11:50 A.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My sons and My daughters, I come today in a way of truth and in a degree of Love unknown to you. I speak in poetry just for you. I speak in firmness, that is true.

Each day you live, be aware of what you must give. Each day is not a challenge but a Gift from God to you, and you must return it with love in a way familiar to you.

As you are of flesh and blood, I was too. As you walk with daily chores, I also did like you. I used the chores to serve God. I used my words to let others know of Him, and when I served other men, I did it for Him. My Name you have heard; It is Saint Anne, and when I walked the earth, I always said, ‘Let my way be example, God, for all those who follow in my path.’

As I mothered your Mother, it makes Me your Grandmother; and remember, My children, I will always love you, for it is My Love that will help you through many places that nothing else could. In the human way, a grandmother stands for a special way. She is understanding, she is giving, and yes, forgiving, and so as this symbol is familiar to you, remember, I must also be familiar to you.

I step aside for Another Saint to speak to you, One you know some things of, and some things are new to you.”

FEBRUARY 20, 1971

SAINT JOSEPH

“I, Saint Joseph, speak with Love, with firmness and in truth. You must pray to The Father to help you on the road to Here. Do ask the Saints to guide you. Do ask the Saints to help you, and yes, go to Saint Anne, for She will do all things as best as a mother can.

You, My sons, walk in a worldly way, in a way of truth, in a way exposed to much temptation and much untruth. Satan plays games every day. Do not fall into his trap but ignore what he places before you. Ignore the gild, the glitter it has, and be sure you form a way of prayer and dedicate your lives to Here.

There are many things I could speak of, many places to talk of, but you must know that the first step, the solid step, the true step is accepting The Holy Eucharist for you alone. The second step, of course, is the Holy Rosary. Make it a great part of your daily way and do not ignore what each bead does say. Acts of love, and in doing these things, be aware of the fruit that each one will bring; a kind word, a kind thought, a kind act when it is not easy; a loving act, a giving, when it is not an opportune time; understanding when it is difficult, obedience when it is least acceptable, and self-discipline when it is being fought by you. These are ways for you to improve and to reach for perfection.

Shed yourselves of pride, of ego. Look to a beauty inside, and above all things, pray. Pray in a little way so it will grow to a grand way. Multitudes have heard the word 'pray', but oftentimes this word has fallen on deaf, closed ears. Please understand that prayer is an easy thing for you. It is the habit of doing it that will be difficult for you, but once acquired, it will be so much a part of you that you will feel lost without it. I smile as I step from view, for Our Blessed Mother wants to talk to you."

FEBRUARY 20, 1971

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My children, it is with Love I respond to you. It is with Caring I come to you, it is with Grace that I reward you. Please do not ignore My Rosary. I need Rosaries to help Souls Who can no longer help themselves. I need your dedication in this way. There are so many Souls dear to Me that I want so much to share Heaven with Me. I do not want to wait until the Judgment Time. I want them now by My Side. It is so necessary for this to be, for as the Rosaries come, Souls come to Me. The Father allows certain things to take place. It is His Judgment that makes things as they are and that says, ‘This must happen before another happening occurs.’ So as I plead, so as I beseech, so as I beg all children, ‘Say the Rosaries of Mine for Souls to come Above,’ My Son stands ready to speak. He smiles at you with Love.”

FEBRUARY 20, 1971

OUR LORD

“As you sit where you are, I bless you, children, from Above. As you plan for the future days, I bless them with Faith. As you prepare to go forward, I give you Grace and I do say, ‘Let all things come This Way.’

As I was Man, I walked for you. As I am now in the Heavens, I take care of you. I look to your wills and ask you to bend them for My use. Ask yourselves today, how much of your will have you allowed Me to use and how much of My Will have you bent yourselves to?

My beloved children, We have All spoken, and the Main Message of This was Divine Love for you, to show you that your little way is loved by All Here, and your littleness is capable to come This Way, through sacrifice, through penance, through prayer, through desiring to please what is Here; and your obedience to what you are asked to do will be Blessed by Us Here. The Personal Love that was extended to you today must be accepted in a giving way. Follow the request and bend thy will This Way. I bless you with The Trinity today.”

FEBRUARY 24, 1971 AT 10:40 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My children, I speak to you now to teach you of truth, to make known to you your Soul Who is a Great Part of you. The Soul you have will one day return to Me, glowing to the degree you caused to be.

When you see a picture of a Divine Being, you often notice a Light in back of Him, around Him, telling you that They are of Supernatural Way. From now on, picture your Soul as a Light glowing from you, and that one day It will stand alone before Me. My children, when I meet your Souls I want Them to be so bright, that if I were human, the Light would blind Me. It is not too much to ask and not too far out of reach for you to attain this degree.

On the path of the physical life you will run into many obstacles, points of decision. Make up your mind now that the decision you make will always have to be the way I Will it, so the Light of your Soul will be greater for Me. I will not demand at the time that you think of Me but I will wait patiently, for it will be through your will, through your love for Me that you will grow in beauty and in dignity.

When you think of Heaven, your thoughts are good, but you sometimes wander off, being distracted by earthly goods. Please, My children, do not let sin or a lack of self-discipline cause you to wander, but be cautious that you do not control the Light of your Soul or limit it to just a small glow.

I will dissect your Soul for you now: A quarter of It will be nourished by your prayer, by your Faith, by your love. A parallel quarter of It will be nourished by your acts that you do, showing others love for Me. Another quarter of It will be how you decide to fight satan. Another quarter will be your distinct example of how you walk, how you live, how you teach Me. Combine all four and I promise you, the Light will shine with such a glow that when the time comes for you to be with Me, you will be in such peace, tranquillity, love, that you will ask Me to choose the time quickly.

I love you. What more can I say? So be it for now.”

FEBRUARY 24, 1971 AT 11:15 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“You are entering a new phase of life, a phase of understanding My Way. I ask you to face this with truth, with trust. I did not say, ‘Face it with knowledge.’ If you face the future days, months, years, with total trust in My Way, you will find a purpose for your life as man, for your time in the physical way.

You tend to place much significance on particular items in the material way. You tend to place much importance on your physical appearance. You tend to place inadequate amounts on the time you spend with Me. You tend to create mystery around Me. You tend to neglect serving Me.

Some children now are ignoring what I want, what must be. You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. You have read where they had to be wiped out, eliminated, because of the dreadful sin, the horror that was within. As you are centered in one room that has been Blessed by Me, you are only slightly aware of the agony, the turmoil, the destruction that is going on not far from thee. Souls are being lost through pride, through ego. Many children are accepting the easy way out, which, in reality, is not the easy way out.

Truth, if it is done with Me in mind, with love for Me as its root, will give a bliss, a contentment to your way. As you were born with a Soul, with a body, with a Guardian Angel, with a will, you must be aware of all these. All men were born with these four things. All men are to use their wills to return to Me.

Do not let deceit enter your lives in any form. Do not ask to serve Me, covering deceit in any way. If you approach with truth, you will gain truth. As was said to a favored son of Mine, 'Refrain from acts of love through satan.' Do not let your appearance belie your reason. Do not feel so content in your hidden meaning to things that you feel hidden from Me, for it is never as this.

As I speak through the child, I am aware of each of you, of the purpose of your life, and how you crossed the threshold. I know your needs, I know your thoughts, I know what is in your heart. When I faced man, when I taught man and urged man to follow Me, I never used a deceitful means; always truth, as I ask you to do.

Now let Me give you a prayer to follow every day to Here:

‘Dear Trinity of Love, guide me in all things. Teach me how You want me to be. Let my weakness leave me and let only strength in Your Way be seen from me. Let my love be as You want it to be, a giving love, in the Name of The Trinity.’”

FEBRUARY 24, 1971 AT 3:15 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“The greatest effort in the world, put forth, is effort to create self-satisfaction. Man says, ‘It is instinctive with me.’ Let Me say this, My children, ‘It has developed thusly through a constant doing.’ It is easy to love God, easier than to love man, for in many ways it is all receiving; the giving is so little from man.

As you see the first breath of a child, you know it is God-given. As you see a child with his first smile, you know that the muscles had to bend this way to create such an act, such an event through the child. A tear is sometimes so alarming for it brings sadness, hurt, trouble, fear. The kneeling in a prayer has satisfaction if the child has grown to hold God dear.

As you step into a time of satisfaction in things you do, in ways you act, keep in mind that it was God-given. No better time than now to learn to love so deep the One Who gives so much to each. A small ‘Thank You’ is quickly heard by Him. A tear shed by you is immediately seen by Him. A fear can be broken when you plead with Him. A smile is quick to Him when He sees you do little things that are fun, from Him. Never are you without His Sight, without His Hand, without His Light, so do not try to figure all things out by your standards of right, but use His Intellect, His Wisdom, His Perfection, to guide you each day, each night.

When you are unkind, do not waste time in asking forgiveness from Him. When you are impure in any form, be sure you immediately go to Him and explain how you understood, when it was done, the displeasure He must have had. When you find yourselves walking in only the ray of light that pleases you, turn around, look for Him, for His Light will be right behind you. Listen, you will hear the sound of His Steps alongside of yours. Never be too busy to keep Him in sight. Never get so involved with what you think is right. Bend your will with His. Do not try to give Him yours. It would be too easy.

My little ones, My love, in some things your heart is closed. Open it to what is truth and trust The Holy One.

Your time of prayer is short. This is your communication with Here. Be wise, My little ones, and set a pattern of prayer to be followed to Here.

Saint Michael's weapon, the sword He carries, is His love for The Father. It's mighty and it's strong and it is the greatest weapon against the evil one, love for God above all. Be sure at all times that, as you face truths, you carry your weapon of love, not a sword, but the Holy Rosary of love for The Mother Who stands Above.

I bless you in a way unknown to you but with Firmness and with Truth, with Faith, for it must grow in you. Remember, My children, it is God-given to you."

FEBRUARY 24, 1971 AT 3:50 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“I am Saint Francis of Assisi and I come with an eagerness to teach you the main artery you exist on in the physical form. The artery is life from God. It is nourished by His Love for you. It is the motor which makes you walk, eat, sleep, talk, see, hear. It is the motor of truth. The artery, to you, is a sustaining, continual thing, giving you proof that God is Above All Things. Because this is God’s Love for you, would it not be wise then to turn to Him for answers in all things regarding your state of life, your daily way?

On the morrow, when you awake, make it a special time and begin prayer each day. First, accept the Crucifix as a sign of how the life came, and now, look to the next act you perform through the day. Most likely it will be to cater to your way. Now, with this in mind, don’t forget to go to The Holy Eucharist, for He waits, and then, sometime during the rest of the day, let your hands flow over the Beads while you say ‘Hail’ to Our Lady again and again. Do not take the artery for granted but offer penance, sacrifice and acts of love, in reparation for the mistreatment you give to The Father Who is Above.

Please, My children, think before you act, and when you act, be sure that you direct all things to Above. Be kind, be gentle, and keep in mind the view of Heaven, the Goal for you, the Aim of every act you do. Use as a motto for each day: ‘Cleanse your mind, open your heart, and pray.’”

FEBRUARY 25, 1971 AT 4:05 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man signs documents and letters with a name given to him by other children. He places much importance on this name. He places much confidence on the name and he places much integrity on the name, and he wants the name to stand in dignity. If a name is this important to man, then man should understand the Most Important Names of all, the Names that make up The Holy Trinity: God The Father, God The Son, God The Holy Ghost. These, in reality, are the Most Important Names in the world. These stand for Truth in all things.

Be wise, My children, and let humility be much a part of you, let pride dwindle from you. Let the knowledge you have be just that, for knowledge is not wisdom. Prayer will give you wisdom. Moments of prayer should be for love of The Father. Desire of prayer should be to please Him. Action of prayer should be for a purpose beyond yourself.

Do not guess, but be sure, when you accept your reasons for what you do, how you do them. Do not let deceit enter any way in you, from you, through you. When you kneel, be truthful with The Father. When you talk, let Him radiate from you. When you express love for Him, be sure the love is not for yourself but of Him.

As I bless you today, it is different than you are used to, and unknown to you in many ways. There are many things you should read, but not to gain knowledge; to give Faith. I leave you now to give you time to accept What I have said to you in the manner of Love from Heaven Where I am. So be it.”

FEBRUARY 26, 1971 AT 11:25 A.M.

OUR LORD

“My daughters, I speak to you today with a firmness and with an eagerness to penetrate your heart and Soul with a desire for love for Me. I speak in a deliberate manner to let you know the Words come from Me. Every Word said to you thus far has been said as a command in love, for I am The Son of The Father Who created you.

I walked the earth as you. I walked in troubled times as you. If I were to ask each child here now to carry a cross similar to the one I carried for you, how agreeable would you be, how delighted would you be, how fearful would you be, how kind would you be, how generous would you be? How privileged you would be. The cross I hand is light. Along with the cross is strength. As you receive The Holy Eucharist and hold It within, inside your being, the degree of Love at this time is equal to the degree of strength you have for Me. I sometimes add a little more and sometimes make you want more, but everything I do has a reason and calls for trust from you.

When you laid your head the night before, you trusted Me that I would allow you to face the dawn. The trust was as a child would do, expecting The Father to come through. Tonight, when you lay your head, say a prayer to Me and offer sacrifice, offer love, give penance, and make a promise that you will love Me more. It will be easy to do and I will hear you; and remember, My children, the act will bear much fruit.

Do not make excuses but be direct, and take time when you speak to Me at the laying of the head. As you lay your head on a soft place, remember the time My Head, full of thorns, was pressed against a wooden frame that bore My Bones. It will make it easier for you to say, 'I love You, God, help me to grow each day.'

I bless you with The Father's Love and with My Heart of Truth, and I bless you with the Light of The Holy Ghost for you. I ask you to notice the Crown they placed upon My Brow, ridiculing My Royalty and causing Blood all around. Man has a lark creating indignities to other men, but I stand ready to catch a spark of love directed My Way. Sometimes the spark, when it is noticed by the child, can turn into a blaze in a little while. There are Many Saints Here with Me now, Who reacted to the spark, and suddenly They were consumed with love of My Heart.

So as I leave, I give you Grace to change what you must change, and to grow in love with Me in a beautiful, humble way.”

FEBRUARY 26, 1971 AT 12:00 NOON

GOD THE FATHER

“Be blest by the daily routine of the physical life. Be alert to the opportunities afforded you by Me. Anticipate what you can do to please Me. Look for little favors, little childlike acts of love that might please Me. Make example of your daily way so that others will see Me. Think of the things that you must keep in mind that will help you on the road to Sainthood: obedience to My Ten Commandments, purity in your way, and love in My Way.

Pray, My little ones, that you will begin to see the Beauty of Me and the ugliness of sin. Pray that you will get close to Me and become more aware of what pleases Me. Let your love be extended to My Heart and let yourselves be aware of My Heart. Look to The Holy Eucharist of Which I Am. Pray the Holy Rosary which is a weapon against sin. Take every little act you do and point it in My Direction, and rest assured, I will see it and grant you Grace as your reward.

Never feel you are alone. Be aware of your Soul I gave you before you were born. Be alert to your Guardian Angel, for nowhere would I allow a child to not be guarded all the while. Oh, My daughters, use each day in a beautiful way. Accept each day as a Gift from The Father, and live each day, cherishing it, guiding it to the Sanctity of the Real Tomorrow.”

MARCH 1, 1971 AT 2:30 P.M.

“A generous reward is always a happy thought. A generous giving sometimes has misconceptions attached to it. Children eagerly walk the physical road, looking for excitement, pleasure, stimulation, reward. Too many now are not taught the value of reward, the meaning of reward, the purpose of reward, or the distinct difference between rewards. Most children attach reward to a now, and a physical receiving. They are sometimes so eager to be the one to receive reward that they close out the beauty of receiving it and the beauty of humility in receiving it. They’re eager to be first, and sensitive to any unkindness or jealousy from others. They sometimes create the unkindness and the jealousy by their overprideful action.

My reason today for speaking on this to you, is to make you aware of the reward that can be equal for all of you. There is no one present who has more chance than the others. Each child is given the benefits, the opportunity to receive the Reward of Heaven. Sanctity is reward and is one distinguishable, not in the sight of man, but in the sight of God. Do you understand? Strive hard, press on, work diligently, and force yourselves to be so totally aware of the Great Reward of living a full life for God will bring you.

I place a table in front of you and on this table there are many rewards. One is fame, one is fortune, one is Sanctity. I know which you will choose. Some men would not choose as you. Pray for these men, for right now the turmoil that is all around is keeping men from thinking of God's Realm.

As a Saint I speak firsthand. I walk in this Realm of God's, eager to help all men reach Here, Where I am. There are thousands of Us Here, lending a hand to every child who prays for guidance, for help, for counseling. There are thousands upon thousands of children not aware of Our hands. They have not been taught.

Now let Us return to the table before you. The visual sight that I would place here regarding Sanctity might be in the form of a Crown. It will be up to you and your acts of love, and through them, to place jewels in the Crown. Oh, My children, teach all men how important it is to work for reward, but to be sensitive and alert to the obvious Reward that God has. You might help some pass up the reward for man to just satisfy his daily way and his ego at hand.

As I leave the view of the child who sits with you, I must say one more thing, 'The more you wish to please The King, the more Reward will be waiting for thee.'

MARCH 5, 1971 AT 12:00 NOON

OUR LORD

“As I once walked, gathering men, today I gather more. I am among them, teaching truth. You, My sons, I have gathered at a time unbeknownst to you. You did not see My Hand over you, touching you. You did not feel a jump of your heart. You did not get a letter in the mail. You did not get a call as you would term a call, but My Way is different when I call a man to walk with Me, to share My Love with The Father. If I gathered My chosen children in a group, you might be surprised at how few. You might be alarmed for the amount of work that was to be done by you.

I want you, and those as you, to cherish The Holy Eucharist, of Which I Am. I want mankind to know that as they receive the Body and the Blood of Me, We are One, and they are fused with The Divine. The more they partake in this Form of Me, the more strength will be there, the more love will be Here, the more understanding they will know, the more self-discipline will be given them.

Man does not know what this truly means, the combining of The Divine with the human means. Man takes it for granted, sometimes even as a lark. I enter the body and I speak, but sometimes the children are so easily distracted, so busy with earthly means, measures, actions, permissiveness, that they do not hear My Words, My Love. They go about as though nothing occurred. This Must Stop.

You, My son, are to show these Words to the beloved Man of God so he will know what I want taught to mankind. Oh, My sons, the Beauty that is given each day, in a moment, is far beyond man's knowledge, dreams, hopes, schemes, thoughts, needs.

I have given man all things to live by, to live with, to live for, to live in. Why does he search other ways, other means? They are false, they will only drag him down to the abyss of evil schemes. Man's ego, man's pride, man's envy are disastrous to him, for he places so much emphasis on them. To be great among men is no disgrace, and I do not say, 'Ignore this way,' but I say, 'Use it to lead man My Way'; but so few follow this pace.

Our Heavenly Mother has appeared to mankind — Gentle, Sweet, Firm, Loving, Kind — gently teaching them, telling them, warning them what to do, what would be best for them. They ignore the Visions of Truth. The Visions are fought by eager men who feel they know how Heaven will act. I could stomp them out, wipe them away, but My Love is patient, tolerant, waiting for them to change.

The Rosary must be said. It is a weapon that man should stand up to, with, for, using it with love for The Heavenly Queen, The Mother of All. Churches must recognize the power in it, the beauty of it, the dignity it is, the reason for it, the need it serves. The Father listens gently to The Heavenly Queen. She pleads with Him constantly, ‘Please, My Father, be patient with them. They will change, their wills will turn, they are just men.’ It is Her Love, Her Desire, Her Wish, that makes Him hold back His Fist, that causes time to be, for mankind must change. The Father says, ‘It must be.’

All Men of God should see this Message I give to the world. I am The Son of The Father and I am The Father of The Son, Saint Joseph; and it has been decreed that His Name, His Way, His Place, must be Honored and Revered all over the world by all races, all creeds, all men.

I bless you now with My Heavenly Way, with The Father's Love, with My Heart, and with the Light of The Holy Ghost, and I say to you, 'Include daily in your prayers The Sacred Heart, The Immaculate Heart, and The Obedient Heart of Saint Joseph.' So be it for now."

MARCH 5, 1971 AT 2:40 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man looks to signals to alert him, to give him direction to many things. Man looks to oratory to learn. Man looks to books to gain knowledge. Man looks to man for strength, for encouragement, for security. Man looks to the sky, seeing a wonder of God. Man looks to the paper and pen to remind him of critical things, definite answers, purposeful information. Man looks to his daily life as a means to an end. Man spends little time on the means to the beginning, the means of helping the Soul grow, of gaining Grace, of perpetuating God’s Love in him, around him, by him, with him, from him.

My daughters, I, Saint Joseph, speak directly through the child to you. Never before have you encountered such a happening. It is new, It is True, It is God’s Will. As I stand Where I am, I hear you speak of many things. Let Me now describe to you a few things.

First, the Purpose of you, why you are, what you are, what direction you must go. You are flesh, you are blood, you are human. The Purpose of your life is to prepare for a Higher Glory in Heaven. The degree of your height will depend on you and your will.

There are days you treat with a flip manner, indifferent to the true purpose of the day. There are days you feel depressed, out of the way of living, unconcerned about many things. You chalk it up to just living. When a child uses the word 'just' in this manner, it is sad. The way of living is important to God; every breath you take, important to Him; every move you make, allowed by Him. Be aware of this in your daily way, and know that you are not capable of sustaining yourself without Him.

Part of the daily way should be accepting the Divine Way, which is He. The Holy Eucharist, the Body and Blood, should be your first thought regarding Above. As you reach out to accept the Gift of Love He has to give, the very mixture of His Body with yours, His Blood with yours, will give you strength that nothing else can give. You do not see It as this, you do not see It in the Magnitude It is, but from now on try very hard to make your will bend with His. Know that when you do not receive What He gives, you rob yourself of life that truly is. He is Strength, Courage and Love. Why do you deny yourselves such a Gift?

And now, My children, I go on from here just to remind you of The Heavenly Queen and Her Wish for all men to arrive Here in All Glory, and to be able to say you used Her Beads every day.

I bless you with My Love, with The Miracle of Mine, with the Faith to face life, so one day you will be part of The Divine. So be it.”

MARCH 10, 1971 AT 10:55 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, I am Saint Joseph. My Words come to you with a Serenity, with a Hope, with a Purity, with Love.

In the world, man is struggling to conquer, so he can be important, so he can feel great, so he can determine what must be for others: power, dignity. If all men were to find within themselves the power of Grace, the power of purity, the power of integrity, the power of dignity, the power of love, the power of obedience, the power of self-discipline, the power of trust, man would be better able to face the daily way of life in a wholesome, loving, giving, profound way, and yet be able to withstand what must be in the way of disappointments, unhappiness, small mistakes, errors created by little thought.

Please, My children, grow so in love with The Father that you prepare yourselves to grow in perfection in His Way. Never omit seeking His Guidance, His Love, in your daily way of living.

Never omit dedicating yourselves to Him, for His Purpose, for His Reason.

I bless you, My children, with a Love not of your knowledge, but a Heavenly Love that speaks Truth, Teaching Wisdom, Trust, Kindness, Strength, Obedience. So be it.”

MARCH 10, 1971 AT 2:25 P.M.

“A long time ago a group gathered, ready to listen to Words, to Teaching, to a Dramatic Moment of Love. The Table was set by man for the purpose of repast, of sacrifice. In this setting, the ones who participated did not realize, did not know the true significance of this Table or what Blessings it bestowed.

The men gathered, chatted, and then the One Who led took hold; and first He sat, discussing many things, and then He stood, giving an Ultimate Food. As He raised the Bread He firmly said, ‘I give My Body to you and to all men.’ As He raised the Wine, He openly declared, ‘As you drink, It is I, the Blood of My Veins, the Truth of My Way, the Purpose of My Life.’

The repast was the Ultimate Gift for mankind. At the time, the Apostles were aware that what was happening was rare, but would be carried on through time.

You, My children, are the descendants of these men and are the recipients of the Power, of the Gift that was then. It is ultimately a fusion of bodies, a Transfusion for life to all men. As The Divine mingles with the natural, it is God's Plan. As the Body and Blood of The Supernatural is infused in the body and blood of man, there is much Grace given to withstand the blows of evil and the weaknesses of man. No Greater Gift is yours, no Greater Love is yours. Oh yes, My children, it is God's Love for you.

Teach this to all men. Stand up to the Truth of It before all men. Give These Words to all the men who follow in this way. Let them know that the Sacrifice of the Holy Mass is the same as it was done long ago; same Truth, same Greatness, same Beauty, same Plan: The One God, The One Son, The One Holy Ghost, in The Trinity as One.

Be Blessed by this day, be Blessed by These Words, be Blessed by the Truth that Heaven delivers to you. So be it."

MARCH 10, 1971 AT 3:35 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“When The Beloved Joseph and I were exposed to the whims of man, to the hate of man, to the power of man, and it was man that decreed that the Child be slain, Who was born to be King, We were sent out of the place We were in. The terrible happenings that occurred, the innocent children that were murdered was a horror I cannot tell you of now. It is happening again through different ways, through different means, for a similar purpose: to try to destroy The King.

My daughters, if you could see the sin that you walk through, you could not stand the stench that comes from it. Man is frivolously allowing himself to partake in destruction of men. As long as it is not he who suffers from the power that is truly weakness, he joins the game, walking a thin line of power among men.

There have been many warnings to mankind, alerting them, from The Divine. I hold back the Fist of The Beloved Father and I cry to My children, 'Change, be wise; I do not know how long I can stand Where I am, pleading with The Father to wait for man.'

Man does not say a simple Act of Contrition each day. He fears if he does, he will have to obey. Man does not look to The Father for Answers, for Truth, for Love. He looks wholly to man, who is weak and often governed by self-love.

Stand up for truth, do not deny it. Do not be weak, for mankind will turn all things into sin and make you think there is good within. No. Know, My children, there are many subterfuges, many, many disorders, many, many lies, many, many misinterpretations, many, many sins, being performed, accepted, contributed to, for a moment's pleasure to satisfy one's own will, to dignify sin.

The disgrace man should feel within should cause him to change, cause him to think before he sins. Man has become so accustomed to catering to his self-love that moral value is almost buried in the depths of the ocean, at the deepest point. Man has turned, not to God, not to the warnings, but to the flesh. Children are being led down the road to Hell. They follow in their innocence. They do not have the courage nor the strength, nor the power, to stand up to what they know in their hearts is wrong.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is to straighten out men's thinking, for children of all ages to be taught Heaven's Thinking; for children to come as children, not as antagonistic, powerful beings, for no man is powerful in the Eyes of God. All are children, all are subject to Him, all need Him, all should go to Him, pray to Him, love Him, trust Him, accept Him for the Power He Is.

If one man in the world were to have all the power in the world, he would have nothing in comparison to one touch of God's Power. That is how small man is in comparison to The Beloved Father. Man's power, man's idea of power is a distortion of truth, a weakness in many ways, insecurity, lack of assurance, a lack of Faith, a lack of hope, a lack of discretion, a tremendous need for help.

I speak to you firmly on this and I speak to you with a Power from The Divine. The Rosary must be said by all mankind. It is the greatest weapon you have. I want all children to see These Words, to know These Words, to look into These Words.

Every day man should be at the Altar of Love to receive The Holy Eucharist, the Greatest Gift, the Ultimate for mankind to receive. Tell man to not delay his habit, his practice in performing this act. It is a privilege to him. It is God's Love to him, for him. Man is not too busy to do this.

Saint Michael must be called upon constantly. He is ever ready to stand up for The Father, to stand up for truth. Nothing can back Him down. The Father has given Him the power to strike out, to wipe out the evil that is all around.

I bless you with My Love. Please, My children, be obedient to The Father, to The Son in all things, and ask the Light of The Holy Ghost to give you the Way, the Truth, the Hope, the Faith, the Trust. So be it for now."

MARCH 11, 1971 AT 11:15 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“A painting in the sky, covering a tremendous area, would cause man to look up, see, and be in awe of what was happening. The Ten Commandments should be as obvious to every man as if They were written in the sky. They have been handed down again and again. They have been taught and They have been allowed to be seen, given to the little ones so they can learn truth from wrong, so they can escape satan’s ways.

Man is not teaching the profoundness, the simplicity, the value of the Ten Commandments. Man must also teach the meaning of each Commandment so that all will understand each Commandment. Children look at the Words and desperately try to misinterpret Them, for to accept Them in the Value They are, the Fullness They are, the Truth They are, man will have to change.

I want evident in all homes, all places to be seen by the eye, the Ten Commandments. Remember this, pass it on. Let mankind see They are still in effect, still to be seen, still to be obeyed. There are other areas that must be involved in producing, displaying These Words, and the full meaning of Them. Let all men see what I want done. Man has dismissed These Commandments and has allowed frivolous, idiotic weaknesses to take hold. This Must Stop Now. So be it.”

MARCH 11, 1971 AT 1:50 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My children, My love, My cherished ones, My little devoted Souls, I extend My Arms to your little beings and profess My Love through the touch of My Hand, through the warmth of My Heart, through My Words to you. Heaven is just the Place for you. It is Happiness, It is Joy, It is Perfection, It is Love, It is All Things. It is a Place of Honor and a Place to always remain close to The King. Work hard to attain this Place. Work cautiously to grow in love with It.

As you walk each day, be aware of Where I am and the words that must be given to all men about Me, for Me, in My Honor. Teach children My Way. Let them know I am their Mother. Tell them that as I speak in Visions and through this child, it is because of My Love for them. Tell children to ignore evil, to not be sidetracked by it. Tell them to hold dear My Beads of Love. They are not only a weapon against evil, but are security, truth, Grace, patience, tolerance, joy, firmness, growth, trust in what has been decreed by Heaven.

So many children are afraid to believe truth, afraid to be part of a Miracle, afraid to stand by and walk obvious in the open where other men can see them. You see, it is important that children such as you stand so openly regarding truth that other men will be drawn by the power of truth, will be drawn to what you say and do, because of the truth in the words, the logic in the words, the love in the words, the wisdom in the words, the knowledge in the words. Yes, you must stand in an obvious way when you stand for God, when you stand for Me, when you stand for accepting Heaven's Way of doing things.

The Rosary must flourish around the world. All men must seek it, hold it, say it. All men must accentuate their love for it by participating in groups saying it. All men must learn to accept it in Faith, in love, in truth. All men must teach others the value of it. All men must see the purity of it and all men must accept purity as the way to Here. It is necessary, for God holds it dear.

The fashions in the time in which you live are obscene and distasteful, wicked, and must be stopped, for The Father sees only sin, corruption, hate, envy, jealousy come from them. Man has put purity to the test and behind all things. He scoffs where modesty is to be. Believe Me, My daughters, modesty must again be, must again be seen, must again be accepted by mankind, for the beauty it is, as Me.

Man must receive The Holy Eucharist to deepen his love, to further his devotion, to increase his Faith. It is the Ultimate Gift from The Father.

I bless you with Heavenly Grace. I bless you with The Trinity's Love and I bless you with My Motherly Way. So be it."

MARCH 12, 1971 AT 9:55 A.M.

OUR LORD

“Heaven is waiting for you; in time, of course, that is true. Do not worry about when, worry about how you can perfect your way to arrive Here. My children, I am The Son of The Father Who speaks to you now: an urgency to correct your weaknesses, your faults; an urgency to accept what is true, an urgency to change your weakness into strength, an urgency to accept God’s Will. I come in a Power unknown to you. I come with a Grace just for you. I come with Direction for you, so you will better understand the mission in life that you have.

First: Keep in mind each day, time of prayer, time of communication with Here.

Two: Accept, receive the privilege that is for all men. I stand on the Altar, pleading with children of all ages to come to receive the Transfusion of Me within their being. When this occurs I give strength, hope, love, Faith, endurance.

Three: As The Queen of Heaven stands Here, She pleads with all children to hold dear the Holy Rosary that is the greatest weapon man can have in fighting the evil one. Say it often, say it devoutly, say it with love. It is a prayer of repetition, of devotion, of care. It is a prayer set down from Here.

Four: Perform acts of love, showing other men the Truth of The Trinity, the Way of The Trinity. Please do this and stand in dignity.

Five: Teach others of all ages the Profoundness of My Way, the Purity of It, the Dignity of It, the Integrity of It, the Beauty of It, the Truth of It.

So many children do not know about The Trinity. It is being bypassed, being set aside, being diminished. It is being humanized. We are not of human way, We are of Divine Being.

I speak to you this morning in a manner you can understand, in a way you can handle, with Words you can follow in direction. The Words are simple, the Way clear; the Power with which you receive Them, Supernatural, Divine, and one no man can hear.

I bless you with My Sacred Heart and ask you to offer prayers to It, for love of It, so you will increase in love in It. I bless you with the Gift of Faith, the Power of Grace, a Heavenly Way to reward you for the coming days. So be it.”

MARCH 12, 1971 AT 12:10 P.M.

OUR LORD

“At this moment there is a child being born. He will enter the world helpless, dependent, and unable to see truth, falsehoods. He will be directed by other men. He will be influenced by them. He will be a victim of circumstances. He will be a follower of example displayed by those with whom he must associate.

It happens every day to the newborn, and sometimes they are destined to be led astray. Their background, the atmosphere, and the people who are in charge of them either care for God’s Way or do not care. Much prayer is needed for all people. Much help is needed to straighten out the thinking of those who lead the little ones in all ways.

As I walked the earth, I did not concentrate on a particular age but I did talk to men of all ages. I began to teach when I was very young. The Father had instilled in Me, Wisdom, Knowledge. As I taught I often wondered how much would remain, how much children would retain, but I went My Way, continuing on God's Way.

The day came, I was to walk away on My Own, gather men, handing out knowledge, giving truth, teaching men to bend their wills to The Father's Plan. There was no turning back; I had to go on. The Purpose, the Plan had to be carried through for the Salvation of man.

As you walk in the way you are, the giving you do, the example you display, the teaching you pass on, when it deals with love for The Father, it gains Grace for you. Dedicate all things to Him, ask Him to guide you in all things. Make it a point to reach out with love. There are many fallacies circling around, gathering children. Be sure you inject Faith, truth, knowledge, and trust for The Father's Way. Do it gently but firmly. Do it lightly but truthfully, and it will be seen, it will be felt, it will leave a seed. And I will nourish the seed as I go My Way, helping all children to come This Way.

You are Blessed with Divine Love, you are subject to Divine Love, you are created from Divine Love. Let your will be guided by Divine Love. So be it.”

MARCH 15, 1971 AT 12:10 P.M.

Note: The following Revelation was delivered after questions were asked on what to do about the sex education being introduced into Catholic schools.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved daughters, I have given you Words to give you strength but also to give you The Father’s Opinion for His little ones. They must not be misused or abused. They must not be thrown into the abyss of Hell. They must be guided by love, by security, by generosity, by kindness, by supervision, by love. They must be shown what God values. They must be treated delicately, sensibly, and with dignity.

They must be taught integrity, they must be taught modesty, purity. They must be told how God loves cleanliness, acts of love. They must be shown what it is to be pure, to be dedicated to God’s Way, God’s Love. They must be delivered to Him with good thoughts, in kind ways, with deep moral value.

The enemy's way is to conquer, through weakness, with weakness, and support weakness with more weakness. God's Way is Strength, is Courage, is Justness, is Truth.

The human form is dependent on mankind to grow in. Remember, the dependence of an infant forms what he will be as man. You have the responsibility that all children will return to God. You have the responsibility to teach purity, modesty, cleanliness, love. You have the responsibility to stand up to other men against immodesty, impurity, self-love. Be wise, My daughters, and be in wisdom.

If The Father were standing in the room with you now and you asked Him the question you presented to the child, what do you expect He would say to you? Would He be indifferent, unkind, untruthful, weak, or would He say, 'Stand in truth, profess purity, and teach the children the beauty of modesty; teach them the reason for life at a given time, a given place, in a given Divine Way'?

Please, My daughters, teach children respect of how God created them, what they are, and the dignity they hold in the world. Teach them that the will they have must return them to God. Teach them that to use this will, they must accentuate what He Wills through them, from them, with them, in them, by them, for them. All things must be taught to show them the right, the wrong; the truth, the untruth; the enemy's way, God's Way. So be it for now."

MARCH 16, 1971 AT 10:25 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“If you could see Heaven as It truly is, you would bend your knees day in and day out, in fervor, in honor, in love. The Beauty that awaits you is far beyond your wildest imagination. I use the word ‘wildest’, for I mean extreme, great, extensive, deep, and all things that would exaggerate your capacity of such a thing.

My daughters, it will be your physical life that will determine your Place in Heaven. If I offer you the Greatest Gift in the world, would you accept It or would you refuse It? I offer It to you now: Heaven. Like all things of this Magnitude, you must learn to work up to It, to prepare for It, to realize It is what you truly want.

The way to Heaven, simple: Return God’s Love through acts of love. Grow strong in the physical, in the mental, with the Transfusion of The Holy Eucharist within you. Be aware of your weapon against evil, which is truly the Holy Rosary, Divinely guided and given to man from Here.

Offer your way of life, the words you say to others, the acts you do for others. Be aware of the chain of love, the day you were born to now. Any disappointments you may have had, any interferences you may have been subjected to, any faults you have come upon, any weaknesses you have been exposed to, can be turned into all good if you accept them in the Name of The Father.

Our Blessed Lady, The Immaculate Heart, says to you: ‘Daughters, do not belittle purity, do not refuse modesty, do not cater to man’s weakness, but let your strength guide you to give others strength. Do not let stubbornness or self-will be your way, but let kindness, generosity, love, be your guiding virtues; and let all things be dedicated to The Trinity.’

I bless you, My children, with the Gift of Faith, with the truth you must face, and with the hope to fulfill God’s Way. So be it.”

MARCH 16, 1971 AT 8:05 P.M.

OUR LORD

“You are never alone. I am always ready to speak to you, to answer your prayers and to show My Love to you. You are never without My Grace. Any act of love, of kindness, you perform with Me in mind, or My Plan in mind, I shower you with This. It is as rain from a cloud. You cannot see Grace, you cannot feel Grace, but Grace is Reward from The Divine.

Children neglect the asking for Grace, the accepting of Grace, the acknowledgment of such a Divine Gift. It is rarely taught to children now. It is not a thing of the past; it is as real as The Trinity.

As I speak to children which The Father created, I speak with Direction for each one here. I speak with inflection on Important Words I want you to remember from These Words I say:

First: Walk each day totally in Honor, in dedication of The Trinity.

- Two: Do not make excuses for not praying, for not receiving The Holy Eucharist, for not contributing to God's Will.
- Three: Do not fall by the wayside. Do not be tempted by weaknesses of others. Stand firm, stand strong, stand in dignity, always dismissing wrong.
- Four: Be alert to what is truth and how many things can cause you to gain Grace. There are many, My children. Some are easy, some more difficult, but all are available to you.
- Five: Never be without the Holy Rosary in a pocket on your person somewhere. It is the greatest weapon against the enemy of Us.

Heaven is not a myth, but a reality for all men. As you sit in the design of man, a comfortable position, you sometimes make excuses to not stand and perform in God's Plan. Make it a point to be more energetic in helping others understand there are many needs in the physical life; understand that children of all ages need strength, firmness, guidance, truth, a solid stand for God's Plan. Be wise to the needs that are not obvious but are subtle in many ways.

There are thousands of children of all ages using promiscuity, accepting weakness, and professing ignorance as to what life is all about. They are causing indignities to many Souls. There are many men who do not care what price a child will have to pay for committing sin, to their profit. You have no conception of the sins surrounding you from children who have been led by evil men.

There are young girls who need to know the truth, the way, the purpose of how to live. There are many Men of God who need your strength to stand up before men. There are many children, little ones, being taught that the 'fun life' is easy, and you are in a race against others to see who can gain the most, who can enjoy the most, and who can be the most prominent individuals known.

My daughters, if I were to list the sins that are being committed at this very moment, you would hide in shame. You would vomit your insides out, they are so grave, so horrible.

Please do not ignore My Words, do not sidestep the wishes at hand. Help mankind reach Here. Help children to know that We are Here. Give strength, be example, be loving, be in kindness, be in trust. Paint a picture with a path of truth. No artist is capable of painting the truth. Truth is how you live, how you accept your way, how you accept Faith, how you indulge in the Beauty of Faith.

My daughters, I am The Son of The Father, and I come to you today to give you These Words through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. As I was Man, He was My Father; as I am in the Heavens, I am His Father. He stands in the Greatest Power of Sainthood. He has been obedient in His time, by His Example of Truth. So be generous, be sensible, be loving, be giving, be sincere, be in trust, be truthful; it is a must.

I bless you with the Love of The Holy Trinity. So be it from Above.”

INDEX

GOD THE FATHER 39, 111, 130, 196

OUR BLESSED MOTHER 9, 33, 75, 108, 149

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER 28, 90

OUR LORD 59, 64, 79, 132, 134, 136, 156

SAINT JOSEPH 18, 22, 30, 37, 53, 56, 62, 66, 69, 87, 93,
96, 102, 105, 114, 116, 121, 139, 141, 144, 147, 162,
177, 180, 184, 192, 198

THE SACRED HEART 25, 125

SAINT ANNE 3, 99, 128, 189

SAINT BERNARD 158

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI 16, 82, 153, 168

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY 11, 42

SAINT MICHAEL 14, 160, 171

SAINT PETER 186

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA 165

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX 73, 173

SAINT(S) UNNAMED 1, 6, 45, 49, 85, 118

Stories From Heaven

Stories From Heaven

Stories From Heaven

Stories From Heaven

Stories From Heaven