EIGHTH MEMORIAL

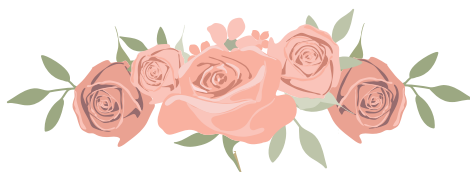

Frances Marie Klug

1921 - 2009

Introduction

*T*his occasion is dedicated to the memory of Frances Marie Klug, through whom Our Heavenly Father sent The Miracle of Saint Joseph to the world. Eight years have gone by since our beloved Mother Frances entered Eternal Life on November 15, 2009. Our hearts are filled with love and gratitude for Mother Frances and her unwavering service to The Holy Trinity and The Miracle of Saint Joseph.

*H*eaven spoke often of Mother Frances through The Miracle of Saint Joseph. Countless Revelations and Teachings described her role as a True Mystic, Spiritual Mother and Victim Soul, and the daily sacrifices she endured as a Valiant, Obedient, and Courageous servant of God.

*A*s we honor the life of Mother Frances, it is only fitting that we pay tribute to Saint Joseph, The Holy Spirit, for Whom this Great Miracle is named. Let us reflect upon the Divine Magnificence represented by the newly restored statue of Saint Joseph to be unveiled today.

*I*nspired by the life of Mother Frances, and with confidence in the Guidance of Saint Joseph, may we reaffirm our commitment to The Miracle of Saint Joseph as we work to bring Heaven's Words to every corner of the world.

TRUE MYSTIC

Revelation Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug

January 17, 1974 at 6:00 PM

“The secret to True Mysticism is this: A child chosen by God is alert to God’s Needs, God’s Desires, God’s Will. There is never a moment that the child is without concentration on Him, even though the child appears to be of the world and in the world. There is no material thing that can replace what this child does, thinks, has, or is involved in.

The glitter of gold, the shine of silver, the sparkle of diamonds can never distract the child from what the task is. Every moment of the day, if it were recorded, would show that the child is truly oblivious to man’s way. True Mysticism is only of God, and there is no man in the world who can portray it, imitate it or imagine it in any way. So be it.”

Teaching Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
May 4, 1979

“A LESSON IN SPIRITUALITY”

“*W*hat does it mean to be a Spiritual child to a True Mystic? This, of course, has much more meaning to it than is conceivable to man.

*I*n the true sense of the words, a ‘Spiritual child’ says this child, this individual must cooperate with the Spiritual Direction of the True Mystic, and cooperate in working for purification for the Soul. A Spiritual child is not just the receiver or the recipient, but is involved in the actual commitment, as an individual, to strive for Sainthood.

*T*o be a Spiritual child says the acceptance of Guidance for the good of one’s own Soul. It says: ‘I will prepare myself to reach a higher plane of understanding of my Faith for the good of my Soul.’ It says: ‘I will take a course of action that will strengthen my Faith.’ It says: ‘I will seek purity as God intended it to be, through the physical use of the Ten Commandments He gave to me, through the observance and respect that Holy Mother Church teaches me; and, that the Teaching, the Direction I receive through the True Mystic will not just encourage me, but be made an active part of my life.’

*T*rue Mysticism is given to the world through an individual who performs totally at the Command of God, obeying the Demands of His Directions, and is totally committed to Divine Will. In this relationship of the Master and the child, there is a definite purpose in God’s singularly choosing a specific human being for His Purpose. The Direction, the Teachings, channeled through one individual, permits no chance for interpretation, opinion, theory, analyzation, for the union of commitment is totally a oneness for the Purpose of God Alone.

“A LESSON IN SPIRITUALITY”

The Magnitude of True Mysticism is not totally understood by man. In the many books describing the lives of True Mystics, it was impossible to capture the true depth, the true communication, the true reality of this responsible way of life.

As the True Mystic accepts Spiritual children, it is always with the intent, first, of God, for this child's good. The relationship between the True Mystic and the Spiritual child is not one of compromise from the True Mystic, nor is it one of favoritism regarding one Spiritual child over the other. This association, relationship, is one of constant concern of the True Mystic regarding the child's behavior, the growth of the child's Faith, and the perseverance of the child in seeking purification. A reprimand or a scolding from the True Mystic to the Spiritual child must never be misunderstood, for it is always to alert, to awaken the child's lethargy or indifference to the Great Purpose of life for the Soul. There is no personal aggravation, antagonism or intent. There is balance to the responsibility of the Direction, the Teaching, the correction, that is necessary for the good of the Spiritual child. So be it.”

SPIRITUAL MOTHER

Revelation From
OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
May 17, 1971 at 9:15 PM

“I am your Heavenly Mother and I speak to you tonight with Love, with Understanding, and yes, with much delight. I smile through the child as My Words come to you, and I say, ‘As I am your Heavenly Mother, she is your mother too.’ She must be in this capacity for all mankind to see, for as the Heavenly Words pour through her from Us, she is used as authority. Each command that she does give for you makes her stand totally for Us. So, as you are in flesh as she, she is as mother to thee. Understand this, My children, and know that there will be comfort for you to know that a Heavenly Mother you do have, and an earthly mother is ready to guide and guard you, so one day you will be in Heaven Where I am.

The Spiritual side she is well aware of. The human side she is well aware of. As she sits as woman, she stands in the Love of God, in love for God, and is the mother to every man. She is no longer just woman. The capacity is great; the responsibility, heavy; the purpose, Divine; the beauty, complete. Be kind, My children, to your mother.”

Teaching Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
February 3, 1982

*Note: As dictated through Mother Frances regarding This Teaching:
“It’s a very important document that we will keep on file for all time for The City of God.”*

“A mother never gets over the loss of a child. There is always a vacancy in one’s heart and where one tends to associate certain things with certain people.

*A*s a Spiritual Mother, at the loss of a Spiritual child, there is also something that happens that is difficult to describe, but nonetheless, leaves an indelible mark upon the life of the Spiritual Mother.

*E*ach person that is presented to a Spiritual Mother by God is seen as an individual, with individual needs, hopes, dreams, and potential in service to God. Each individual is felt special by the Spiritual Mother, and when an individual person fails to perform in the right manner, a Spiritual Mother has the right to get angry because of the responsibility God places on this relationship.

*O*n the other hand, when one of the Spiritual children leaves because God has called them, there is a tremendous void, and always a tremendous concern with how much spiritual progress the child made in the association with the Spiritual Mother. ‘Was it sufficient, God?’ You scream this to God: ‘Did I give the child everything You wanted the child to have? Did I draw the child closer to You or did the child feel empty in our relationship? Is the child growing in Your Way, God, is the child understanding more?’

FEBRUARY 3, 1982

TEACHING ON A SPIRITUAL MOTHER'S RESPONSIBILITY

I don't care what age you are, I don't care what color you are, and it really doesn't make any difference what creed you are. Everyone that God puts in my presence has a special meaning to me.

*A*nd then, you say: 'Did my presence, my relationship encourage the child to the point where Sainthood was more evident, God?'

*I*n such a short period of time, God has seen fit to take nine such children, and each child was different, and each one had a special place in the responsibility that God has handed me.¹

*B*ecause of these, I will have to report to God on how I carried out my responsibility toward them since the very moment I met each one of them. They were different. Their nature was different, their personality was different, their needs were different, their hopes were different, their loves were different, and they looked different.

*I*n looking at this relationship of responsibility, I say to God, 'Be easy on me, please, because I realize that this responsibility You have given is beyond human comprehension.'

*S*o many times when I hear people say, 'Won't it be nice when the Societies grow and there will be more people,' I understand that it would be wonderful, but in my heart I say, 'Not too many children, God, there is so much responsibility for each one of them to You.'"

¹ Refers to Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope volunteers who had passed away in the years preceding this Teaching.

Revelation From
SAINT JOHN VIANNEY
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
March 4, 1987

A Spiritual mother has a tremendous obligation to God first, because she walks in His Name twenty-four hours a day. A Spiritual mother is accountable to God for the title alone, not accountable to any earthly reason such as bearing a child or being the mother of a child. It is a Very Important Task and way of life.

A Spiritual mother takes on the fantasies of everyone that she is responsible for, she takes on the facts that each one lives with every day, and she takes on the hopes and the dreams, the worries and the cares, the kindnesses, the charity, also the lack of charity, the indifferences, the unkindnesses that the Spiritual children oftentimes do out of selfishness, out of anger, out of their own egos, and for many other reasons.

It is much easier to be a mother of a family than a Spiritual mother of God's many children. To scold is very difficult. To reprimand, very hurtful. To console, not always easy, for fear of it weakening some part, some portion of the child. To stand in strength, tiring, very unemotional, and always there. A Spiritual mother would never accept the job if it was laid out in its full essence because it would be too insurmountable to handle, to care about, and to want to do.

The mother of a family has a tremendous responsibility, just as the father in a family has. Grandparents have tremendous responsibilities but they differ in many ways than the parents of a family. Grandparents are an extension of the family and they are expected to understand and to know and to feel many things that so many people feel security in. Grandparents are security. Parents have the important role of the immediate control, direction, caring, supporting.

A Spiritual mother or father has the responsibility of seeing what a child, no matter what age the child is, seeing what the child is actually thinking, doing, how the child is acting, where the child is going spiritually. The child can be out of work or the child can be the most successful human being in the world; the Spiritual mother does not base anything on this. The Spiritual mother or father bases this child's Spiritual growth on what is actively seen: kindness, generosity, charity, hope, sincerity, and then there is a great concern, worry, if all these things are opposite and they are wrong for the good of the Soul.

When Roman Catholics go into the confessional and they truly mean it when they say, 'Bless me, Father, for I have sinned; it is such and such a time since my last confession,' and this person, no matter what age, is kneeling before a priest, whether the priest is a Monsignor, a Bishop, a Cardinal, or the Holy Father, the basic job as a priest is the principal factor here. Compare this with how you walk in life, to a Spiritual mother or father. It does not make any difference what vocation you have, it is what you are doing according to God's Will that is important to the Spiritual mother or the Spiritual father, just as your moral code of ethics, the way you live, should be the only factor to the priest in the confessional.

As I speak through this woman on this night, All I have spoken through her, from the time she began to speak until she leaves you, has been and will be for you to better understand the necessity to reach for purity, in spite of what has gone on in the past. As long as you have the beat of your heart, an active mind, the ability to say 'Yes', 'No', 'I Can', 'I Can't', 'I Will', 'I Won't', you have the opportunity to grow spiritually, to grow in purity and reach for perfection, for the good of your Soul.

I am Saint John Vianney. I have spoken so many times through this instrument, to you and to many other people. The Father has allowed this time in the world to give mankind a chance to grow more purely, in a direct manner, for the good of the Soul.

*H*old her in a manner in which, by which, through which, with which, My Words can be passed through her to you the most pure way; of course, not through a being as a being is, but through the Life, the Living function of her Soul.

*T*he Beauty of This Great Miracle upon the earth is to teach mankind that they are individually the custodian of their own Soul, and that is why This Great Miracle comes to the world so constantly, so consistently, through the Soul of one human being, for the benefit of the Souls of millions of human beings.

*T*he reason I tell you this tonight, and I have spoken it before, is to help you to better understand that the Soul is an Important Part of you, a Living Part of you. It will be the Remaining Part of you when the physical time ends.

*R*emember What I have spoken, and remember at all times of the day, no matter what hour, that you are the custodian of a Soul, a Portion of The Father. You have a responsibility that you must control.

*B*less you from the Heavens and I add to this Blessing: ‘As you are the custodian of your own Soul, you have the responsibility of being pure example for the good of others’ Souls.’ So be it.”

A VICTIM SOUL

Revelation From
OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
July 21, 1992 at 5:15 PM

“*M*any times there is much envy surrounding ‘an instrument’ of The Father. Many times the envy is caused by a lack of understanding of what the full meaning is, when one is chosen to be ‘a Victim Soul’ for the benefit of other Souls to better understand the value, the necessity, the purpose, and the goal.

*M*any who have gone before this woman have had much interrogation by authority, much envy by those near and far, much accusation, victimizing ‘the instrument’ of The Father in ways inconceivable, and yet to a degree of causing more suffering than The Father Wills there to be.

I am your Heavenly Mother. I hold this child close to My Mantle for the physical is close to collapse.

*S*ome of Those Who have gone before and are Here with Me now have great compassion, for They, too, walked as human victims and with Victim Souls.

You say, ‘What is a Victim Soul?’ Well, it is the Soul of the one chosen to do extreme work of obedience to The Father’s Will. The Soul is a victim because of the responsibility placed within It and on It, supporting the physical to extremes beyond man’s comprehension.

Those standing with Me, Who walked the way, Who struggled as this one does, know the pitfalls in this manner of living, and They reach out many times when she shouts, 'I am tired, God, I cannot stand the responsibility You are inflicting; I want to, but I fear I will fail and my Soul will suffer deeply.' Mankind does not know the human fear of neglecting to fulfill The Father's Will, according to His Direction.

*T*hold her body close to Me, for humanly there is no strength to go on. It is My Strength, My Love, My Assistance, My Presence, that holds her in the human way; not in ecstasy as you have seen ecstasy to be, but in a Mother's Love for a child whose tears are not seen through the human eyes of others.

*E*very Soul in existence, and Those Who have not yet been released from the wombs of the mothers, are to one day be touched by This Miracle. Think of the Magnitude of This Responsibility.

*I*wanted These Words written so you would better understand as you work in areas of importance to help spread This Miracle to every land.

*T*hese Books are to be put aboard ships so that They are not just for those who are on soil, land. They are to go to corners of the earth. They are to be transported into places that are not inhabited with thousands of men, women and children. They are to go to big cities.

*T*hey are to go to the wealthy, the poor, the neglected, and those who feel they have a calling of God and who deliberately teach about Him. They are to be transported to foreign lands.

JULY 21, 1992 AT 5:15 PM

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

*T*he world must know, mankind must understand that every human being has a Soul, and the Soul is a Portion of God within.

*I*t is not just tiredness you see, but a fear that The Father's Will, will not be accomplished to the degree He Wills it to be.

*B*less you and I want you to know, This Miracle you are so much a part of, is a part of every human being in the world, and it is Important that you continue your part for the benefit of millions and millions and millions and millions and millions of Souls. So be it."

VALIANT

Revelation From
SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
March 4, 1995 at 6:45 PM

“*T*he valiant stand that has been taken in so many ways, so many times, over so many years, has always shown that it came from a Source beyond the human way of life.

*M*uch envy, much jealousy has taken place by others in all stations of life. It is difficult for mankind to associate the word ‘valiant’ with this little one that so Many have spoken through, but nonetheless it is a word that is suitable to describing what has taken place in the sight of mankind, to the ears of mankind, to all ages of mankind. So be it.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.”

OBEDIENT

Revelation From
SAINT JOAN OF ARC
SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
November 28, 1992 at 11:25 AM

“I am Saint Joan of Arc. When I knew I was to speak to many who were of a different manner of living, who were different than I was, because they were men and I was but a young girl, I have to admit, in the beginning, I questioned how I could manage the tasks The Father Commanded of me.

*T*he first Words were: ‘Obedience to My Will, to My Direction, and you will not fail. You will face obstacles difficult, but if you are obedient and do not allow anyone else’s orders to interfere with Mine, success will come. Be strong, My daughter, and be alert, for many will try to convert you to their ways, their interpretations, their vulgarity, but I assure you that the Purity of My Will, My Divine Love, will give you the strength you will need to face what must be accomplished to go down in History.’

I, Saint Joan, want you to know that This Miracle is similar in many ways to how I walked. A little one has been given the responsibility and the Command of Obedience to fight a Great War. You are soldiers. The Father is in Command. The Voices that pour forth are His Directions for mankind.

*T*he world must be delivered, every corner of the world I mean, because time is of the essence. A battle bigger than the ones I was involved with is raging in every corner of the world. Oceans may separate the places, mountains may divide the areas, but each place in itself is a war zone against the enemy of God and of man. These battles must be won. These battles are far more intense than you can comprehend.

*I*t is not always understandable by man for The Father to use such a little one, in stature, gentleness, and of course, concern for the lives and the Souls of those who appear so much larger, so much stronger, but this is His Manner of giving to mankind a focal point that would be unbelievable, and yet in its way, showing the need for protection and the necessity to believe All the Directions, because it would not be normal for this to be this way, especially when the war is throughout the world. Man would expect a giant in size, a military mind, and someone well-known to all authorities.

*W*hen the time came and the men felt we were to part, I was alone, I was frightened, because I knew that evil was lurking where they put me. I could not sleep. I was continually taunted, abused. It was a horror to me. But I come today to alert you, to warn you, that this very same thing could happen in your day. The men in political positions were not my enemies. My biggest enemies were the men who walked the Spiritual paths in high positions of not just commitment, but control.

*A*nother Here wants to speak. We All take Part in This Miracle, because of the Importance of the safety of Souls in this war against the onslaught of so much evil. So be it.”

NOVEMBER 28, 1992 AT 11:25 AM

SAINT JOAN OF ARC
SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“I am Saint Catherine of Siena. I, too, was young in years. I, too, faced obedience to The Father’s Will. I, too, was responsible for the Directions that were passed through me, to give strength to one or more who were in charge of Souls.

*I*t is the same in your day. One, small, has been given this responsibility. She cannot worry over the disbelievers. She must be alert to them but never cater to them. She must listen continuously for Words of Direction, unfamiliar to normal living, and she must be firm with passing These Words to others, for These Words must become a chain reaction and not be planted or withheld where They cannot be read or seen. In reality, the Bound Words are but a mere fraction of what has been passed through her to mankind. Much is in ordinary speech. Much is in light conversation.

I, Saint Catherine of Siena, warn you she has a strong temper, but a temper that is protective of This Miracle, because of Its Importance for the Souls that mankind does not fully understand about, nor does mankind care about. God’s Commandments, full in concept, must be passed throughout the world because They are the Guidelines for every human being.

The little one, the Victim Soul, is not afraid to face the enemy. By enemy, I mean those who claim to be clerical, Christian leaders. She has stood up to many. When they differ with the Formal Words, whether They be called ‘Teachings’ or ‘Revelations’, it is mostly because they lack sound Faith in the morals of Christianity, and to a great degree, there is much jealousy, saying: 'Why her? Why not me? I am a man.'

Well, if only men could fight for The Father's Will to be done, why was Joan given so much responsibility? I could name many, so 'This,' as man would put it, 'cannot carry water.' It is God's Will and It must be honored, whether He chooses one small in stature or one who He knows will be obedient to His Call at a moment's notice. It is not a simple matter when some Great Miracle such as This is given to the world.

As Christ was stripped of His Garments by mankind, one who walks for God is stripped of personal opinion, also time, and many other important parts of human living, but I end this and say, 'As the stripping of certain areas of human nature, personality, are Part of His Plan, He always asks for the will to be given.'

As men walk in this army for Him, it is important for each one to understand it is their will to do His Will. It is their will to spread the Words He has given to be spread throughout all lands. So be it."

COURAGEOUS

Revelation From
OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER
Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
October 12, 1992 at 11:30 AM

“No one in the world could possibly comprehend, understand, or in any way be able to fully, theologically understand the Magnitude of This Miracle. In times past there have been True Mystics designated by The Father, given many hazardous tasks. When He gave the tasks, He knew that they would be carried out because of, and through the strength of, and an innate Spiritual obedience, innocence, and willingness to put His Will above all things.

It has been noted in some stories about these individuals, that there was an aloneness to their life, and another descriptive word would be an ‘extreme loneliness’, because of the responsibilities placed within them, upon them, to come from them, that was not of their own initiative, ability, or their nature.

This Miracle is a great combination of Many Who walked in times past. We could name numerous Ones, but Many of Them have spoken silently, openly, and always determinedly, so there was no mistake in this Victim Soul’s intellect, that what was being ordered to be done, would be done.

Mankind, in your time, sometimes hears the Words passed through This Miracle, sometimes reads the Words from Here through This Miracle. It is oftentimes annoying to listen to the determinations that result from their short association with This Miracle, because they base so much on their opinion, and their inability to comprehend such a Great Occurrence through such a little one in their time of living.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

*M*oses is constantly present by her side, with a strength beyond what man could associate with or understand. He knows the path is difficult and He also knows the responsibility can be compared to the weight of all the oceans, all the waters throughout the world. Think of this pressure on a human body.

I am your Heavenly Mother. This Great Miracle has come to a very large fork in the road. Mankind will have to take sides, mankind will have to choose belief or disbelief. For some it will be difficult, for some impossible, and for some it will be like a great sign in the sky that will save their physical life, their Spiritual life, and give them hope in all directions.

*S*piritual strength is not always easily accepted because Spiritual strength is not something man can define. It is an inward thing, and it is in the intellect, in the will, in the conscience, and it is so closely involved with the Soul.

*M*any times, those close to one such as you are close to, this small one, this Victim Soul, find a lack of full understanding, and yet within you, you feel the need to understand, the responsibility to understand, the desire to understand.

*M*any men and women, in approaching her, find it difficult because they do not have a sound understanding of how The Father would choose one so little and yet so strong. There are so many in the world who would fall to their knees in thanksgiving if they but had the opportunity to hear Our Words so direct, because the need is so tremendous.

OCTOBER 12, 1992 AT 11:30 AM

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

We also understand that one of the most difficult parts of This Great Miracle was for this little one to be on exhibition at any time. That is why The Father has allowed her to remain anonymous in many ways. At first it had to be shown, but no one truly understands how she has begged for anonymity.

The Books, with so much of What We have given, must be spread throughout the world. You say, 'But how?' I, your Heavenly Mother say: 'The Words are Seeds to be planted. Let Them fly to all corners of the world. Someone, many will pick Them up. It is innate in man to do this.'

I leave you with a Blessing, as I always do, but I want you to know, courage is a beautiful form of Grace and for Grace, and though much has been revealed that many try to not accept, the little one through whom It was revealed has never rescinded One Word, no matter what the attack.

When it was announced openly about Me, she would not bend. The words spoken to her so adamantly, by more than one individual, could not supersede the Truth she knew had to be given to the world.¹

The Revelation regarding the Important Place of Joseph, why was it so easy for mankind, saying He walked a simple role? That they could handle. And then they could accept easily that He had been proclaimed 'a Saint', when all the Evidence, all the Reality that was associated with Him spoke logically that He was The Third Person of The Beloved Holy Trinity.

*M*y, what a reaction We saw. We heard men say, 'Now we've got her.' We said, 'No, you don't.' Then, when this little one was handed the responsibility to say what the Soul of each man truly Is, those who studied theology found it difficult, because this was the final blow to many of them.

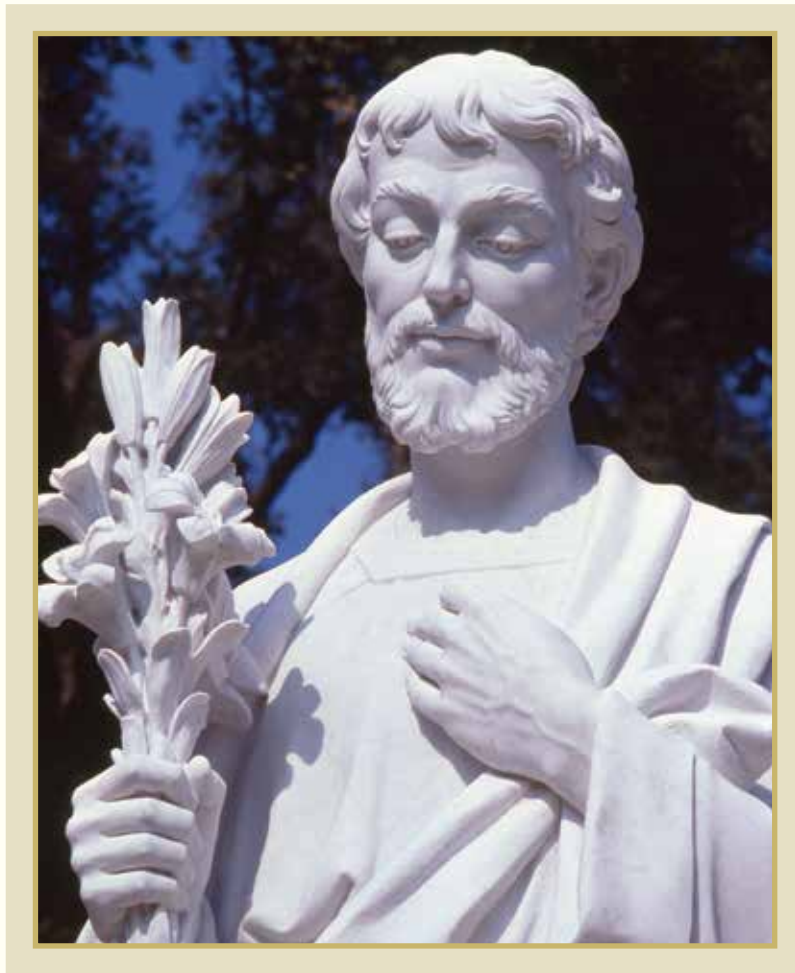

*L*ook at What I have spoken. Would God have chosen a weakling for All This to be passed to the world?

*A*nd then there is the subject of ecstasy. True ecstasy is not understandable to man. Ecstasy is not something that mankind could fully understand. It is a form of communication. It is accepting the Presence in a manner, in a form, imitated by some, but cannot truly be termed in any way an ability that could be practiced by man.

*E*cstasy is difficult, for it is a complete acceptance of a Presence unseen. It is complete obedience, wherein the whole body is reserved for whatever is to be done, to be said, to be seen.

*B*less you, My children, for as you are present your Faith grows, not just within you, but will radiate from you, and that is important because This Miracle was given to the whole world to save Souls. So be it."

Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug

Note: This Revelation was delivered on the day of the arrival of the statue of Saint Joseph to the Hill of Hope, for the Grotto of Saint Joseph.

“*M*y beloved children, I am Saint Joseph. I smile down upon you and with you at this moment of triumph, at this moment of love, at this moment of Light from Above. I beseech you through this happiness to seek only truth and to stand only in the Light God wants for you. There is another Name for The Father Up Above, for The Creator of all mankind. I want you to think about this for in the thinking you will concentrate on Him.

*C*enturies gone by, children have wondered why I was always in the past, always in a distance, and always My Name appeared last. It was The Creator’s Will and it was according to His Will I lived to be discovered at last. I am The One Whom men will better understand and Whom men will seek firsthand. A child has been chosen in My Name. A child walks for Divine Way, Plan, Will, Hope. This child is not as men suspect her to be, but neither was I nor will I be.

*T*he world is but a facet of Divine Plan. The children who walk upon it, but a facet of Divine Love. The Souls of these children are desired to come Above Where They originated, Where They know the Beauty of Real Love.

*C*hildren came to this Place today. Children will come to look upon My Face and to expect Me to understand, to reminisce, and to act. The burden has multiplied a billion times today. The burden is to give The Father’s Love every way. Men do not know the value to burden, the degree a burden can be, nor do men know the burden such as this can sometimes only make a child tragedy.

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

*S*incerity is but a facet of human life, but love for The Divine and Divine Love are more, for these things multiplied with a special Sword – the Sword of Love, the Sword of Hope, the Sword of Light, the Sword of Christianity.

*T*he Roman soldiers were not Christian. He was. The Star that shined in the sky, in the universe, was not Christian but a symbol of Christianity. So, once again the Star shines. And, for centuries men have always made it with five points instead of six, only because men felt it would show favoritism. The points of the Star, the direction of it, have long been in the Plan. So today, upon the earth, a child stands with the weight of it, the burden of it, the light of it, the hope of it, the degree of it, the magnitude of it, the purpose of it, and yes, the Divine Gift.

*B*less you and I say, ‘Today is more than an honorable day, but a day of great hope for the Holy Church that a Son gave to the world.’ Men will strike out at her and yet feel defeated. They will feel little in front of her and when this Great Place is completed, they will feel the need, the love, the hope and, in many ways, a Place of restoration for body and Soul. A Sacrifice, a Light, a Victim Soul – no man in the world could, in any way, say that this small child is positively wrong. She knows it but, in humility, only uses it to give strength to those who need it.

*Y*ou are blessed, and those who have participated in honoring Me have been blessed. I Myself blessed this piece of marble. Another Son blessed it, too. The Mother blessed it and The Creator blessed it. No matter how you feel about it, it must be cherished until the end of time. So be it.”

Revelation From
SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug

April 30, 1975 at 3:10 PM

The following Revelation was delivered the day Saint Joseph's statue was set at the Grotto.

My beloved children, All of Heaven stands watching over a piece of land, a parcel of the earth set aside for man. A gentleness rings and a Light shines for children who will come to this Place. The Light is to guide them to it for all time. The statue, of Whom I am, has been raised, placed and dedicated for the good of man. It is Miraculous to the world and has been given to children through a Miracle of Hope, Light and Love.

The Angels sang many songs on this day and the Choirs of Angels sang, in melody, many medleys in honor of this particular day. But a few men participated for many to partake in the future love, plans, for the Souls' sake. A Miracle has been given to the world bearing My Name, to honor Whom I am and the State of My Way. A small child was chosen to perpetuate Love, and as life reigns throughout this Hill, so does The Father's Hope from Above. As the Angels sing in celestial beauty, the earth rings with the Winds of Hope, Power and Love.

I have encircled you with the Winds of The Father's Power and you are in the cone of Divine Love. The human way, the natural means and the manner of natural existence is the true privilege of walking a path for Divine Existence. Eternity must be faced by all men, for all men, through the Gift of Grace. Grace is Reward. Also, Grace is Divine Love, giving strength, hope and means to Divine Place.

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

This child through whom I speak extends to the world God's Love, Our Heavenly Queen's Grace; the Beloved Son, with Whom I walked the earth, obedience, burden, suffering, and the Teaching to give mankind the stability and the way; My Part is The Father's Will, to extend to the whole world the protection and the strength, the obedience and the hope, the stability, for men to look to, follow, and to one day become a Saint.

Men of great places will have to see how this child truly stands for The Holy Trinity. She has oftentimes tried to find a hiding place, but We, Here in the Heavens, draw her into the open; else, how could men see God's Token, God's Chosen, God's Gift, God's Way, God's Love, God's Will, for men in your day? There is no partial path to Heaven. The path Here is paved, as men would say, with purity, hope, wisdom and love, seeking not only the Justice of Judgment but the Beauty in It.

*O*ftentimes, when the burden becomes too weighty, this child shouts to The Father, 'I am frightened of the weight, I fear the burden; I want to run away.' He says to her, 'Wait, and when the task is finished, My Will is done, I will give you an easy manner and way, but for now a great deal of love is expected, so you cannot go away.'

*W*hat is love, My children? Love can only be expressed with time, with service, in action expressing truth. There is a stability in pure love, and no man knows pure love unless he has tasted gall, untruth, hate, imperfection, unless of course, He is of The Father. Children have been created to desire love, to respect justice and to be motivated by challenge.

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

*S*et forth upon the earth, the greatest challenge since the time of Ours is the time of yours – a City of God, teaching all, of Him, His Way, His Will, has been given to all, most, a few. I am The Director, I am The Coordinator, I am The One through Whom this City of God will be built. The Father would never have allowed such a little child such a great task, so much responsibility, without Part of Himself constantly remaining to disclose, to coordinate, to accomplish His Will.

*B*less you through the Wind of His Power and in the Power of His Wind. Through this City of God, men will discover what a privilege it is to walk the earth. You and others have been blessed today in a manner and in a way that only Heaven can do, accomplish, for the Souls that will be gained through this Hill of Hope one day. So be it.”

Revelation From
SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

Delivered Through Frances Marie Klug
May 7, 1975 at 9:30 PM

The following Revelation was delivered on Dedication Day – the unveiling of the statue of Saint Joseph at His Grotto. The tape recorder was not turned on soon enough and the first part of the Revelation is missing.

“... and that through a child such as the one that speaks to you today I send the Blessings of The Holy Trinity and The Heavenly Queen your way. Be aware, My children, that on this day All of Heaven rejoiced with you in a special way. And, as you stood in line to receive The Divine, All of The Divine walked your way. So, as you felt, perhaps alone, know that the Guardian Angel stood with you, and there was also One standing at the Throne, for Michael stood, leading an Army of Angels over your heads, saying to God, ‘I will protect them for they are to march forward and give Your Word to the world.’ Remember, My children, that I, Saint Joseph, will be heard in this day. So be it.”

Hymns

O JOSEPH, MIGHTY PATRON

O Joseph, Mighty Patron,
Your Love and Strength bestow
Upon a pilgrim people
Who are the Church below.
You were the Father's Image,
Great Prince of David's line;
Obtain for us God's Blessing
That we may be His sign.

Great Saint, you cherished Mary,
Who loved and cared for You;
You taught and nurtured Jesus,
Oh teach us to be true,
True to the Church He founded,
Until we form above
A family united
In bonds of lasting love.

To gather Souls for our Father, and to walk with Him each day.

THE STORY OF THE STATUE

The story of our magnificent, nine-foot marble statue of Saint Joseph began more than 44 years ago in May of 1973, when Mother Frances traveled to Rome with a group of men and women representing Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope. At the request of Mother Frances, four men made a side trip to Carrara, Italy, about 200 miles north of Rome, to meet Mario Tavarelli and tour the Tavarelli Marble Company, a family-owned business dating back to the time of Michelangelo.

According to Mark Owen, he and the other men regarded the trip to Carrara as a fact-finding mission – an opportunity to develop a professional relationship with a potentially important supplier of marble for the City of God. They did not realize how soon the Tavarelli Marble Company would be commissioned to create a one-of-a-kind statue of Saint Joseph for the Hill of Hope, followed by statues of Saint John Vianney and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux.

After the Rome trip in 1973, Mother Frances asked an artist to create several black and white drawings of possible designs for the Saint Joseph statue. Victor Varisco Sr. remembers how Mother Frances carefully examined each drawing to determine which one was closest to the way she knew the statue should look. After selecting the best drawing, she requested adjustments to certain features. Mother Frances commented that the final, approved drawing was “as close as man could get” to the way Heaven wanted the statue of Saint Joseph to look, according to Mr. Varisco.

The drawing that Mother Frances approved for the Saint Joseph statue was sent to the Tavarelli Marble Company in Carrara. Based on the drawing, a small-scale model of the statue was created at the Tavarelli facility. The three-dimensional model, which stood about 24 inches high, was then shipped to Saint Joseph’s Hill of Hope for final approval, which was required to proceed with the project of carving the full-sized statue.

Mr. Varisco and Rebecca Espinosa both recall how Mother Frances would study the small statue model and comment on it. Mrs. Espinosa says that Mother Frances was quite pleased with the prototype and requested only a few minor modifications. The long-distance communications between Mother Frances in Brea and the Tavarelli Marble Company in Carrara involved telephone calls and telegrams, some of which are preserved in the Archive on Saint Joseph’s Hill of Hope.

CARVING AND SHIPPING THE STATUE

The statue model was shipped back to the Tavarelli facility and approval was given to proceed with the process of carving the full-sized likeness of Saint Joseph. The Tavarelli quarry workers selected appropriate sized blocks of premium grade Statuario marble for both the nine-foot statue and its three-foot base. See About Carrara Marble on page 57.

The master stone carvers in Carrara employed tools and techniques that date back to the Middle Ages. The small prototype approved by Mother Frances was essential throughout the meticulous process of carving the full-sized statue. Using a special sculptor's calipers, the stone carvers took precise measurements from the small prototype and transferred them to a much larger block of marble to create the nine-foot statue.

Years later at a meeting of The Society of Saint John Vianney, Mother Frances described Mario Tavarelli's reaction as the sculptors were completing the statue of Saint Joseph: "... Mario Tavarelli, the representative in Carrara, looked up at the statue, and he said, 'Oh my God, put a smile on his face, she'll refuse him.' So they put a little dip in his face, and that's how you see the smile."

When the nine-foot statue of Saint Joseph was completed, it weighed more than two tons. The finished statue and its three-foot base were carefully crated and moved by truck from Carrara to the Port at Livorno on the western coast of Italy. The English name for the Port of Livorno, Leghorn, appears on the shipping manifest.

Shipping route used to transport the marble statue of Saint Joseph 8,000 miles from Italy to Southern California.

Continued

The precious cargo was loaded onto the freighter SS Da Verrazano on March 22, 1975, and shipped 8000 miles through the Mediterranean Sea, across the Atlantic Ocean to the Caribbean Sea, through the Panama Canal and up the Pacific coast. Thirty-two days later on April 23, 1975, the statue arrived in the Port of Los Angeles in San Pedro.

The two large crates containing the statue and its base were transported by truck from San Pedro to Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope in Brea. A police escort was arranged for the truck carrying the statue of Saint Joseph, which was followed by a 73-car procession of enthusiastic Hill of Hope volunteers. While the motorcade was in progress, an airplane towing a Welcome banner could be seen flying overhead.

Within two weeks, the statue of Saint Joseph was installed at the Grotto and a formal Dedication Ceremony was held on May 7, 1975. The entire process from design and carving through shipping, delivery and installation, took nearly two years.

ABOUT CARRARA MARBLE

The nine-foot statue of Saint Joseph on Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope was carved from Statuario grade white marble from the renowned quarries near Carrara, Italy. Statuario, the finest and purest grade of white Carrara marble, has very little, if any, veining or discoloration. The statues of Saint John Vianney and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux that currently stand alongside Saint Joseph are also carved from Statuario grade Carrara marble.

Carrara marble comes from quarries in the Italian Apuan Alps, a mountain range in the region of Tuscany, some 200 miles north of Rome. Entire sections of the Apuan Alps consist of solid formations of white Carrara marble.

Although Carrara marble is known to be brilliant white, many grades and shades of Carrara marble exist. In addition to the premium grade Statuario white marble, some grades are medium to dark gray due to mineral deposits, while others contain a network of light gray veining that is visible throughout the marble.

Carrara marble has been a prized source of building and sculpting material since the time of ancient Rome. Some of the great statuary treasures created during the Italian Renaissance, including Michelangelo's David and his Pietà, were carved from Statuario grade marble from Carrara. Ancient Roman structures such as the Pantheon and Trajan's Column also feature Carrara marble. To this day, nearly a million tons of Carrara marble are quarried annually, and it remains the most sought-after marble in the world.

A police escort was arranged for the truck that transported the Saint Joseph statue from San Pedro to Brea on April 23, 1975. The 73-car motorcade carrying Hill of Hope volunteers extended for 2 miles behind the truck.

The truck transporting the crated statue of Saint Joseph arrives at the entrance to Saint Joseph's Hill of Hope.

When the shipping crate was opened on April 23, 1975, volunteers gathered with Mother Frances for a much anticipated first glimpse of the magnificent statue.

This photo, which shows the intricate details in the facial features and the staff of lilies, was taken before the statue of Saint Joseph was removed from the shipping crate.

The nine-foot statue was formally unveiled during the Dedication Ceremony held at Saint Joseph's Grotto on May 7, 1975.

On the day of the Dedication Ceremony, Holy Mass was celebrated at the Grotto.

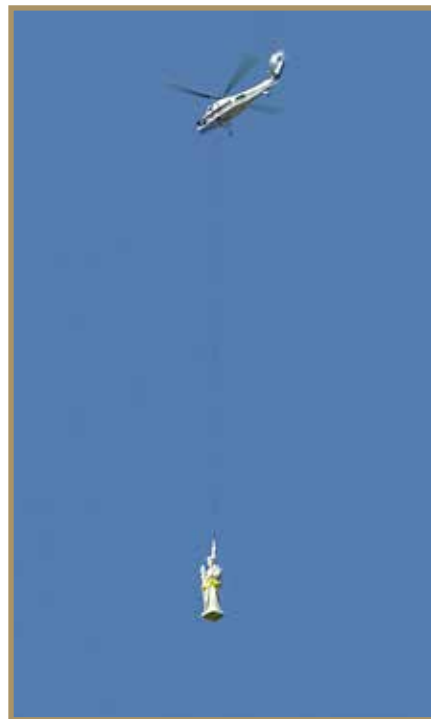

This evening photo was taken at the Grotto a few hours after the Mass and Dedication Ceremony ended. Volunteers arranged the flags, candles and greenery around the statue of Saint Joseph.

Flower bouquets were placed before the statue in honor of the Tenth Anniversary of The Miracle of Saint Joseph in 1977.

In April of 2000, as requested by Mother Frances, the Saint Joseph statue was transported by helicopter to Basilica Hill. Above: A special harness and cable were attached to the statue prior to the airlift. Right: A view from the ground while the airlift operation was in progress.

Mother Frances stood before the statue of Saint Joseph after the airlift operation was completed. A special shrine was built to house the statue, which remained on Basilica Hill for 17 years. Recently, the statue was meticulously cleaned, restored and moved to Vianney Hall. The new location offers better access to volunteers and improves the ability to maintain the statue on a year-round basis.
