PREFACE

These “Stories From Heaven” could not have been given to the world at a more appropriate time than now. The world is in a terrible state of corruption and confusion politically, religiously and socially. Honesty, modesty, genteelness and morality seem to have been eliminated from our way of life, at least in effect if not consciously. However, God has given the world a Miracle it needs.

On July 28, 1967, The Miracle Of Saint Joseph was formally announced to a True Mystic. God had chosen a woman to give us the sound direction, hope and example we need. It was not the first time God had chosen a woman to accomplish His Purpose, always for a specific task in a particular time. This True Mystic for our day is Frances Marie Klug. She resided in Southern California as a wife, a mother, and a grandmother until her death on November 15, 2009.

In This Miracle Of Saint Joseph, Many Saints have come forth to speak through Frances Klug. These “Stories From Heaven” are just a few of the thousands of Revelations received through her. Very often these Revelations were preceded by extensive Teachings which time and space did not allow us to put in print. However, some of these Teachings will be found in several of the many Volumes of “Stories From Heaven”.

In these Revelations The Saints refer to Frances as “the child”, “the funnel”, “the spoon”, “the instrument” and “the little one”. God made her our Spiritual Mother. For many years now, because of this fact, she has been called “Mother Frances”, or simply “Mother”. Heaven also refers to people of all ages as “children” and emphasizes time and again, This Miracle is for people of all races, all colors and all creeds.

For someone turning the pages of these “Stories From Heaven” for the first time, they will easily recognize the sound logic and sound direction the Messages contain. Mother Frances heard the Words with the Ears of her Soul, and would repeat Them aloud when she was told to do so.

This Teaching Miracle is a direct parallel to the time Our Lord walked the earth. He did not loudly proclaim to everyone, “I am The Son of God.” He taught in a quiet manner, simple, extensive, but always detailed in repetitiveness, instilling in those listening what He wanted them to remember. He taught in parables, short, simple stories containing moral lessons. He knew men could more easily understand and remember the point He was trying to make this way. His "Teaching Stories" pertained to everyday living, practical matters, and how to become a Saint. He gave hope through these stories. He gave example.

Now in our time, God is once again giving us "Teaching Stories" through Saint Joseph and His instrument, Mother Frances. Through her, in a quiet, unassuming and genteel way which appears so "natural", mankind is again being taught the Purpose of life, and what God expects man to be like in his daily living. People feel hope in these Teachings, Example always given.

Two major Revelations of significance have been given for us in our day. Our Heavenly Mother is Part of The Divine, and Saint Joseph is truly The Holy Ghost. These should not bring an immediate rejection, but should pique our curiosity and interest.

Our Faith in God is based upon many mysteries. Whether it be The Holy Trinity, the Incarnation of God, or The Holy Eucharist, men strive to understand These, trying to grasp a small glimpse of the Beauty of the Truth They Are. These mysteries also pique our imagination and interest. However, even though we know God revealed these mysteries to mankind and we accept them in Faith, they still remain just that, mysteries.

One has only to look at these "Stories From Heaven" to see the value They are, and to feel the hope They instill. No man can logically deny purity of thought when it is so obvious. No man can deny purity in direction, when it is based on sound morals, sound values, sound standards. Do not be blind to truth. Skepticism is for people who are unable to see the truth of a matter or situation, and many times skepticism drowns out purity because it is full of ego and pride in one's self. Skeptics find it an easy out to disclaim truth.

There is no doubt that it takes time for such Phenomena as This Miracle to penetrate even those minds who feel they are capable of discerning such Phenomena. We must not be governed by purely another man's determination, but we must understand that logic, sound reasoning and purpose must be the criteria of our Faith in God.

PLEASE READ

In some early volumes of “Stories From Heaven”, many Revelations describe edifices to be built on Saint Joseph’s Hill Of Hope. As just one facet of The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, God invited men of all races, colors and creeds to participate in building a “City Of God”. Every building, chapel, bridge, shrine, garden, amphitheater, and even a hospital and a research center, to be included in this Magnificent Project, would be designed down to the most minute detail by Heaven.

This City Of God would be a place of great beauty for men throughout the world to visit, to gain true spiritual strength and to learn firsthand that which Heaven wants all men to know.

Much to the great loss of every man, woman and child in the world, this City has not been built. Innumerable obstacles were placed in the way of Its completion by those who would have benefited the most. Not enough men volunteered to return the gifts of their time and talents to God. Not enough people came forward with the money needed to participate in God’s Plan in a monetary way. Donations became less and less, because the men in the Church said, “Don’t give.” They discouraged people from participating.

For many years, Mother Frances and a handful of volunteers made every effort to overcome all opposition to men’s lack of wisdom, to build this City for God. However, we are not at a total loss. The Sound Teaching and Sound Direction given by Heaven in the many volumes of “Stories From Heaven” continued through the years, and will benefit people everywhere for many generations to come.

In the future, if the hearts and minds of men change, the world will one day see the Beautiful City Of God.

All Revelations are delivered spontaneously and continuously as witnessed by all those present at the time.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My children, I am Saint Francis of Assisi. Many, many things occur through this child, unknown to you, unknown to the world, but all these things are for the good of Souls. Many children do not understand the magnitude of man, for you see, in man, with man, there is a Soul. This is the Part of man that must come Here Where I am.

Children must better understand the Beauty of the physical road. There are so many things to be learned through This Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Truth.

You must understand, My little ones, that God loves you, and that at the time in which you live He now sends to you, through a child such as you, Hope.

Man speaks lightly of Sodom and Gomorrah. He speaks in memory of it, for it was put up as a great example for man to see, to know about. Right now, the time in which you live is a time much connected with Bible History.

There are children wandering around, saying, 'I am following God,' but what they are truly following is just a crowd, a crowd of other children not in knowledge of truth. They call themselves after The Son. And please, My children, this is not for you. They follow, saying, 'I follow Jesus,' but in reality, they do not. They are following the weakness of other men.

Also, there are others following the evil one and they feel proud of this, for as they follow, they say, 'I have power on my own each day.' Not so. The power is not a true power. It is only imaginary to them. And sometimes, when children follow other men, they fall so deeply into sin that it is difficult for them.

I, on this day, give you this Enlightenment your way and I say: 'Follow only Truth. Be sure that it is only God's Way. Do not follow men, for you see, man is weakness, God is Strength. God is Hope; man sometimes walks in despair.'

You are Blessed, My children, in a special way. You are Blessed with God's Love. Hold It close to you each day. So be it."

SAINT BERNARD

“My beloved children, I am Saint Bernard. This is unusual to you that Heaven is so ready to speak so quickly, to give you Words.

I say to you now from a Realm you do not know, you have only heard of: ‘There are so many children falling into despair because they are not understanding the Beauty that is Here. Now, in the world, The Beloved Joseph comes as Saint, in Power, with Love, to give Words of Hope to all children to come Above.’

At no time did The Son of God carry a book with Him. And again, through this time in which you live, this child carries no book, for the Words are direct through her, for you see, it is as it was then, Wisdom is being taught, not just knowledge. When man seeks knowledge he goes to the books, for he says, ‘I must learn what other men have written.’ And now on this day I say to you: ‘Accept the Truth in These Words. Accept the Wisdom for It will guide you. Accept the Understanding that comes through this child for you.'

I bless you with God's Love. I bless you with Hope and I say, 'Oh, My children, walk the wisdom way.' So be it."

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved children, I spoke once through this child today so the Words would come natural to you in a human way. I am Saint Athanasius.

You live in a time of great heresy. You live in a time of great turmoil. You live in a time of great doubt. You live in a time of much imperfection. You live in a time of much material gain. You live in a time where man says, ‘The physical is my only aim.’ You live in a time where heresy creeps in and it appears to be all good. Oh, My children, this is not so.

There are so many heresies around that children are falling into the trap of, that you must understand, you must be the ones to be example for them. There are so many children following other men. There are so many children following the words that other men create, that other men interpret the Bible to have been. You must understand that those who interpret do not have the knowledge.

Those who accept, accept because man says so.

I, Saint Athanasius, say that Pentecostalism in your day is a heresy that must be wiped out, for it is drawing men into doubt. It is giving man, what he thinks, great power. This is not so. God does not hand gifts to men in this manner. So many men are being hypnotized, becoming emotional over this great movement. You must understand, My children, that Pentecostalism is heresy in every way, and as it is, you must reject it; as it is, you must help to make it disappear, for if you join it, you act in it, you act upon it, you are joining heresy, and heresy is developed untruth. Heresy is not God's Way.

I bless you and I say, 'Beware of the heresy in your day.' So be it."

SAINT BERNADETTE

“My children, I am Saint Bernadette. It is not easy to stand where the child must stand. It is not easy to look into your faces and know the inner thoughts, the love, the turmoil, the Faith; the amount of it or the lack of Faith that you have.

I, too, stood on solid ground one day. I, too, was permitted by God to look into the faces of men. My way was to seek out the Vision that was presented to me by The Heavenly Mother. This child seeks the Vision out with the Eyes of her Soul. And oftentimes, when she looks into your face, God says, ‘That child needs help.’

It is difficult to stand where she stands, knowing the turmoil, knowing the hurt. But please, My children, learn to pray for other men. Learn to ask God to help them.

As it was in My day, many Rosaries went up to God, requesting physical help, mental help, Spiritual help, and He heard each one of them. So it is again in your time and in your day, in your way. Again the Holy Rosary must be held, must be said, and must be directed to God Who is at the Head.

You are Blessed much when you stand with this child. You are Blessed much when you stand on this Sacred Soil. You are Blessed much when you desire to have the Faith, for you see, through Faith you will gain hope. Through hope, you will learn to love. Through loving, you will learn to be a Saint. You are Blessed, My children, in a Special Way, for the Blessing comes from Above. So be it."

VISION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST, OUR LORD AND THE ANGELS

There's thunder, there's lightning. There's clouds opening. The light is coming through. The Holy Eucharist is shining for each of you. It's becoming larger. Oh, Lord, make It small. The size of It is miles across.

Our Lord is appearing from withinside of It. And there is no harm done to The Host as He walks through It. Oh, my! The Rays from His Body shine on The Host, to the edge of It and beyond. Oh, my God! And now, from His garment I see a Glorified Heart, the stages of which He is a Part. The Heart that He gave shines like a diamond.

The world is under His Feet; and all over the world, water is falling, but it's glistening. In back of The Host there are Thousands of Angels.

The Vision is almost too much to bear. Michael is there. The Angels are singing a song quite clear. Oh, my goodness. Here are the Words the Angels have:

THE ANGELS

“Give Glory to The King, His Love is so Grand. Keep in mind the Beauty of purity and know that Sanctity is for all men. Be advised, My children, you stand in the midst of God’s Power; the Wind at hand. It flows as It grows. It caresses you much. It is His Love with a special touch. It is given to you to remind you of Him. It is the Power beyond, God’s Will for man.

We sing His praise every day. We are in joy, desiring all children to come This Way. You can, you will, if you accept His Holy Will as your guiding way. Seek love in serving Him. Seek Truth from learning of Him. Seek wisdom that only He can give.

Be blessed by the Faith He taught to other men. ‘I bless you,’ He always says, when the slightest thing is done His Way. So always know He is around when you think Him far away. Be aware that He is All Power. Be aware He is All Things. Be aware that His Love for you wants you to return to Him.”

AUGUST 23, 1972 AT 10:47 A.M.

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“My children, as I speak through this child, I speak in a natural way to not frighten certain ones who have come here today. I am Saint Teresa of Avila.

There are so many odds and ends. This must be cleared up, taken care of, for you see, children are not going to The Holy Trinity for Love, for Protection, for Guidance, for Advice. So, through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, children are being guided to The Creator of All Things.

The Vision the child explained on days before will be explained once again through Me. The Holy Eucharist is the Ultimate Gift from God to all mankind. And as The Son was The Instrument for This, He oftentimes appears with The Holy Eucharist, showing the world the Magnificence of the physical way, and the Ultimate Gift for every man in every day.

When His Heart shines, It shines with Love; but when It glows as if a diamond were there, it is because of the Souls that were saved through the giving of the physical Heart one day. The water that poured upon the earth is Grace. The water is the cleansing way for Souls to come This Way.

As you were born to the Image and Likeness of The Father, keep this in mind at all times: the Soul is to you as The Father is to The Trinity, the Ultimate; the body is to you as The Son is to The Trinity, the human form, the physical; the Guardian Angel is to you as The Holy Ghost is to The Trinity, the Light, the Guardian, the Truth, the Love, the Way. So, My children, I, Saint Teresa of Avila say, 'Each child born to the world is truly born to the Image and Likeness of God's Way.'

Children become so involved in the physical part, in the physical manner, that they forget the Soul which is the Most Important Part. And children are not being taught the Importance of the Angel God gave to protect them in every way.

I bless you with God's Love and through His Power. I bless you in Truth, and I say, 'As you leave this mound of soil today, keep in mind that you are a trinity, for God made you that way.' So be it."

AUGUST 23, 1972 AT 10:53 A.M.

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

“My beloved children, I am Saint John The Baptist. As I speak through this child, I come in urgency. There are so many children in the world who are bypassing the Beauty of the Sacrament of Baptism. I was put in the earth, on the earth, and walked the earth for this Great Sacrament to come about. And I come through this child on this day to say to you, ‘There are some here who have not been baptized in a special way.’ You must; for it is the greatest cleansing in the world. You must come forward to the men who are prepared to follow through on this, and you must ask for the water to be poured, for the Blessing to be given, for the Sacrament to be performed your way. It is important, for you see, one day God expects you in Heaven.

All things God’s Way are simple, and yet profound in meaning. Man says, ‘Things are not complicated enough for me to believe.’ And God says, ‘The pouring of the water is a simple thing, but it is important to Me.’

My children, I bless you and I say, 'If you are aware of those who have not yet had the water poured upon them, alert them, lead them, be example, and yes, guide them to the man who has the power to cleanse.' So be it."

AUGUST 23, 1972 AT 10:55 A.M.

SAINT BONAVENTURE

“Of late, I have spoken much through this child; God’s Will I do this. I am Saint Bonaventure. Nowhere in the world are teachings going on such as This, is there so much Love being shown by submission of will, by obedience to God’s Will.

There is much to be taught to the young in age. There is much to be taught to the children of more years. There is much to be given in way of service, for you see, the age and the time in which you live is far worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, or any place of great sin that was, that is.

You live in a time where man says: ‘Let all things be physical; this I understand. Let the knowledge of my mind lead me and other men. Let the goal that I have set give me acclaim, and let the purpose of my life be totally physical aim.’

The evil one has put forth upon the earth many, many temptations, all physical, for you see, he knows that man is weak where the physical is, and he says to men, 'Follow in the physical way, for you see, all pleasure will be yours.'

My children, I speak in a simple form through this child, and I say: 'Guard your Soul, for It is God's Love for you. Help your Soul glow God's Way. All the actions you do mark the Soul in a special way.'

Man has forgotten the Beauty of God's Reward, which is Grace. Man says: 'I do not understand Grace, so I do not strive for It. I see physical way, so this I understand.' And yet it is Grace that will give you the Greatest Reward man can have: Eternity with The Father, Sainthood with Him, Eternity in Love at the Sight of Him.

Man says, 'I want a Crown.' God says, 'I offer you a Crown.' The Crown is not a crown as man knows one to be. The Crown is the Sight of The Holy Trinity. It would be a useless thing for men to walk around Heaven wearing crowns depicting their degree, but man is picturing it on the level of understanding. And now God comes to the world through a child such as you, telling you that the True Crown is to see Him.

I bless you with Love and Understanding, and I say, ‘Let the Crown you are looking for be begun today.’ So be it.”

AUGUST 23, 1972 AT 11:00 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“If I were to put this child in ecstasy, drawing her from the world, it would not help each of thee. If I were to allow her to rise above your head, you would be so drawn to the physical you would not understand the Power, Which is Me. So I come to the world to use the voice, the limb, the physical of a child, to teach once again the Wisdom of My Way, the Truth that I Am in every way, and the Purpose for which I created the physical.

The number that you are is small, but the Power that I use is the Greatest Power of all. The Love that I transmit to you is a Love unknown to man. It is Divine. It is Pure. I speak through this child so you can understand the Love, the Desire I have for you. I hold her firm, I caress her in My Arms. If I did not, she could not stand the Power.

I say to you now: ‘I come in Love to encourage each child here to put Me first, above all things; to serve Me in everything you do, everything you say, to desire to be only with Me one day, to give of yourself in all ways. I created you. I want you to come to Me as a child. I want you to stand at My Feet. I want you to desire only Me.'

I want children to sift truth from all the exposure of untruth they now have. I want children to stop looking for Gifts I do not give to every man. I want children to hold My Hand. I want children to listen to Every Word and to obey My Command. I want children to lean on Me when they fear, when they are in doubt. I want children to set aside their egos, their pride, and walk in humility.

I want children to see the Beauty of service to Me, the joy it is, the love it is, the truth it is. I want children of all ages to receive Me in the Form I knew would be best for them. I want children to understand I am All Strength; and they must understand that it was only I Who could create them, it is only I Who can truly help them.

I want children to strive to obey The Heavenly Mother, Who is Here with Me each day. I want children to understand the purpose of the prayers to Her that She commands. I want children to not forget the Souls Who have yet time to come This Way. I want children to desire to be a Saint with Me for all days.

I want children to be taught how to love Me. I want children to be shown by example how to serve Me. I want children to understand purity, for it is My Way. And if you will but look at The Commandments I gave, each one will lead you to purity in a special way. All Things Here in Heaven are Pure.

And that is why I come through this child who stands upon the earth as you, obedient to My Will, to teach all mankind the need for purity, the goal it must be. It is My Wish, My Will. I send forth to the world now, a Saint beloved by Me. I have Decreed The Time. I have designed the Way, for He is All Example of Obedience, of Trust, of Purity. I give Him a Place to be seen in, heard from, and Honored.

My children, I, your Father, speak through a small child such as you, in a manner you understand, with the child full in view. I have given you a Great Gift today from Me, a Personal Touch of My Love, to guide, to guard, to help, to strengthen each of thee. I hold the child in My Power and I will release her slowly, and as I do, I touch the heart of each of you and ask you to return the love to Me. I bless you in a way you cannot know. I bless you with Divine Love to help you grow. So be it.”

AUGUST 25, 1972 AT 2:00 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Since My Beloved Spouse spoke the Words He wanted to say, I, your Mother, come in a Heavenly Way to children much loved, first by The Holy Trinity, then by Us. Each day when you awaken, I smile at each of you, for I know that your heart is here in This Miracle. I know that your love has grown in a special way. I know that you desire more to please God in a loving way. I also know that now you are more acquainted with the Purpose of life, the full meaning of It, and the Goal It has in sight.

I, your Mother, speak openly, understandingly, and with a Love you cannot know. I ask each child here to surround a Vision of Me with the Beads I hold dear. Let each bead be a Light. Let each bead shine to help some Soul come to The Divine. When you speak of the Beads, speak of them openly, speak of them fluently, and let the love you have for them radiate so that others will fall in the Glow, stand in the Glow, absorb the Glow, see the Glow of Light these Beads give to you each day and night.

Children around the world are unaware of the Magnitude, the Power that is Here, and they do not know the simple form of following in Grace to God's Special Place. This Great Miracle that has been given to your world, your time, your way, your day, is Special to All of Heaven, for you see, All of Heaven comes forward through this child, to depict, to teach, to give the Beauty of the physical way, so that children will one day come Here Where We are.

Children imagine a Great Place. They look at the stars and they say, 'Beyond that, Heaven lies.' Please, My children, look at Heaven as a very Practical Place, in a very beautiful way, for you see, God has created All Things, and in His Creation of man, He made all things practical, logical, necessary. Now, would Heaven not be this way? Of course. That is why This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph comes forth to the world in such a natural way. It is God's Way of drawing you to Him.

How the child stands, the sacrifice that had to be made, is being made, is not for you to understand but to accept as God's Way. Always, through time, to draw children to Him, to save many, many Souls His Way, 'a sacrificial lamb' had to be. Now, in your day, a child your way was chosen by Him. Soon she will have respite. It is necessary for the physical way. The human way is weak, and in order to serve God so ultimately, the human must step aside, relax, and then work hard once again.

In the time in which you live, This Great Miracle is a Promise from God, Decreed by Him, Designed by Him, Perpetuated by Him, for a Great Purpose. Oh, My children, I embrace you in My Arms, I caress you in My Heavenly Way, and I say: 'Be good children. Work totally God's Way. Submit your will in His Way and promise Him that you will be a Saint, for this is what He truly wants of each of you.'

I bless you with a Mother's Love. I bless you with Wisdom from Above, and I say, 'Please, My children, as I caress you, snuggle close to Me in a childlike way.' So be it."

AUGUST 26, 1972 AT 7:15 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“And now, through this child, I take over as I am, a Saint in Heaven, and I speak firmly and truthfully to each child here. I walked the earth in a humble way. I did not stand out in a learned way, but I did stand in love for God. I was mocked, ridiculed and hurt by those close to me who thought it the thing to do. I, Saint Francis of Assisi, come through this child tonight to speak to each of you.

You were Blessed at the moment of conception with a Soul, a body, and a Guardian Angel, too. You are aware of the body, you sometimes jest about the Angel, and you almost always forget the Soul. This, My children, from this moment on must cease, for it is not good for you.

You are surrounded by heresy, indignity, turmoil. You are surrounded by falsehoods, imitations, and yet you accept all these things because you feel you have to. Many of you here have heard before, Heaven speaking about the great work of satan gnawing at the beloved Church The Son created. There are many things making dents into it, causing it to have great cracks in it, seeking weakness in all forms.

My children, a total number of these things cutting away at Holy Mother Church amount to a high number. There is but One Mortar to seal the cracks, to fill the holes, to make things right, to bring Truth to the world, to give Honor to God in a True Light, and that, My children, is the Holy Rosary. The saying of these Beads, the prayers that are announced each time you touch a bead, the meaning of each prayer says to God, 'I believe.' On this night, let your hand pass over the Beads so that you will take part in the mortar that is needed to rid the enemy from all areas.

I speak slowly, I speak distinctly, so you will better understand What I say, and the Lesson is within each of you to be absorbed, to be followed through. I bless you with the Wounds I once bore. I bless you with the Light of This Truth, and I bless you with Hope, because you see, it is good for you. So be it."

AUGUST 26, 1972 AT 7:23 P.M.

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“My beloved children, I am Saint Joan of Arc. I come to you on this night readily, happily, to give each of you a Strength, a Strength from Here Where We are.

You do not see the turmoil that is all around. And now I say, ‘An Army, led by Saint Michael, comes your way. The Army is All Saints, for you see, God has Decreed The Time to be that We Saints come to the earth to help each of thee.’ Children have never before experienced this. Whenever a Saint spoke, it was through a child and the Message was passed on, usually One Saint at a time. That is why This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph is so Unique. I use this Word for it is a term you know, a term you are acquainted with, a term you understand: It is One Alone.

My children, many times when I spoke to the men, it was Locution Way. And when I would hear These Voices, I would say to them what The Voice did say, and they would turn to me and they would know the Truth of The Voice and they would know the Logic and the Wisdom that was there. And many of these men, at one time, did not care about The Father in any way. And there were a few very close to me, and they used to sit and say, 'Joan, what do you see?' And I'd say, 'I will tell you only if God wants you to know.' And they would say, 'His Will be done through you, His Soul.'

There were many times in My life I wanted to write down What was occurring, and yet it was seeing there were Things there that man would not know and they would not understand; but now, I come through this child to you in your time and I say, 'Pay attention to Every Word and follow Them, for as you do, you will learn how to be a Saint, you will come Here Where We are, Where I am.'

Oh, My children, set a Goal on this night, make sure of the awareness of your Soul that is Light, and be conscious every day of the Soul that God gave you on a very special day.

There are so many children now being killed before they enter the world. They have a Soul, they have a Guardian Angel, and yet this is being ignored. The trinity which man truly is, is being diminished into a nothingness. Oh, My children, keep in mind, do not kill the unborn kind, for when you do you commit a great sin against God's Commandments that are dear to Him.

I bless you through a child. I bless you in God's Name. I bless you with the Light to lead you Here once again. So be it."

AUGUST 26, 1972 AT 7:29 P.M.

VISION OF SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

She has three dozen roses in her arm, and I asked Her if they were not too heavy for Her, and She said: “You remember, child, weight Here is not weight as you know it to be, size is not as you know size to be, and Love is not as you know love to be. All the things Here are Greater in degree and are harmonious.”

I will tell you what I see: It is “The Little Flower”; three dozen roses, each dozen a Gift from The Holy Trinity. One dozen is red; one dozen, yellow; one dozen, white; and they are all tied with a blue — not a ribbon; She says, “Yes, it is; one is for Joy, one for Sorrow, one for Happiness.”

SAINT THERESE, THE LITTLE FLOWER

“My beloved children, the colors I hold, the flower I hold, is God’s Creation for you. The color is a beauty to the eyes of man. It gives pleasure from the land. I hold the child now to see Other Things in view.”

VISION (CONTINUED)

There are Three Saints to her right and Three Saints to her left: Saint Rita of Cascia, Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, Saint Bernadette, Saint Catherine Laboure, Saint Catherine of Siena, and close to Her, Saint Teresa of Avila.

The Little Flower has been given the privilege to speak, so She says:

SAINT THERESE, THE LITTLE FLOWER

“I spent many hours asking The Father if I could one day spend time with Him, helping others to be Saints. He has granted Me My wish, and I now come through this child to teach you, My children, how to be a Saint. It is easy. First, you must obey God’s Commandments in every way, and as you do, you must teach others too. Secondly, you must keep God close to you, in the manner, in the way of The Holy Eucharist, every day. Third, you must pray; pray with action, pray with words, pray by example.

Some of you in the child’s presence here, are a little nervous. Some of you feel, ‘Why her?’ Some of you cannot understand why God would come to the land in such a manner. Some of you have placed yourselves in a cubicle so nothing can penetrate, not even good.

I say to you now, as I drop the Beloved Roses on you: 'Do not be foolish. Follow the Little Way that I teach you.' If I were present on the earth, I could not teach you more than I do now, for the Love that I give, the Hope that I send, is for each of you. You know, My children, I am known throughout the world for My Miracles, for My Little Way, for My Trust in God in a lone way. I pass this on to you.

Standing beside Me on either side, Great Saints join with Me to guide each of you God's Way. My beloved Mother, to My left, was Example for Me in many ways. The staunchness of the beloved Catherine of Siena was a Guide you cannot know. Catherine Laboure, surely you do know, was privileged to spend time with The Heavenly Mother. Little Bernadette often says, 'How good You are, God, to give the children of this day, a Miracle in such a personal way.'

I leave you now for a Vision to come that you must never erase from your mind, from your way.”

VISION OF GOD THE FATHER AND
OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

There's a table, and on the table there are many Crowns, all different, each one glowing. Some have jewels, some not. Oh, my! About four feet in front of the table is a great chair. I cannot see His Face but I know He's there. I see White and I see Light, but I cannot distinguish flesh or hair. Oh! An Angel stands to the right and to the left, and I know It's The Father in the chair. He's holding me up, for my knees are buckling in His Presence, and He says, "You must stand there."

Oh, my! The Crowns are secondary now. A child is being brought by The Heavenly Mother, and She says, "Father, a child has come to stay with Us for all days," and The Father — I can feel Him smile but I cannot see it. "Heavenly Mother, what a Gift You bring Me now." The child is about twelve, or appears that way. The child's face is radiant with the Glow from God.

And Our Lady says, “My little one, the Crown has waited for you, and now I can remove it from the table.” And the child says, “Will I not wear it, my Mother?” “What good is a crown now? Why would you need a crown, My little one, when you have entered such a Kingdom?” The Father smiles. I still cannot see Him. She says to the child, “The Crown is a symbol; the True Crown of Heaven is to be with The Father.” She takes the child away after a Special Type of Blessing I have never seen before, and it’s as if the child is transformed.

And now The Father speaks to all of us.

GOD THE FATHER

“My sons, My daughters, I use the physical of a child such as you to give you My Words, to show you My Love, for you see, I want you to return to Me. Many times you have prayed My Way, beseeching Me to hand you a gift, your way. I have never ignored your plea for help. My Answer sometimes was another way. It is not easy to walk for Me. It is not a path of acclaim, but I say to you on this day, in your way,

‘I want each of you to walk for Me in your little way.’

I bless you through a child who has been the instrument to teach you. I bless you through the Time I Decreed that a favored Son of Me should be known throughout the world for the submission of His Will. This Beloved Saint must be seen, must be heard, must be honored and must be revered. These Words I want to travel throughout the world. I want men to know I do speak. I, The Father, would not let His children alone at a time such as this. Why does man feel I would not do this? Speak His Name, teach others to follow His Example. And please, My children, be a Saint.

I do not speak with Great Words you cannot understand. I do not speak in a language you do not know. I speak with Words you can hear, can absorb, can follow. It is My Way through and through. Man complicates all things. I, in My Power, My Love, simplify all things. I would be the last to complicate the way to Heaven. I would be the first to simplify it, to guide you totally My Way.

I want the world to know I spoke on this night and in This Way. I want all men, all colors, all races, all creeds, to know that at this time in which they live, I favor each of them.

I give you a Blessing you cannot know, but I perform It, I act It out in the way you understand — in The Cross of My Son Who walked the land. I bless you in My Name, I bless you in the Name of My Son, and I bless you in My Light, for We are Three as One. So be it.”

AUGUST 27, 1972 AT 10:50 A.M.

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

“My beloved children, I am Saint Mary Magdalene. I know that many of you want, with your whole heart, for This Great Miracle to be True. You feel as I did, where I looked into the Eyes of The Son Who said to others, ‘If you are without sin, throw another one.’ He meant the stones. I knew, by the simplicity in which He spoke, He had strength, humility, and that His Wish would be invoked. I knew also that men would stand back. He did not raise His Hand, shout at them and use great language to protect. His Words were simple; His Way, strong. The appearance He held was firm and yet loving all the throng.

So, through this child, This Miracle comes to the world now, in the same manner, in the same way, to teach each of you God’s Love, the simple way. The Rules in how to live were given by The Father. Go back to These Rules and follow Them. Each Rule has a particular place in each life. Each Rule gives you a particular thing to work upon, so you will one day be able to say, as you face The Father in a loving way, ‘Your Rules, my God, allowed me the way, permitted me to come to You today.’

I bless you with The Father’s Love and I bless you with Hope, for it was through Hope I became a Saint. So be it.”

AUGUST 27, 1972 AT 10:53 A.M.

VISION OF OUR LORD

I will tell you what I see. It's Our Lord and there must be — I thought it was five hundred; He said, "No, keep counting, child." Oh my, there are thousands of people standing around Him. He is on the outside though; they're standing there. Some of them appear to have been from different times. I can tell by the garments.

There are Three Men standing closer to Him than any Others. They are discussing with Him, an issue. They appear to be doctors. One has a document and He is talking to Our Lord about the document, and Our Lord is smiling. And suddenly the document disappears. And now, more are gathering closer to Our Lord. The document had a great meaning here. Our Lord dismissed it and He said, "There is no need for such a thing Here in the Heavens." And that's when it disappeared.

There are children of all ages, all colors. I see. The One Man standing with Our Lord is Peter. One is Saint Athanasius; and One is Saint Dominic — He appears as the gentler of the Two. The document was the Ten Commandments. The reason He dismissed it was, in Heaven there is no more need for it, but it's only man's way of life. But Saint Dominic is holding a Rosary and Our Lord is smiling at Him. Oh, this smile! He said, "You will have to ask The Heavenly Mother what She wants done with that." Saint Dominic is smiling. Saint Peter is the only One I ever see with any age on Him. The Others All seem quite young, or close to it.

Our Lord is going to speak.

OUR LORD
(TO THE SAINTS IN HEAVEN)

“My Heavenly Children, My Saints, I want Each of You to travel to the world and partake in The Miracle Of The Beloved Joseph. I want Each of You to participate in drawing Souls This Way. I want You to encourage children who are yet of the physical way, to follow The Commandments The Father gave. I want You to be alert to every Soul so They will come This Way.

I want You to help children learn how to pray. I want them to know the simple way. I want them to feel the Power that is Ours and not to feel that the Power of The Holy Trinity is in the words of their day. I want them to feel the need for prayer, the need to be childlike, for you see, in a childish manner they will lean totally on The Holy Trinity.

I want You to encourage joy when it is wholesome, when it is needed, and when it will help children through their daily way. I want You to teach them compassion for each other, and yet, not to show weakness in it so the other one will only draw weakness from it.

I want You to speak out in a direct manner, momentarily, so that children will hear firsthand, Our Love, Our Will, Our Way. I want You to teach children the need for purity. That is why Purgatory was so necessary, to purify before they enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Children, if they learn this in the physical way, will have little time to spend the Purgatory Way. Make them know this. Teach them the beauty of it and tell them to be example of it each day.

Teach children how deeply The Father loves them, for He gave them the physical road to take. How else could they become a Saint? Tell children the need they have for following through according to God's Will. Tell children of all vocations of life that this way can lead them to Here if they do it right. Tell them to follow the Light of Truth and to not be indignant when It is shown to them, but for them to pray so they truly will follow through.

Tell them to not interpret, in their own way, God's Will, but to succumb to It totally, and request that He hold their hand, treat them as a child, so they will understand the Beauty that He gives to them. Tell children of all ages it is never too late to obey The Father's Will, to comply with It, to follow It, to desire It.

Tell children they are all Loved, but Loved in a Supernatural Way; a Divine Love, not a human love. Human love does not equal Divine Love, but human love is a small part of Divine Love.

Tell children not to lean solely on men's words, but to lean totally on God's Words. Tell children that the confusion in the world now must cease, for many are straying, and that cannot be.

Tell them, that now a Son has been sent to the earth in a manner different than I, but that This Son is to lead them Here to The Holy Trinity. Tell them that The Beloved Saint Joseph stands High in the Heavens, in All Power, All Love, doing totally the Will of The Divine; and He must stand upon this Hill made for Him, designed by The Father. Oh, My Saints, tell the children who are yet in the physical way What I desire them to know.

(TO ALL PERSONS PRESENT)

I have allowed you, My children in the physical way, to hear the Love We All have for your Souls. I beseech you, My little ones, to follow to the letter, The Father's Rules laid down for everyone.

Be blessed by this time with this child. Be blessed by the moments you are here. And when you leave this mound of soil, you must return, for each time you come in Faith, in desire to love Us more, Grace is poured upon you like pure water from God's store.

I bless you with The Father's Love, I bless you with My Heart, I bless you with the Light of Heaven Where We Are. So be it."

AUGUST 27, 1972 AT 2:17 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I, your Heavenly Mother, come with Much Love through a child who has given a total life — physical, mental and Spiritual.

Today on the Hill of Hope, The Beloved Father, Who was My Son upon the earth, gave the beloved Dominic a Word. It was to face Me with the Rosary I hold dear. I smiled at These Words, for you see, it is always this way with Him. He allows Me to use My Love, whether it be in Heaven or on earth. He allows Me to make My Own Decisions. He allows Me to say what I Will to say, and of course, I only desire His Will to be done.

But I say to you now, ‘The Rosary is said in Heaven with each one that is said upon the earth, and so I have not stopped the Rosaries Here, for they are of great worth.’ So keep in mind, My children, that as you say these Beads, One Here, or More, says them with you and says to Me, ‘A Soul will soon be released, My Lady, My Mother, for another child is offering the Beads.’

The Commandments, of course, are not needed, because you see, the Children present Here have already obeyed These. And if it was not full obedience to Them, reparation has been made and They are now completely pure and without sin. But the Beads will help other Souls, so We do say them with each of you.

My Son is good to Me and He allows Me this privilege. I bless you with a Love you cannot know. I am your Heavenly Mother and I, too, love you so. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 1, 1972 AT 7:40 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“Many children are unaware of the great heresy in this day. They are joining it, they are participating in it, and they are using it in their own way. My children, heresy, in many ways, is developed untruth. And when you lean on this you oftentimes lean on the evil one’s weakness, and yes, you lean towards the pits of Hell.

Through this child, I, Saint Athanasius, speak openly and truthfully, lovingly, firmly, understandingly and hopefully. This child is an instrument of God, to fight one, two, three heresies of your day. Some of you present here have already participated in one of them. It goes by the name of Pentecostalism. My children, be aware of the wickedness and the undercurrent in this great heresy. Do not become involved in it, and do not participate in any manner for it.

I stand Here in the Heavens and I speak openly through a child such as you. I give you a Lesson of Truth. I give you a Lesson of Wisdom. And I say: 'Be aware of your Soul. Be aware of the trickery satan puts in your way.' He will try much to build your pride and your ego. He will say: 'Forget The Commandments and go by your day and your way. Forget to observe The Rules God gave, for man has new ones better for you in your day.'

Oh, My children, there is a Hell, there is a Purgatory. Purgatory was given to man for special reasons. Before a child can enter the Kingdom of Heaven, the child must be purified in a special way. Purgatory is a Gift from God, His Love for each man, for through Purgatory reparation is made so that you can see The Holy Trinity, so you can participate in the Beauty of Heaven Where I am.

Children, I beseech you to pay well attention to What is said through this child. Listen good; I put These Words in a special way to attract you. Children are placing so much emphasis on words, what they mean, and yes, the degree they are in. Please, as I stand Here in the Heavens, there is nothing complicated Here. All is simple, all is profound, all is to teach children on the ground.

Please, My children, as I bless you through this child, I say: ‘Be aware of the heresy in your day. Walk away from it. Fight it. Stand up only for Truth. Go to God, not man, for all things and in all things you do.’

I bless you with The Father’s Love, I bless you with The Heart of The Son, and I bless you in a Truth that only God has begun. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 1, 1972 AT 7:47 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved children, it is true that I, Saint Francis of Assisi, speak often through this child, for God has Decreed The Time to be for children to learn His Way so that all will arrive in the Vision of The Holy Trinity. I hold this child firmly, I hold her secure, for there are many things to be said from Me through her.

Many children read My way and how man has written of My physical life. Children say, ‘He said so many things to help us in our day.’ And now I come direct — it has never been written before — and I say: ‘You live in a time of great harm to your Soul. You live in a time of heresy, desecration to God and His Rules, and you live in a time of no sacrifice, no penance, no discipline. You live in a time when men are eager to do what they feel they must. You live in a time of self-enjoyment. You live in a time of little perseverance in God’s Way. You live in a time where selfishness is honored. You live in a time when children are urged to play all day. So few children are told to pray. Prayer, My little ones, is not a thing of the past. It is a thing for every day, for every man who is born to the world God's Way.'

I hold the child simply, firmly, to give you the Words God desires you to have. A Victim Soul? Yes, there must always be one, for you see, when God wants children to come to Him there must be sacrifice, for you see, this is the purifying way.

Right now in the world, as it was in My day, many men stand on high platforms, criticizing the small way. Many men use knowledge, not wisdom, to let their tongues talk. Many men see only with their eyes, not with their Souls. Many men are quick to discredit what God might do. I know, for the Wounds I bore, men discredited me for. Sometimes, with the agony of these Wounds, I would lay my head and say: 'God, only for You. I could not bear it any other way.' And so it is again in the time in which you live, a child says to God the same as I did.

You must understand, My little ones, that The Father and The Son gave you the Ultimate Gift for everyone. To receive The Holy Eucharist is a privilege, yet a Great Love. To say prayers in total commitment to Him is a love He loves to know you share with Him.

Many times, when I would kneel at the foot of the Cross, I would say to God: ‘My body is racked with pain but my heart is full of love. Dear God, I do not know which is the greater of the two.’ I did not always receive an answer in comfort, but now in the Heavens Where I am, I say to you children here, ‘Let the sacrifice, let the penance outweigh the love so you will experience the Fullness Here with Him.’

I bless you through a child who walks totally for God. I bless you through her voice where only Wisdom from Us is wrought. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 1, 1972 AT 7:55 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“As this Great Time upon the earth bears My Name, I speak through the child and I say, ‘Keep in mind, My children, God’s Will each day, and how you partake in It, how you commit yourself to It.’

The child* will describe to you what she sees. I am Saint Joseph. A child here tonight requested I speak, for the child desired a sign of Truth. As I say These Words through the child it disturbs her much, for she does not like anyone to ask Heaven to prove Itself.

The Vision now to be seen by the child is for the Souls of men — all colors, all races, all creeds, all ages. The Vision is for the family way, so important to God for He created this way. The Vision is for the Spiritual way so few children partake in today. The Vision is for the single state that can be a generous one or a selfish one. The Vision is for the little ones to learn God’s Way.

I say to you now: If The Beloved Sacred Heart were to walk in front of you and ask you, ‘Will you take part?’ what would you say? Some of you would say, ‘What will He expect of me each day?’ Others would say, ‘Please, give me a chance.’ And others would say, ‘I don’t believe He would come my way.’ You see, My little ones, your will gets in the way.

At the moment of conception each child born to the world is given a will, a Soul and a Guardian Angel. How many times, in the free moments of your day, are you aware of Those Who keep you company every moment in your way?

And now I open a great shield and I show the child what God desires to be revealed. Only with the Power that I hold her can she withstand the sight. Her reaction was a human one, but nonetheless ...”

VISION OF ABORTED BABIES

Oh, my God! On the right-hand side of the Vision, oh my, are all the babies that were killed in the last three months. I have never seen one so horrible. Some are larger than others. Some are — some are in pieces.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, I will take the Vision from her for she will not be able to stand the fullness of It. Certainly, in your Faith, you will understand what agony is the child's. You see, My children, this Vision is seen by The Father each day, and yet there are more added to this amount than I will say. Reparation will have to be made for this great disaster to God's children. Is it not then necessary for This Miracle of Mine to be put upon the earth for all of mankind, to teach them Truth, to teach them the need for obedience to God's Will, God's Way, God's Command? Is it not then God's Justice to man to give him a chance before it is too late?

Very seldom, through This Miracle of Mine, is such a horrible scene given from The Divine, but it was necessary, for many of you are to repeat it when you leave the edifice on this night. So many men are walking around saying that to kill a child is all right. It Is Not.

The child is still reacting from the scene and yet I hold her firmly for she could not speak. I will now show her the Beauty of loving God and I will wipe out the other Vision. But even though I wipe it out, it must remain in your minds, in your thoughts, for you see, it is going on each day, adding to the Vision. The child says, 'No more, please, like that.' I say, 'Only if it is God's Will, My child, and you must obey.'"

VISION OF THREE SAINTS AND SAINT MICHAEL

There are Three Saints and in back of Them is Saint Michael; and The Saints are preparing to greet Someone about to arrive in Heaven.

SAINT JOSEPH

"The contrast of this Vision is to show you, My children, that God, in Creation of all men, has waiting for them the Beauty of Sainthood. And those who were not given the chance, it is sadness to God, for as the Vision unfolds, you will see not One, not Two, not Three, arriving to be greeted by The Heavenly Mother. She has this privilege. The Joy in the Heavens when it occurs is One Alone. Does this Vision not mean more to you? Does this Vision not give you hope? Does this Vision not give you a sense of reality? Does this Vision not give you a Purpose for the physical? Does this Vision not say to you, 'Pray; do all things God's Way, so you will enter as These Souls are today'?"

VISION OF ANGELS

I have never seen so many Angels in a Vision before, little Ones, big Ones, and They are singing a song. There seems to be layers of Them, not just one Group; and I see Them back here, not in front where you are.

“Be welcomed into Paradise, oh child of The Father.

Be welcomed to the Kingdom that waits for all Others.

Be welcomed with a Love you have never known.

Be welcomed to the Throne.

Be welcomed by The Holy King.

Be welcomed by The Heavenly Mother.

Be welcomed by The Saints.

Be welcomed by the Grace, your Reward for This Beautiful Place.”

SAINT JOSEPH

“And now, My children, you see the need to live the physical, the Purpose of life as it truly is, the Beauty of life that only God gives. Be sentimental, be earnest with all other men, but lean on God, for He is More than just a Friend.

I speak through this child whom God has chosen for Me. I speak through her in this time in which you live. My Name must be spread in all the directions that you know, and God’s Love must be the Power that does show.

I bless you with God’s Love and I bless you with The Heart of My Son. I bless you with the Light and the Wisdom that makes The Holy Three Truly One. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 3, 1972 AT 10:48 A.M.

SAINT ANASTASIA

“My beloved children, I am Saint Anastasia. If it be known, very few children in the world pray My way, but many are familiar with My Name even in your day. There are so many things to be taught to children now. All Heaven has opened up. The Holy Trinity is directing All Words through this child. If you feel skeptical, ask God’s Help. If you feel doubtful, ask His Help. If you feel fearful, ask His Help.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, We are aware that many children are frightened of This Great Miracle that is here, because you see, My little ones, God is this close; and you must recognize the closeness, the Personal Way that God is reaching you today. There are many things that have been taught through this child. There are many things yet to be taught. You participate in The Greatest Miracle of your day: personal contact with God in a way that is Special in your day.

I could use many Great Words. I could fool you with phraseology, but then you would leave this Great Place, this Holy Ground, and not feel God's Grace. There will be Many Words spoken to you today by Us. Listen to Each One, try to absorb Each One, and when you leave this Holy Ground, follow Each Word, for you see, through These Words you can become a Saint.

I bless you with Truth, I bless you with Love, and I give you Hope on this day. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 3, 1972 AT 10:53 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Many men in the world are reaching for perfection. They place this importance on things being done in a straight line, pleasant for the eye to see, but true perfection is loving The Holy Trinity. True perfection is desiring purity of body, of Soul, mentally. And that is why This Miracle of Mine has come to the world to help mankind, for man must begin to know the importance of humility, obedience to God’s Laws, and purity.

My children, I am Saint Joseph, and the way the child described Me to be is how The Father allows It to be seen, for she stands on a tightrope for Me; and she knows that the size she sees, the Power I Am, is God’s Will, and it strengthens her to deliver It to other men. I come to the world in a manner designed by The Father. I come in a Time Decreed by Him. The world must hear My Name. The world must hear the Sound of My Way and the world must hear the Words I did say.

As The Beloved Mother, Mary, and I walked the earth, before the time The Child did come to the earth openly, there were many times along the road We would discuss Our role in the physical way. As She would sit upon the animal and I would lead it down the road, I would look into Her Face and see a Total Radiance of God's Will, God's Way. I knew that I was in protection of a Special Child. I knew that Our Lives were protected by Divine Will, not Ours. I felt a Great Importance to everything We did. I felt that even teaching the little One the way of life was important to The Father, for I did not know the Plan. So I took each day and held Him by the hand.

And so now I come to the world through a child such as you, to hold each one of you by the hand. As The Son of The Father was Divinely Conceived, it was The Will it be done. My children, each of you were designed by The Father, each of you must return to Him as He Wills it to be. As I held the little One's hand, I desire to hold yours until you come to Eternity.

The child* through whom I speak is well-prepared by Us in a manner you cannot know, no man can touch. You live in a time of much trouble, much heresy. The Father is now sending All of Heaven, through but a small instrument, to help each of thee. As I stand in the Heavens with These Words for you, it is the Power of The Father's that I use.

And as I leave, I hold the child firmly, for a Greater Vision to share with you. As I stand back, Another will come into view, One Who truly does love you and One in Whom you have great trust: your Heavenly Mother, Who also mothers Us."

SEPTEMBER 3, 1972 AT 11:04 A.M.

VISION OF OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

I will tell you what I see. There is a great crowd of people but they appear different than you and I. And they've all got their hands raised — what would appear as the sky, to the sky. Oh, it's the Souls in Purgatory. Oh, my God, there are thousands; little ones. No wonder He held me so tight. I couldn't have withstood it. They're reaching for God. And soon there is a Light. It's Our Heavenly Mother. She's beseeching you and I to diminish the number. Oh, my God!

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My little ones, My love, I have allowed this Vision from Above to show you what I want, from Me to you. So many men are saying there is no Hell, no Purgatory. I give this Vision through this child to let you know there is. And through her Eyes, through her Soul, I pass it on to you. These children who await to see the Crown of Heaven need not wait long if you will but participate in the correct prayer and song.

I will take the lower part of the Vision away from the child for there are Many Words I have to say to you that are so worthwhile. The Vision is so strong that not one child present here could withstand the blow, because the child who is seeing It had to be prepared to withstand It.”

Oh, my God! Oh, She’s taking it away. Thank You. Oh, my God, oh!

“The child all but screamed out. I held her from doing this for she was frightened all about. I wipe the Vision from her now, but it will take her time.

Man very often asks for signs. Man could not stand all the signs that God could give to prove His Love, to prove His Way, to prove what He does send. Man must walk in Faith and love as We once did. Man must see the Power of God in the surroundings and the way he lives. The beat of man’s heart, the sight of his eyes, the ability to walk, all the senses God designed: a sign to man of His Truth, How He Is.

My little ones, I use this little instrument to transmit God's Words, God's Love to you. I have shown you submission of will. I have given you a touch, just a touch, of Real Truth. This mound of soil you rest upon is God's Gift to every daughter and son. In many ways it is Calvary to be walked again, for Souls to be won.

You gather in anticipation, some in wearisome doubt, some in worrisome doubt, and I say, 'I, your Heavenly Mother, come to you in a Special Way.' As The Beloved Joseph has offered you His Hand, I offer you My Heart, and I say to every man: 'Be gentle with My Heart, follow It to God, let the beat of It beat with yours so His Will, will be done. Let the moment you spend now be forever with you and let the sound of the gentle wind caress each of you. Let sacrifice be your daily way. Let purity be your goal so you will not have to stay in Purgatory.'

Oh, My children, Purgatory, too, is a Gift from God, for it is the Place for reparation for children to become pure, so that when they enter This Great Kingdom it will be as God Wills.

My little ones, a long time ago The Son I bore Divinely gave His Life for the whole world, not for just the time in which We lived right then, but for the whole time of man. There were many things at that time that, with a Mother's Love, I would have stopped. I would have said, 'Don't do that, He's My Son,' but I knew a Greater Will had to be done, as you must know on this great mound of soil today. Again The Father's Will comes openly to the world. Again a victim must be made to help man in all ways.

I take the child now physically from you and take her to the little ones, where God will show them His Love too."

GOD THE FATHER

“My beloved sons, I have given you Many Saints to lead you My Way, My Direction. I give you Words firsthand to draw you to My Command. I want all things upon this Hill to be My Way, not man’s. I must accept man’s way of doing it, but I will not accept man’s directing it.

I am The Director of this Hill. I am your Creator, I am your Love. I have designed this Hill and I alone will tell you where each place must be used to great advantage My Way. I alone will tell you the color, the kind, the style, the design. I alone will show you all things, for this whole place is to give children The Divine.

And I bless you at repast time. I bless you and I say, ‘I want complete order on My Hill each day.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 6, 1972 AT 11:06 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, at no time in the world has the child been asked to stand so openly to man except, of course, when The Son did walk the land. There were others at this time who had particular tasks for The Divine, but now in the time in which you live, the world must know and the world must give. The selfishness that is all around must cease. Man thrives on selfishness. Man thrives on the lack of self-discipline. Man is alert to knowledge but speaks little wisdom.

Many men wonder how I am. I am Saint Joseph. The child many times has described to man the way I am, and I always smile through her, for you see, this is the way God shows Me to her. She sees Me in a size of nine feet tall, and this is to show her how little she is for This Miracle that is of such a Magnitude for the world. And each time she says to man, ‘I see Him nine feet tall,’ she secretly asks Me to shorten My Way so I can truly be close to her, she says. God says, ‘Not yet; there is too much work to be done and when the Hill is completed, each step, one by one, the child may see You as You were when You walked the earth.' But, through obedience, through love, through trust, she does have to say, 'I will wait, God, for that day.'

As you stand, as you sit, as you listen, little ones, be aware of God's Love that comes to you today through another little one. This Hill of Hope must be built to draw Souls to Him Who Is, and man must begin to learn the Beauty of the Life that waits. In all things God has given man a part of His Place. The light you have to light your edifices, your casas, your home, is but a small degree of Light God has, God knows. And so, as He gives you Knowledge, and so, as He gives you Wisdom, keep in mind, It is parallel to Something He has in The Divine.

Oh, My children, keep in mind you were truly created in the Image of God. Your Soul is to you as The Father is to The Trinity; your body is to you as The Son is to The Trinity; and your Guardian Angel is to you as The Holy Ghost is to The Trinity: the Light, the Guardian, the Love. I expect soon to have thousands stand where you are, for you see, God wants it this way because God wants all men to return to Him.

I, Saint Joseph, will now tell you things you do not know. No man has ever written the personal little notes of how We lived. One time, My little ones, as We were having repast in Our home, a neighbor came running by, shouting, 'Joseph, come help. My husband dies!' We All ran to the door, the little One along, and We ran to their home. And as We swiftly walked into the door the man looked at Us and he said, 'Why do you rush? There is no urgency here.' My Son stood behind with a big smile, for He knew when We left Our table that The Father had helped because of the woman's prayers that she was saying while she was running to Our place for help. It was proof again that The Father answered prayers and man was not needed to help.

So, My children, that is one of the reasons this Hill is being built: to teach children to go to God, to teach children to follow the way of The Saints, to teach children to depend upon The Father for all things.

As Mary and I walked out the door, the little One came after Us with a smile upon His Face that was One Alone. Mary looked at Me and I looked at Her and the look was, 'My, isn't God good.' So you see, My children, you must learn to depend upon The Father, to go to Him for all things, for when you do, He hears the way and He says, 'The child shows love when the child turns to Me for help.' And that is why, My children, it is so important now that children of a small age be taught to lean totally upon God. Let you and your way direct them, but give them the assurance that must be that they lean upon The Father, for you see, the day will come and you will not be there for them to lean upon thee. So, every child born to the world must be taught to seek The Father's Help first, in all things.

And now, as I leave, Another wants to speak, One I know you love, but before I do, I say to you, 'As Saint Michael walks with you, sometimes directly on the ground, sometimes high above, I, too, protect this Hill with God's Love.' So be it."

SEPTEMBER 6, 1972 AT 11:17 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My beloved ones, My children, My love, men are shouting that this day, this time cannot be true. They are shouting to Me, ‘Give me a sign.’ Some of them I smile upon, some I say, ‘Pray more, My little ones, so you will better understand My Way.’

A long time ago I created this Hill and I have come now in your day to repossess this Hill. I come in a Love, Divine that is. I come through a child, small, for you see, a long time ago I decided that this time would be that this child would be born and serve only Me.

Sometimes, when I look down from Heaven Where I am, I see once again a Hill that will long be remembered because it will bring thousands, millions of Souls to Me. I sent a Son, also small in the physical, and yet of a size of that time, and I used His Love to teach The Divine. I used His Physical to open the way for children to come Here to stay. It saddens Me when I must do such a thing, but I do it again in your time, for children are not understanding The Holy Trinity. My Son was the First Priest. This is well-known, and from Him, men learned how to come to the Throne. And the disagreements they had along the way, some turned to follow another path.

My children, I speak slowly through the child for I want My Words to last. Some of you, My little ones, do not believe I speak. I say to you now, 'Touch your heart, does it beat?' If it is beating, it is because of Me. The Words you are hearing are also because of Me and They are Mine from The Divine. No child can love you this much. It is My Love for you, this physical touch. There is not one child in the world who has the capacity to love in such a stable way, in such a solid manner, in such a truthful tone.

The child wipes her eyes to see Me, for the Presence she feels is One Alone. The Power that reaches you is Mine, and as Saint Michael preceded Me this time, he handed each of you a Sword. I have not come to collect the Swords but to bless Them, one by one.

I want this Hill to be accomplished My Way. I want the edifices to stand in the manner I direct. I want men to learn History I gave, and I want children to learn self-discipline. One day I will stand high upon one of the hills here where you are, and I will wait each hour of your day for you to come and kneel to pray. And if you are lonesome in your nighttime, I will be waiting there for you, open to the world, with a Light to give you comfort as you walk in with your will.

The evil one can only imitate What I Am, What I Do, What I Create. Remember this, My children. The evil one does not love you. I do. The evil one is using facades to cover what he truly is. He is encouraging man to have power. The only power that man has is the use of his will.

Man does not have power to create, to make life. Man does not have the power to heal minds that I give. Man does not have the power he thinks, he so desires. I love man too much to hand It to him. Remember, children, you were born with original sin. This proved to Me that man could not handle the power I truly Willed for him, and so each child born now to the world must stand in submission to My Will, and desire for total purity.

Children are not being taught the beauty of purity. Many children would not go one day without repast, one day without respite, one day without a body cleansing, but they do not care for the Soul they say is not in sight. I say to every child in the world now and to come, 'Be aware of purity in all ways, all manner.'

I allowed Purgatory to be, for through Purgatory man can make reparation to Me. It is My Gift of Love to every child, and yet I say to you here, all who will come, 'Do not wait for Purgatory for reparation time to cleanse the way, to purify yourself.' And let your climb be slow, for you see, My little ones — I now give the child a Glow of Light to see. I began It far back in My Words to thee, for she could not stand the Power It is. And there were times in My Words she did not want to say the Words I give; she just wanted to bask in the Light to live. The Light is bright; It would blind her. The Light is Truth. It is not only behind her.

I bless you with My Love, I bless you with My Heart, I bless you with My Light. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 7, 1972 AT 6:30 P.M.

OUR LORD

“Only God is aware of the needs of His children. So, in this knowledge He Is, He has designed a Place which He named as ‘Saint Joseph’s Hill Of Hope’. Upon this land of His Choice, He has described, through a chosen Soul, What He Wills to be done here for the world to know.

The first place is an edifice to house The Holy Trinity, with a Place of Honor for The Beloved Saint Joseph. This edifice, designed by God, is to be of all types of woods. It is to be in the shape of the Cross that gave life to all men created by Him. Over the main Altar, a great Host will be evident, from the sky, to the world. God has designed this Great Place down to the minutest detail, to encourage His children to love Him more.

At the foot of this great Cross, a bridge will cross a ravine and upon this bridge the Ten Commandments will be known. This bridge has great purpose to it, for Each Commandment will be shown to man in the Truth, in the Magnitude it was given for man. Men will cross this bridge and begin to learn why These Commandments were chosen and to what degree God meant for Each of Them. This bridge will be called 'The Examination of Conscience Bridge' and it will make men desire purity.

Another edifice planned by God will pay much Honor to The Heavenly Mother. He has designed it as a great Crown, not oval, not round. Throughout this place, men will feel the Power of Grace, for it will be revealed to them everywhere. This edifice will stand out as a Crown of gold for men to feel the Beauty She beholds, the Place of Honor God has Her in. And the Rosary will encircle this, around the walls, so all men will better understand the Important Events named in the Mysteries, fifteen of them. This Great Place will also have God's Will in every niche, corner, space.

Down the hill, on a special piece of ground picked by God, there will be a Room of Saints, showing the world God's Love for the physical way. In this edifice men will see that through all vocations of life they can have the Goal of Sainthood, for you see, God, as

The Creator of all men, designed all paths to Him.

In God's Great Plan, He has designed a group of men to follow in a particular way, service to Him. Because of the sincere, simple, loving, serving way of the beloved Saint John Vianney, He has Named this Saint as the Keeper, as the Head of this great group of men to be organized as the core of this Great Hill, to serve Him.

A convent of women will give service to this Hill, to take care of the special Chapels and to work to help the physical.

A place to retreat to is planned by God to give man rest, so that men will be better able to balance their lives and to see and to feel the Beauty of Him.

A house of great size is in His Plans, for He does know the children will come from all over the world to pay Homage to Him in this place, designed by His Will, that teaches children of Grace. Pilgrims will come to learn of the way, to feel the Presence of God each day, to grow closer to Him in their little way. All their needs will be handled with physical ways. Repast, respice, God says, must be a comfort to His children so they can pray.

A hospital to aid the physical ill will lay facing the Basilica; that, too, in the form of a Cross. God has designed it thus, so children will know that He places much value on the physical.

The Way of The Cross, in a special place, will give all men a personal taste of the reality that It was, and children must walk this way to participate in that time of that day.

Coves will be set in particular ways, particular corners, for children to visit and learn more of The Saints.

And down on a knoll, in the center of all this, will be a great Amphitheater to teach children the Way of The Passion, and also to give them strength from the Bible, to help them remember, to help them be refreshed in the Beauty of God's Plan.

Surrounding this Hill, in a glow of light, the Beads of Her Way will be a bright sight. These Beads will protect this Hill of God's. These Beads will teach children the need and the Power that these Beads are.

When children enter this Hill of Hope, close to the entrance God has planned a great Bridge lined by The Saints. At the end of the bridge, they will suddenly see Saint Joseph, with the Child, holding the lily; and right behind Him, a great Book will be placed, depicting the Bible, God's Love for all children. At the end of this esplanade, Three Angels will stand, showing how They, too, take part in this land.

Each step of the way to complete this great task is guided by God and will be to the last. It is to give man Hope, to show man the way to the Real Purpose of life in every day. So be it."

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

“I, Saint John The Baptist, speak to you tonight and I want each child here to think about the Words, about the Light, about the Wind that was taught to you in a simple way, so that you could understand the Beauty of God’s Love for each of you.

My children, as I walked the land, trying so hard to teach man of the coming of a Special One, I was oftentimes laughed upon and many men said I had lost my mind and I would be better off dead. I reach out to you on this night and I say, ‘As I walked the earth in a truthful way, you now have a Sacrament to cleanse the way.’ Keep this in mind, My little ones.

The Sacrament of cleansing, of the pouring of the water, is a Special One to man; but now, because of so many misgivings, misunderstanding, misinterpretation, man is casting this aside to follow another plan. Be wise, My children, and know that the pouring of the water is important to God, for when this occurs the sin does have to go. Keep in mind also, that if there had been self-discipline, the pouring of the water, the way I had to walk would not have been necessary.

So now again, God sends to the world a child who has to walk a road of peculiar way: a hazardous one, a burdensome one, for you see, these are troubled days and children lack self-discipline. So every time this occurs, a sacrifice must be made, 'a sacrificial lamb' for God has to come man's way.

I speak to you from a Realm you know of, and God does wish for everyone to come Here for All Eternity. The Heavens speak, the Heavens teach; God sends His Love to each. Whether it be in poetic rhyme or simple Words from The Divine, the Teaching is to give all mankind the way to Heaven, the path to God, a Personal Touch of His Love.

I bless you, not with the water on this night, but with God's Love and with His Light. The Wind surrounds this child, and as It does, It touches you. The Wind is to help you understand God's Will for each of you. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 8, 1972 AT 8:02 P.M.

SAINT LOUISE

“My beloved children, I am Saint Louise.

Children fret over many things. Children are eager to participate in many things. Children say, ‘I must experience things today.’ Some are more aggressive, some are timid, some are anxious, some are reckless, some are careless; but no matter how they participate, each child does this with the power of the will given by God at the moment of conception.

Right now in the world, many children are partaking in evil things. Some are saying, ‘Satan, work with me so I will have power over others, so I will feel important.’ Some are so weak they succumb to his way. Some are saying, ‘Satan, go away.’ Some say, ‘Let my physical believe all things, let my physical experience my most dreams.’

Oh, My children, all ages are participating in this way of life, and through this child, God desires to draw children to a Light. It is not simple to make man change his ways, and that is why God sends This Miracle to help each one in the world know His Desires, help each one be refreshed in The Rules He made. Constantly repeated to children of all ages, all colors, is this: 'Look to the Commandments of God, look to the Light of His Way, and pray.'

I stand Here in the Heavens; Others desire to speak. It is God's Will, your way. Beware of what looks good and yet attracts your weakness. Beware of what feels good and causes you weakness. Stand strong, stand staunch, stand firm in truth, and obey His Rules; They are good for you.

I bless you with God's Love. A beloved Saint waits to speak to you."

SEPTEMBER 8, 1972 AT 8:06 P.M.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA

“My beloved children, I am Saint Rita of Cascia. I walked the physical life; I walked as a woman in the marriage state. And when God allowed me to stay in the robes of a particular way, I suffered much, only to do His Will to help you today. There was a stench upon my body, not made by me, but God allowed it to be for reparation had to be made.

And now I stand Here in the Heavens and as I do, when I appear in any form, I glow in the forehead for each of you. And so it will be with any part of your physical being that you serve God with. This particular part of you will glow in the Heavens Here with Us. God, in His Love for His little ones, promises Glory, Love, Peace. And keep this in mind, My little ones, look forward to It so one day you will enjoy It.

Another beloved Saint desires to speak, mostly to the little ones, for you see, She walked that way especially.”

SEPTEMBER 8, 1972 AT 8:08 P.M.

SAINT AGNES

“My little ones, I am Saint Agnes. I come special tonight to teach you to learn self-discipline, for as you learn this, you will become pure of heart, pure of mind, and yes, your love will grow for The Divine.

Listen well to the Words that come through this child for she is as you: flesh, blood, Soul, will; Guardian Angel, too. Each day you approach in a little way, the fullness of your day, pray to God to help you every step of the way, and promise Him that you will love Him if He will help you with self-discipline that day.

I bless you with Love you cannot see, you cannot feel, you cannot know. I bless you with Truth and I say, ‘Self-discipline will lead you to purity, purity will lead you to Sainthood, Sainthood will let you remain with God for all days.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 8, 1972 AT 8:20 P.M.

OUR LORD

“I hold this child, for as My Beloved Son, Who was My Beloved Father, placed her in a particular way, so when I was ready to speak there would be no delay.

When I walked the earth, when I saw trouble all around, My Heart would sometimes ache, for I would say, ‘God could take that misery away.’ And yet I had to obey and wait for The Father to say a Miracle would come. If I had not been prepared, trained in obedience then, I could not have withstood the pain of the Passion Way. And that is why, on this night, much has been spoken about Light, much has been said about the cleansing that had to be because of the lack of self-discipline.

Oh, My children, I speak profoundly. Man says, ‘God can do it,’ but what man does not say is: ‘Is God ready to do it? Is it God’s Will it be done now?’ Man prays, always hopeful he will get his way. This is not wrong, My children, but I say, ‘Learn to pray to do God's Will each day and you will grow in such a strength that self-discipline will become easy for you each day.'

Man does not understand that much preparation went into God's Plan. The Parents I walked with were chosen especially for Me, for many reasons. I take you now to a time that was even then preparation for Me, as well as an Important Part of God's Plan.

My Beloved Father became physically ill. Mary, My Mother, nursed Him as all wives should. As I stood by and helped in many ways, I knew that the end was to come soon. I knelt down beside Him and spoke to Him of Our days, and suddenly this Man Whom I loved looked into My Eyes and said, 'Oh, Son, I cannot leave the world today, My work is not yet done.' I knew The Father's Will was about to take Him away. And as I said, 'Father, Son, God's Will must be done, Your work has just begun,' He faded away.

Much sorrow was in Our home, for We loved this Man Who was not made of stone nor was He made of wood; He was made of flesh, of blood.

The warmth of His Way remained with Us every day. I turned to The Woman Who lived all these years with Him, Who shared responsibility, and I did say, 'We must accept The Father's Will for Us today.' She looked at Me and She did say, 'Yes, Son, it must always be His Way.'

I went into the open fields. I went then to the mountain tops. I taught wherever I did go. And as I walked with men, they, too, were flesh and blood.

And as the time grew near to when I would have to stand before men, being brutally beaten — I did not look forward to this time — I cried out loud, 'Oh God, Divine, can You not spare this time?' The moments I did spend in the garden all alone, the Moisture on My Body I knew was One Alone. The time was near, the time was close, and it had to be for Reasons of The Father, the Will to bring all men to The Holy Trinity. I knew that My earthly Father was spending many moments pleading with The Holy King to deliver Me, and yet I knew it could not be.

I take you now to a Special Place where My earthly Father pleaded much for help, for Grace. The Beloved Joseph begged The Father to whisk Me away, to stop the men. He pleaded to return to the earth and stay to protect Me from these men who did not know. After much pleading, The Father had to say: ‘Joseph, this is why I took You away; Your Love for Him had grown so, that You could not bear to see the horror that had to be. And if I had allowed You, My little One, to remain upon the earth, or even now to return, You would ruin My Plan for every man.’ And Joseph, in His Love, torn between the Two, one last plea, and then The Father said, ‘Remember, He was My Son first.’

And now, My children, as I use this instrument of Truth, she too must stand in Truth — Total, Obvious.

I bless you with The Father’s Love, I bless you with Hope, I bless you with Light and I say: ‘As The Father loves you, I love you so. Let your life be Here with Us to stay.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 AT 10:50 A.M.

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“Man says, ‘I want a cure.’ God says, ‘I cure you in My Time.’ Even His Own Son asked for the chalice to be passed from Him, and yet God’s Reasoning, God’s Goal, God’s Love was so Ultimate. And it is with you and for you, as it was with The Son, God’s Grace will sustain you in all things. Turn to Him. Don’t run. Place all that you are within His Being, within His Hands, and you will feel the strength, not as you expect it to be, but as He knows you can handle it, and I, Saint Augustine, give you This Advice.

Let no man interfere with your going to God in a simple way, a loving way. Do not look for big signs, for sometimes a great sign could distract you, disturb you, and lead you the other way. Picture yourself as a small child in God’s Way, and He gives to you little favors that He knows will please you, help you, for you see, if He were to hand you great big things, your physical, your emotional, your surroundings, could not handle these things. I give an open question to you,

My little ones, ‘Do you understand What I have said to each of thee?’

Man says, ‘I do not want to eat dirt. I want what goes into me to be clean.’ God says: ‘Purify all things, My Way, so that you will spend Eternity with Me. Man does not feel a necessity for pure thoughts, and yet this will bring you Here with Me.’ Man says, ‘I cannot control my thoughts.’ This is not so. With your will you can control your thoughts. With your will you can control your senses. Will to love God so much that the weak part of yourself will be so inferior to your love for Him. This is how it is done by every man who lives in the physical.

I ask you again, ‘Do you understand?’ Those of you who say, ‘I do not,’ are using your will for excuse; those of you who say, ‘I understand, Saint Augustine. Help me the way God planned.’

I bless you with God’s Love. I bless you with the Desire for purity. I bless you with Truth. All the Words spoken thus far, through this child to you, were from Me, by Me, with God’s Power, under God’s tree. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 AT 10:54 A.M.

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

“My children, I am Saint Martin de Porres. I speak now and I say to each one here, ‘You must understand that the time in which you live is a sadness, and yes, a hazardous one for every man.’

Do not allow the evil one to interfere with your life in any way. Do not allow him to disrupt the good in work and play. Many men use their place of work, their place of vocation, for great sins. Oh, My children, if you could but see the evil happiness, you would say, ‘It cannot be from him,’ because you say you see satan as a very sad one; and the only time he appears in a happy manner is when he is drawing you to him. But true happiness he cannot have, true love he cannot feel. Keep in mind, My children, that all you do is please him when you walk away from God Who Is Real.

At the Judgment Time, in the Judgment Day, all men will say, ‘Why did I not listen to the Truth?’ And now

I, Saint Martin, say to you: ‘You are given a privilege on this day. You are given a chance to come totally God’s Way.’ There are so many things to be learned by all men in this day, through the Words spoken through this child by Us, in many ways.

I bless you with God’s Love. I bless you with All Truth. I give you Hope, for you see, through Hope you will feel God’s Love for you. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 AT 10:57 A.M.

SAINT MATTHEW

“My beloved children, on the night before this time, I spoke through this child from The Divine. I am Saint Matthew. I said through her that millions of children were standing on the outside of This Great Miracle. This is true. And God is expecting millions to come to this Hill. This is true.

Many men are saying the wrong things. Many men are misinterpreting Our Words that were put down through time. Many men are using the wrong direction to find God.

Through this child I bless you with Hope, but I also bless you in a simple way. Keep this in mind, that the Cross The Son hung upon was not an intricate design. It crossed one board next to the other, and His Body hung like all others. Would this not say to every man alive that it is the simple way, the simple truth, the simple sign, that will lead all men to The Divine? So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 AT 10:59 A.M.

SAINT PETER

“My children, I am known to shout through this child, to send Words of Love, of Direction, all the while. I am Saint Peter. I was not a learned man. I was simple in every way, whether I was on the sea or on the land. And when I followed The Son along the path that was to bring Me Here Where I am, I sometimes listened to the most simple Words, for if They had been great in size, I would not have understood Them. And so it is today through a child as you, how to love The Father comes in a simple form for each of you.

Even though some of you have read many, many books written by other men, you, too, must walk to God as a child, in a simple way, as I did. You must follow because of Love, you must follow in Love, but not the kind of love man is teaching to other men. To love God is a simple thing. It is combined with obedience, trust; and God Himself gave every man The Rules to live by, one by one.

Man says, 'I cannot understand The Rules that God did give.' God says, 'They are simple for every man who lives.' God says, 'Do not have strange gods before Me.' There is nothing complicated in this, for you see, men make gods out of many things: some, material ways; some, the senses in all ways. Some say, 'I need certain things; I need acclaim.' And God says: 'What is your aim? for to stand before Me, you need not be famous in the way of man. I will Judge you on your love, on your service, on the fruits of your way.'

So, you see, My children, These Words come to you today through a Saint Who delivers Them through a child who walks the simple way. Do not let your minds become so twisted that they cannot see, they cannot feel, the simplicity of the Cross that was very real. One of the most important prayers that God loves to have a child say is the one you begin many prayers with, and should begin your day: 'In the Name of The Father and of The Son and of The Holy Ghost.' You say many things when you make this Sign, and when you say the words, you say you believe in The Divine. Simple, it is true, and yes, It was given for each of you.

I bless you with that Sign, I bless you from The Divine, and I say: ‘Keep your love for God simple. Keep your love for God as a child.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 AT 11:05 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I am Saint Joseph. I will appear to this child in a moment. I will appear as I want her to describe Me, for each of you to remember for all your physical life.”

VISION OF SAINT JOSEPH AND OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

I have never seen Him like this. He’s about this big. He has a little brown, what you and I would call a dress. And He has a sack and He’s running; and He’s smiling and He’s looking up at the sky and He’s talking to God. These are the words He’s saying: “Oh, Father in the Heavens, I know that You are there. I see You, for I see the ground and I see the sky; I see the trees, I see other men who look at Me. Oh, God, do help Me understand what You Will for Me. I love You. Let it be.”

Oh, my God! Now He’s running, but as He runs, He seems to be growing. He’s about sixteen now, not that little boy anymore. He's standing in the temple. It's the time of the choosing; it's the time of acceptance, and He has no idea of what He has been chosen for. And yet within Him — it's as if I'm walking inside of Him — and He says, He's still saying, "Thy Will, God."

He's got the enthusiasm of His age, and yet there's the stability within Him. And He's got a fear of being able to stand up to this Choosing that He has no idea, the Ultimate It is for. Oh my!

Now He's leaving the temple, determined to do His best. It's as if He's going to conquer another world, and yet He does not know that the world He will help to conquer is for every Soul who is born to the world. He says, "So many children have thought about My life but they have never truly seen Me as I was."

And now He's walking next to Mary, and She's on an animal, a donkey; and They're speaking back and forth: "Joseph, I know You are tired, shall We rest?" "No, Mary, before dusk We must reach a point that is best." She rides along, continuing to worry about This Man Who has walked the whole way. But His first concern, while She is with This Child, is to find a place more comfortable. Now soon, He will say His own words: "The animal must rest. It will be good for him here." And He takes Her off the animal, and as He does, the gentleness, the firmness, the security He is, makes Her know She is safe with This Treasured Son.

Mary does not tell Him, but the weariness She feels is one, and yet the Glow upon Her Face is a Beauty to behold, for the flesh of Her Skin seems to radiate a light. It's not white, it's as a pink.

And They discuss repast time and They partake, but first the animal is fed. And Joseph hands to Mary a piece of Their kind of bread, not the type you and I know to be. Oh my, such a small amount for Each of Them. They went to a long thing and there's the liquid in this. Oh! He says to Her: "Mary, I feel the world will know about this time, about the significance of bread and wine. What it is I cannot say, but I know that repast such as this will be given one day." She agrees, not in a dutiful way, but in a loving way.

SAINT JOSEPH

“And little did I know that the bread and the wine would be one day given to mankind, bearing God Himself all the time. I give a Light through this child and around her, for as you were given Light today for the Soul, the Light of the physical surrounds you. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 13, 1972 AT 10:43 A.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“I, Saint Athanasius, speak through this child to teach you in a manner and in a way that you can react to, for if I said in the beginning, ‘I am Saint Athanasius,’ you would not have listened so critically to the Words; and yet, by your sheer criticism you reacted in an important way.

Heaven uses all means to gather children in a special way. Those of you who have walked on this Hill today must understand the Hill is God’s Way. The Hill is Hope for the world. The Hill is to give man the Purpose of life and incentive to be a Saint.

Many men are standing on the outskirts of God’s Way, praying in their own way. They say, ‘This is my way to God.’ Most of these children are omitting the Ten Commandments, for they are holding up false gods before them, whether the false god be their own pride, their own ego, their own position in life, or whether the false god be their emotional way, which has no stability in it in any day.

They are sinning against the First Commandment.

And then one of the great Commandments is: Thou Shalt Not Steal. Ask yourself: Are you allowing others to steal from you the dignity of the human way? Are you allowing others to steal from you, your free will? Are you allowing others to steal from you the truth and replace it with fallacy? Are you allowing others to let you believe that The Commandment says, 'Thou Shalt Not Steal,' and that this word only means material things? Oh, My children, go to your Commandments, read Them well and see the true meaning in Them, for if you do not, you will truly go to Hell.

A Commandment says, 'Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery,' and man says it has one meaning. God says: 'I gave it for many meanings. You have only accepted one.'

God says, 'Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness Against Thy Neighbor,' and yet how many times do you and others stand in judgment of your neighbor? And yet, man runs around saying, 'I love everyone,' and this very man will turn and say, 'On my terms, not God's today.'

So, you see, My children, The Commandments are to stabilize the physical way. The Commandments are to give you hope, to give you life, to give you Truth. There are so many children in the world doubting Truth. There are so many children acting in their own way. I, Saint Athanasius, say to you today: 'If you come across one of these, pray. If you come face to face with one of these, do not try to change them but be example of what is truth.'

Oh, My children, there is not one home that should not have evident to all the world the Ten Commandments in view, and the reason for Them and the meaning of each of Them. Men, right now, are standing in great libraries, seeking knowledge. Few of these men are capable of having wisdom. Knowledge they can absorb. They read it: another man's thoughts, another man's words; but wisdom, My children, is innocence, truth. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 13, 1972 AT 11:04 A.M.

OUR LORD

“My beloved children, It was I Who walked the path originally. It was I Who gave My Physical Life for the Purpose The Father had for everyone. It was I Who knelt to Him and said, ‘Please have this chalice pass.’ It was I Who spent thirty years in preparation for the last. It was I Who spoke to children such as I do now, teaching them the Will of The Father. It was I Who hung upon the Cross for you, for all the children.

It was I Who spoke firmly, understandingly, and with Wisdom, to the men who walked with Me on Calvary. It was I Who radiated God’s Love. It was I Who stood and said, ‘You must listen to Me now, for some day I will leave you in the world and I will go on ahead.’ And the men who walked with Me, the Apostles as you know them to be, did not fully understand. And sometimes, when I would finish speaking, they would feel the Wisdom of My Way, they would know that What they had learned was Special that day, and then they would go on living as men. I wanted it that way.

There were so many things and so many times, in the walking of the path, that were never recorded in any manner, with any means. And through This Miracle of Hope, I am telling them to you at different times.

Oh, My children, I did not walk the path of suffering for Me alone. I walked it for every man that would be born to the world. I walked it because it was The Father's Love. I walked it in obedience, and sometimes on this path I would say to Him: 'If You had not given Me time to prepare, I'm afraid, God, I would run away, for as they abused Me, the pain is so great, and the only thing that sustains Me is, Your Will must be done today.'

So please, My children, as you walk, keep in mind every moment of the day, The Commandments that He gave to give you strength, to give you wisdom, to help you be a Saint.

I speak through this child and to you it appears natural. How else could you stand My Words? How could you listen to the Teaching if I appeared in front of her? You would be so overcome with this Vision you would not be able to listen. So that is why a child was chosen, small in stature, so you could listen. There are so many evil things going on in your world today, and I say, 'It is worse than Sodom and Gomorrah was in their day.' So on this soil, Blessed by Us, All Hope is written, All Faith must be given.

I bless you with My Heart, the same Heart I gave one day to give you life, to teach you how to pray, and I bless you with Light, the Light of the Wisdom Way.

I send the child now to the little ones, for they, too, need My Light. For some of them the path is long. For some of them the path is short. Whichever it may be, they will need My Light to give them strength, to give them Hope to come Here to Eternity. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 14, 1972 AT 7:50 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My beloved children, I, your Father, speak in a manner unusual to you but in a way you can understand because it is My Love for you. I will hold the child soon in My Power in a strong way. You will not understand, but nonetheless, it is My Sign, My Truth, My Love, My Wisdom for each of you.

Many children pray. They do it in an obvious way. Many men do not believe that I would be humble, that I would speak through a child such as you. Man cannot make My Decisions nor can man reason My Way. Man is My Creation. I am The Creator of All Things. This child whom I use stands before you in My Way.

At all Great Times in History I acted in a humble way. When I sent My Own Son upon the earth, I placed Him in a humble setting. He was born to the world in a humble manner. Would this then not say to you I would act this way? The path that This Particular Family took was one of Humility, one of Service to Me, one of Obedience. I could have made Them great personages. I could have given Them human royalty, but this is not My Way. When the time came for My Own Son to choose men, I directed Him to every one. I chose men from walks of life that others would not have chosen.

I speak slowly through this child so you will absorb What I say. I want you to remember It for all your physical days.

I chose, through My Son, men whom I knew would pass on to you the Truth of the Way. I gave you many examples through them: perfect love, John's way; perfect service, others' way; deceit, another way; and many showed weakness in the physical way. I did all these things for you. When the time came for My Very Own Son to stand alone, men were too frightened, men were not humble enough to stand with Him.

My children, humility is strength. He showed this all the way. Man's description of humility makes it look weak. Man's description of how I would act makes My Way sad, makes Me intolerant of many things.

I come to the world now to give all men My Love, My Way, and through this child I express certain Words many times. I have given many Lessons in humility, in obedience and in trust. Tonight, I beseech you; I, your Father, ask you; I, your Father, your Creator, come to you, through a child such as you, to ask you to become a Saint. It is not impossible. It is up to you.

My sons, I now speak to you as only a Heavenly Father can do. In your vocations, different in way, you are exposed to many things, satan's way. I ask you to keep in mind the Lesson I taught on this night for all mankind: humility, it will lead you to Here; obedience to My Commandments, for through this obedience you will grow in humility, and I say, 'Trust solely in My Way.'

This child through whom I speak is all I need to express My Love to the whole world. In loving Me there is no language barrier; children do not have to speak other tongues. The greatest lesson in My Way is to be example every day. If you are example, you will lead all men to truth. Keep this in mind. My Power is so Great, My little children, I do not have to have man be great to show Me, to show My Way. I proved this one day when I chose a certain Man, a certain Woman, to walk with My Son in the human way.

Men say, 'It cannot be that God would choose a child to walk so simply.' My, man judges how I would be. If, at the time that The Beloved Holy Family — as you call Them — walked the earth, how many a man, how many women would agree that They were chosen by Me to walk this Special Road? I give you a figure now: None; for you see, then too, man was looking to the stars, man was looking for great prophecy. Man was looking for signs. Man was looking for what would please him.

I, your Father, speak through a small instrument, as I did a long time ago. My Power is so Great, and through her It does show. I could name many times, many places, that only humility was seen. You are aware of some of them. My children, do not stand in judgment, but let My Rays, My Love, shine through each of thee. As I use this little instrument for certain things, for many things, I desire to use you for other things: to spread My Love, to teach My Way, to express humility to all men in your day. Let the beat of your heart beat only for Me. Let each step you take be My Way, to Eternity.

Keep These Words in mind. Keep the Lesson before your eyes, and teach It My Way. Add these words to all whom you meet: self-discipline. It was self-discipline that allowed My Son to stand up to the men, one by one, and through self-discipline, humility showed; through humility, obedience was seen, and do not forget to add, trust in Me.

I release the child slowly, and while I do this I bless you with My Love. I created each of you.”

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 7:48 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved children, I, Saint Athanasius, speak through this child openly. I, too, walked the earth fighting a heresy. It is not an easy path, it is not an easy road but it is one for God’s Will to be done, for men to reach Eternity.

The heresy in your day is not a single one. There are two, three, four, five, six, seven; each one, treacherous in its own way, demanding in a particular way, obvious in a special way, and harmful to your Soul in all ways. Children are seeking to be involved. Children are seeking attention. Children are seeking acclaim. Children are seeking to have a name. True love for The Father is not this way. True love for The Father is humility in all ways. He Himself is the Greatest Example of humility that man can have, and He sent His Son to the world and He, too, showed all humility, as man.

This child*, through whom I speak, is but an instrument of God. It is He Who directs all things through her. Here in the Heavens Where I am, Where I stay, Where I shall always be, We desire to help men of all colors, all races, all creeds, to stand for God in purity.

The heresy, My children, uppermost in your time, in your day, in your way, carries a title that says to man, 'Good, God, Bible History.' And I stand Here in the Heavens and I fight this heresy, not only through this child but through other means, and the heresy I speak of is Pentecostalism. It is but man's dream. It is a tool of the evil one and it has many schemes. Truth is not shown in this manner. Truth is not given in this way. Truth is not shown through pride, through ego. Truth is light, wisdom, obedience, humility.

My children, there are great things happening, great evils attacking your beloved Holy Church. The evil one decided that he could not attack fully with one measure, two measures or even three. But I, Saint Athanasius, say to you on this night, 'There is only One Mortar to make things right, and that, My children, is the Holy Rosary.' The prayers on these Beads will fill the gap. The prayers on these Beads will give strength and make things last. The prayers on these Beads have a Power all their own and each time a Rosary is said on the earth, it is said by One, Two, Three or More Here in the Heavens Where I am.

So, you see, I come to you on this night and I say: 'Keep in mind the Wisdom you have learned tonight. Keep in mind the Truth you must see, and know that what you see with your physical eye can be distorted, so look to your Souls. Look to the Strength and the Beauty They are, It is, and you will feel God's Love for you.'

Right now, children are gathering. They are enjoying the senses, what they say, how they say, 'Innocently'. This is not so. They are joining in a heresy, and heresy, My children, is developed untruth.

As I bless you through this child, I bless you with Hope, I bless you with Light, and I say: 'Do not close your physical eyes to the heresies of your day. Do not close your ears to What I said. Do not close your heart to the Wisdom you must spread.' So be it."

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 7:58 P.M.

VISION OF SAINT TERESA OF AVILA,
SAINT CATHERINE LABOURE,
SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

There are Three Saints gathering by a huge table. The table is not varnished, but it's white, very smooth. The One Saint says, "Go ahead, say My Name," and of course, It's Saint Teresa of Avila. She's smiling. She says I could tell you what She said one time.

One time She came in very quickly and She said, "Go to Saint Joseph, ask Him where you should be and at what time. So be it." And, I didn't know where to go. And when She left I said, "You forgot to tell me where to go." She said, "Ask Him." I never would have lasted in one of Her convents. She's beaming. I wish you could all see Her. She's beaming. Oh my!

Saint Catherine of Laboure; Saint Catherine of Siena, strong, firm. When They're smiling, I smile. It's a reaction. It's not a reaction to Them but from Them.

They stand at this great table and suddenly there are rows of books, all in piles along the table. Saint Teresa removes one of the piles, and now another one, and now another one, and now another one. The table is clear. Oh, She is so full of Love for God.

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 8:02 P.M.

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“My beloved children, I speak through this child and I say to you on this night, ‘The knowledge man depends upon has its place, and in many ways is right, but it is best for man to depend solely upon God for all things and to feel only His Divine Light.’ Some men say, ‘I have much talent in the world; it would be disgraceful for me to pass it away, to cast it aside, to not use it.’ God does not say do not use the talents, the mind that He gave you, but He does say, do not place so much emphasis on it that you forget to walk His Way.

Right now, in the world there are so many children placing much emphasis on their intelligence and they are casting aside Faith. Faith, My little ones, is important to life. Faith has many facets. Faith says obedience. Faith says trust. Faith says truth. Faith says wisdom. Faith says, ‘I am a must.’ So you see, My little ones, as I cast aside the books Here in the Heavens Where I am, I say to you,

‘Have Faith in where I put them.’ So be it.”

VISION (CONTINUED)

Saint Catherine of Siena is smiling at Saint Teresa. She nods at me like this. She has on a gray garment and it has a very large sash underneath. The sash is evident to me because the sash seems to have lettering on it. Oh my! She puts it aside so I can see. The lettering is red; it’s about this high and it says MARTYRDOM. And now she turns it over. Oh my! It says FAITH on it. The other side says WISDOM and the other side says OBEDIENCE.

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 8:05 P.M.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“My children, I need no longer carry These Words with Me Here in the Heavens, but I give Them to you on this night to make you aware that They are important for Divine Light. So many children are passing through the physical way, spending little time in learning about God’s Way. So many children are depending upon others to lead them and they are all being led astray. They are leaning on the weakness of man instead of the Beauty of God, the Truth He Is.

As I walked in the earth, I faced many men and I said to them, ‘You are wrong.’ And they would say to me, ‘How can you say that?’ And then I would give them the Wisdom that God taught me, and many times, it was the Wisdom alone that made them change their ways. And there were some along the way who fought hard against me and yet they knew that I stood in Truth. And so it is again in your day, My children. The child bears God’s Wisdom and Truth and so many men fear this Truth, for you see, for to accept this Truth they will have to become involved with God in a special way.

I, Saint Catherine of Siena, say, ‘I walk with this child also, in your day, and as Many of Us do, We wonder how children could be so blind not to see the Truth she is, not to see the Wisdom instead of just knowledge.’ All books have been taken from this child, for many reasons.

And now I say to you: ‘Be blessed by this time for you must remember the Words that were on My garment, for you must keep Them before you at all times, and you must begin to follow Them, for as you do you will grow in Sainthood, you will grow in God’s Love, and, believe Me, My children, you will enjoy the path, for it will give you a happiness you never knew before. It will give you a strength, for with this path comes humility.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 8:08 P.M.

SAINT CATHERINE LABOURE

“My children, I went to The Mother today and asked Her to participate in This Miracle of your day. The Radiance upon Her Face answered Me in Grace, and as I looked at the Countenance, the Beauty I behold was truly One Alone. I experienced time with Her a long time ago, but this time I spend now seems to grow and grow. I was eager to come forth tonight, because you see, the desire Here in the Heavens for children to better understand the Purpose of life, the way it must be, seems to grow and grow and grow.

The child is seeing More come into the Vision, so as I speak through her, she is captured by the Total Sight, the Great Light that is given her. If she was not sustained by God, she could not bear what she does see.”

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 8:12 P.M.

VISION OF TWO THOUSAND SAINTS
AND OUR LORD

There are Two Thousand Saints gathered at the request of The Holy Trinity. I will name Some of Them as she sees Them: Saint Cyprian, Saint Anastasia, Saint Agnes, Saint Philip, Saint Mark, Saint Joseph of Arimathea, Saint Paul, Saint Matthew, Saint Patrick. Oh my! Saint Alphonsus Liguori, Saint Athanasius, Saint Augustine, Saint Mary Magdalene — More and More and More — Saint Pacian, Saint Tobias, Saint Elias, Saint Martha, Saint Anne, Saint Gregory. Oh my! Saint James, Saint Frances Cabrini. Saint Francis of Assisi, and He's smiling. Oh my! Saint Felicitas, Saint Robert Bellarmine, Saint Lucy, Saint Jude. Oh my! Saint Therese, "The Little Flower"; She's smiling and She dropped a rose. She said, "For you, child." My!

And now, above Them, comes a Great Light. It's Our Lord. His garment is white, His Hair golden brown. He's smiling all around. "I ask you," He says, "do you love Me?"

Oh yes, I love You. “I know. Many times, My child, to show great love, humility must be shown. Be sure that all children who touch you grow in love with Me forevermore.”

SEPTEMBER 15, 1972 AT 8:17 P.M.

OUR LORD

“I bless the world through this child. I bless those who accept the physical as worthwhile. I bless the little ones who must be taught. I bless the sick, I walked the road. I bless those who fear loving Me; they fear criticism. Please, My children, feel free to love Me according to My Will. Through the child’s eyes, I bless you. Through her heart, I touch you. Through her will that is Mine, I want yours, so you will all one day join Me in The Divine.

I leave the Vision but I have given you firsthand My Love, through a child as man, and through her I intend to show the world My Father, when I was Man. Let It be known, let It be heard, let It be seen: My Will, My Word. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 17, 1972 AT 10:48 A.M.

SAINT JOHN BOSCO

“There are many, many things that This Miracle is teaching, and as I speak through this child it appears as she is speaking. Not so, My children, for you see, this little one could not come up with the Wisdom or teach the Wisdom that has been given to thee. I am Saint John Bosco. There are some here who are devoted to My way, devoted to how I was. Many men stand bearing My Name, saying: ‘He is my Saint. I am His son.’

I come through this child with a Love on this day you cannot know, you cannot equal in any way, for the Love I come with and come in, is God’s Love for men. It is true that All Things that are spoken through this child are to guide mankind to Sainthood.

Man no longer thinks of the time when the physical ends. He is too busy deciding to enjoy the physical, which he says is God’s Plan. My children, I stand Here in the Heavens and I say to you on this day on God’s Soil: ‘Obey His Rules. Do not look totally to the flesh but use the flesh in service to God, doing only His Will.'

As the child's eyes pass over you, on you, through you, they are My Eyes to help you, for through her sight in a physical way, the Heavens speak in a giving way. Children are not being taught self-discipline, they are not being taught to sift truth from untruth.

Oh, My children, I, Saint John, speak to you on God's Land and in His Way and I say, 'You are privileged to hear Heavenly Words today.' Be blessed by My Hand, be blessed by My Way and follow Truth every day. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 17, 1972 AT 10:52 A.M.

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

“My beloved children, I stood in great sin. I now stand with God, sometimes very close to Him. I knew, at a particular time in my life that I had been touched by Divine Light. I am Mary Magdalene.

There are so many things children are to learn through This Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Love. I speak openly through this child and I say, ‘If every man would make purity his goal every day, there would be so Many Saints walking the earth that all beauty would reign, all love would be shown, all truth would be given.’

You see, My children, man does not strive for purity; he waits. He associates purity with things that he eats, that he sees, but he does not associate purity with his Soul, with his way, with his will, every day. Through This Miracle of Hope, of Truth, The Father is telling you to seek purity, and when sin comes your way, say to Him,

‘God, help me be pure, help my thoughts, help my sight, help my walk be only for You.’

I walked the path of impurity and I could make excuses for many times, but I say to you now, ‘There is no real excuse for impurity, for you see, you can hold on to God’s Love all the time.’ Be sure that each day you keep before you The Commandments He gave. These will give you purity, These will give you strength, These will give you love, These will give hope, and These will make you a Saint.

I bless you with God’s Love and with The Heart that helped me realize that purity had to be. I bless you with Light, for through this Light you will see God’s Will for each of thee. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 17, 1972 AT 10:56 A.M.

SAINT COLUMBKILLE

“My beloved children, I speak this way to gather your attention My way. I am Saint Columbkille. Many children have not heard My Name but through This Miracle of Love, of Hope, of Truth, I have spoken often so children would begin to understand that Many Names, Many Saints are Here in the Heavens Where I am. Children quote My Remarks through this child. Children like to hear My Name. They enjoy the different sound it gives to the ears of them in their day.

I speak through this child and I say: ‘Be aware totally of God’s Way. Do not let other men tempt you, guide you, or draw you away, or detain you from God’s Will any day.’ All Love, God’s Way, could be given to you now, but there would be no earning Grace, for you see, It would be there direct from Him. The privilege of the physical way is far more than you see, you comprehend, you understand, you believe. But it is true, My children, to walk the physical road is a privilege, one alone, for through this path you will grow in Grace, grow in love for God, service to Him, and be a Saint.

He says to each child born, 'Keep in mind, the will I gave at the moment of conception.' Man says, 'I use my will, God's Way.' God says: 'No, child, you do not, for you do not obey. You lack self-discipline, My Way.' So at the day when Judgment will be made, children will have to say how they spent their will each day, how they served in little ways, for keep in mind, My children, no one in the world in the physical way, can serve God in a grand way; all are little ways, all are little gifts to Him.

When this Great Hill is reached to the completion, to the goal God Decrees, God Wills, no man will be able to stand at the top and say: 'I built this Hill my way. I did this, I did that,' but man will be able to say, 'I participated in this love for God some day.'

And I, Saint Columbkille, say, 'No coward can build this Hill God's Way.' Ask yourselves today: Are you a coward? Are you afraid? Are you weak? If you are, pray, for you see, God is seeking men all over the world to participate in this act of love to Him. Talents He gave. Knowledge He gave. Wisdom He Was.

I bless you from Heaven Where I am and I say, 'Are you willing to do God's Will today?' So be it."

SEPTEMBER 17, 1972 AT 11:03 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I, Saint Joseph, have given this child many Lessons in obedience, trust, humility, and yes, self-discipline. I allowed her to speak to you in the manner she did so you would better understand the littleness she was and is. You see, The Father has placed This Miracle for Me upon the earth for each of thee. The ‘Preparation’ that this child endured, went through, and yes, conquered, was in a Special Way. It had to be a daily way. And so I come to you from the Heavens Where I stay and I say, ‘You, too, have a preparation, for you see, all children must prepare themselves to one day see The Holy Trinity.’

Children must learn, through obedience, self-discipline, love, service, that these are the means through which, by which, Sainthood can be gained for All Eternity. I speak slowly through the child, for I want each child present here to understand the path to Heaven is a simple path, not a lonely one, but a path where children can stand alone and lean upon God alone. Oh, My children, Those Words must be remembered by each of you; They are Words of Great Love from Me to you.

There were many times that Mary and I, walking the path, taking care of The Son, knew that We could not lean upon Each Other, but We could help Each Other in many ways. We had responsibility in a special way, and those of you in the marriage state have responsibility the same way We had in Our day. Keep in mind, God has order to all things, and this is the order He gives to mankind: First, God, in your thoughts, actions, deeds; then your spouse, then your children, then your family and friends.

Keep this in mind, for if you approach each day in that order, you will feel the desire to be a Saint and the need for God, above all things. One of the great tragedies in your day is the neglect of God. The second tragedy is the neglect of the spouse. The third tragedy is the neglect of supervision for children; the neglect that you spend, where you should be spending time in service to Him. Do you understand, My children? All Things said through This Miracle of Mine are said to draw you to The Divine.

I bless you with Hope, I bless you with Love, I bless you with Light, and I say, ‘Let All the Words spoken today give you the strength to obey The Rules God gave to every man, every day.’ So be it.”

VISION OF THE SACRED HEART

Oh my! I will tell you what I see. Our Lord is standing on a hill, and around Him there are many children. One child is straying off, walking into the trees. Our Lord's not calling him. The child is going farther and farther and farther. Our Lord has seen him but He's waiting.

THE SACRED HEART

“My beloved children, I am aware of the child who strays. I am aware of those who cling. I am aware of the need of the child who strays. But I ask you on this day: ‘Would it be wise for Me to neglect those who cling, to walk out after one who wants attention, wholly? Would it not be wise to organize all the children close to Me and We make the search together? For, you see, to follow that one child would give insecurity to those who cling.’

And so it is through This Miracle of Love, of Hope, of Truth, I ask children to gather in unity, to accomplish all the things: first, to help the Souls of each other by teaching, through example, love for Me. I warn you in some ways: If one child goes out to catch the lost, when the enemy has the child, the enemy will lead the one who searches into briar patches he sometimes cannot see. And that is why I say on this day, to children gathered to hear Our Words, Our Love: ‘Do not walk into the briar patches. You are not strong enough; but, as you gather in unity, you stand in strength. And those who stand wanting attention, must learn from you the beauty of strength, the hope it is.’

I have taught you a Great Lesson on this day. Absorb It and follow It, and be sure that you pray.

I say to you, ‘Those who desire attention are a sadness to Here.’ There are many children now following a heresy that gives them attention and acclaim when they gather in My Name. This heresy has a name: Pentecostalism. It is truly children walking away from clinging to My Way. They are seeking power on their own, attention on their own, and they are so anxious to draw others to them. There are so many children being led by them, thinking they are going out to help them.

I speak through this child. I am The Sacred Heart. I gave My Heart one day for all men, and now I come in a different manner and I extend My Heart to everyone. I did not die in the physical for just the time in which I lived. The suffering that was Mine was for all men, and every blow I felt, every thorn that went into My Head, I felt forty times the pain that any man could withstand. Man says, 'Do not show Him in the True Suffering that He had.' I say to the world now, 'How else can they know that it was so bad?' So few children are asked to suffer, in a small way, these things, because The Father knows no child could stand such agony unless the love for Him was so deep, so great.

I show the child now the thorns that went into My Head and I ask her to tell you."

VISION OF THORNS

Oh, my God, they're horrible. It would not be worthwhile for anything on earth, to push it more into His Head. Oh, my God!

THE SACRED HEART

“And now I say to each man here, ‘Why do you not want to see the Truth?’ If others blind you from it, you must seek it for yourself. As the crown was pushed into My Head and the blows were a torment no man could stand, understand, My children, it was done for you, and now I come to the world to let you know the Truth.

The Son, Who was My earthly Father, is to stand upon this Hill, not in the suffering like Mine, but in Glory for obeying The Divine, for through His Glory, through His Way, many men will understand the Purpose of life.

I have said many things to you today. I warned you of the briar patch that a weak child could lead you into. I warned you of a heresy you are surrounded by. I told you of My Suffering, and why. And then I did announce to you the Purpose of This Hill, the Purpose of This Miracle. All Heaven uses this here child to transmit the Lessons that are so worthwhile. And when you leave this place today, I do not hand you a crown but I hand you Hope, I hand you a Goal, I hand you My Heart, for through My Heart,

My Love will give you strength, will give you the Light for purity. It will teach you self-discipline and It will give you hope.

I bless you with the Wounds I suffered, with the Agony that was dealt by man, with My Heart that was pierced with a spear. It was God's Will it be directed to Here. So be it."

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“My beloved children, to many I was known as a warrior. To all I am now known as a Saint. The child walks somewhat like I did, and yet, like Others also did. I am Saint Joan of Arc.

There are many, many armies to be led. There are many, many Words to be given. There are many, many, many Souls to be saved. There are many, many children to learn the Truth. There are many, many children to see God As He Truly Is.

There are many heresies to be stopped, to be wiped out, to be cleared up. You stand in the middle of one who has taken, which has taken great hold. Men are turning to it because in it they feel bold, they feel false strength, false power, emotionalism; and this is not God’s Way. For when it is Truth it is God’s; it is not self-involvement like heresy does say.

God does not hand out power to men, to heal, to cure, in a great way. Man could not handle such power, man would go astray. Man would become prideful, egotistical, and burn with a zeal that would only lead him the enemy's way. When the Power is Truth, the Way is Right, the Gift is Light, the Words are Wisdom, They are controlled by The Father at all times. It is not up to the child to say, 'Now, God,' but up to God to say, 'Now, child.'

You walk in what man calls 'Pentecostalism'. It is the main heresy of your day. Watch out for it, be cautious of it, do not participate in it; fight against it, see the untruth it is, see the selfishness that it portrays, and do not accept it. It is not God's Way.

I say this to you through a child such as you, for The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph has been put upon the earth to fight this heresy, plus many other things in your day. A Time has been chosen by The Father for This Great Saint to become known throughout the world. All colors, all races, all creeds, must be within the circle of This Great Miracle. No man is to feel left out or to be put out because of his heritage, his background, his way. No man is to seek entrance unless he loves God first.

I bless you from Heaven Where I am. I bless you with Truth, I bless you with a Love you do not know, and I bless you with the Light of the Wisdom that shows. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 22, 1972 AT 8:12 P.M.

ABRAHAM

“My beloved children, you have heard My Name, you have listened to stories of My way, but few men have ever prayed to Me. I am Abraham. There are so many men eager to know God’s Truth, God’s Way, God’s Will. They want to jump in to be a part of it and to show that they, too, accept, acknowledge and walk this path. My children, to love God means sacrifice, means devotion, means obedience, means trust, means acceptance and relinquishment regarding the will. So many children speak of purity. They see it in an inefficient, insufficient way; never in its full value, God’s Way.

As you see, I hold the child tighter, tighter, closer and closer to Me. This Miracle is given to the world to save children of all ages, all colors, all creeds. As it was in My day, The Father has Great Love for His children, and sometimes He asks much, just to see how deeply a particular child loves The Holy Trinity. Once a child submits totally, it is test after test, hour after hour, submission after submission, all to help the child grow in purity.

You are familiar with certain stories told to show you the need for purity. I will mention a few, but I will not mention all the facets of these to you: Mary Magdalene; the story of Mary and Martha. You have heard ill will about the beloved Saint Augustine. You have heard of Me, you have heard of Adam and Eve.

Ask yourselves on this day: what could be written of each of thee? Would you want it in print? Would you want it told? Would you want to be judged by young and old? Would you desire to share with men of all kinds, your everyday affairs? Would you stand up to truth or would you deny what is said? Would you respond with love until you were dead? Would you recognize the Purpose of life, the need for sacrifice and the necessity of strife?

Oh, My children, I say to you now, 'Relax the physical, control the mental and enjoy the Spiritual.' Grow in purity of mind and body. Grow in love with God, Who is Almighty. Grow in charity, pray for Faith. Reach for love, requesting God to help you all the way.

I hold the child in dignity and I use God's Will, God's Power to speak to each of thee. I will release her just a small bit, for Someone Else will speak. Do not deny the Truth of this night, for if you do, you will reject God's Love for you."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1972 AT 8:30 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I, your Heavenly Mother, speak through this child on this night. I hold her in a lightness but I hold her with delight, for she has just shown you a simple way to obey. It took courage, My loved ones, in a human way. So many children walk around with little discipline, with little light. And the child who stands before her on this night, who was sent, not by the enemy, but to see if she was right, must leave this place with only truth on your lips, in your heart and in everything you do. If you lie, I will have to speak to you, for This Miracle of My Spouse must be given to the world as Truth.

I, your Heavenly Mother, have been seen in many Visions throughout the world, and as I am, I have a Message according to God’s Plan. I have delivered Many, I have taught much, and yet there are children saying: ‘I do not believe. I do not want This to touch me, for if It does I will have to change, or I will have to look like a fool with those around me.’

I ask you on this night, My children, 'Who is the fool: the one who stands in Truth, in Love, in Light, or the one who shies away from It, fearing what is right?' Some children say, 'I am weak in a fleshy way.' And I say to this child, 'How do you determine weakness? What do you determine as the cause, and why do you accept it as your way?'

You see, My children, you must stand strong against evil in every way. I, your Mother, say this to you on this special night: 'Do not make excuses for what you think is right, but when temptation comes and weakness is overwhelming, have you ever turned to Me to feel the Light? If you had upon your person the Beads I love so much, sin would be a difficult thing for you to touch.'

So keep in mind, My little ones, the Beads are a Power on their own. And when you have The Father inside your physical, you are fortified to handle all temptations of the world, all weaknesses of flesh, all turmoil. Oh, My children, I do love you and it is sadness to Me when you turn your back on what is right and try to ignore Me.

I speak to My daughters and I say, ‘Modesty was not just for Me, in My Way, in My day.’ I did not look ugly, I did not feel ugly. I felt what you would call, ‘comfortable’, and this is what I want all daughters to know: To walk in modesty and purity has a comfort for all children in the world.

And now I speak to My sons and I say: ‘I depend upon you to encourage modesty in everyone you meet each day, whether it be at work, at home or at play. If you condone immodesty, impurity, you walk satan’s way.’

So, little ones, I, your Heavenly Mother, say, ‘Keep before you the goal of purity, the beauty of modesty, the Gift of Faith, the strength of humility, and the Beauty of being a Saint.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 24, 1972 AT 1:38 P.M.

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“My beloved children, I am Saint Teresa of Avila, and I come through this child with courage, and I say, ‘I, too, walked the land in a particular way, and there were many times that I, too, had to stand up for what I knew was correct, what was right, what was Truth.’ And so it is on this day when much hazard comes this child’s way, she must stand in Truth, for it is the Will of God every day.

Do not blind yourself to what is right, what is truth, but open your eyes. Take the blinders off of you, and face all things around you. There are many heresies nagging at you, picking at you, and trying to take you off the path where God wants you to be.

One of the main heresies in the world is Pentecostalism, and believe Me, My children, it is a heresy. This child must stand in the world for God, one alone, for The Holy Trinity, and say to every man who stands, whether he stand in a religious way, whether he stand in what you term a ‘lay’ way, that Pentecostalism is heresy and it must be wiped out, it must be cleansed away before it drags all men down to the pits of Hell in every day, for all eternity.

So as this child stands against a heresy, there are seven in number, the first one to be attacked by her is Pentecostalism.

I, Saint Teresa of Avila, say, 'When you leave this Holy Ground today, look to your heart, look to your mind, and look to your way, and if you are involved in the heresy of your day, walk away from it before it swallows you up and drives you to Hell in every way.'

There are many men walking around and they say, 'I stand for satan.' They think it is funny. They think it is great. They think it is of your day. I say to you now, 'Satan is in your day, but that is no sign the children have to walk in his way.' This is another heresy, a great one, My children, and yet Pentecostalism is higher than this. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 24, 1972 AT 1:41 P.M.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“I, Saint Catherine of Siena, speak through this child with firmness and with Truth, and I say to you, ‘All the Words spoken thus far have been for each of you.’ And as she stands firm on the Ground of Love for God, I say to you, ‘I, too, had to face many men of the Hierarchy and I, too, had to stand in Truth and I, too, had to tell them what was correct for each of them.’ So you see, this child now stands in your day for The Holy Trinity, to do the same thing.

It is true, there are many heresies walking around in your day, and it is true there are so many children ready to say, ‘But I stand in what I know is truth, what I feel is correct and what I know is good for me.’ Oh, My children, keep in mind that what is good for you is only The Divine, and what is really the Truth for all men is The Holy Trinity. And this is what you must begin each day with: ‘In the Name of The Father and of The Son and of The Holy Ghost. Amen,’ for as you do this, satan cannot stay around, for he detests The Father; for he is jealous of Him, envious of Him, and he hates Him.

Oh, My children, be aware that this child stands on firm ground, on true ground, and you who are evil must walk away. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 24, 1972 AT 1:49 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I, your Heavenly Mother, do not come on cue, but I come in the order God has meant for you. There will be no Vision today through this child, of Light, but I say to you, each one, ‘Do you stand in such strength, in such truth, that you could stand where the child does and give God all the love from you?’

This Hill of Hope is meant to be a Place of Honor to The Holy Trinity, with a Place of Honor also to My Spouse Who walked the earth with Me. There are many books written about The Saints, but none have covered Him in any full worth. He was Firm, He was Sound, He was Truth, and everything He did was to do The Father’s Will.

The relationship We had was one alone. There was no nagging, pulling, tearing, that One should reach the Throne. It was communion of Our Way; peace, harmony in every day. It was giving in the serving to The Father first, above all things. It was desire to please Him in all We did, in all We said. And when We looked at The Child, We did not know that the time was to come that He would dread, that We would hardly be able to stand by and watch what was to occur.

But I say to you now, not from the sky, but from Heaven Where I am: 'Be little in God's Eyes, and do not fight so hard for acclaim in the world, because when you do, you only reach for shame in the world. And do not depend upon man, but depend upon God, for He Is All Things.' He has created all men. There is not one man alive in the world who can create another man. Oh, they have tried, and they will always try to be equal to God, to stand high.

And now, as I bless you, I take the child away to the little ones who wait for the Touch of Me, in My Way.

There are many facets to This Miracle, many that you do not know, but the Oils from Saint Joseph are truly One Alone. And I say this to you on this day so you will question what They are, not to intrigue you, but to let you know God protects this child in every way. The Oils that pour forth from her hands and have always done, are given to you in many ways. The

Oil is His; the Power, God; the Love,
The Holy Trinity. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 27, 1972 AT 10:44 A.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved children, it is with Respect and with Desire, with Truth, with Understanding, with Wisdom and with Knowledge, I approach you today. I single certain children out, not to draw them from the way of life they are now in, but to draw them to life for All Eternity.

I walked the earth, not in a somber way, but in a way of service. I walked the earth purposefully, with all my love showing for The Holy Trinity. I speak today distinct, so you will understand, so ego will not take command, for in true life and in truth, ego is only weakness and will bear you no fruit.

I am Saint Francis of Assisi, and I say: ‘If you close your mind, you are but a fool on this day. If you open your mind to the sacrifice being made, you will join, you will participate, so you will be a Saint.’

As I suffered the Wound, it was God’s Will it be done; and as the pain was agonizing I wanted to run, but I knew it was God's Will for a particular reason, and some of the reason was for you, so you could read about My way, read about My day, and it would help you. The arrogance of man was also in My time, and as it was then, it is now.

Many men think they walk in prudence, and in reality it is selfishness. Many men feel they walk the path God chose for them, and in true logic they walk only to satisfy themselves, no other man. Some men say, 'I have great talent and I am using it.' And now I say to those present and those away, 'The talents you have, what would you do if God took them from you today?' He can, you know. He might, you know. And you would say, 'Why me, God? Why not someone else?'

So many men cry out, chastising The Father, for pain, for sadness, and sometimes because they have reached no acclaim. And The Father says, 'I have allowed to your way sufficient means, sufficient way, to draw you to Me, My Way.'

And I, Saint Francis of Assisi, say to you on this day with determination — God's, 'This Great Hill will be built

His Way.' And as the child is used as the instrument, she is the fork; not a fork as you know a fork to be, but the fork she is, is to draw men to spend Eternity with The Holy Trinity; and also, this fork is used to sift from the main part, things, children who do not want to partake totally in God's Way.

I stand in the Heavens Where I am, and I stand on Firm Land, not like yours; but I stand also, able to pass on to you God's Love, God's Mercy, God's Justice, God's Truth. And some of you before this child now, say, 'She cannot be true.' Ask yourself: Are you in a position to cast stones? Are you in a position to stand about with all truth? And if The Father were to say to you now, 'I take you from the world, I take you to My Throne,' would you be in such purity that you could stand there and say, 'I deserve This, God, Your Way, not mine'? Purification must come in many forms, in many ways, and sometimes The Father has to force a child on the road, on the path to purification.

And right now, the time in which you live has heresy, much of it; and one of the greatest heresies in your time is Pentecostalism. And This Miracle from The Divine is to fight it firsthand, for you see, it is taking children to the evil one. It is drawing them down to him, for he is handing them what they feel is personal gain, self-satisfaction, and personal involvement.

This child must stand before the world, whether they deny her, begrudge her or crucify her. She must stand with the Truth and in It, and she must tell you what God wants you to know. Pentecostalism is heresy. And those of you who have followed the movement following the Name of The Son, you, too, stand in heresy as one, and this, My children, is called after The Son of God, 'The Jesus Movement'.

Right now, you have many things tearing away at the beloved Church that The Son did give to the world one day; at this Church that all men are so willing to down, to ridicule, to desecrate. The Son of The Father began this Church and this Church must stand in dignity, hope, truth, and bear fruit. And this child has been placed upon the earth, placed in the position where she is, to let you know firsthand the Greatness of this Church God gave to man. And right now in the world you have many things gnawing away at this Great Place. You have Pentecostalism, you have 'The Jesus Movement', you have your cults, you have Communism, oh yes, and men are saying that the sin of homosexuality is right. It is not right. It is wrong.

And as this child stands before you and shouts out these things, I, Saint Francis of Assisi, say to you: 'Take this knowledge with you and take this Wisdom to where you go. Pass It on, for you see, these are sins against The Commandments God gave to each of thee.' And do not stand in smugness but stand in truth, and when you do, you will feel the Hand of God touch you and you will feel the Grace from Here flow over you; for, until you are able to stand in the Truth that God wants known, shown, throughout the world, you will feel inadequate, unequal, and yes, hopeless. And that is why This Hill was given to you. It is Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope. It was named by The Father Himself. It was given to the world by The Father. It was chosen by Him. But keep in mind, My children, it was also created by Him, and upon this land men must feel God's Hand, God's Hope.

This child must stand before the world, and that is why so many men are attacking her now, because they do not want her to go on; because, if she goes on in the manner she is, in the way she is, men will have to stop what they are doing, they will have to stop and think, and satan has the cauldron more than deep.

And now, as I stand in Heaven Where I am, I have spoken to you, each woman, each man. How much are you going to fight that This Truth be given to the world? So be it."

SEPTEMBER 27, 1972 AT 10:59 A.M.

VISION OF OUR LORD
AND OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

There's a great — it's like a frame. It's white, but it has a cathedral top on it and it comes down ever so gently, and it is of a magnificent size, not in footage but in yards. Oh my! At the top there are three crosses. The one at the center, at the top where the dome would be, is a tremendous cross, larger than you and I could ever see. The ones on the sides: one is white, one is black; the black one is not totally black but gray. Now the other one is turning lighter. Oh my!

Our Lord is speaking above the Crucifix and He said: "I have prepared a frame, an altar, the way, and through this door which you see at the frame, I want each of you to walk one day, growing in Grace, growing in love for The Holy Trinity.

At Her Own Wish, because of Her Love for each of you, The Heavenly Mother will speak to you from Heaven Where She always is."

Oh, my God! Our Lady is in the entrance. She's smiling. She's glowing. There's a child in Her Arms.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“The innocence of this child is as yours was when you entered the physical world, and as this child tugs at Me and moves around, it is the will of the child who really, truly performs. At the moment of conception, your will is given by God for all things from then on. It is through this great Gift, privilege, power, that each child born to the world has the strength to do God's Will.

It is sadness Here in the Heavens when a child misuses this will, misdirects it, and does not give it the correct direction, directing it to the Great Purpose of the physical life, which is Sainthood.

This child* who stands before you was also born into the world as this, as you. I ask you now, ‘How much of your will is for self-satisfaction, self-involvement, self-acclaim, self-development, or do you practice self-discipline, only to do God's Will, His Way?’ I, your Heavenly Mother, come through this child today to alert you to the beauty of modesty, the great need for obedience, and the purpose of self-discipline.

The child through whom I speak, has just asked Me about a particular child standing with thee, because she is aware of the child's pride and ego, and she knows that it will be this part of the child that will rob the child of spending Eternity Here with Me. Through this child I say, 'Worldly acclaim, worldly desires have no aim.' All children are being taught through This Miracle of Love, Truth, Hope, Wisdom, to sift from themselves weaknesses and to stand solely in strength.

The innocence that this child is, this one in My Arms, can grow to such a purity that the child could walk the earth with but one stain, the original one, and yet all children feel this is not the way, that they must participate in the weakness all around and in the world in every way. I, your Mother, say to you, 'You rob yourselves of Grace, Glory, Truth.'

And now, in the Vision of this child, the baby will disappear and only I will be with you.

For hundreds of years children have prayed to The Father to send a Miracle of Love, of True Teaching, so that they would know what The Father expected, so they would grow totally in His Way, all the way. He Decreed This Time to be, and it was His Decision that The Beloved Saint Joseph, Who was My earthly Spouse, be The Bearer, The Holder, The Messenger, The Light that would show in This Great Miracle. There are so many things that have been taught, have been given, through His Intercession to The Father through This Great Miracle.

I hold the child firmly, securely, and if she had her way, she would come with Me right now, but she has been given this choice before and the results were the same as now. The Light around her, from her, is her desire to do God's Will alone.

I once stood at the foot of the Cross and I looked into the Eyes of My Son, Who did no one harm, but only gave Truth to every one born. Man looks back upon this as History. Man does not realize the Agony that was there, for man, in his self-love, protects himself. But the Light of the world is not just the sun and the moon, but the Light of the world is Wisdom, Truth, Sacrifice. The Light of the world is devoting one's will to God.

This child who stands before you was forced to stand in sight, in view one time, of desecration to The Father. I cannot help but wonder if you, My children, would have reacted so violently, so vehemently, if you had partaken, if you had seen. Do not stand in judgment of what you feel is just a physical scene, but beg The Father, as the one thief did, to come to Eternity with Him.

I, your Heavenly Mother, now take this child to My little ones while you pray to Me. There are so many things to be done, and I ask each child here now to leave this Holy Ground and think about What was said. And then, if you have decision to make, do not discuss it here, but wait until you have a strong desire that if you partake in The Father's Will upon this Hill, you see it to completion and you will obey His Rules.

I close the Vision to the child and I bless you with My Love, and above your heads I hold the Beads of Truth, the Beads of Power, the Beads that even We say Here Above. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 29, 1972 AT 7:42 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“If The Miracle Of Saint Joseph stopped right this minute, the world has been fed an abundance of Wisdom that nothing else could give. It could be the means for all mankind to become a Saint. That is how much Wisdom, how much Love, how much Truth has truly been given. The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is teaching man how to stand alone, how to stand totally dependent upon God, not man.

The Miracle is giving man the True Purpose of life, and I speak through this child in an ordinary way so you will see the human side, for when I walked the earth, I walked fighting heresy; and sometimes, when I entered my room, I would lean against the door and beseech God to repeat to me what I heard, what I saw. He did not always comply with my wish, but He would leave in my heart His Wish, and this was what would give me the strength to carry on to fight the heresy of my day. He never showed Himself in a great flash of light, but the more

I began to love Him, the more I knew I could fight.

And so it is in your day, through this child, that I say, 'The heresies are many, seven in open count.'

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph — because He walked in such trust, obedience and truth, His Name will be linked to This Miracle to save each of you.

My little ones, I talk different on this night than you are used to hearing Me, for most of the time I sound like I am ready to fight; but tonight, for certain children present, this was the manner in which God desired My Presence to come: natural, soft, obedient, clear, firm, understanding, full of Wisdom, giving Light.

I am Saint Athanasius and as I speak I say, 'Pentecostalism is a great heresy in your day, and many men will desire to disagree with this child, for they will not want to believe it is I Who speak through her.'

And now I will say that a movement driven by the young, growing because of their weakness, is another heresy; it is what man calls after The Son of God, 'The Jesus Way'. Men have put up with the terrible plight, Communism, and too many men fear saying, 'It is not right.' If it is developed untruth, if it is not God's Way, then is it not heresy in any day?

Men are now standing in chambers where titles are given, men are driven to comply with rules that are not right, and many men are driven to say that certain weaknesses of men are fine in this day. But I, from the Heavens Where I am, say to you on this night: 'What makes sin correct? What makes it give light?' It takes strength to fight. It takes truth to fight. I say to you now, 'Are you so full of weakness — and by this, My children, I mean pride, I mean ego — that you cannot fight for what is right?' Or will you let one child stand alone and accept the blows that could be, that should be shared by you for God alone?

Here Where I stand, in the Heavens Where I am, We stand in a Realm different than yours, but constantly aware of yours, directing you, desiring only to help you through This Miracle of Hope, Truth, Love, Trust, Light, Wisdom. Mankind is being given the way to Sainthood, which is the Purpose of life.

When you leave this edifice on this night, you will not have to lean upon the child for you have been given the strength to help yourself from now on. You have been given the way to go, the way to stand. Will you do it, or will you hold man's hand? If I sprinkled, openly, obvious to your eyes, the strength I have given, it would not be more efficient or sufficient to help you stand strong, stand firm, against the heresies of your day.

I bless you, for Another wants to speak to you, but I bless you with God's Love, for His is All Pure, All Light. So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“The world is announcing: ‘A woman stands and she says, “My beloved children, I do not speak for man, I speak for Heaven, Where All Who desire to reach you, use me.”’ I am Saint Francis of Assisi. I have spoken hundreds of times through this child and it is true, I stand in The Divine, and as I do, I have come this night to say to you, ‘I want to give you a Lesson in purity.’

Ask yourself, if there was no water available in the world, how would you cleanse yourself? God thought of this, for He knew that you could not stand the ugliness of so much soil upon your body. Also, He knew that as He gave you the senses, the senses would be repulsed by the lack of cleanliness. This is obvious to every man in the world and this should be taught to every child: ‘Cleanliness is Godliness’.

Now, My children, I say to you, ‘There are many men around who stand, secretly waiting for this child to fall.' I say now, 'She will not fall, but she will draw you up to where she stands, for you see, she stands solely for God, in His Way, for many reasons; the main one, to make you a Saint.'

As I speak to you of purity I say: 'How is your Soul on this night? Have you talked about It to a Man of God lately? Have you been cleansed of the sins of the way? Have you thought of the Ten Commandments in any way? Have you studied Them and looked to Them, wondering how many places you fail God when you do not obey Them?'

I, Saint Francis, say to you on this night, 'I suggest that each child here look to The Commandments, follow Them, seek purity, seek Light, for so many men are passing Them by, eager to enjoy only the fleshly way.' God did not say in The Commandments, 'Do not enjoy the physical I gave.' But He did set Rules, up, down, in, for each child to stand in truth.

And now I say, as I bless you from the Heavens Where I stay: 'Seek purity. Look to the Ten Commandments, and as you do, beg God to help you in this way.'

I bless you with The Father's Love and I bless you with His Light. I bless you with the Wounds I suffered one day as man might. So be it."

SAINT HILARY

“My beloved children, I am Saint Hilary. Many children present here have heard My Name but they have never prayed to Me in a Special Reign. And now on this night, I make you aware of My way. I also make you aware that you must come This Way one day. I also give to each man present here before this child, the desire to be a Saint. The daughters, I say, ‘You must follow purity, modesty, in every way, so you also will become a Saint.’

And now, I join the children in every way and I say, ‘I come from the Heavens Where I stay like All The Other Saints.’ Do not try to anticipate what We look like, what We are, how We are in existence, but follow the way that We walked: loving God, serving Him, desiring to do only things for Him.

As I bless you I say, ‘Another comes your way and you must, in your little way, accept the Truth; for in the Truth you will become stronger, you will find humility, and yes, you will see the Light of Our Way.’ So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 29, 1972 AT 8:07 P.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My beloved children, I am Saint Anne. This child through whom I speak walks in the human way, not meek, but doing the Will of The Father in the human way. And yet, if men of knowledge truly looked into It, they would have to admit It is of Divine Way.

There are so many children who must come to This Miracle of Love, of Hope, of Truth, designed by The Father for everyone. I have often spoken of Myself as your Heavenly Grandmother and this is how I come to you on this night, as your Heavenly Grandmother.

Many times, in the home in which We lived a long time ago, the Daughter of mine Whom many of you pray to, often sat close to me, listening to the stories of Our day, Our way. And when I would inject loving The Father Who made all things, She would look into my eyes and say, ‘Oh Mother, He must be Beautiful; how much He loves Us to give Us this life in the physical way.’ Yes, it is true, I would look at Her and say, 'Oh Mary, You do love Him and You must love Him more, for I feel there are many things yet for You to do.'

And so, as We would speak, mother to Daughter, and Daughter to mother, We would have a love that was different, different perhaps because it was a closeness. All mothers should feel that their children are God's Light. All children should feel that the mother and the father are God's Light.

There are so many things happening in your world today. I have often spoken to The Father and said, 'Let Me return so I can teach them Your Way,' and He but smiles at Me and says, 'Anne, that is not the way, but You are such a loving Grandmother I understand what You say.' Then I turn to My Daughter, Who stands as The Heavenly Queen, and I say, 'Daughter, You speak to The King.' She says, 'Mother, obey,' and I turn and I say, 'Thy Will, My God, every day.' So be it."

VISION OF OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER,
SAINT JOSEPH, SAINT MICHAEL
AND OUR LORD

I will tell you what I see. I see a mound, and I say “mound” because it is about this big from the floor, of emeralds; and I see a mound of rubies the same size, and I see a mound of sapphires back here. And I see a rainbow of diamonds enveloping the whole thing, and there are layers and layers and layers and layers and layers and layers and layers and layers and layers of diamonds.

Oh my! Our Lady is standing above the emeralds in a green gown. I have seen Her this way before. The gown is appearing — it’s almost as if it’s highlighted by the facets of the emeralds. She’s beaming. Her Skin, as I see it, is as a delicate peach, and yet it’s very white, highlighted with peach.

There is a Crown upon Her Head. I see with the Eyes of my Soul. The Crown upon Her Head is all emeralds but they are cut in such a way that it’s almost as if they appear as diamonds, but they're not; they're emeralds. She is beaming. She just said to me, "Child, if I allowed you to feel the Full Magnitude of this Vision, you would die in the physical."

Saint Joseph just appeared on top of the mound of rubies. Have you ever seen a father look at his child in a proud, possessive, loving, giving way, and yet firm? That's Saint Joseph. There's a Crown of rubies on His Head and the Crown is different than Our Lady's. His is more masculine, but it seems so much heavier. He's smiling, He says, because I just don't describe things easy.

On the mound of sapphires is Saint Michael — little, but He adds a note of lightness in His strength; so as He is standing, He is smaller than They. Saint Joseph looks at Him and smiles. And Our Lady says, "The Protector, all the way."

Oh, I wish the whole world could see It. Oh my! Our Lord is appearing above the diamonds and He is radiant. Oh, my God! The diamonds are the Souls to be saved through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. The diamonds are multiplying by the millions. Oh, my God! Everything is diamonds.

OUR LORD

“My children, the Vision, as It is explained to you by this small child, in reality, is of a Magnitude no man could describe with the physical eye. The meaning is profound, the description quite involved; the purpose, to teach you the Generosity, the Love, the Unity, the Beauty of Heaven.

The diamonds are shown to give you an idea how Souls radiate purity. The emeralds are shown to give hope. The rubies are a sign of sacrifice, a sign of penance; the sapphire, a sign of calmness, a sign of strength, having a beauty all their own.

One day, a long time ago, a Vision sent to the world, such as This, would have been equal in Magnitude, but the world was not ready for This. It is sent to you now for you must join forces to fight the enemy. He uses many weak children to cause desecration to Me, and I ask you, My children, on this night, to form an army of Truth, an army of Light, bearing the jewels such as these; first, with the Soul in mind, then with hope, then with obedience, then with calmness and strength.

This child is an instrument of Mine to teach you and all mankind the Purpose of life, the Generosity of God, and the simple way to be a Saint. Those who come down upon her because of man-made rules, best look at My Rules in their life, for you see, The Father's Rules are the Most Important Rules and all men must agree.

I have no intention of stopping This Miracle at the command of man. It has been placed in the world to give man strength. I am The Decider of all things in This Miracle, and I command the child each day to obey Me. Foolish men are running around saying that The Father does not command a child to do His Will. These are falsehoods, for you see, I have this child completely, and that is why those of you who are close to her find a strength within her you truly can see; and this is the strength that will build the Hill of Hope for Me.

I want the diamonds to increase, for when they do, this means Souls are coming to Me. I want the mound of emeralds to grow to such a height that the child will not see over them, for when this occurs, hope will be throughout the world. I want the mound of rubies to become so high that this too will, in their way, reach the sky, for I want children to sacrifice for Me; I want children to give of themselves and to desire to serve only Me. I want the sapphires to grow to a height just as the others do, for when this occurs satan will be diminished.

Oh, My children, tranquillity, peace, calmness, strength, humility, is the key. Persevere in what you know is right. Do not waste time on chastising yourself but turn and do it right.

And as I use the Power through this child, unknown to mankind, I say through This Miracle of Hope, different than any Miracle that has ever come to the world in any day, 'It is to give Heavenly Light, Heavenly Strength, Purpose, and that is, to be a Saint.'

Many men mock this child. They call her names. They whisper obscene things and some try to make great claims, but the more they do, the stronger she becomes in My Way, for

I grant her the Grace to stand totally for Me in your day.

And as I take her from this place on this night, I take her with My Love, but I leave you a Light; and the Light is to follow in the path of serving Me. The Light is to give you the strength to want to serve Me. I bless you with My Light. I bless you with My Heart. I bless you with the Jewels, for you see, the Jewels are My Love for each of thee.”

OCTOBER 1, 1972 AT 1:56 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“Before I take the child to the small ones of new birth, I will speak to you, My children, with Great Worth.

Men are denying that It is I Who uses this child openly, to teach My Will to the world. I, your Father, say now, ‘How can you be sure you judge wisely, truthfully, honestly, in favor of Me?’

I have always been the Greatest Example to man of humility. In the very creation of the world, all facets of it, it was humility. In the creation of man to My Image and Likeness, it was humility. In the offering of My Son so that all children would come to be with Me for All Eternity, it was humility. The Beloved People Who walked with Him upon the earth, walked in humility, never shouting out what They knew, what They felt; only walking in obedience, only desiring to love the way I Willed it to be.

And now I shout from the Heavens Where I am, ‘Who are you to judge My Way? Who are you to say I lacked humility all through time?’

It was a humble man who stood before others, obedient to My Will, ready to serve, but sometimes wanting desperately to run away from Me, and the bond became so great the child could not walk away, even though the child desired it to be. I have used many men, I have used many women, to give My Love, to extend My Hand. I have never chosen a coward, but I have chosen the physically weak to show My Power.

When man says, 'I love You, God,' I am happy to hear this. I do not stand and say, 'What type of love?' but I accept it in a grand way, hoping it will grow to such a degree that the child will never turn away from Me.

I take you back now to the Passion Way and I say to you: 'Would you be one of the ones who flogged My Son, gave Him vinegar to drink? Would you stand in such righteousness, in such self-love, and not see the humility that He did reek?'

And so it is again today. Who are you to decide how I would act and what degree of humility I would request from a child? I, your Father, speak today through a mere creation of Mine, and I say: ‘Do not judge. I will, one day. Do not profess to love Me, but confess, so you can love Me. Do not subject yourself totally to your own will, but depend upon Mine to help you. Do not lean on knowledge or petty personality, but seek the Wisdom, seek the Truth and seek Humility.’

It was I, your Father, Who gave you The Commandments to live by. Ask yourself on this day, did you comply or did you cast Them aside to give only your self-righteousness, justice, pride? The Commandments are no longer needed in the Heavens Here, but I, your Father say, ‘It is The Heavenly Mother’s Will, Love, that makes the Beads repeated often Here; and every child who kneels upon the earth to say the Beads of Love in any way, Our Lady looks to Others Here and says, “Pray with the child, for it will double the Power and the Grace, and it will give the child strength needed.”’

All men, I say to you: ‘Woe be the one who stands in the way of This Miracle. Woe be the man who says this child does not stand in Truth. I will deal with him firsthand.’ I have said this before; I say it again. I created this land, I created man, and now I am requesting that this land be returned to Me to teach children of all colors, all races, all creeds, My Way, My Love for All Eternity.

When Pilate washed his hands, it was weakness. How many of you here would wash your hands today? So many times this child must stand, not willingly; it is done out of love for Me.

I bless you with My Light, I bless you with My Love. And as I take her to the little ones, I say, 'As you pray the Beads today, Many Here in Heaven will join with you in every way, in every word, in every thought.'

My Power is Far Greater than any man, My Love Supreme, My Humility the Greatest, and that is why you must imitate Me. I bless you; that is all that is needed to give you the strength. So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“There are so many people racing around, trying so hard to earn a crown. The crown they want to earn is acclaim in God’s Way. But earning a Crown in a Heavenly Way can be done in an obedient way, loving and serving, doing and giving, God’s Way.

When a child says, ‘I love You, God,’ God says, ‘I love you.’ The child walks away in satisfaction, that’s true, but God is usually left waiting for the child to prove and do. And I, as I stand Here, in the Heavens Here, try much to urge the child on to show The Father real love, real truth, and sometimes the child becomes so engrossed in worldly ways that the child says, ‘I’ll love You more another day.’

I have spoken many Words through this child, with a fierceness, with a deliberateness, always with Truth. Men are celebrating My way today. I speak gently, I speak lovingly, I speak understandingly, but yet with Direction today. I am Saint Francis of Assisi.

There are so many children present here now who say, ‘God, I will do Your Will.’ Let it be proven, let it be shown, let it be given, let it be known, God’s Way, not yours.

What is obedience? What is purity? What is love? What is sincerity? What is integrity? What is dignity? What is service to God in all things, all ways, all deeds? Some men say, ‘I kneel in prayer.’ Some men say, ‘I received God today.’ Some men say, ‘I work hard.’ Some men say, ‘I am good when others fail.’ Some men say, ‘I do all I can but I’ll never be a Saint, any day.’ Some men say, ‘I want to do God’s Will, but I would like to do it my way; it’s the way I know to be.’

And I, Saint Francis of Assisi, say, ‘Today, bend your will with God’s, to Him.’ Offer your physical way as a servant to Him in every way and He will bless you just for the offering. He will bless you with Grace you cannot know. He will bless you with strength. But as you offer, My children, keep this one thing in mind, that the first thing you must strip yourself of is pride and ego, for you see, they, when you hold on to them, cause weakness inside. So, as you strip yourself of these weaknesses, ask The Father to give you humility, for in humility there is great strength, great purpose, great service, great love, understanding, truth, obedience, and yes, the true facts to one day becoming a Great Saint.

Many men in My day, in My way, ridiculed Me. At first, perhaps, it hurt, but I knew that every step I took had to be obedience to God's Will and I had to be obedient to what I knew would be His Way. So you see, I grew in humility in every way.

Fortify yourself with Strength from Him. Receive The Holy Eucharist each day that you can, for as you receive This Great Gift, The Ultimate One from Him, you receive Part of Him. There are so many children who say, 'Yes, it is true, He stands in The Holy Eucharist,' but they ignore the Gift, the Beauty that It is, the Truth, the Magnitude of It.

So now today, I, Saint Francis, say: 'Let This Ultimate Gift from The Father be taken by you each day, for there is much desecration being done to It. And in your love for Him, walk up to the Man of God, offer the walking of this way, and receive The Father Himself, in humility, in your little way.'

No man is truly great. No man has all the knowledge. No man knows all wisdom. But man can feel a strength beyond human strength when he loves The Father first, for you see, this is truly the road to becoming a Saint.

I bless you with The Father's Love and with the Wounds I bore. I bless you through a child who has totally committed the will, the heart, the body. So as you gather in your small way, I say, 'Follow the way, in obedience every day, and accept God's Will your way.' So be it."

OCTOBER 4, 1972 AT 11:03 A.M.

SAINT BERNARD

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I am Saint Bernard. You have heard My Name. A few of you know My way, and yet The Father says to Me, ‘Bernard, go to the children and teach them how to pray.’ I come through this child in a way of voice, with All Truth, and pass It on to you in your own physical way.

Men are shouting out: ‘God, teach me how to pray. Tell me how to do Your Will and I will do it Your Way.’ I ask you now from Heaven Where I am, ‘Will you really do it as I say?’ Those of you who have not yet had the water poured on you, will you do it soon? For, you see, in the pouring of this water, a cleansing will come to each of thee: a Sacrament of Life, a Sacrament of Truth, a Sacrament of Purpose, God-given to you. So, if you know of a child, no matter what the age, that the water has not yet been poured, speak out, speak up, and see that it is done soon.

And now I say: ‘Have you taught a child to pray? Have you yourself prayed today? Have you accepted The Divine One in your little way? Have you walked up to the railing, or have you stood in a scrupulous way? Have you walked up to the railing to say, “Oh, God, come to me today and let me feel the Truth You are; give me the strength to follow every step of the way”?’

Another thing, My children, have you thought about the Beads, the Beads of Her Way? So many children say they are no longer needed, no longer wanted, and have no more power. This is satan’s way, for one of the greatest heresies of your day is following the evil one, in evil ways; ‘satanic’, that it’s called, takes you only to the walls of Hell where he stays. There is no love from him, no caring about you in any way. He says, ‘Take your pride and ego, build it up, and it will suffice for all times, for all men.’ So if you feel this is the way, please, My children, walk away. It will give you nothing to lean upon and no strength, inside or out.

I, Saint Bernard, come and I do not shout, but if it would lead you to God, I would do it this way. There is no man who stands in the world, who could stand and give the Wisdom that We give you through this child, in your day. The Father chose This Way to teach you, to give you and to serve you. Oh, My children, be aware that on this day you have been given a Lesson God's Way: how to pray, how to love, how to serve, how to show to The Father that you love Him above all things.

As I leave, Another desires to speak to you. Can you follow this Saint to Heaven Where God wants you? So be it."

OCTOBER 4, 1972 AT 11:06 A.M.

SAINT HILARY

“My beloved children, I am Saint Hilary. As I speak through this child, I want all children here to be aware of one thing: that the physical was given to you so that one day you would return to God in all ways, so that one day you would return to Him as a Saint.

Men say, ‘Sainthood is not for me,’ but I say to you on this day: ‘Sainthood is for you. Sainthood is for every man born to the world, every child that God says must come to the world. Sainthood begins in the cell. It is the will of man who directs the body to Hell.’

I bless you with God’s Love and I say, ‘Come to Heaven Where We stay, for through this walking, through this love, you will enjoy Eternity Here Above.’ So be it.”

OCTOBER 4, 1972 AT 11:08 A.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“Everything The Father has given: the wind, the sun, the soil, the water, the moon, the stars, the atmosphere, are to give man a particular part of the physical. It will be through the everyday living with these things that man will be able to participate one day in the Glory of Heaven, the Glory of Life, the Sainthood Way.

I, Saint Athanasius, bring a Vision in to the child and she will describe to you all things of this way.”

VISION

There are approximately fifty, a hundred, two hundred, a thousand, a million, two million, three million men. And suddenly, I see a Light over certain ones’ heads and these men are about to die in the physical. God Himself will decide why, how, when. In the crowd, their particular bodies are lighted, and the Light is to a degree — oh my — that their Soul is.

Oh, there's one man who is just glowing, from within to the outside, and the Light is about this far from him, and he will be a Great Saint. The man, two down from him, it is almost as if the Light is flickering on and off. Oh, my God! They're the same age; they walked in the same vocation of life. They both walked the marriage way. Both had the same number of children, both had the same education, both came from the same heritage, and both these men suffered from the same disease, or are suffering now, and yet one man's Soul is so bright that it's blinding, and the other man's Soul is flickering in and out.

"I, Saint Athanasius, give this Vision through this child to show you what is worthwhile: just to live the physical, or to live it God's Way; to seek only acclaim in the physical, or strive for purity in every way. One man fought for justice, for truth, for God's Will to be done, and every thought he had was to follow The Divine Son, in earnestness, in devotion, in obedience to The Father's Will. The other man sought acclaim from man with his will.

I take these men from the Vision and I place them now before The Father, Who stands Highest in the Heavens, and you will hear the Judgment, but the child will not see The Father; she will see but the Light instead, but the Light of the children will remain within her Vision. I adjust her to the Light of The Father, and now I take It down to a place He has requested It to be, so the child can once again describe the Vision to each of thee. No man's Soul, as he stands upon the earth, could stand the Light of The Father as It was first shown to her.

And now, The Father speaks to these two sons. The child will hear His Voice, and His Words will be for everyone: 'I created you with My Love. I always gave you strength. I taught each of you the same things and I injected My Wisdom as you requested it to be. Then why does one Light shine so bright for Me, and the Other go off and on? I did not favor one son, but I loved each of thee.'

And now I close the Vision, for it would be too much for this child. The Words that He spoke were more than worthwhile. Ask yourselves, My children, how would your Light be? Would It be bright or would It flicker if you stood in front of The Holy Trinity?

I bless you with the Truth, I bless you with God's Love, I bless you with the Light that truly shines from Above. So be it."

OCTOBER 7, 1972 AT 2:26 P.M.

SAINT BERNADETTE

“My beloved daughters, My beloved sons, I am Saint Bernadette. There is one here who bears My Name, who is special to Me, for this child will walk a path of love for God in many ways. There is another child here who has sought My way, and I say to this child, ‘Do not delay in wanting to serve God in a special way.’

No child has ever been asked to walk the world as this one has, and through her, All of Heaven speaks to give you direct, God’s Way. My children, the time in which you live is worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. Know this.

There is great need for children to love God above all things. There is great need for children to return to The Holy Eucharist and know that It is not a symbol, but truly He Who Is. Each day, He stands upon the Altar. Each day, He waits for every child to come to Him. Each day, He pleads with many Souls to respond to Him. And I, Saint Bernadette, speak to you from the Realm of Heaven and I say, ‘Do not let race, color, creed, age, keep you away from Here.’

As This Miracle has been set forth in your midst, do not be foolish and deny It, but follow the Wisdom in It. Look for strength in God alone, not man. Look for love, God’s Way, and desire to serve Him each day.

I, Saint Bernadette, bless you with a Love you cannot know, in a Way you cannot see, but with Truth that is ultimate for each of thee. So be it.”

OCTOBER 7, 1972 AT 2:31 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved children, I am Saint Athanasius. I have spoken many, many times through this child and I say to you now on this day, ‘Through this child the heresies will be fought, and through this child many things will be brought to light that many men do not even know are around.’

So many men live in what they call ‘a cubicle’. They say, ‘I do not want to be disturbed by the outside world; I do not want anyone to come into here where I am.’ But, in order to fight the heresy all around and in order to give the world Truth, a child must stand before man and say, ‘These are the heresies of your day.’

First of all, My children, Pentecostalism is the greatest heresy of your day, for you see, it robs man of humility and gives man pride, ego, no strength. The only strength that Pentecostalism gives man is in his own self.

The next heresy, My children, is ‘the Satanic Movement’ and it is much around, for you see, many children are following the evil one in many ways and they are thinking it is sport in your day. I say to you now, 'You are more surrounded by the Satanic Movement than you know, and as this movement encircles you, which way will you go?'

Another movement, My children, that says heresy all the way; they use the Name of The Son of God and they say, 'Jesus is my way.' So you must walk away from these movements and you must stand in truth, and there are many men who stand in power who must say, 'These are wrong for you.'

And I, Saint Athanasius, speak openly and lovingly, but in a firm way: 'Do not be a fool. Do not lean on heresy in your day.' There are many other heresies in your midst and there are too few men who are willing to fight them, for you see, there are many cults being formed around the world and these men are seeking power. They are seeking men to lean upon them.

I say to you now: 'There are seven main heresies. Please, walk away from them.' I, Saint Athanasius, fought one of the greatest heresies in the world, 'Arianism', and through this child*, heresy will be fought. And as I look into your faces, each of you, I say, ‘Do not ignore the heresy of your day.’ So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 10:42 A.M.

VISION

I will explain to you what I see. The naturalness of This Miracle God allows, for you see, when Heaven is dealing with so many children, of so many physical degrees, Heaven does things so the children will be able to accept and will be able to stand the Beauty, the Magnitude of The Divinity. And as I see, I explain to you.

There are so Many Saints standing — it appears to be around a pillar, but it is not a pillar. It is so high and so large. It's a form, not a pillar at all; and now it is diminishing in size and it's coming down to where The Saints are.

SAINT ANNE

“If the world were to see the Vision I have just allowed the child to see, man could not stand the Magnitude, for you see, the Vision was the Power of The Holy Trinity. Men ask for signs; God says, ‘Love.’ Man says, ‘Show me,’ and God says, ‘You could not stand the Visions I could send to thee, so in My Love, I present all things with simplicity.’

Oh, My children, I, Saint Anne, have been requested by The Father to speak to every man, through this child born to the world, such as thee. The whole world is discussing This Great Miracle and many men are now kneeling, begging The Father for It to be real. It is now as it was a long time ago: the Wise Men, the shepherds and others felt hope when they heard of ‘the coming’. They felt such great love that they had to go and respond. So it will be with This Miracle, all around. The children in those days are not different than the children in your day. They had to eat, they had to sleep, they had to work, they had to pray, they had to hope, they had to serve. The simplicity of life in the physical way has not changed, nor has The Father in any way.

I speak simply through this child and I hand you, direct, a Teaching in a general way. Before This Great Miracle in the world, man did not refer to Me as I desired it to be, for the Affection and the Love that I feel when a child seeks Me out, calling Me, ‘Oh Heavenly Grandmother, help me,’ are Words I introduced to the world. These Words are simple, and yet, in Them is a strength to the child; with Them, the Wisdom of Faith; through Them, My Heart is reached and I cannot help but respond to them.

The Vision depicted the Humility of The Holy Trinity, for the child saw a great size, circle, of something she could not mention. And suddenly The Father's Love brought down to size, a Vision understandable to the eyes; and this, My children, is how The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph is for the whole world.

Countless Saints have spoken through this child, always in a manner, in a way that everyone could understand: simple, and yet profound; loving, and yet giving; teaching humility, and asking all children to strip themselves of pride, for pride is a weakness beyond your knowledge; it feeds only the physical side.

I have spoken to each child present here and to two, especially. One child did not expect My Name to be mentioned, but nonetheless, I want him to turn to Me in doubt. I want him to turn to Me in love. I want him to turn to Me in solid truth.

Another desires, Another has been requested to speak through this child. He walked the earth as you, and He, too, has spoken many times through her, giving Hope, giving Light, teaching What is right.

I bless you, My little ones, in a Grandmother's way, for I will never refuse you Love in any way. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I, too, am One of The Saints that stands by this Great Sign that the child has spoken of. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I will speak more rapidly than the beloved Anne, but What I have to say you will understand.

There are so many children here who are afraid to face particular things that others do not agree with. And I say to them, ‘If it is a way to lead you to God, then follow it and do not care what others say, for there are so many men in the world now who say, “Follow the physical road, follow the physical way, get acclaim.”’ And I say to you, ‘There is no greater acclaim than the One that God has waiting for you, and that is, My children, to be a Saint.’ Man places so much honor in the world, and God says: ‘It is not bad to have honor, but will the honor bring you to Me? Will the honor show you My Way, or will it draw you from Me?’

So, as I bless you from the Heavens Where I am, I say, ‘Oh, children of God,

look to the Realm Where All Saints wait to join your hand.' So be it."

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

“I, too, stand in a Vision of this child, and as I do, I bless each of you with a Love you cannot know, in a manner of littleness, for I walked the little road to Holiness. I am Saint Therese, and most of you call Me ‘The Little Flower’, because you have read where I walked each day in a little way. I come to you on this day to offer you the path of ‘The Little Way’ and the desire to follow it.

There are so many children present here now who want to be a Saint, who desire it firsthand; because, you see, through The Miracle of The Beloved One, you have learned it is not impossible for thee. And I, Saint Therese say, ‘You do not have to read great books, you do not have to say lengthy prayers, but make every little act you do, every little word you say, be one for God in your way.’

Right now, there are children kneeling and praying, and saying, ‘Let me meditate a great way, and this is how I will join with God in a special way, a special means.’ And The Father says: ‘Therese, go to them and tell them that prayer is many things. Also, tell them of the way of purity and what it will bring.’

So, as I speak to you from the Realm of Heaven, I say: ‘Be conscious of purity every day, be conscious of its need, be conscious of what it will give to you one day: total security; for, you see, the privilege of Purgatory was to purify.’ And so many men now, knowing of the way, can begin the physical road by purifying the way. It is not an impossible task in your day, for it was not in any other day. Man says, ‘But others tempt me,’ and God says, ‘Grow so strong in obedience to Me, grow so strong in love with Me, that you will purify yourself in obedience to Me.’

Great Examples have been set down by Those Who have come before: The Heavenly Mother, The Beloved Saint Joseph, and Others; but most people are too busy to see the Beauty of purity. They become so involved in absorbing what is around, attaching themselves to others on the ground, that they cannot feel the need for purity. Right now, in the time in which you live, you live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, and yet God is handing you the Way to Him.

I bless you in a little way. I bless you with His Love and I say, ‘The Cross that He hung upon was not of a size so large, but one on which His Body fit perfectly.’ So be it.”

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“So many children figure out a balance to things, a program for things, a way to do things properly, but how many children take the time to think about their Soul Who must return to The Divine? Not many. So many children say that, ‘Upon my deathbed, I will go God’s Way, but I know that He expects me to enjoy all things now.’ True enjoyment of the physical is to love and serve Him. True enjoyment of all things is to walk in truth, to desire Sainthood, and to be strong among men.

Oh, My children, as I stand Here in the Heavens, I see so many things that must be corrected, must be eliminated; for I, Saint Athanasius, have spoken many times, have given many Lessons, and I say, ‘Until you rid the world of the heresies of your day, you will not find happiness, for they will crowd you in, crowd you out, and they will make you feel that sin and turmoil is all about.’

Through this child, I have spoken out against a heresy, great in your day, and that runs by many names; ‘Pentecostalism’ is the name. And now, so many children are saying that this has a good faith to it, this is proper in some ways. No, My children, God says it is not, for you see, it allows children to think they have power on their own, and some children say, ‘I have the Charismatic way.’ Not so. Not so, for you see, if God gave these things to children in all ways, children would lose their Souls, for they would feel the power of such Gifts and they would want to run away to use these Gifts in their own way. So this is one of the reasons, My children, why Heaven says, ‘Be cautious of the Pentecostal Movement for it is one against The Holy Trinity.’

I bless you with Love and I say, ‘There are others that I have spoken out against in your way, but be aware that the big one, the great one, the one who is pushing forward in a particular way, is called “Pentecostalism”, and they try to prove that it is God’s Way.’ So be it.”

SAINT HILARY

“My beloved children, I am Saint Hilary. Many children throughout the world are seeking Miracles and they say: ‘God, cure me. God, help me. God, make this right. God, do this for me.’ And The Father says: ‘Oh, child, please know I am happy to do all things for you, but will these things help you grow in My Way, for Me? Will these things help you to be a Saint? Will these things draw you solely to Me?’

And if you will but look to the things you request, you will find that many of them are just for selfish means and, in some part, will keep you away from Him, so the next time you pray, I beg of you each to say, ‘Thy Will, my God, not mine today.’ So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 11:04 A.M.

SAINT PEREGRINE

“My beloved children, I, too, am One of The Saints in the Circle the child has seen, and I say to you, ‘What has happened to Honor to The Blessed Holy Queen?’ So many ‘Men of God’ are destroying this Great Honor, for you see, it is an Honor for children to be able to pray to Her.

The Rosary, beloved by All Here, must be said throughout the world. Children must cling to the Beads, for they have a Power all their own, and as the beloved Holy Rosary is spoken upon the earth, Angels Here join in, and Others of Us also, for these Beads say ‘Hail’ to The Queen; these Beads say ‘I believe’, and these Beads say ‘Our Father, Who art in Heaven’; they pay Homage to Him. So the Beads of Her Way must be lighted throughout the world, and yes, let the Light truly begin on His Hill, for Her.

I am a Saint you have heard little of. I am Saint Peregrine. So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 11:06 A.M.

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“Many men seek knowledge from books. They cling to it and they let the knowledge lead them. So few men have the ability to sift truth from the knowledge they have read. Right now, My children, in the world there are many, many volumes written against The Beloved Holy Trinity. This is disrespectful to Him. Also, there are many books written in favor of the evil one, in favor of his way. I ask you on this day, ‘Do you read them?’ So many words are written in the languages of all men, giving not hope, but sin.

There are so many children running around, saying, ‘I hold on to the real words.’ They have in their hand, the Bible. I say to you now, and to them, ‘The interpretation of this Great Book is important to every man.’

I walk in the Heavens; once I walked upon the earth. I walk Here, not alone, but with God and with Others Who walked the earth, and I say, as I stand Here today: ‘Be sure that you learn to sift what you read in your day. Let all the words that fall into your mind be beneficial to your Soul, for This is the Part of you that must return to The Divine.'

Those Here with Me say, 'Bless the children, Saint Augustine, and tell them of God's Love today.' So be it."

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 11:09 A.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved children, I am Saint Francis of Assisi. I will speak slowly through this child, for I want each child here to hear Every Word I say. I want each child to leave with the Mark of Love. I want each child to open your heart to God Above.

I take you back many years. At the time when I walked the earth, there were men around who said to me, ‘Francis, you are a clown.’ I would look at them and I would say, ‘Thank you for keeping me humble today.’ This remark from me was disgusting to them, for they could not understand a man thanking another one for an insult in such a way. I would turn and walk away, sometimes sick at heart because I was not understood. All I wanted to show was love for God from the start. I wanted other men to see how little the physical really meant to me, but also, to be example of sacrifice and penance, of complete service to God. Man is not capable because man has not learned humility. Man is intrigued with fame, fortune, honor. Man says,

‘I need these things.’ God says, ‘You need only Me.’

And one time, at the foot of the Cross, when I was bleeding profusely, the pain was more than I could take. I shouted to Him and I said: ‘Will this pain keep me humble, God? I never want it to make me prideful, that You chose me to share the agony, the sorrow, the pain that Your Son had one day.’ And suddenly the pain diminished somewhat and I heard Him say: ‘I love you, Francis, and for many a day, children will hear your name and some will want to follow the path you took, but I will always let them know that you stood in humility, not show, and that you loved Me in a very special way.’

I, Saint Francis, did not gain Heaven on my own, for everything that happened to me, I shouted for The Father’s Hand and I said, ‘Give me Your Hand, alone.’ And so it is again, in the time in which you live, men should be shouting to hold the Hand that gave life to the physical way for him. Children forget, and they cling to the worldly way, where there is no stability, little truth, and yes, less humility.

So, as I speak through this child, I hold her strong, for as I do, I pass along God's Love to each of you. And I want each one present here now, as you leave this Great Hill Blessed by God, would you be humble enough to say to others, 'I hold God's Hand before all others'? Humility is strength, a strength you cannot know. I ask each child here now, to strip yourself of pride and ego; cling only to humility for it has a dignity, one alone. Humility has integrity.

The Son of The Father walked in humility, teaching everyone the strength in it, the beauty of it. It did not take weakness to let the men beat Him, for He had far more Power at His beck and call. And when He cried out, 'Oh, Father, let this chalice pass,' The Father knew The Son would last until He gave the word for Him to go.

I say to you from the Heavens, 'Man fears cancer, and yet the pride in the world is the greatest cancer man can know.' I would say, 'Find a cure for this first, and you will rid the world of turmoil.' So be it."

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:01 P.M.

SAINT PHILIP

“In the struggle to love man and to serve man, to be with man, a child forgets to hang on to the Hand of God alone. And this is one of the reasons The Miracle Of Saint Joseph has been given to the world, to teach man to once again hold onto God’s Hand. And I, Saint Philip, tell you so.

If this child were to stand on the top of the tree and the Words were the same coming from Me, would you better believe Them, would you better understand Them, would you better know Them, would you better follow Them, than in the manner They were given today: direct, simple, quietly?

There are so many facets to This Great Miracle, so many things to become known, so many ways to be followed to the Divine Throne. The Rules are to be learned and to be followed, to be taught, to be heard, to be seen. And I, Saint Philip, say to the world: ‘Do it first for The Holy King. Let it be seen in your home, in the place where you live, The Commandments of The Father, so children will learn to give every breath that they take, every move that they make, every step shown.' Let obedience first be to those, from those, in those in charge, so others will follow to the Divine Path.

Men are seeking God and at the same time they are desecrating all things He gave. Men are acknowledging His Truths and yet, in the physical way, are setting them aside for worldly acclaim. Right at this moment, many men are saying, 'The Words are too simple, the child too human; it cannot be.' And I, Saint Philip, say to each of thee: 'Who was It they crucified? Who was It that hung on the cut tree? Who was It that freed each of thee? A Man Who stood in greatness? A Man Who stood shouting all the time? Or, a Man Who walked in humility, in agony, speaking Truth, being Example, serving God, and teaching love of Him?'

A long time ago, those who walked this path were stoned. They were called names. And now They stand Here in the Heavens Where I am, knowing it was the only way.

Another will speak, Another with Love, Another in Truth, from Above.
So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:06 P.M.

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I am Saint Joan of Arc. Many, many times children have prayed to God in a little way and they have asked that a sign be given that He still exists in the world. And now, through This Great Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Truth, He comes to the world, in a way of humility, giving Example in all these things.

For the first time, man is beginning to see the path is not made of love for self, but love for The Holy Trinity. Man must begin to know the beauty of purity. If man were handed a handful of dirt at this moment, man could not eat the dirt, for you see, he has learned to look to all things in a clean way, and he would say, ‘It is dirt, it is not for me’; so you see, My children, let it be known through this child on this day, that to walk in truth God’s Way, you must cast aside the dirt, the soil, the turmoil, and become pure in God’s Way.

There are so many children here before Me now who say: 'I would like to walk Your way, Joan. How can I do it?' And I say to you, 'First, obey the Ten Commandments God gave,' and then I say, 'Do not become so involved with yourself that you forget God's Hand to hold you up.'

There are so many children in the world who could serve in a special way, who could give love to God in such a beautiful way, but they are too selfish, and they believe in all the things earthly. God does not say, 'I give you the world; do not enjoy it,' but He says, 'I give you the world; enjoy it, My Way.'

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'As you stand near a tree, it is similar to the tree that crucified Him one day.' So be it."

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:08 P.M.

“All through life men ask, ‘How much of this is for me?’ And one day there was a great thunder, a great bolt of light, and God said to the world, ‘Do not stand in fright, but this is the change-over to Me.’ And yet, during this time His Own Son hung upon the Cross to save the world, to give Light. How many men truly do? Oh, some stood, in case, and said, ‘It must have been true that This Man walked in God’s Light.’”

Today, I say to each child here: ‘What Light do you walk in? Is it right? How many children do you care to be example for, or do you walk away and say, “Let them knock upon another door”?’

Have you walked up to the railing on this day? Have you accepted God in the way He desires to give Himself to you each day? Have you prayed the Beads of Hope, the Beads of Truth? Have you said: ‘Good morning, God. Oh yes, I do love You’? Have you made ‘The Sign of The Cross’ with love for Him, or out of habit? Have you said to Him: 'Thank You for this food. Oh, God, let me be all things You desire'? Or have you greeted the day, desiring to get all things done, your way?

Are you lazy? Are you weak? Are you in despair? Do you stand in doubt? Do you fear? All these things can be erased if you stand in truth for God. All these things can be put to good, if you offer them to Him in love.

Oh, My children, there are so many, many around who cannot decide what way to follow, and they say, 'I will follow the easiest path, for it must be the physical road for me.'

Right now in the world, there are children walking around following a Book some of them just found. The Book has lessons in it, mighty on their own, distinct in a manner, and yes, truthful all along, but it is the interpretation of what these words do say, that children are straying in a different way.

So now, as I bless you in a Truth you cannot know, with a Love you cannot see, in a manner all My Own, I bless you with God's Love, I bless you with His Heart, I bless you with Light, for you see, you stand in just a Part.

So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:11 P.M.

SAINT LUCY

“My beloved children, nowhere in the world have so many Words come from Heaven in such a manner. I am Saint Lucy.

I expect those here, who have trouble with the physical, to reach out to God and say, ‘Let the physical I have be served Your Way.’ So many children say, ‘I want clear sight.’ So many children say, ‘Oh, God, let always there be light.’ And God says, ‘The Light is there, My child, but you pick only on one light, not the True Light I give through the Wisdom of My Way.’

It is true, many Miracles have been performed to give children the physical sight. It is true, many Miracles have been performed to give children physical way, but now I, Saint Lucy, say to you today, ‘As you pray My way, I say to God: “Help the child in all ways, God, to get to know You with a Light, with a Sight, far beyond their reach; with a Light and a Sight they do not ask for. Oh, dear God, teach the children to love You.”’ So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:13 P.M.

SAINT FRANCES CABRINI

“My beloved children, I am Saint Frances Cabrini. I speak through this child because I walked in a way of what you would term ‘modern times’, but I walked in a way of solid way: truth, firmness. I took stands where other men did not wish to stand. I took, and I said, ‘This must be, it is God’s Plan.’

So I say to you on this day, through The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, that you, too, must stand for truth, in truth and with it, for as you do, the heresies of your day will pass, for they will not have the strength to stand where you stand today. There are so many children that say, ‘We live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, we live in a time of heresy,’ but what do they do about it? Nothing. And I, Saint Frances, come to you and say, ‘Pray, but walk a positive way.’ So be it.”

OCTOBER 11, 1972 AT 12:17 P.M.

OUR LORD

“My beloved children, I am The One Who freed you. I am The One Who gave you Light. I am The One Who showed you trust. I am The One Who taught the world humility. I am The One Who gave My Heart. I am The One Whom you should trust, for you see, I am The Son of The Father, I am The Second One of The Holy Trinity.

The Power with which I reach you is One Alone. The power that man uses to do things upon the earth is not a power as This One is, but all things upon the earth have a parallel Power in the Heavens: the power to love, the power of light, the power to learn. In Heaven, it is Wisdom; in Heaven, it is Divine Light; and in Heaven, it is Divine Love.

You, My little ones, have been given the privilege to live a physical form to give you the opportunity to one day spend Eternity with Us. So few men are teaching Our Way. They are relating all things to man in a physical way. The power of human creation came from The Father; the Design by He, Himself. As the seed is the beginning of God's Greatest Love — man, through this child, Seeds are strewn throughout the world. These Seeds are Words. These Seeds are Ours. These Seeds can determine; determine many things.

The Light is getting brighter for the child and she wants to leave you and come with Me for awhile; but, as I say to her, 'If I allow this to be, the Will of The Father will not be done,' so I cannot let it be. No child has ever been asked to walk in such an obvious way, in such openness, as this one in your day. The soil you stand upon was created by The Father. The Blessing came from Him when the child respected and responded to His Will for the world of men.

I say to you now, 'So few men know the power of humility nor the Grace that makes it grow.' Divine Will, Divine Love, Divine Way, must be made known to man today and every day. And children must begin to understand and realize that to submit oneself totally, means to live a physical life, means to learn to understand how to purify oneself as man. The Goal of the physical must be Sainthood for everyone. The Purpose of the physical is to be a Saint, to one day walk Here, Where I am. No trickery from Us, no facades needed; only solid truth, solid love, solid way, should be heeded.

Children must be taught to look for what The Father Wills. Children must be example. Children must be given The Father's Will, The Father's Way, The Father's Commandments, every day. Let no man take These Commandments and analyze Them for the good he determines, but let all men see These Words as They truly were given to One, one day. Man is so quick to make excuses for other men, to analyze, to criticize, to change according to his own plan. Let the Words stand out in boldness. Let the meaning of each one be told and let the world begin to know These Rules are needed. I give you but a few, and of course, these will be familiar to you:

'Let no man have strange gods before Me.'* Ask yourself on this day, what do you place before The Father: your personal needs, your personal desires, your personal love, your personal way? This could be termed 'a false god', you know. Let it be stripped away.

A special day set aside to be given to The Father has been diminished in many ways, and I say to you on this day, 'Let it come about again, that this day be held high in man's way, with dignity and integrity, with purpose, and devout.' Oh, My children, let it be known that this day that The Father said should be set aside for Him alone, be done just that way, and do not make excuses for it to be done another way.

'Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother.' What has happened to These Words? What has happened to the meaning? Children are not doing it. I beg of you, make These Words sound throughout the world, and make the meaning clear that all children of all ages honor the earthly ones and hold them dear, for how can a child honor the earthly parents, the earthly ones, if they are not taught by you? And if they do not honor the earthly ones, they certainly will not honor The Heavenly Ones. Hold this dear.

The child* wants to leave you and she says, 'I want no more Words to come out.' And I say to her, 'Why?' 'Because, God, they do not listen.'

'Thou Shalt Not Steal.' Man says that this means, 'I take from another,' and God says: 'How many have you robbed of dignity today? How many have you stolen time from that could have been used in prayer? How many children were denied The Sacrament of Love, The Ultimate Gift from God, because someone said, "There is not time; there is no need"?' Oh, My children, I could go on and on.

I hold the child closer to Me, but in the holding, she succumbs to My Will totally and says, 'Thy Will, my God, not mine.'

You have been Blessed on this day many times. You have been given Light, Divine. You have been taught to hold the Hand of God. Do it with love.

I will release the child slowly. It will take her hours to return, for the Power was so Great It had to be released. I bless you with Truth and I bless you with My Heart. I bless you with Hope. So be it."

OCTOBER 15, 1972 AT 1:44 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“Many times, when We enter through the child, We speak as normally to you as you do to each other, because you see, My children, if We were to appear in person, some of you would die in fright from fear, and also, some of you would become so disturbed at the Beauty that you could not go on from here.

So many children now are praying for visual view of Us, and God, in His Love for you, protects you from this, for you see, in your littleness, in your weakness, you would have to be prepared to see, and so It is through one child, small as you, equal in many ways to you, no matter what your color, race or creed, has been given the task to transmit to you the Love from God, firsthand.

I, Saint Francis of Assisi say, ‘Do not be so smug in your way, so righteous, that you cannot see nor feel the Hand of God touch each of thee.’ It would be better if you doubted that the next day will come, than to doubt

The Miracle of a Beloved Son. It would be better for each of you, My children, to close yourself into a room, never to come out again, than to never hold God's Hand.

The Heavenly Father gave each child the privilege, the beauty of the physical life, to be used to one day become a Saint and remain with Him forever. Each child, present here now, has equal chance to become a Saint. God does not say your vocation of life makes it a different way, but He does say, 'Use your vocation of life to obey My Commandments, to lean solely on Me, not man, and to desire to become a Saint.'

I, Saint Francis of Assisi, say with a Love you cannot know, through a natural means you can understand, with Words that are plain, that are distinct, to fall upon your ears, to remain within your heart, so that your mind, the knowledge that you have, can absorb the Truth I say, I stand in, I am. Man says, 'Give me truth.' God says, 'The time is now.' Man says, 'Teach me, God, the way to You,' and God says, 'I will, through Another Son.' Man says, 'If You show me the way, I will give You time, God, every day,' and God says, 'Here It is; now, follow It all the way.'

As I walked upon the earth, I knew at a particular point, a particular time, that I was to walk solely for God, for The Divine. I was ridiculed, I was criticized, and many men walked away from me, because suddenly they said, 'Francis, it is too much for me.' But let Me tell you, My little ones, it was not until I died in the physical that the men who surrounded me knew my way was not a fakery, my way was not facade; for what I knew, my way was truth for God alone, my way was love for Him alone. And some said, 'If I had but known the way He walked.'

And so it is with you, My children, as you stand upon this Hill that one day millions of children will stand and say, 'Oh, God, I do love You,' ask yourself before you leave: 'Can I say to God each day, "This day that You give to me, I return to You"?' Begin small, My little ones, do not conquer great things first, for suddenly you will become exhausted and the plan will not work; but if, on this day, you say, 'God, let me obey first The Rules, then I know You will teach me all the way.'

The physical of this child is used in a Manner you cannot know, with a Means you cannot see, with a Love that does not show. It is you who has asked for a Miracle. Then I say to you from Heaven Where I am, ‘Will you reject God’s Love that He sends through another man, or will you say to Him: “I, too, God, want to give my love whichever way You plan. I, too, God, want to show Your Love to every man”?’

Men are shouting out ‘Unity’, and they are saying, ‘We must stand in unity.’ But what man is doing is this: Man is designing the type of unity, man is decreeing how it should be done. And God says to everyone: ‘Unity is not that way. Follow My Idea of unity and all men will come My Way. First, follow Truth, not other men.’ Do not say, ‘Just to be unified, I will walk with you on your terms.’ But God says: ‘True unity is an example. True unity is in standing in truth, for truth, with truth, at all times.’ What good is unity if it is weakened by you accepting other men’s weakness?

My children, I bless you with God’s Love, through a child such as you. It is now as it was a long time ago. The Son, too, had to walk in Wisdom, not book knowledge, and nowhere in the History did He say to any man, 'Carry the book,' but He did say: 'Follow The Commandments, follow the way. Walk to God, His Way.' So be it."

OCTOBER 15, 1972 AT 2:08 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“I, Saint Joseph, am aware that when this Great Hill is accomplished God’s Way, no hill could ever compare. Children will come from all over the world and try to imitate it, which is good. But oh, My children, upon this Hill, My Son, Who is now My Father, placed His Heart in one of the hills. You would suspect that the hill would be where the Basilica is planned to house The Holy Trinity. Not so. The Heart was placed where the hospital will be, where the Chapel must stand, for you see, God loves the physical. He created it and it is the children’s means to be used to one day become a Saint.

So, as you stand upon this Hill of Hope, know that The Heart is in it, on a particular knoll. Children will arrive at that gate, hopeful in their fate, and God will say, ‘Have Faith, I am with you.’ The Chapel on this Place, planned by God Himself, will be large enough for children to be rolled in, on all kinds of man-made shelves; and here, twenty-four hours a day, The Holy Trinity will be exposed for men to come and pray, for men to lean upon in a special way, for men to feel the Hand of God in the darkest hour, any way.

So, My little ones, I, Saint Joseph, come through this child to give you not only My Love, but the Love of The Holy Trinity. It is not only the Soul God cares about, but the body He made, His Creation all about.

You are Blessed much, My little ones, for children who have sacrificed much to bring this day about. Never let it be said that The Father is not Generous, that He does not Care, for He does.

So those of you, My little ones, who have come in doubt, you are Blessed by The Heart, Which was once My Son. And now, as He stands in the Heavens as The Second One, I stand obedient to Him. And He says to Me: 'Father, Son, it is Your Time to go to the world and bless everyone. A child will be used as it was in the physical days. A child will speak the Wisdom of the Heavens to everyone. A child will spread Your Name. This is how The Father planned It.' And I said to Him, 'Let Thy Will be done.'

And so, My children, as you stand in the human way, have Faith, stand in obedience and trust, for all you are and all you have is God's Gift to you. The physical is a temporary thing, but keep in mind, it will live on and on and on, in a way you cannot know, in a way you cannot understand. It is God's Love. Never deny It, never betray It, never reject It, for when you do, you can become lost. God does not want that for you. As He is Generous to you, be generous to Him. As He extends His Hand through a child such as you, extend your hand to Him. As He projects His Love in a time when It is most needed, be sure that you, in your little way, thank Him.

I have come through this child to prepare the way for a Vision of Greatness that can only be God's Way. The child is obedient totally to God's Will. The child walks alone. The child walks for you. Do not stand so righteous that you cannot see the Beauty of the moment, God-given to each of thee. I draw her in a Power unknown to you. I have commanded her to walk where, to you, she is in full view. Through the years, she has learned obedience to God's Way. Through time, she has given her will totally His Way. So, as she stands in human form, know this, My little ones, that the Word of God, the Way of Him, through her, stands firm.

Be blessed by My time with you and keep in mind the way I walked. And say to every man you meet, 'I heard Saint Joseph talk.' And as you do, you will remind others of the Coming of My Day, of the Will of God that was prophesied in another Miracle along the way. And until man understands and recognizes Who I Am, peace will not come to the world.

I hold her, as I often do, completely obedient to God's Will, and through this, she will transfer to you a Vision seen only by her through the Eyes of her Soul, which, every moment of the day, whether she is at work or play, is evident to her. The Father uses every moment that she spends with children, to extend His Hand, extend His Love, extend His Power, and those who have experienced It, are well aware of It. You are Blessed, My little ones, with God's Love on this day."

VISION OF OUR LADY

There is a huge table and in the center of it, a large Crown. And in the Crown, there are rubies all around. The emeralds I see, are many; the sapphires, in a particular way; and the diamonds highlight the whole Crown, all the way. Two Angels lift the Crown off the table and They hold It high. And suddenly Our Lady comes, as if from the sky, and the Angels hold It high above Her Head. And She smiles and says the Crown is there to show the world She is The Heavenly Queen. The jewels have special meaning. The ruby says "Martyrdom, Sacrifice". The emerald says "Hope". The sapphire says "Calmness, Strength". The diamonds depict "Glory". The gold depicts "The Ultimate".

She stands in a gold dress, with gold little sandals upon Her Feet, and Her dress flows gracefully. She smiles and says, "The whole world must know of this Vision, for It says many things to man."

And now, suddenly a Great Light appears. It is the Holy Rosary, and it is as though it is around Her and also encloses the Crown. It's all pearl. She says:

OUR LADY

“It depicts the water of life, the beauty of the way. It depicts the shimmering way God wants the children to pray. The Rosary seems to light Itself. This is how It appears in Heaven when children pray. The Light becomes brighter and the color It displays brings joy in a Heavenly manner, for the Power of the Beads is far greater than you know. And as you say your Beads, My children, know that along with you, they are being said in Heaven by the Angels, and also, Many Saints join Them, for All in Heaven desire the release of Souls, for They want All Who are in reparation to be one day enfolded in the Light, God's Way.

I bless you with Truth. I bless you with Light. I bless you with Hope, for on this day you have received, through a child such as you, the Way to Heaven, the Way to Sainthood.”

The Vision is leaving. Our Lady is the first to go. The Crown no longer stays. The sky is clear; so must be our Souls. So be it.

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

“Mary Magdalene, I am known as. Mary Magdalene, children pray to. And so many children say, ‘Mary Magdalene, am I following Your way?’ And I say to them, ‘Perhaps, to a degree, but not to the degree I walked in.’ For those who are following the way I walked, often do not pray to Me, so I, through this child, in a loving way, come forward in a giving way, and I say, ‘Pray to God, hold on to His Hand, and do not commit sin against The Commandments He gave.’

I bless you from Heaven Where I am. I bless you in Truth, for you see, if you do not accept Truth, it will be Purgatory you will have to spend time in; but the moment now, that you reach out for Truth, you will spend time longer with Him. So be it.”

OCTOBER 18, 1972 AT 10:54 A.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“Children say, ‘If God would tap me on the shoulder, I would do His Will each day.’ And God says, ‘Would you?’ For doing the Will of God, we first put forth our will. Do not forget this, because, according to the way we live, we decide that our way, our will, would be best for us on all sides. So those of you who are praying to do the Will of God, pray that you will bend your will to His first, and then learn to love Him so much that you will truly do His Will first, inside.

There are so many children now, who are kneeling in prayer, saying that they will have to meditate in a long way so they will begin to communicate with God, in His Way, but children of all ages should be taught that when they awaken in the morning, they say: ‘Good morning, God. I love You. Thank You for this day. I want to be with You in a special way.’ This is the prayer He loves most, for you see, it says to Him, ‘The child loves Me.’

And right now, in the world in which you live, you live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, for you know, My children, then too, there was much sin; but now you live in a time of many heresies, and children are accepting these heresies as the natural thing. So many children say, 'I want to share with God in a special way,' so they are trying to partake in His Love, in His Way, by joining a group of others who are, in many ways, exerting what they say are charismatic proof, gifts, love. Not so.

And I, Saint Athanasius, speak out through this child in a manner that you know. The heresy of your day, greatest in every way, is Pentecostalism. I fought a heresy in My day, and that is why I have been so evident in This Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Truth. Children want to share with God, fruit; but ask yourself on this day: Is it truly sharing when you compare your power with Him each day, or is the sharing in the serving, in the giving, in the loving? Oh, My children, think much of What I say, for as you walk in the physical way, the only power that you have is the will God gave you, from the moment of conception on. And those who speak in a babble, what they call 'tongues', is not Honor to God, but self-esteem.

And I, Saint Athanasius, stand in the Realm of Heaven Where I am and I say, 'Turn to God to do His Way, not what you feel it should be.' And the little ones, the very small, should learn to awaken at the morning call by saying: 'Good morning, God, I love You. Thank You for this day.' They should be taught to thank Him in every action that they do, in every word that they say; but the children now are being taught to stand equal to The Trinity, in some ways, and so many children are putting the emphasis on The Third One. They are forgetting that The Father also had a Son. So, as you stand in your little way, do not walk the Pentecostal way, but keep in mind God's Love.

I walked on the earth. I fought a heresy. I was alone. And as I fought this heresy, many men stood against me. And now, as I stand Here in the Heavens Where I am, I fight hard through this child — God's Will, not My own — to give strength to the world, to give proof to the world, that they must stand on the Truth that The Son gave. And when man says to you that The Holy Eucharist is not the Fullness God meant It to be, only symbolic of The Holy Trinity, oh My children, fight, and fight for what is Truth, for you truly receive The Body and Blood that was given just for you. So be it.”

OCTOBER 18, 1972 AT 11:01 A.M.

SAINT MARGARET MARY

“Heaven has explained This Miracle as the Only One of Its Kind that has ever come to the world of mankind, except when The Son did walk the earth, for then He, too, spoke the Wisdom of The Father. And many of the Things He said were direct from The Father, and that is why His Teachings, in some ways, were so Great, for The Father spoke direct, for He wanted all children to be Saints.

So, as the Words come through this child in an obvious way, keep in mind, Each One is directed by God in His Way. Do not let jealousy and do not let envy rob you of strength, for when you do, you see, it will keep you from being a Saint.

Children are not being taught the Beauty of Sainthood. Children are not being told the Way to Sainthood. ‘It is something,’ they say, ‘of the past. It is something for others; it did not last.’ But I, in My way, say to you: ‘It is for your day. It has never ended in the physical way, the privilege to be a Saint.'

The manner in which all children learn to be a Saint is to take the physical, strip yourself of pride, walk in humility, with God always by your side. Learn to pray the little way. Learn to gather Grace, for you see, as you store It up, It will bring you to His Side. And when you stand There with Him, ready to give to Him all the things you gave upon the earth, you will glow as a Light, for as you stand in the physical, the Beauty of your Soul is a Light; and the more you serve The Father, the greater your Light will be.

Do not be so smug in your little way that you cannot see that the Other Part of you is the Truth God gave to each of thee, the Major Part you cannot see: the Soul, the Light. And what you do with the physical, how you act with it, in it, will cause the Light you carry with you to be dim or bright, and as you stand before The Father, you will stand in a definite Light. And I, Saint Margaret Mary, say, 'The heart you gave will determine the degree of Light that you will give to Him, when it is right.'

So many children say, 'I know I have a Soul today,' but what they do not know is that the Soul they have is the Part of them that will stand before The Father to be Judged. And as it has been given through this child before, vocation of life can be similar to other men, but the Light when you stand before God will be different, for in the Light, it will show how much were truly for Him.

And many times, when I would waken in the night and I would say, 'Oh, God, but I am tired,' and He would show me His Heart — not written always in the books, for there was too much occurring at that time — and I would look upon His Heart and I would say, 'But physically, I am tired.' And He would say, 'Gaze into the Light and tell Me how tired you are tonight.' And sometimes I would see a Soul struggling, and as the Soul would struggle, I would give in to His Love and say, 'I will remain awake until You say the Soul does come Your Way.'

And I remember, on one night, He showed me this Great Light and He said, 'Margaret, I show you a Light and I ask you to stay awake with Me tonight. Would you say "No" if the Light were yours?’ ‘Oh no, my God, I would be frightened.’ And He, in His Love for me, offered me the name of the Soul. It was my enemy, and I begged Him at that time to give me the strength to have the courage to remain, out of love for Him, to help that Light.

So many men stand in doubt. So many men stand around saying, ‘Why her, why not me?’ And I ask you on this day from the Heavens Where I am: ‘Would you comply with the request, or would you fade away? Would you accept the Light in the heart so It would shine bright?’ Or, would you say: ‘Oh, God, take It away. I do not have the time nor that much love to give. I do not love my enemy like You do. I know he will live, but You take it from there, God. You are stronger than I’?

But I, Saint Margaret Mary, say: ‘Many times I was confronted with a Light you cannot know, with a Sight you cannot see, with a decision difficult for me. And as I would kneel there, the longer I would kneel, the more I would see His Heart reveal more Souls to be helped, I realized the littleness of the physical life.’

So I say to you on this day of Light, for the Wisdom you have been told, given, taught, should help you better understand that the light in the world is only a facsimile of the Light that each Soul bears.

This child who stands before you, walks as I did walk. She was chosen from the moment of conception. She knew this a long time ago. It was difficult, in many ways, to stand in the world and truly not be part of it, and yet, the waiting for this time was far more difficult than any man could know. And as she stands here with you today, it is the culmination of many things. It is the direct route to God, to help other men walk His Way.

I say to you, ‘Be aware of the Light you have around you, not the light that men say is “aura”, but the Light of your Soul, the Truth that It is and how It shines before Him.’

I bless you with God’s Love. I bless you with The Heart that I saw so many times. I bless you with the Light, for This is what you will carry first to The Divine. So be it.”

OCTOBER 18, 1972 AT 11:38 A.M.

OUR LORD

“I, The Son, give through this child now, a Vision never before shown. She will describe It to you as I hand It to her.

There is water, there is land, there are men. I am handing to the world a particular Bread. And to each child who approaches Me, I say to them: ‘I hand you Part of Me. I give you My Love.’ And the crowds do not end. There is no man who can say he does not receive in the correct way, for the Power that I hand is far beyond the Gift of bread.

A man is walking forward, eager to receive, for he feels he is important to man. I hand him the same Amount. I hand him the same Love and I say to him, ‘Use It to the degree you can.’ The Light that surrounds Us now is far greater than it was, but the Magnitude of The Holy Eucharist never changes.

As I walked the earth, I taught to all children the same Words. The Lessons were equal to each one. It is what the child does with the Lesson, how he follows It, that determines the Reward of each one.

Right now, throughout the world, children are desecrating This Great Gift. They are diminishing It, and they are trying, in many ways, to make It show Itself as It truly is. Only I have the Power, for It is of Me.

And I say to you through this child, 'I am The Second One of The Holy Trinity and woe be the man who tries to stop This Plan to draw children to Here Where I am.' Man will strike out with weakness, jealousy, hate, envy, but no man will stop the Direction that this child must walk in, in God's Plan.

The world will soon have to accept what This Miracle truly is and why It was given in the manner, in the way It was, to teach children of all colors, all races, all creeds, the Magnitude of Whom I Am. It was to give children the Wisdom, the Light, the Way, the Direction that they must follow every day.

The stillness of the hour is your consciousness of My Plan. It was Decreed a long time ago that a Favored Son, Who was My earthly Father, would once again come to the world in a Special Plan. The Time is Now, the Moment is Here.

And, if it be known, no one in the world, no one in satan's realm, suspected that The Father was preparing a woman, for you see, God is The Creator and the evil one is the imitator. And in his small vision, he suspected it would be a man.

Through His coming, I also come, for as He walked with Me, I truly walk with Him again. This time, the human being is a child such as thee, but nonetheless, the Magnitude is The Holy Trinity.

There are so many Lessons that have been taught, that will be taught. And, My little ones, you touch upon but one facet of This Great Miracle for man. Do not close your heart — this has been My plea to many children before thee — but look into My Heart and see what It reveals. And I use your compassion, I use your love, I use your trust, your obedience; I use your desire to one day be Here with Me, to comply with My Will. And you see what is in My Heart. As the beloved Saint spoke to you, I opened It to her and I open It to each of thee.

I want, one day, millions to stand upon this Hill and receive Me. I want millions to learn to desire to be a Saint. I want children to learn The Commandments of The Father's Way, and I want you, in the quiet of your physical life, to never let one day go by that you do not receive Me. I want you to try to understand that the physical was given to every man as the means to Sainthood.

I want children to know how to pray simply, lovingly, not boisterously, not in long meditation where they lose sight of Me. I want children to learn the Magnitude of The Holy Host. I want children to see the Beauty and the Power in the prayer of the Holy Rosary.

I want children to strip themselves of pride, envy, ego. I want children to replace these things with humility and eagerness to serve. I want all men to better understand that they cannot love God last, but He must come first, before themselves and all men.

I want children who are great theologians to seek wisdom. I want them to not guide all things by what they see in books, but to feel the wisdom in truth, the truth in wisdom, the love in wisdom, the magnitude of wisdom.

I want men to share in unity, but not the way that man proposes it to be, for man is diminishing the magnitude of unity. Unity is in Truth for Me. Men say, 'We must become unified,' and I say, 'Unity in Truth.'

Do not accept the weakness of others, do not bend down to them, but draw them up to the Truth you know is right. Do not lean on the weaknesses of what man calls 'charismatic'. It would be foolishness on My Part to hand out charismatic gifts. Man, My children, the little ones, could not handle it. I do not need power through crowds to show My Magnitude. I have always chosen a small one.

And, if you will but remember, Those Who were chosen to walk with Me upon the earth were small, humble. The Heavenly Mother, when She was approached by the Angel, knew it was Truth and said, 'Let it be Your Will, God, not Mine.' And when The Son was chosen to walk with Me, He cast aside His doubts, for He had greater trust in The Holy Trinity, the Love of all. He had trust in The Divine, and that's what it took to walk the way He walked. He did not know what you know today, but it was His Sincerity, His Glow.

And now, as He stands Here in the Heavens, He is the Highest Saint Here. And The Heavenly Mother stands oftentimes with Him and says, 'Joseph, the time is now for You to become known throughout the world.' And yet, He says, 'Let God's Will be done, My Heavenly Mother, not Mine.'

The reason that This Great Saint, for Whom this Great Hill is being done, was taken from the world at the time He was, was because of His Love for Me in the human form, His Love for The Woman He protected so honestly, openly. And as He pleaded in the Heavens with The Father, in a Special Place where He was, The Father said, 'Joseph, remember, He was My Son first.' And these were the only Words that helped This Saint better understand He could not interfere with the Crucifixion Plan.

So, as I release this child, I say to each man, 'Receive The Holy Eucharist, for you receive The Ultimate Gift of Heavenly Plan.' So be it."

OCTOBER 20, 1972 AT 7:51 P.M.

SAINT GEORGE

“I am a Saint from Whom little has been said, little has been heard, and few children are aware of. I walked the earth in a quiet manner. I walked solely to love God, to serve God and to one day be a Saint. My Name is not renowned nor is My way. I am a Saint few children know about today. My Name has been repeated, but always in connection with Another Who walked the physical way, for you see, Many of Us Here in the Heavens bore the same name as We walked upon the earth; and yet, there are Some of Us you are aware of, Some of Us you pray to, to intercede to God, because you feel this Saint can first let Him know and then He will listen better to you. Is this not so? My children, I am not the George you know, I am the George you do not know. I am Saint George.

Many men are curious about the Heavens and what the Heavens really mean, what the Heavens will really give to them. I speak slowly through this child for I want you to know: First, Heaven is All Love. Next, Heaven is All Beauty. Next, Heaven is All Service. Next, Heaven is learning to do God's Will to the fullest. Next, Heaven is serving in such a way that you do all things to draw Souls Heaven's Way. There is peace, tranquillity and security. Keep in mind, My children, God wants you in Heaven with Him, and you must desire to want to be There with Him.

The Power that is transmitted through this child is One Alone. There are many men walking the earth now, trying desperately to instill within themselves a power of communication, a power to relate firsthand, and the greatest thing they can do is accept the Will of God for them and pray that they will learn to do His Will every day.

I leave you now for Other Saints to come. This Miracle is but One. It is similar to the time The Son walked the earth. It has many parallels to that time. No man in the physical form could do This. No man in the physical way could design It, and I, from the Heavens say, 'Only a fool would walk away.'

I must add before I leave, a parallel for you to understand. It is now as it was then, in that, when The Son of God walked the earth and it was announced to others He was coming to speak, to teach, He did not carry a book. He carried Love for The Father, He walked in It all the way, and He gave every moment so that others could learn to love and pray. Sometimes the crowds that gathered around Him were small, and yet, down in the temple of another place, great crowds gathered where others taught. And so it is in the time in which you live, the parallel is obvious to you. Thank God for it.

I can bless you with His Power for I truly am a Saint. I can bless you with Hope for this is what He gives to help you be a Saint. I can bless you with Trust, for through it you will learn obedience; and I can bless you with My Love, for you see, I, too, want you Here with The Holy Trinity. So be it.”

OCTOBER 20, 1972 AT 7:59 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“Man cannot understand a child being forced to stand in the eyes of other men in this way. Man cannot believe that a child would be chosen by The Holy Trinity, to teach in the day in which you live. I, Saint Francis of Assisi say, ‘It is Truth, come this way.’

There are so many things that, through this child, will be stopped in your day, and first, My children, is heresy. It has been built up for a long time and Pentecostalism is your greatest heresy in the world now. Your Satanic Movement is worse than it was in the time of Sodom and Gomorrah, because through the weaknesses of men, many more men are included, many more men are devoted to this horrible movement.

Do not allow others to draw you into heresy. Many men are shouting out and saying, ‘There is no heresy in loving God.’ I, Saint Francis of Assisi, want you to say: ‘Do you truly love God, or do you want to share His Power with Him each day? If it is a true love for The Father, you will stand back and say, "Let only Your Will, my God, not mine, today; and if it is Your Will that the child be helped, let me be a servant to You. Let me be an aid, an instrument, but let all things that occur be credit to You."

I have oftentimes shouted through this child. I have oftentimes given Lessons that children knew were worthwhile. And on this night I say, through a child such as you, 'You walk in a time of heresy and many men feel they walk in truth.' Keep these things in mind when you leave this edifice tonight. The Pentecostalism here is heresy. The Satan Movement is against God, more than heresy. And those who walk, bearing the Name of The Son¹, walk in heresy, weakness, as one.

And for many, many years man has put up with Communism because man has said, 'It's there and there is nothing I can do about it.' And I say to you, 'Yes, there is. Do not accept it, for in accepting, you allow it.' There are many cults forming and many men accepting these cults as important to the time of day and way in which you now live.

Ask yourselves, My children, on this night: If you were this child, would you fight? Would you have the courage to say the Words that I say through her, or would you analyze Them, soften Them, so some present could not hear Them?

Many men are accepting immodesty as part of the time of day in which you live. Immodesty is against The Commandments. What do you say? Impurity has to change because only purity can see The Holy Trinity, and that is why The Father gave Purgatory, for man to make reparation for sins.

And I, Saint Francis of Assisi, stand in the Heavens Where I am and I say: 'Have before you at all times The Commandments of all days. Do not ignore one of Them and do not procrastinate in following through on any of Them.' You see, My children, The Father gave These Words because He wanted all children to become Saints.

Man can stand in a room and make excuses for his sins. He says, 'The other one made me do it.' And I, Saint Francis say: 'No, it was your will that you used. It was self-love you exposed to the situation. It was pride and ego that worked with you.'

Through this child it has been shouted many times: 'Be humble and you will be strong. Be prideful, you will be weak. Be sincere and you will grow in love with God; for the time in which you live, man does not know the truth, the reality of sincerity.'

Ask yourselves on this night: Are you first, sincere with God? Are you next, sincere with yourself? Are you sincere with those you love? Are you sincere in your action with others whom you meet? Are you truthful in all things? If you can answer these questions without doubt, in truth, you have come a long way. And I say to you, 'Walk stronger in these ways, stand firmer in each of them, and oh, My children, follow through; for when you do, you will prove your love to God, and as you do, He multiplies the Grace that He hands to you.' You cannot see Grace but It is stored for you. It is your Reward from God to you.

I bless you with the Wounds I suffered, for through Them I experienced much humiliation, yes, from words men used against my way. And for each one who would say wrong things to me, unkindness would show, I would say, 'Thank You, God, for helping me share one of Your blows.' I bless you with God's Love. I bless you with Truth and I say, 'If I were to hand each of you here on this night, hope, would you take it or give it away?' So, when you come to This Great Miracle, One Alone in the world, you, My children, are handed hope. What will you do with it tonight, tomorrow, or will you take it Here to This World? So be it."

OCTOBER 25, 1972 AT 11:12 A.M.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“There are so many men who are such good men, who are afraid to act in a wholesome way. And I, Saint John Vianney, say: ‘Listen to the sins, listen to the woes, encourage prayer, and be sure, My children, that when you listen to others, be aware: perhaps they do not have the strength you have, perhaps they are not aware of the Goal you know, and perhaps they put more emphasis on the physical.’

When I walked the earth, I was firm in many ways, and through this child, I come again to say that the world must be told, helped, shown, treated, directed, in the way it was when I walked, for children are confused, upset, and walk in dilemma. They need strength to follow, not weakness. They need encouragement toward The Commandments God gave. They need to learn humility, for it is truly not of this day; and they need to be given love, God’s Way, not man’s way.

Men are shouting, 'Be sensitive.' They are going overboard on this, for they are falling into the pits of Hell with sensitive thoughts, sensitive ideas, for it could be called 'touch and don't tell'. Man's description of sensitivity is different than The Father's. He says, 'Be sensitive to My Love,' and man misinterprets love. Man applies it to himself only, where true love is applied to God, responds to Him first, above all things, and puts self last.

My children, this child through whom I speak has truly been chosen by God to stand on firm ground with Words from Above. Each Word that pours through her is as a seed, not from a book, but Wisdom from God's Love. So as you gather, not as fools, but children created by God, you owe it to Him to listen to Us so one day you will come Above. Let no man disturb your Soul with his fine words, great thoughts, misinterpretations, that he causes you to doubt even yourself. This is satan's means, satan's way.

For centuries, men have been crying out to God, 'Send me a sign.' It has come, from The Divine. No man suspected a woman to be the instrument in this way. It fooled satan also, for you see, he expected only a man to have the strength, and throughout the world, he fingered many men; and suddenly God came out with the Special Plan that The Saint had been man, but the instrument now, a woman. Would you not say, My children, that God fooled the evil one in this Plan?

God is The Creator; the evil one the imitator. God is The Giver of All Rules; the evil one breaks down The Rules with misinterpretation. God says, 'I have given you Commandments.' The evil one says, 'Ignore Them, for you will not enjoy the physical if you practice Them.' God says: 'I have given all mankind My Love to cover all things. Why do you decline? Why do you place physical before all things, before the Reward I have promised you? The Reward of Mine is Greater than being an earthly king.'

So, My children, I, Saint John Vianney, say: 'Listen and do not delay. Do not be a fool and disregard the Words you heard today.'

The question is, and I, from the Heavens, tell you Myself, 'How can this child be so aware of you and self, and yet hear Our Way so clearly?' I will explain it to you in a manner plainly. She has been taught by The Father Himself. She has been prepared by the mighty Michael to listen with the Ears of her Soul, to see with the Eyes of her Soul, and to eliminate the physical during this time. Much preparation, much love, much service goes into such submission of one's will, but man does not realize what true submission of will is. He is too busy walking in the physical, caring what the physical does each day.

So, as this child stands with you in a physical way, alert to everything around her, the Words come through, They flow from a chalice, God's Way. Ask yourselves: How many Lessons you have learned on this day? Ask yourselves if you feel empty now, or are you full to the brim with wisdom? If you are wise, you will say: 'I have heard Truth today. I have seen submission of will.'

Many men desire to see a sign: the child rise to the sky and come back again. Would it save your Soul? Would it give you strength? Would you leave here feeling a Part of a Saint? Or does the solid foundation of Words, Seeds, show you that only Heaven could pour through such Love, in such a Manner, in such Direction to you?

I bless you with God's Love, as I often did the children who came to me, and I bless you as I touch your heart and say: 'Open your heart to God's Way. Forget selfishness. Forget the knowledge you cling to, man's way. Ask for Faith. Ask for Hope. Ask to be Obedient. Ask for Love, totally God's Way.' So be it."

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

“My beloved children, I am Saint Martin de Porres. I speak to you through this child and say: ‘You, too, be a broom for God each day. Sweep out the miserable, sweep out the untruth, sweep out what is wrong and follow God in His Way, the Ten Commandments every day. Clear the path with a visible broom; let it be your love for Him, showing to all whom you meet each day.’

I walked the earth in a very small way. I stand Here in the Heavens each day, and I, in My little way, do what God Wills Me to do. I help children such as you. When God says, ‘Martin, go forward to a particular child in a particular way, the child needs help,’ I do. The child does not see Me in a Spiritual Way, but I am on an errand for God and I act a particular way.

Children do not know the Value of The Saints Here, Where I am. We, in Our Way, are servants of God in a special way. When a child is in need, We go forward and help at God’s Will, as God decrees. So, My little ones, do not omit Our Way, for one day you must come Here and be a Saint with Us one day.

The physical is a privilege to every man, for through the physical, you will walk Here, Where I am. Man does not understand the physical Purpose. It is, My children, to follow God's Plan so that one day you will be a Saint Here, Where I am. So many children omit Our Way from their physical way. This is foolishness on their part, for they must know when the physical ends, a Greater Reward waits.

As I bless you, not with My broom but with the desire to be one, I say, 'Follow God's Will.' Cleanse yourselves each day and look for purity in all ways, for purity will bring you This Way and you will not have to spend time in Purgatory for many days. You see, Purgatory also is a privilege from God. It is the preparation point to come Here one day. Man is ignoring Purgatory. Man says, 'There is no Hell.' This is not so, for to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, man must become purified, for you see, All Things Here are Purity. All Things Here are God's Way. He is All Beauty, All Purity, and you must know this today.

I bless you with His Love. I bless you with Trust and I say, ‘Walk the purity way.’ So be it.”

LAZARUS

“My children, I have seldom spoken through the child; in fact, such a small number of times that My Name was rarely given. I am Lazarus.

This child with whom you are now, is truly an instrument of God; not a gifted one as man knows Gifts to be, but one in which she walks in total obedience to The Holy Trinity. Let men mock her, ridicule her. What difference does this be, what difference will it be to the Truth that is extended through her from The Holy Trinity?

When I walked the earth, many men doubted many things. They were miserable in their doubts, much unhappiness surrounded them, and none of these men could feel the Beauty of Reward for the physical.

And now, in the time in which you live, you are rewarded in a small way. Imagine what it will be when you stand facing The Holy Trinity? I come from a time, from an era a long time ago, and yet you have all heard of Me.

I bless you with God's Truth and I say, 'Do not walk away but stand where you are, listen to Me, and be aware that I do talk to each of thee.' So be it."

OCTOBER 25, 1972 AT 11:38 A.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved children, I have often spoke quickly through this child. I am Saint Francis of Assisi.

There is one amongst you who has great devotion to Me, and yet, in this devotion always desires for his own will to be done. I say to you now in a short way, ‘Do not ask for your will, but look to God’s and say, “Let me be example for Your Will to everyone.”’

I bless you and I say, ‘The Wounds I suffered were for you in your day, as well as those who surrounded me in My day.’ The Wounds were given to me to help other men better understand that obedience, sacrifice, penance, were for all men. So be it.”

OCTOBER 25, 1972 AT 11:39 A.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My beloved children, I am your Heavenly Grandmother. I know that through this child, it sounds so natural all the time. How else could you withstand the Power God sends?

I, Saint Anne, say: ‘Look to the Heavenly Way. Look to the manner in which We walked, as you, in the human way.’ We faced Our daily tasks. We faced Our daily way. We accepted Our lot in life, sometimes with a little fight, but nonetheless, We were aware that a Supreme Being created Us and that We had to go to Him one day, prepared or unprepared, ready to stand in Judgment.

Man, in his own thinking, says: ‘This One is a Saint; this One is not. This One is a Saint; this One is not.’ I thank man today for saying I am a Saint, for you see, in this, it has drawn much attention to Me, and this draws children to The Holy Trinity.

Oh, My children, be aware of The Saints Here in Heaven Where I am. Be conscious of what We must do to serve God. We do not just stand around. What good would a Grandmother be if She was no longer giving service to the children?

Oh, I say to you on this day, 'Each of thee I love much, for you see, The Heavenly Mother you have was a physical Daughter to Me, and as We stand Here in the Heavens, She is My Mother also.' And oftentimes, I look at Her and say, 'Oh, Blessed Mother, help Me serve God more today.' And when She looks at Me in a special way, She says: 'Mother, Daughter, I love you. It is difficult to refuse You anything.' And it is Our Relationship Here in the Heavens.

So I say, 'Pray, My children, to My Daughter, to My Mother, for all prayers sent to Me, I immediately present to Her, for you see, as We stand Here in the Heavens, sharing this Great Love, Divine Way, We shared a human love like yours in your day.' So be it."

OCTOBER 27, 1972 AT 7:46 P.M.

SAINT AGNES

“So many people do not turn to The Saints. They turn to each other. And as I stand Here in the Heavens, in a manner that appears natural to you, it is so you will not be frightened when Heaven speaks. The child is so totally God’s, no man can comprehend this. The child is so totally subservient to Him, no man can understand this. But This Blessing has been given to the world to give Light to the world, to give a way to mankind to see God one day. The Light that shines through this child is not a light as you know one to be, but the Light of Wisdom, the Light of Teaching, the Light of The Holy Trinity.

Beyond your body is the world, and as you stand in the world, you are a great part of this world. And yet, if you will but look in God’s Direction, you will see a Light that says, ‘Oh, child of Mine, be obedient to Me.’ And I, Saint Agnes, stand Here in the Heavens and I beseech each child present now, to listen well to the Wisdom I did tell.

As men take Each Word apart, they look only for man's way. They cannot look for The Father's Wisdom, for you see, the definition of words was placed there by other men, to compensate, to create, to perform, to teach. So, as the simplicity of This comes to you, keep in mind there is more to What is being said than the Seeds which are the Words that fall upon you from The Divine. The Words ring in your ears and the sound of Each One tells you a particular thing. But, oh, My children, look beyond and see the Wisdom of The King.

No child has ever been asked to stand so openly before thousands and thousands of people to teach in this manner, but now that It has come to the world you are in, pay attention, follow through, and as you do, develop within you a desire to be obedient, a desire to follow God's Will, a desire to trust more in what you should, and if you are wise, you will ask for the Gift of Faith to be developed within you.

Some men are saying: 'Why so simple? I could understand greater words,' but what these men do not understand is that the Teaching of This Great Miracle is for children of all sizes, children of all intellects, children of all races, all creeds, all colors, and all degrees of love for The Holy Trinity.

I bless you, not with My Power, but with God's. I bless you with the desire to love Him so much you will not request answers, only more desire to love Him more. The child who stands before you is but an instrument of His: a fork of Love, an extension of Truth, a link of Hope, a sower of the Seeds that must reach you.

So, as I leave her view, Another Saint will speak to you. Unheard of, yes, This Manner of reaching you, but nonetheless, oh, so True."

OCTOBER 27, 1972 AT 7:52 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I have often spoken through the child in many, many ways, and many of you know My Name. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

You see, My children, in your day when so much turmoil is all around, so much trouble through sound, God has Decreed This Time to be, for you to learn the Way to Here for All Eternity. Be blessed by these moments that God gives to the world and listen to the Wisdom that He unfolds.

So many men desire to relate to God. It is much easier to do, for you see, it can be done through prayer, through submission of will, through being example for all men to come Here.

Many men walk the earth in great pride and ego. They say: ‘Why her, why not me? I am good, perhaps she is evil.’ But now I say to you on this day: ‘Listen well. God always chooses little ones to tell to others whom He created, the Wisdom and the Love He wants them to know.’

Man says, 'If Heaven is so Beautiful, how can any child represent It?' God smiles at this and says: 'Each Creation of Mine represents Heaven, for as I have given you love to use toward each other, there is a Higher Love in Heaven. As I have given you Truth to follow, Heaven is Purity, Heaven is Wisdom.'

So you see, My children, if you will but understand, the way to God as man is simple. Awaken in the morning and say to Him quite plain:

'Good morning, God, I love You. I know You know my name. But please, do not let one moment today pass without Your Hand holding me tightly, for I do not want to stray.'

No fancy prayer need be said, no great lengthy way, just constant little reminders to keep Him with you every moment of the day, and you will find that, in many ways, it's the way for all men to come Here, the simple little path of love, the way of service that God truly loves.

Some men stand with great knowledge. Some men stand so eager to express to others what they have learned through the books written by others. These men are wise in many ways, but these very men could not say, 'I love You, God, hold my hand today.'

Many, Many Saints have spoken through this child, Many more yet to come for quite awhile. The peace that is within her, the peace that surrounds her, you feel all the while, and when you do, remember this: It is service to The Father that renders such a peace, it is desire to please Him alone that makes the service complete.

So I, Saint Alphonsus, as you know Me to be, express My Love on this night for The Holy Trinity by trying, through the Will of God, to draw each of thee close to Here in a little way. Be blessed, My children, and I say, 'Do not let one day go by that you do not express care in what your standing is with God, Who is always Here.' So be it."

OCTOBER 27, 1972 AT 8:08 P.M.

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“The vision with the Soul is governed by God, and so, each of you here now, must leave on this night knowing that you have two sets of eyes: One with perfect vision, one with physical vision. And as you have two sets of eyes, you have two sets of ears: One to hear the Will of God, and one to listen to the world so near.

So many children tune God out, tune only the world in, and this is the part of you that satan uses to reach, because you see, he cannot speak through your Soul. Only God can do this. The physical is the part of you that responds to what is wrong, untrue. Of course, what you do with the physical reflects upon the Soul and causes the Soul to be in dimmer view.

So many times through this child, it has been explained to man that your Soul is a Light, and the more service that you give to God, the greater the Light becomes. So I ask each child here tonight, to ask God to help you make the Light of your Soul the brightest possible for you, so when you stand before Him, He will say, 'Oh my, the service that you gave brightened the Soul so much My Way.' The simple Words, the simple Truth, no complicated way.

And I, Saint Augustine, say to you tonight: 'Prepare for the Light that will be the One to stand before The Father one special day, and know that it is never too late to make this Light brighter with every act you do, with everything you say. Offer it to Him in a very special way.' And as you are example, there is Special Grace to this, for sometimes, to be example, it is much more difficult because it takes energy of man, sometimes great patience and, oh yes, obeying the Ten Commandments, which, for most men is difficult at best.

I bless you from the Heavens with a Light you cannot know and I am fully aware of the Light of every Soul. God allows this to be so We Saints can help each of thee. No man upon the earth knows the true work of The Saints. Each day is filled with helping children throughout the world, so one day, when you come Here and you, too, light up This Way, you will work for God in a very special way.

You once again are Blessed in a way you cannot know, through an instrument of Love, through an instrument of Hope. I bless you with a Great Truth and I say: ‘Those of you who are ill on this night, please pray. Whether it be a physical illness, a mental one or Spiritual, it can be remedied with love, with Faith, in many ways, to great degrees.’ Keep this in mind, for so many children say, ‘There is no use to pray, it doesn’t help anyway.’ Not so. If God does not answer what you request of Him, in the manner you request it, have patience, but most of all, have trust in Him. It is a lack of trust that children show. But every prayer is answered, for you see, God wants your Soul to grow. So be it.”

OCTOBER 29, 1972 AT 1:52 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“From this day forward, when you do not feel good, even if it is a minor thing, offer it up to God in reparation for those who sin much; for the Poor Souls in Purgatory — never forget Them.

And I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, say through this child today: ‘Men must begin to know the beauty of the physical way. It can be complete service, it can be total love, it can be the beginning to Sainthood a very small way.’ Men must begin to know that the physical was given to each for very special reasons. Do not pity yourselves, My little ones, for when you do, you waste time, and in this waste of time you could be doing much for God and for mankind.

Be totally in love with God, and those of you who have chosen the marriage state, love your spouse next. Put God first, then the children, then your family and friends, then mankind, and then yourself, for as you place yourself last, you gain more Grace which, in another way, puts you first in God's Place.

Do not ask for worldly acclaim; no man has the power to secure it for you. Do not ask that others see you only in a great way; there is emptiness in it. But stand totally in the Truth for God.

Be blessed by the physical way, stand up for truth, stand up for justice and fight heresy in your day. You are surrounded by it and some of you partake in it. It is a foolish way, it is lost, for you see, satan cannot win; he is not greater than The Father. Be wise, My children, face truth, cast out sin, obey the Ten Commandments, and God will show you His Hand.

I, Saint Alphonsus, say, 'Whether you believe I speak to you today or not, you must ask for the Faith to understand that the Words of Wisdom were not man's.' So be it."

OCTOBER 29, 1972 AT 1:58 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“If you have ever been near anyone who is possessed, you will never want to be next to them again. And I, Saint Athanasius say, ‘The heresies of your day draw satan close to you through pride and ego.’ Man is so busy indulging in pride, he forgets what is on the other side. Man is so tempted by experience, involvement, that he forgets that the evil one could be the drawing card.

I say to you now, and there are particular children I speak to personally, ‘The Pentecostalism of your day is not God’s Way, but many men are rationalizing and saying that God let it be one day.’ Well, I, Saint Athanasius say: ‘What man is doing in this manner today is heresy, and no man in the world, no matter how strong he is in book knowledge, can justify this way. It is not ignorance but self-love and pride, self-indulgence, desiring power.’

Please, My children, I have spoken many times through this child and I speak in Truth. If you become involved, you are testing how strong you are, how strong your will is. Man is forgetting that the only true power he has is in the will God gave him at the moment of conception.

There are yet many mysteries in the world, yet many things not explained, yet many things to be done. But now that you live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah — selfishness, pride, ego, heresy, devilry — you take chances, unless you stand on truth and in truth, for truth, as God gave it to be.

The Father's Son came to the world and told everyone what He knew The Father wanted and how He wanted things to be; and yet now, in the world, you have many men desecrating these very things and using them in satan's way. I say to the children, the little ones, 'Do not think you are so strong that you can withstand certain blows, certain temptations, certain things.' I, Saint Athanasius, stand in the Heavens and say to you now, 'You cannot.' There is something about man's weakness that causes more weakness.

I fought a heresy in My day, and sometimes I would close the door and I would say, ‘Oh, God, I cannot stand the fight another moment.’ And yet, when I would be confronted with the lies, with the developed untruths, I would fight whomever I spoke to.

I come often through this child, for it is important now that the world begin to understand that the heresy all around is drawing man away from God. There are other heresies I will not speak of today but, please, My children, do not be drawn in by any of them. Fight for God in His Way.

No man has ever been asked to walk the path that this child walks. No man has ever been seen by so many thousands of people, so unprepared, so subservient to Divine Will. The Wisdom is being taught. Open your heart to the Truth, and on the morrow, when you awaken, say to God: ‘I want to love You. Help me to do it Your Way, not mine,’ for you will find that heresy will make you more conscious of your will than the Will of The Divine.

I bless you with a Love you cannot know. A Vision waits to be shown through the child to you. You have come to this spot, Blessed by The Father Up Above. Be wise, My children, take advantage of the Words. The Beauty of This Great Miracle is to not only show the world the Generosity of God, the Humility of Him, and the Place He has put The Beloved Saint Joseph, but The Miracle has come to the world to make men once again realize that the Purpose of the physical is to be a Saint. So be it.”

OCTOBER 29, 1972 AT 2:06 P.M.

VISION OF COLORS

There are three colors. One is a very delicate blue. In terms of a jewel, I would say sapphire; it appears to be that way. Another jewel is a ruby; another, an emerald, in between.

SAINT MICHAEL

“Sometimes, when the beauty is so much, the physical cannot stand the degree, but I, Saint Michael, bring into view a sight I want each child to see. The blue is for a reason; it means calmness, and in many ways, a strength. It has a beauty all its own, and in many ways, it balances the world.

The red, the ruby that the child does see, depicts the Blood of a Son of The Holy Trinity. It also says to all mankind that many suffered martyrdom for The Divine. The red is also a color of love, along with the color of suffering.

And now, I, Saint Michael, take you to the green. This, My children, has a great part in the world, always seen. The green means growth, the green means hope. The green says 'land', the green says 'trees', the green says many, many things, but here where you are, the green says 'Hope'.

You see, My children, God created color, God created love, God created all the things that are for man to come Above. God created symbols for men to use for many things; but, when The Son of God stood at the table with twelve men, it was not a symbol He created, but He gave a Part of Them¹. So many men in your day are causing much desecration to The Ultimate Gift of Love. They are trying in many ways to abuse It, justifying the abuse in all ways.

And as this child's Vision increases, the colors enlarge to a great degree and they fuse into a Light that, if she were to see the fullness of It, she would be blinded for life, not in the Spiritual but in the physical. The Light is growing and as the colors fuse, they glow, they glisten, and in back of these Lights comes into view The Host of Love, The Holy Eucharist. The Glow of This is far brighter than the Light of the gems, the color, and within This Light she sees a Magnificent Sight, given through her for you. The Angels hold The Host, and All The Saints Who walked in the world as Men of God encircle The Host, Each One holding a smaller One.

I could take the child completely away, but I must diminish the Vision, for it will take her days to be released. The Light is Far Greater than any light man knows. There are so Many Saints encircling The Host, and God says: 'I want more. I want children to adore This Host, Which is Me. I want children to know I Am All Purity; else, why would the enemy hate Me? I want children to know I Am All Love; else, why would the enemy offer things in the form of love, false? I want children to know I want them to spend All Eternity Here with Me. Can you not see I love you so?'

The Vision is taken slowly, for the child cannot let go. I must take her from you and release her out of view. The releasing would be even too much for all of you."
