GOD'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

“You live in a Special Time. You live in a time that The Father is constantly speaking, because of the evil influence that is prevalent throughout the world.

The other Special Time, in comparison to This Time, was when He gave Moses The Rules that He wanted all of mankind to follow for all time.

Granted, through translations there were some definitions that were not interpreted in the Exactness that The Father spoke, but in the results of many translations and interpretations, The Ten you are aware of, when dealt with Their complete meaning, covers the sound values and sound standards that are understandable in many facets of daily living.

We have expounded on These in several ways; that is, in terms that mankind can relate to, as a means and a manner that every human being can easily recognize and associate with all walks of life. We have shown that even though a conciseness has been given to God's Rules, there are all portions of life included in the Words.

Blessings are generously handed and bestowed when mankind values and obeys the Truths, Directions, Instructions and Full Meaning regarding These Rules. So be it.”

INTRODUCTION

This booklet contains beautiful Revelations and Prayers given through The Miracle of Saint Joseph, including two Teachings about the importance of God's Ten Commandments. When God delivered The Ten Commandments to Moses, He intended for His Rules to be followed for all time.

God's Rules will never become outdated, and we must use Them as our daily Guide. Strengthened by the Graces of the Sacrament of Confirmation and the wisdom of The Ten Commandments, we can overcome the temptations of evil and live each day according to God's Will.

THE MIRACLE OF SAINT JOSEPH

God loves us so much that He sent The Miracle of Saint Joseph to the world to help us understand how to become a Saint and live with Him forever in Heaven.

Continued

In this Miracle, God chose a special woman, Frances Marie Klug, to deliver His Messages and Lessons to the world. Our Lord, Our Heavenly Mother, Saint Joseph, the Holy Angels and the Saints also delivered Messages through The Miracle of Saint Joseph, so that people everywhere could learn how to get to Heaven. The Messages and Lessons from Heaven are called Revelations or Teachings.

Frances Marie Klug was God's True Mystic. She always followed His Will and accepted the great responsibility of delivering His Divine Words of Hope and Love to everyone. Frances Klug loved God and worked every day to help teach people of all ages about their Souls and the importance of Sainthood.

Many more Revelations and Teachings about The Ten Commandments and other subjects were given through The Miracle of Saint Joseph, and they are available on The Miracle of Saint Joseph website at www.TheMiracleOfSaintJoseph.org.

“Positively The Way”

I. I Am The Lord Thy God; Thou Shalt Not Have strange gods Before Me.

“I must never put anything, anyone, above God.

I must never put anything before Him, in my thoughts, in my words, in my actions.

I must never allow myself to omit Him from my life.

I must never forget that He is my Creator, and ultimately the Judge of my salvation.”

II. Thou Shalt Not Take The Name Of The Lord Thy God In Vain.

“I must never use foul language in God's direction.

I must refrain from using impure words connected to His Name or with an emphasis on Him, whether it be in jest, in anger, in mere conversation.

His Name must never be tarnished by me in any of my thoughts, in any of my words, or in any of my actions, for I must never forget my actions speak, and are example to other men.”

Continued

III. Remember Thou Keep Holy The Sabbath Day.

“I must always remember a given time, an amount of time, must be dedicated in my honoring God, my Creator, my King.

I must return to Him in prayer, dedication, thanksgiving, communication, and love, the respect of observing Who He truly Is; who I am, His child.”

IV. Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother.

“I must remember to honor God openly and privately, as He is my Father, my Creator, my Judge.

I must respect and hold Him in a special place where others can imitate my feelings, my actions, my understanding of Him. I must be sure I reflect dignity, sincerity and respect for my earthly parents, plus all who are senior to me in authority and in stations of life that give sound order to my life.”

Continued

V. Thou Shalt Not Kill.

“I must remember to reach for purity so I will not kill my Soul and have It condemned to Hell for all eternity.

I must also remember to be aware that my actions, my works, my attitude, my personality, my words, my will, do not kill any part of another human being, whether it be their enthusiasm, interest, talents, direction, hope; also, their image in the eyes of other people.”

VI. Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery.

“I must never use my body or anyone else’s body in any form of impure actions or words.

I must hold God’s Purpose in mind in all my relationships with other human beings and never abuse intimacy, relationship, or the Purpose for which God created me.”

JANUARY 2, 1980

Continued

VII. Thou Shalt Not Steal.

“I must never steal from God through jealousy, impurity, possessiveness, another human being’s love for Him, desire to please Him, dedication, or commitment to Him.

I must never take from any other human being their right to use their own will in the manner they feel is just for them.

I must never steal possessions or misuse others’ belongings.

I must never be offensive or impure to other human beings, stealing their dignity, or well-being.”

VIII. Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness Against Thy Neighbor.

“I must never lie about another human being, gossip, or degrade them.

I must never intimidate them in false, untrue, disgraceful situations.

I must never judge another human being, causing disgrace or harm.”

JANUARY 2, 1980

Continued

IX. Thou Shalt Not Covet Thy Neighbor's Wife.

“I must never encourage or partake in the wrong relationship with the husband or wife of any other human being.

I must never encourage intimacy or familiarity that will lead to sin, whether it be in the mind, in the intention, in the words, in the suggestion, or in the possessing of the whole of the person, in mind, in relationship, and in personal involvement.”

X. Thou Shalt Not Covet Thy Neighbor's Goods.

“I must never use, then keep another human being's possessions.

I must never abuse another person's possessions.

I must never take for granted that I have the right to own what belongs to someone else.

I must never omit the respect necessary for what another man has earned for himself. It is not my concern as to what determines his amount of possessions, saying to myself, ‘He'll never miss this,’ or giving way to some weak excuse, justifying a wrongdoing, or taking.”

Through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph,
God Is Once Again Coming To The World,
Teaching The Rules Men Are To Live By
And The Heresies Undermining
These Commandments

Men do not fully understand the great preparation that the beloved Moses had to endure, to withstand, to absorb all of the true meaning of each Commandment God wanted man to have. The wisdom that was instilled in Moses so he could teach what each Commandment would take to be fulfilled, took many more days of time than men have translated it to be. God did not just strike given Words without deliberating upon Them and without giving full definition of what They would mean. Each Commandment, when it was delivered, had a power in it, God-given, else it could never have remained in such a solid state for all the years. It would have been cast aside and then forgotten, as so many Great Biblical Stories have been.

Moses was so filled with the wisdom, and the strength that wisdom bears with it, that the Teaching he was able to extend was so profound, and yet simple, else man would never have been able to comprehend. To relay to the world all the wisdom that Moses was instilled with would take volumes of writings. God, knowing the impatience of man and how little time man wants to deliberate on such Truths, has allowed These Commandments to come down through time with great strength but concise definition.

If men were to look into a mirror and see how their life would reflect their obedience to these Great Ten Commandments, most men would flee from the sight of themselves. In your day, The Father of all mankind is handing not a mirror, but a picture of the Ten Commandments in a form easily understood, and yet with the impact of solid teaching; and along with this, the heresies men involve themselves with, causing great sins against These Commandments.”

I. I Am The Lord Thy God; Thou Shalt Not
Have strange gods Before Me.

“*I*dolizing material images to the point they are held in superstition, and as men would suspect, suppose, determine the ‘Creator of All Things’ would be like; such as idols of human form or animal likeness also.

*E*liminating the Mystery of a Divine Being that no man can touch, see or feel. Replacing this Mystery with physical means and emphasis put on knowledge and man’s own senses.

*I*nterpreting God to fit a manner, mood and way, making Him humanly understandable rather than Divine.”

II. Thou Shalt Not Take The Name Of The Lord Thy God In Vain.

“Men use blasphemy to stress their point of action, thoughts and desires. They abuse the Name of God by connecting Him in a damned way or in an arrogant, sarcastic, facetious manner. Men very often swear against God to impress another man with their false strength. Men abuse the Name of God to eliminate having to face in a dignified way, truth. Also, when a man is suspicious of his own lack of integrity, stability, masculinity, he abuses God, for the cowardice within himself tells him he will not be struck down immediately.”

*Cursing — Blasphemy — Satanism — Pride
Lack of Self-discipline
Abusive discrediting to another man*

III. Remember Thou Keep Holy The Sabbath Day.

“In order to truly honor God and to be aware of Him, it was necessary to tell man that a given time had to be set aside frequently to do this. God, in delivering this Commandment, announced to Moses, ‘Without this Rule men would not be able to hold up as a goal, the other nine.’ God meant this time to be union with Him in a special manner, perhaps with a small sacrifice attached to complete this union.

God, at a later time, gave man incentive to spend more time with Him. Through His Son He gave to the world a specific Church and that beautiful Sacrament, The Holy Eucharist, Which is without doubt a Part of Him. It was God Himself Who completed the final need for man to be able to obey and love this Great Commandment.”

Not attending Holy Mass on the days set down to fulfill this obligation to God.

The discipline of a specific day and time is necessary because of man's need for such discipline.

IV. Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother.

“This Commandment was set down for men to better understand that honor, love, respect, dignity, had to be for The Father Himself, Our Heavenly Mother, and then the earthly parents from which all men would come. This Rule would automatically stabilize man’s thinking, and permit man to rationalize the order of things. When a man upholds this Commandment, he is just with his neighbor and is aware of the need that respect brings. A solid foundation helps men to be able to withstand weakness and conquer it when needed.”

Disobedience — Disrespect — Neglect Impatience — Abuse

V. Thou Shalt Not Kill.

“Moses was taught that men were living in such unruly ways, lacking self-discipline, and all men were to be told that to kill was against God, for do not forget, God is The Creator and The Judge. Men do not have the right to kill another human being, whether it be to take his life, his will, his dignity, his skill, his mind, his hope, his trust, his integrity. Men can be depleted of physical energy, emotional control and Spiritual strength by another man’s lack of self-discipline, emotional instability, greed, hate, lust, anger, lack of charity.

To kill is to rob man of the great privilege reserved for God alone. Only God has the right to judge when the physical must end.”

Moral Standards — Spirit — Mind*

VI. Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery.

“This Commandment is to allow men to better understand that wrong use of bodily communication with other men has a definite disgrace in God’s Plan. Promiscuous involvement to satisfy only the senses has many areas wherein men sin against their role in God’s Plan. This Commandment definitely says that homosexuality, lesbianism, abortion, pornography, and all promiscuous endeavors of man, have a permissiveness that is against the reason for creating mankind.

God said to Moses: ‘Men will have many excuses and will justify their sins against this Commandment. Also, men will deliberately attach only specific sins on this Commandment, for shame will make them call this The Hidden Commandment.’”

Impurity — attack through the senses, lack of self-discipline, permissiveness, self-love.

Promiscuity — encouraging men to act without dignity, degrading the purpose of human intimate relationship.

*Self-abuse — physically, mentally, emotionally.
Mental abuse causes grave sins, sometimes grave intention for sin, permitting the intellect to become so permeated with sinful thoughts that men sin consistently and it weakens them in every way.*

VII. Thou Shalt Not Steal.

“To steal means, to most men, to take a material thing that belongs to another. In reality, there are many facets to stealing. First, many men steal the dignity and respect that The Holy Trinity must have, that The Beloved Heavenly Queen must have, and that all men must have for the Church of My Choice.

Men belittle the act of stealing, calling it instinct. In reality, men must know that to take anything they do not come by justly, is against My Will. They must be aware that to steal drains them of purity. Tell them, Moses, no man will steal Heaven, for I will stand in Judgment and no man will be allowed Here until reparation is made, whether the stealing be of material things, any part of man, or the manner in which men walk.”

Material Wealth — Patience — Talents

VIII. Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness Against Thy Neighbor.

“All men must be aware that to gossip or to darken another man’s name or way will most certainly be accountable to Me. Each man is accountable for himself and will have to stand solely alone on the merits he earned walking the human role. Men who sin against this Rule will most likely sin against several of the others, for to bear false witness says ego, pride, jealousy, contempt, and a lack of self-discipline.”

Gossip — Slander — Lying
Defamation of Character — Hating

IX. Thou Shalt Not Covet
Thy Neighbor's Wife.

“To covet, whether it be by grave intention or full action, what belongs in the procreative plan, will be answerable in more depth than men will want to believe. What men do to restrict, corrupt or eliminate the beauty I have planned for man and woman in the role of the physical life, must be held accountable to Me, for I have made man to My Image and Likeness, and all things must remain in the beauty I have designed and in the Plan I had in mind. No man must allow his thinking or lack of self-discipline to cause weakness in himself or another who belongs to another. No woman is permitted to intrude or invite such a sin against Me.”

Adultery — Temptation through thought, word and deed.

X. Thou Shalt Not Covet Thy Neighbor's Goods.

“This Rule applies first to all I have created, for I Am The Lord Of All Things.

When men better understand that they must earn the profits, whether they be material in a large way or small, they will better understand the justice in this Rule. There are many areas men will abuse in this Commandment. Men will frivolously borrow many things from other men and never account for them. Time is one of them. Time taking, without reason, good purpose, can stop another man's progress, profits and gain. Men must not judge another man's reasoning, but must take care first of their own needs and concentrate on their own Souls, for a man who has been sinned against is sometimes weakened and it creates within him the desire to retaliate, causing a graver sin through weakness.”

Stealing — Time, Talents, Material Wealth

Usury — Through subterfuge — denying a man his rightful property, position and acclaim.

“CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY”

“The seven candles on each table represent, in each one’s life, the Seven Sacraments. These Sacraments are not just times of ceremony and celebration, but each one has a special purpose to it.¹”

BAPTISM

The Candle of Baptism. We light the first candle to remind us that the special Gift of Baptism carries in it the Gift of purification. This Gift of Love from God offers the Light to all the other Sacraments.

PENANCE

The Candle of Penance. The second light is called the Sacrament of Penance. This light reminds us of the need for sorrow for our sins against God. It emphasizes the necessity to ask for forgiveness and to take the time to look at the harm we are doing to our Soul through our offenses against God’s Commandments. The Sacrament of Penance is a tremendous, constant reminder that we must reach for purity, so we may live with God for All Eternity.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Candle of Holy Communion. The third light unfolds the never-to-be-forgotten Sacrifice of Divine Love, to leave with us forever, not just a symbol of God, but the ultimate privilege of bringing Him into our whole being — through Holy Communion with Him.

CONFIRMATION

The Candle of Confirmation. The fourth light makes us look at the Sacrament of Confirmation with the strength of a warrior, a warrior against the temptations of evil; and instills in us the Grace to fight for what is right, what is needed to become a responsible human being to carry on in all phases of life with the alert action of a true warrior for God.

MATRIMONY

The Candle of Matrimony. The Sacrament of Matrimony shines as a light of much meaning. It leaves no room for question in the agreement of a man and a woman to be united for the purpose God intended. This Sacrament has the responsibility for all the other Sacraments. This Sacrament surrounds marriage with dignity and importance; plus, stresses the responsibilities of partaking in marriage as a Sacrament to be respected, and lived with God's Purpose in mind for it.

HOLY ORDERS

The Candle of Holy Orders. Holy Orders is a Sacrament of dedication and commitment to serving God through the priesthood. This Sacrament is the dispenser of all other Sacraments. It is unique in its way and purpose.

EXTREME UNCTION

The Candle of Extreme Unction, the Blessing of the Sick. In the shadow of grave illness, the comfort of this Sacrament is a strength beyond human reasoning. It is a final Gift of preparation, should we be facing God in a short time. It is strengthening, Grace-giving, and assuring to know we have this Special Blessing to rely upon in times of great need.”

“A PRAYER TO MY SOUL”

“Dear Soul that God has given to me, to live with me, and to abide within me from the moment of my conception until the moment that God decides to take me.

There are so many times I forget about You in my selfish moods and/or in my human weaknesses, and I ask You now to help me remember the responsibility I have for You, to return You to God one day forever.

I cannot see You, I cannot feel You, but God's Love for me helps me to know that You exist within me. I have no doubt, because many times when I feel I want to be close to God, I want to change my weaknesses into strengths, it seems innate in me to know I have a Soul that will help me.

Pray on this night that You will never despair because of my actions in human life, and I ask You tonight to never feel that Sainthood for You is hopeless, for I promise You tonight I will strive to correct my ways, my errors, and return You to God as He Wills it to be, a Saint Who will bear my name for All Eternity.”
